FACTS FROM FRANCE.

Automobile building gives employment to 20,000 persons in France. Juvenile crime in France has de creased by 80 per cent among boys and 42 per cent among girls since 1881. Flower growers in the south of France and other favored climes find it profitable to send the products of their skill to British markets.

"It is my talisman," said one of a gang arrested for robbing a clerk of $5,000 in Paris when the scale of a fish was found in his pocket.

Paris' Elffel tower will stand for only a few years longer. A commission appointed to decide on the uses to which the Champ de Mars shall be put sore equal and relieving centre, of all has ordered that the tower be torn down at the end of the concess which expires in 1910.

A publisher once gave the following: Woman, the fairest work in all creation. The edition is large, and no man should be without a copy."

Expressed at Banquets.

This is fairly seconded by a youth who, giving his distant sweetheart. said, "Delectable dear, so sweet that honey would blush in her presence and reacle stand appalled." Further, in regard to the fair sex, we have: "Woman, she needs no eulogy; she speaks for herself." "Woman, the bitter half of man." In regard to matrimony some bachelor once gave, "Marriage, the «gate through which the happy lover leaves his enchanted ground and returns to earth." At the marriage of a deaf and dumb couple some wit wished them "unspeakable bliss."

At a supper given to a writer of comedies a wag said: "The writer's very good health. May he live to be as old as his jokes." From a law critic: "The bench and the bar. If it were not for the bar there would be little use for the bench." A celebrated statesman, while dining with a duchess on her eightieth birthday, in proposing her health said:

"May you live, my lady duchess, until you begin to grow ugly." "I thank you, sir," she said, "and may you long continue your taste for antiquities."-London Tit-Bits.
