The three mast schooner, May and Anna Beswick is being repaired at the adow's shipyard.

The first scuppernong grapes of the season were in market yesterday. The ity was very nice and sold readily or eight cents a quart.

There was a fairly good break yesterterday at the tobacco warehouse, the grade was better and prices were looking up.

The schooners Margaret and F Moore, Captain Larkie, and Levin J Marve Captain Wright arrived from Baltimore, yesterday. The Schooner Ida G Farren, Captain Davis, salled for Darien, Ga. yesterday.

Mr W E Ipock, of Perfection killed a anake in his yard yesterday which was one of the largest serpents killed in that section for some time. It measured about seven feet long and had ten rattles and a button.

The Atlantic, a gasoline boat of nine tons, Capt. Thos. Hamilton of Atlantic, N C was in port yesterday loading with general merchandise. This is his second visit here, but hereafter will make weekly trips. It is a very handsome boat.

The backbone of the hot spell was broken yesterday and everybody was glad, Until three o'clock the weather was sultry and uncomfortable when the air became cooler on account of a thunder storm. The mercury stood at 90 degrees.

A colored woman, the wife of William Elliott, who lives in James City, was struck by lightning yesterday afternoon and for a while it was thought she was dead, but later on she revived and although badly burned on the face and side, she will recover. The woman was about fifty years old.

A late city ordinance was interpreted to require hack drivers to be not less than eighteen years of age, which was considered to be a good regulation, but the law seems to have died a natural death. Boys of much younger age are seen driving hacks and no notice is taken of it.

The coffee urn adventured by the Broad street grocer, J L McDaniel to be given to the church who received the largest number of yotes of the white star coffee coupons, has been awarded to the Centenary M E church, who received 1385 points.

The Water and Light Commission have purchased a larger engine and another dynamo for the electric light and water works plant. It is probable after the new machinery has been pirced that a day current will be put in service.

late W. C. Fields, B. N. Fields is one the persons convicted in the year 1895 as being implicated in setting various fires in Kinston that year. Fields along with two other white men and one negro were banished from the State, and on leaving, the former made a deed of trust of his property to his brother W. C. Fields, and since it is said that a deed of conveyance was made to the tion. trustee, the consideration being based on the original valuation of the property. The suit it seems, will bato recover the difference in valuation which is claimed to be considerable on account of the sudden and rapid growth of Kinston.

A Derelict Stranded

An old disg or some kind of "contrapsion" used as a retall loe wagon, was heavily londed with a block of ice at the actory yesterday.

The driver with a great flourish of whip over the "bag of bones," called by respect a horse started off the progress. A few yards, and the "craft" parted company; the impoverished beast reeled forward, the rear part of the wooden construction rolled backward, the driver stood on the end that nature did not intend for him to stand on, and the block of ice stood by him. The wreck, to except the ice and the animated part of it, stood there all day yesterday in the way of vehicles passing and would no doubt stay there until the city has it removed.

Fire Box Needed

The need of a fire alarm box at the Λ N C station becomes more apparent on the occasion of every fire in that neighborhood.

Many of the houses around there are nere fire traps and alarms are frequent. Yet to send in an alarm the sender must chase all the way to the ice factory.

On one occasion it is said that in the a, a man who discovered a fir near the depot actually started to run for the fire department quarters, and was stopped by some one at the corner of Johnson and Craven etreets, who sent the alarm in from that corner. No one cated on Pollock street in front of Christ had thought in the meantime to go to the box at the ice factory. The putting up of a box is not very expensive, it is needed, and the people around the depot want it, and they should have it.

Reports are heard every little while of dogs attacking children. None have been serious but they are not pleasant affairs at all. Snapping and biting curs are quite numerous in the city, they are a nuisance. Any dog that attempts to fight or annoy a child should not be allowed on the street.

During these hot nights nothing would be more enjoyable than a ride on the river. It would be as fine a social affair as could be arranged. Why would it not be a good scheme to organize a party and have a few rides on the river either in sail bost or steamer? We can have it with or without the moon just as we choose.

Putting down curbing means better side walks, and no doubt other citizens will feel pride enough for the looks of their premises, to follow the example of hose mentioned. It is not out of the range of possibili-
