News From the "North Side."

December, 28th.
Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather of the past week, Christmas on the "North Side" has gone along fairly well. Christmas trees have been quite a common sight.

One at Forest school house, Wednesday night which was well attended and so many presents it required two trees.

There was a Christmas tree at Macedonia, Thursday night, also at Guilana, and a good time was reported from each.

Mr and Mrs Henry Winfield and little daughter Mary, Mr and Mrs Harvey Springle and daughter Kathleen, and Mr Oebas Gaskins, all of New Bern, spent Christmas with Mr and Mrs Alfred Gaskins.

Mr and Mrs Chaney of Raleigh, are spending some time with their son Mr Tom Chaney of this place.

Mr W T Price, who is teaching at River-side, returned home last week to spend Christmas with his parents, accompanied by Mr Oell W. Herington of Honolulu, who both returned home last Sunday, much to the regret of "old mads" of this place.

Messrs Claude, Gene and Leon Whitford, J. and Den O'Neal, who have been timbering in Duplin Co., came home to spend Christmas with their relatives.

Mrs Amanda Whitford, of Clayport, Pitt Co., has been spending some time with friends and relations at Zarah, she will not return home for some time. This will be received as good news by Miss Amanda's many admirers, for she is a lively and charming young lady.

Miss Julia O'Neal, the charming daughter of Mr and Mrs Jim O'Neal, who has been teaching in Jones county, has returned home for a two week's vacation.

Messrs Joe Simpson and John Smith who have been attending school at Kingston, are now at home, spending their vacation, also Miss Alice Simpson who has been attending school at New Bern, so our "Old North Side" is not dull for want of visitors.

A dance was given to the young people of the neighborhood, last Saturday night, by Mr and Mrs William Arthur, all seemed to enjoy it very much.

Rev J B Reespe, filled his regular appointment at Kitt Swamp last third Sunday, owing to the inclemency of the weather only a small congregation assembled. Bro Reespe will preach at Kitt Swamp again third Saturday at 11 o'clock also at night and again next day, he will preach at Galilee in the afternoon of the same day. Bro Reespe is a powerful preacher, and all are invited to come and hear his well prepared sermons.

The next union meeting will be at Kitt Swamp, the fifth Sunday in January, we are anticipating a grand time and a large attendance. More will be said about this meeting in the future.

Miss Maggie Tucker, one of our brilliant young teachers has gone to Grifton to spend Christmas with her sister Mrs Joel Patrick. This caused this vicinity to be rather dull and "we are looking for her return with longing eyes."

The social at Mr Wm Potter's was said to have been quite a success.

We are sorry to say that Mrs J M Willis has been sick for several days, we trust that she will soon be better.

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE TAKING when you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic, because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure--no pay. Price 50c.

Social Register of Millionaires.
It is reported that copies of the Social Register, with additions, have been received. The value of this book is limited to millionaire families, whose pedigrees is written up-to-date, and the information given is of course of great service--among these few richly rich folks.

According to report, New Bern is included in this list on the Social Register but the Journal is not at liberty to name the families whose names adorn the New Bern page.

County Sunday School Association

The time has come when the Sunday school workers in our county should look around them and see what can be done to increase and improve the Sunday schools of the county.

Perhaps our city neighbors have all the schools needed, and good ones, with modern helps and plans and with large average attendance. If you are all at work and have all the children and young people at work, we appeal to you with Macedonia cry "Come over and help us in the country place."

We need a convention of the organized workers of all denominations in the county who realize the great importance of Sunday school work.

If we are real high, we should hold our light so others who are in the dark may see the light.

There are many in the dark in the county, as to the Sunday school work, and we ought to make a united effort to get all the dark parts of our community organized and in the Sunday school.

The Sunday school workers of this county might get to work if properly organized and make a house to house canvass of the whole county, with very small expense comparatively and thus stir up the people to the high interest of the salvation, that made our forefathers through united concerted Sunday school work.

On the 19th day of Nov. last a partial organization of the county was effected, but a number of the townships were not represented, hence we could not know who was suitable and ready to co-operate in the work. We give the names suggested for the different townships:

1st J A Jackson, 2nd S W Latham, 3rd G V Richardson, 4th Jas L Taylor, 5th John Godwin, 6th G L Hardison, 7th C L Ives, 8th O H Wetherington, 9th M Brinson, County Secretary.

These nine constitute the executive committee of the county and each is president of the township work, in his respective township each township should be organized and this is a nucleus around which such organization may be made.

Will these brethren please correspond with Bro Brinson, New Bern, let us fix a suitable time and meet so we can visit over and map out the work.

I suggest a meeting of this executive committee some time in February, 1904 and in the meantime let us use some time and postal cards with suggestions, concerning this Sunday school organization. Brethren let us hear from you through the Journal or the mail. This is interdenominational and all Christian workers should feel it to be their work.

DANIEL LANE, Pres. Craven county Sunday School Association.

Examination For Cadet.
A Civil Service examination for the position of Cadet in the Revenue Cutler Service will be held January 4th, 5th and 6th.

This examination affords an excellent opportunity for young men between 17 and 25 years of age. The branch to which the examination is eligible is verifiable. The salary of a cadet is $1,500 a year and one ration per day, but after three years of satisfactory service, the person may be commissioned as lieutenant by the president. A cadet after being commissioned as Third Lieutenant at a salary of $1,400 per year, is eligible for promotion through the various grades up to and including captain, the salary of which is $2,500.

As but a limited number of applications have been filed for this examination, the commission trusts that all persons who desire to enter this service, and are qualified will apply for and enter the examination.

DIED.
Mrs Sallie O Whitehurst, wife of Charles W Whitehurst, died yesterday morning of paralysis which developed from a congestive chill.

The remains will be taken to Zarah today where they will be buried in the family burying ground.

Royal Arcanum Benefits.
Messrs A E Hibbard and B K Eaton made a visit to Trenton, on behalf of the Royal Arcanum which was a very pleasant one for Mrs Orpha Koonce of that place. They paid her $3,000 on behalf of the Lodge of which her late husband was a member.

Mrs Koonce would have received the money sooner but has been unable to come to this city for that purpose.

Card of Thanks.
Myself and family thank the officers of Trenton Council Royal Arcanum for the payment of $3,000, the amount of my late husband's, B E Koonce, benefit certificate in the Royal Arcanum. The prayers of myself and family are that the Royal Arcanum may live long and prosper, and continue its good work.

ORPHA KOONCE, Trenton, N. C.

ROBERTS--HENDREN

Delightful Home Wedding Celebrated Yesterday Afternoon

Two of New Bern's Well Known Young People United in Marriage.

One of the most charming home weddings that has ever been seen in the old town of New Bern, was celebrated yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Mayhew Hendren, daughter of Mrs L M Hendren, and Mr Thomas J Roberts, both of this city and known and admired by a large circle of friends.

The residence on Middle street was comfortably filled by the relatives and a few intimate friends of the families concerned. The rooms were beautifully and decorated with bamboo, palms and flowers and lighted with many candles. The ceremony was performed in the parlor where the altar was erected. This room of green and white was very beautifully arranged, the rail, the arch and the chancel with lighted candles made a brilliant effect. In addition to the vines around the altar there were lilies, carnations, ferns, palms and palms, the whole forming a bower of beauty.

The dining room was also handsomely decorated in red, the walls almost hidden with bamboo and on the centre table were numbers of magnificent American Beauty roses, the whole lighted up by candles.

When the company were assembled Mrs Thos Lee Craig, of Gastonia, gave two beautiful vocal selections, "Constantly" and "Violets" in her usual charming manner, Mrs J A Meadows playing the accompaniment on the piano. Then the wedding party entered the room to the Lohengrin wedding march and advanced to the altar where Rev R F Bumpas, late pastor of Centenary church, and now of Raleigh, awaited them. The groom was accompanied by Mr Bert Roberts, his brother and best man. The bride was preceded by her sister, Miss Mary L Hendren who was Maid of Honor, and she was given away by her brother, Mr W M Hendren of Winston. The impressive ring ceremony of the Methodist church was used and in the presence of many friends and with their many well wishes for a happy life, with the accompanying strains of the "Angel Serenade" the vows were made and the final words were spoken.

The bride wore a costume of handsome silk mull over silk, wore the bridal veil draped from a diamond brooch, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and ferns.

The Maid of Honor was handsomely attired in gray crepe de chene over pink taffeta and carried pink carnations. The accompanying bridal party consisted of twelve young ladies who formed an aisle through which the bride passed. Their names and a brief note of their dresses is as follows:

Miss Fanny Outler, white satin crepe de chene, pearl trimmings, Miss Rebecca Street, white voile, Miss Janie Stewart, white silk, Miss Hal Nowland, light blue silk, Miss Mattie Rountree white silk, Miss Mary Monk, white mull over pink silk, Miss Margie Brown, of Wilson blue organdie, Miss Ruby Daniels, tan voile over green silk, Mrs J E Benton, white silk mull over white silk, Mrs T A Uzzell of Beaufort, white satin crepe de chene over taffeta, Miss Mabel Chadwick, pink silk, Miss Mary Emma Street white mohair.

Immediately after the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room which was presided over by Mrs J A Meadows with the assistance of a number of young ladies. Mrs George Henderson was Mistress of Ceremonies and Mrs Denard Roberts presided over the movements of the guests. This included a visit to the gift room where the many handsome presents were shown and also a fruit trappe was served.

The presents were many and varied, of silver, cut glass and many useful articles and among them may be mentioned a Haviland china tea set, a silver service, and a set of silver mounted pearl handled knives.

A reception was held from 8:30 to 5:30 o'clock at which a large number of the friends of the young couple were present and best wishes extended.

The receiving party, in addition to the bride and groom, consisted of Mrs L M Hendren, Miss May L Hendren, Mr and Mrs W M Hendren of Winston, and Mr and Mrs S G Roberts, parents of the groom.

Mr and Mrs Roberts left by the steamer Nouse and will make a visit to Washington and other points North and upon their return will reside at the residence of Mrs Hendren, the bride's mother.

CHICAGO'S FEARFUL HOLOCAUST

The New Iroquois Theatre Burns and 637 People Burned and Crushed To Death.

Chicago, Dec 31.—One of the most horrible disasters in the history of the country occurred yesterday in the destruction of the new Iroquois theatre. Not only is it unparalleled in America but there are but few instances in the civilized world unless it were in battle where so many people were killed in so short a time.

The Iroquois theatre had only been opened five weeks and was reputed to be the best walking and safest play house in the world. It was built by K Loe and Erlanger and adapted to the spectacular plays for which that firm is celebrated. It was built after the famous opera Comique in Paris and was a model of beauty and elegance.

The play of Mr Bluebeard was being produced on the stage at a matinee. An alarm of fire aroused the audience caused a panic and all that cool heads could do to prevent the disaster proved unavailing. The crowd frenzied by the thought that the building was being rapidly consumed surged through the exits, crushing and jamming while those who were successful in getting through the crowd themselves were beaten back by others and shared the fate of the people they had trod under their feet.

It is estimated that 700 people were killed. At midnight Wednesday, Coroner Traeger stated that the actual number of dead bodies taken from the ruins of the theatre up to that time was 637 and there were still unnumbered bodies in the building. It is doubtful if every body will be recovered.

The accident was caused by an electric wire breaking and communicating to a gas tank which exploded. The fumes from the tank spread all through the house suffocating a great many people.

OBITUARY.
Born December 9th, 1811, Mrs Fannie Ann Dixon, passed from life to the great beyond, Friday, Dec 25th, 92 times she has seen the anniversary of our Saviour.

Sixty-five years ago she connected herself with the Methodist church under the Ministry of Rev Mr Freeman and has ever since lived a consistent member of the same.

She leaves four sons and five daughters besides many relatives and friends to mourn for her.

She was the mother of fifteen children four of whom have passed away, fifteen grand-children and thirty great-grand-children. Two sons and two daughters are left at home and while our sympathy goes out to to each one of the large family it especially does for those at home.

For almost a century she has lived in this immediate community and could speak entertainingly of events and occurrences from James Monroe to the present. The corner and her chair is empty, her place cannot be filled but she has gone where the faithful will meet to part no more.
