

Like a Comet

This famous remedy does for the stomach what which it is unable to do for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

Kodol

supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glandular membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

AN APACHE PRINCESS.

A New Book By The Soldier Author, Capt Charles King.

Western life never ceases to lose its attractiveness no matter how wild or woolly the stories may be that are inspired by the supreme strangeness of that section of the country. Military life in that section has been so eventful in past years that romances seem to be as much a part of the soldiers' careers as drill and dress parades were.

The celebrated soldier-author, Capt. Charles King, U. S. A. has written several stirring romances and has struck a popular vein. His stories are always in demand for their style is charming and his plot exciting. There is always an activity about his writings that are suggestive of two things—war and love.

The latest of Capt. King's stories is "An Apache Princess." The scene is laid in Arizona and the time is in the seventies. It is a study of human nature as well as of the Apache and the lines of the hero and his might as well call him the anti-hero, are well drawn.

Lt. Nell Blakely who is in love with the daughter of Captain Wren finds it hard to make friends with the captain. Blakely is characterized as a "Carpet Knight" and "Fancy Duty Officer" but he ignores the petty insults as become him and attends strictly to his duties. His attractions to Angela are handicapped in one way and another but the lovers grow more attached to each other in spite of the barriers, arising out of the father's opposition and the rivalry of Blakely's former sweetheart who had jilted him and married Major Plume.

It is a story of deep intrigue and startling situations. In one of the outstanding scenes, the Apache tribe of Indians are captured by the Apache of Nazale, the "Apache Princess" and through her means is restored to Blakely. Nazale is the central figure of the story and develops a strong and beautiful character.

The book will be on the market the latter part of this month and undoubtedly will be one of the most popular books of the season.

HERE'S A BABY

ITS MOTHER IS WELL.

The baby is healthy because during gestation its mother ate the purely vegetable diet.

Mother's Friend

Mother's Friend is a soothing, softening, relaxing oil, a muscle maker, invigorant and flesh-giver. It puts new power into your back and limbs. A cooling mother rubs it in from the outside, with her own pretty fingers, during the swelling of many days—no medicine treatment at all.

The state of the mother during gestation may influence the disposition and what she does the child that is why mothers should watch their condition and use Mother's Friend. Her health, that of the child and the baby's, is kept from trouble, worry and anxiety. It makes you so. Hearing down pain, morning sickness, dizziness of head, and insomnia are all relieved and distributed by this wonderful remedy. It is sold by two major parts of success. Of druggists $1.00.

ATLANTA, GA.

Harlowe and North Harlowe.

Sept. 6.—Mrs. H. R. Willford and child, and Mrs. Franklin and her little ones all took passage on Mr. Barber's "Sapho" boat for Swanboro, from where they have gone to Stella to visit their sister Mrs. C. W. Pelletier.

Mr. W. P. Taylor went to Newport Saturday and returned Sunday bringing with him his daughter Miss Nante, who has been spending the week with relatives near that city.

The lawn party given by some of the young people at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Bell last Friday night was pretty well attended. A beautiful moon-light night, plenty of refreshments and some of the most loving couples that ever met together.

Mrs. Hannah Bell is spending the week with her daughter Mrs. W. J. Hales at Morehead.

Miss Pearl Taylor who has been making an extensive visit to relatives at New Bern and Riverdale, came home last Saturday.

Miss Mamie Bell of New Bern is visiting her sister Mrs. J. G. Taylor.

Messrs. Windley and Barber of Swanboro who stopped over to the lawn party Friday night added much to the enjoyment of the party with the elegant music which they rendered on their guitar and mandolin.

Miss Lalla Hanes of Morehead City is stopping with her cousin Miss Boyd Mason.

Mr. Thomas Duncan of Beaufort came up Monday bringing five of his children with him. He was here to perfect arrangements for the continuation of his telephone line through our piece to Blades.

Mr. Koonce spent Sunday at Pollockville with his family, where he expects to move them soon.

Mr. Jas. H. Bell says he will forward your subscription to the New Bern Journal.

Quite a number of our merchants: Messrs. Jno. S. Morton, E. D. Baugert, and Jas. R. Bell are in New Bern today replenishing their stock of merchandise.

September 8.

The forty days rain held up about a week ago, since which time we have had fine days for work and pleasant nights for sleep.

Cotton is opening fast, and picking will be commenced this week. G. L. Harlowe is making preparations at his place to do a big lot of work in the halting of cotton this season.

Our Free Will Baptist Brother, John Sewell is conducting a protracted meeting near Orofan this week. He is assisted by Rev. Mr. Avery.

"Little Primrose" Fisher at Riverdale, fell from a chair last Friday, and broke his arm. He is getting along alright and will soon be as whole as ever.

Mr. Timothy McGowan of Lake Comfort Hyde county was a visitor here last Thursday on his way to enter the University at Chapel Hill.

Misses Carrie Hardison and Maggie Fisher are at Havelock visiting Miss Marie Buys.

Miss Madie Dennis returned to New Bern Saturday from a few days visit to her sister here.

Miss Bertha Haskett left Saturday morning for Jasper to visit friends.

Mr. Jno. C. McGowan, one of Thurman's most popular young men, has broken ground for a fine new residence, and work will soon be begun, and judging from the way people talk, his residence will be pushed to the finish, and as soon as completed will be adorned by a Home Comfort Range, and a bride.

Some wonder who it will be. Others say, one from near the sea. Only John and the girl can tell, and he who doeth all things well.

Masters Clyde, Guy and Henry Hardison are our chief sportsmen. They have been squirrel hunting for about a week and so far we have seen four squirrels as a result of their fine marksmanship. When they over-supply us we will remember the Editor of the Journal. (Thanks, hurry them up.)

Our fishermen, William H. Smith and G. L. Hardison took a day off at Havelock and fishing last Thursday, fished for several hours and Mr. Smith caught one croaker and had one more blible. Hope they will have better luck next time.

Aunt Sarah.

This candidate was ushered into the mysteries of Pythianism last night.

Mr. L. J. Moore and son Lon have formed a law partnership and will commence practice soon.

A Purgative Pleasure.

If you ever took Dr. Williams' Little Early Biscuits for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure it is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not grip, sicken or weaken. They give tone and strength to the system and argue themselves. W. B. Howell of Houston, Tex. says: "No better pill can be used than Little Early Biscuits for constipation, such headaches, etc." Sold by F. S. Duffy.
