NUMBER 47.

NERVES GAVE WAY—PE-RU-NA CURED

Mrs. X. Schneider, 2409 Thirtieth Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes: 'After taking several remedies without result, I began in January, 1902, to take your valuable remedy, Peru-NA. I was a complete wreck. Had palpitation of the heart, cold hands and feet, female weakness, no appetite, trembling, sinking feeling nearly all the time. You said I was suffering with systemic catarrh, and I believe that I received your help in the nick of time. I followed your directions carefully and can say to-day that I am well again. I cannot thank you enough for my cure. I will always be your debtor. I have already recommended Peru-NA to my friends and neighbors and they all praise it. I wish that all suffering women would try it. I testify this according to the truth.'—Mrs. X. Schneider.

The Wise Fox. The Lion, the Ass and the Fox went hunting together, and it was agreed that whatever was taken should be shared between them. They caught a large fat Stag, which the Lion ordered the Ass to divide. The Ass took a deal of pains to divide the Stag into three pieces, which should be as nearly equal as possible.

A. & N. C. Betterments Equal Dividends.

F. A. Olds, in Charlotte Observer. Speaking about the Atlantic & North Carolina Railway, one of the largest stockholders declared that no president he thought had done so much for it as Washington Bryan, who was appointed by Governor Seale. Bryan recalled the entire road, substituting steel rail for the old iron. There was some debt at that time, but Bryan consolidated this with the debt for the rail and got all at a 5 per cent interest rate.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mr. Lionel Giles of Jacksonville is in the city. Mr. Ralph Davenport is spending the week in Greensboro. Mrs. W. B. Hanff is visiting friends and relatives in Winston. Mr. John Bowden returned yesterday from Feven Springs. Mr. J. W. Timberlake went to O. lental on business last night.

LAUGHTER AS A MORAL POWER.

Is laughter immoral? That is a very important objection urged against comedy from generation to generation. It is not only not immoral, but it is the preservation of morals to cultivate by using a faculty for all sorts of laughter. It is the hallucination of prevalent evil which drives men to despair. Now, evil always seems to be prevalent when you scrutinize it, for scrutiny involves confined attention to what lies immediately under the lens in the focused light.

DOCTORS' BLUNDERS.

What Legal Methods Applied to Medical Practices Would Uncover. 'Now that I am through with medicine I can speak of the profession in a fashion that I would not if I was still in the practice,' said a gentleman who has been known as a successful physician in New York for years as he sat at luncheon in the Lawyers' club.

FACTS IN FEW LINES

Suicide is rare among the aged. The Parisians ate 22,000 horses last year. The United States has ten battle ships built and ten building. The house of representatives costs $3,000,000 a year and the senate $1,400,000. Fish are sold alive in Japan, the peddlers conveying them through the streets in tanks. A John Ruskin club has been formed in Vienna for the purpose of studying English literature. The Astor family in New York has bought land in Mexico for the largest cattle ranch in the world.
