AROUND AND ABOUT.

Don't write it 1908. A Happy New Year to all. This is leap year. The interested party will make the most of it.

Take down your old resolutions from the shelf, dust them off, and use them again. They's good for another trial. Mrs Owen Guion is suffering a severe attack of pneumonia.

The next attiraction booked for the opera house is an entertainment by the Henderson Tel Co, reat of Ithaca Consert Co., which will appear Cotton reached the highest price yesterday of any time during the season, The range was from 18 to 18; cents. A peculiarity of the local market was noted that when the prices declined on the New York market, they rose here. There was a fearful break yesterday.

Mr D W Patrick, Collector of Customs, informs the Journal that he has received word from Washington regarding the time of the Civil Service Examination for the position of Cadet service on the Revenue Cutter. The date has been postponed to some time during the latter part of February. Applicants may get particulars by writing the Civil Service Commission at Washington.

The members of the Westminister League and the Sunday School of the Presbyterian church gave a very interesting entertainment at the church parlors Tuesday evening. A very pleasing program consisting of music and recitations by the children; after which a fine time was enjoyed and nice refreshments G N Ennett, supplies for were served. A box for the orphanage at Barium Springs in which many articles of necessity and luxury were packed for the little homeless people who are being cared for there.

A head on collision between a buggy and transfer No 35, Charles Midyett, D B Wood, work at court driver, occurred at O Marks' corner iast night. The buggy was driven by a young country men named Ward. The horse was hard to manage and when he reached Midyette's borse which was standing on Middle street by the O Owen G Dunn, mdse for court Marks store Ward's buggy came so near to the transfer horse that his wheel struck it squarely between the forelegs making quite a severe wound. The shaft of the transfer was broken, and the wheel of Ward's buggy was damaged.

The plant of the Norfolk Landmark was damaged by fire Monday night to the extent of about $20,000. The fire started in the boiler room and worked rapidly into the press room. The press and type setting machines are ruined and other mechanical fixtures are damaged. The loss is partially covered by insurance. The paper was issued yesterday from The presses of the Public Ledger, Accidentally Shot and Killed.

Eli A Sanders of Bogue N C, was accidently shot and immediately killed on the morning of Dec. 28, 1903.

He, James Weeks, and other boys were in the yard near the house. Leon was to throw up a gourd for James Weeks to shoot. The hammer of the gun slipped from under James' finger, the gun fired and the load of No. 4 shot entered just under the right arm of Leon, making a hole 2 inches in dismeter, cutting the sub-clavian artery and others, causing almost instant death. The only word he uttered was "Oh, Lord!" and the next moment was unconscious and ceased to breathe in a few minutes.

Jimmie and Leon were warm personal friends and playmates, and when Leon fell, Jimmie threw the gun behind him, ran and raised Leon to his feet, crying as with a broken heart. Life had fied, and nothing remained but Leon's mortal body to his friend and sorrow stricken family.

More than two hundred people were at the burial, attesting warm friendship and deep sympathy.

Leon was a bright and good boy whom all loved that knew him.

He was reliable and truthful, full of life and humor, which made him a favor it with the aged as well as his play-

Cut off in his youth, he escapes the tolls, temptations and responsibilities in

We shall sadly miss him at our social gatherings- his school playmates will miss him more—and the vacant chair at the table and fireside of his home will fill with bitter anguish the tender memo ories of his devoted family.

Let life's sorrows bring out our vir tues as night brings out the stars,—and while we weep for the departure of our loved one, do our best for the living.

A happy new year to all, especially the "Journal" readers. As usual, we had a pretty good Christ mas, plenty to eat and drink, but vory little whistey, no body drank or disorderly, and for the first time no fire works, not even the usual little fire 23 50 crackers. The merchants wouldn't pay the tex on fire works, so had none.

Two Christmas trees, one in each of 6 00 the leading churches, Baptist and M E church South. 240 00 There were two trees in each church. instread of one, as was the usual form 11 00 and the exercises were fine, especially in the Methodist church. The pro-6 35 gram for that church was arranged by various parts of the State and are nation Mrs Maude Woodhull and was some- the bride c un'e hadeone even l'est al. 74 48 thing new for Swansboro, we think 211 54 they called it "Cantata" or "around the world with Santa Claus," about forty 11 50 children all dressed in pretty uniforms with spiked hats for boys, and crowns 50 00 and flags for girls. Then a company of drummer boys beating their little drums 216 67 to good music on organ by Miss Datsy Pittman, assisted vocally by Miss Lulu colds. Hatsell, Mrs Maude Woodhull and others There were two Santa Clause's, one an impostor, who acted his part well, the other the real "Santa Claus" dressed as 67 28 a Santa should be except mask. Mr George Hatsell was the imposter, and 8 00 Mr Bryan Hatsell Jr was the scal Fanta.

he looked like he had just come out of a 46 60 snow storm. The other trees in the Baptist church were equally pretty, filled with choice and coatly presents, costing from one penny to five dollars each. the one in M E Church was on Christmas Eve 24 50 night, in the Baptist church was Christmas night. Among the visitors here were Misses Ruth Howard of Harlowe, Cora Hender-116 67 son of Hubert, Lizzie Ennett and Isora Jones of Cedar point, Dalsy Ma-73 09 rine of Marines, Mrs Sue Pittman and Miss Mamie Wynne of Wards Mill, Mrs Sudie Moore, nee Frazelle of Rocky Mount, and Messrs George Duffy of New Bern, George Kirkman of New York, R. C. Foster of Virginia, and many others There was one drunk and down in the surburbs that of a good old colored man named William Fare. He took on too much of the juice, got drunk, fell out of vehicle in to a ditch of water and but 116 67 for timely presence of friends, would have gone to the bone yard by drowning or freezing as it was very cold. 20 00 ever. We had two marriages, one Christmas 30 00 night, the other on Sunday morning, December 27th, the first was Mr David 15 85 Hall of South Carolina to Miss Maggie Piner, of this place, Rev C E Edwards, officiating, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Elijah Piner. Also, 100 00 Mr Henry Canaday was married to Miss Carrie Stanley from the country, but as 100 this was a walk runaway match, the couple came to town and called on Esq , D G Ward at his house soon Sunday $2665 69 for good or bad, and they went on their way rejoicing, for all's fair in love and war, and love laughs at locksmith's you

Mr O B Jarman of Jacksonville, who was also a visitor, and Mr Clenn Freeman took two of our young ladies to Jacksonville last Monday night to a dan cing party, the ladies were, Misses Daisy Pittman and Flora Mattocks. Mr Bry Hatsell went also as the single man of honor. The party was given in the large hall once used at a commissary department on Middle street opposite the large store of Marine & Co. Uncle Tim.
