

A MAN'S OPINION

Who thinks he knows is not worth the having. But the man who says, "I have taken Ozomulsion, the formula of which is Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil, which I know is nourishing and a tissue builder, Guaiacol a German product, an antiseptic, germicide and anti-fermentative; Glycerine, soothing and healing, we all know that; Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, a bone and tissue builder, the whole forming an admirable and easily assimilated tonic and body builder of the highest degree, the later statement I make because I have taken Ozomulsion and found it all that the manufacturers claim for it." That man's opinion is worth money. He knows what he is talking about, and that is the way thousands of users of Ozomulsion talk. They have learned through experience that Ozomulsion carries the convalescent, the weak, the sickly and puny to a new life, adds flesh to their bones and imparts new energy and vitality. At all druggists, price 50 cents and $1.00 the bottle. We'll send you a sample bottle free on request. Ozomulsion Co., 98 Pine Street, New York.

For sale by F. S. DUFFY, New Bern N. C., and all druggists.

She Was Too Enthusiastic.
"Teaching to me," said an enthusiastic young schoolmistress, "is a holy calling. To sow in the young mind the seeds of future knowledge and watch them as they grow and develop is a pleasure greater than I can tell. I never weary of my work. My thoughts are only of—"

"I am very sorry," interrupted the young man to whom she was talking, "that you are so devoted to your profession, Miss Clara. I had hoped that some day I might have asked you—in fact, I called tonight—but I hardly dare go on, in the light of what you—"

"You may go on, Mr. Smith," said the young lady softly. "I am a little too enthusiastic at times perhaps."

A Favorite Remedy For Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by all druggists.

Whittier's Safeguard.
When an overtimid visitor from the city once commented to the poet Whittier upon the insecurity that seemed inseparable from so many doors opening out from all sides of the large old country home, the master of the house strove gently to restore confidence by pleading that most of them were locked at night.

It's a Malignant Attack, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick recovery is certain. For sale by all druggists.

She Had to Forgive.
Mrs. Winks—Mrs. Ayres and her husband have had a dreadful quarrel just because she gave him a letter to mail and he carried it around in his pockets for a week. Isn't it too silly of her? Mr. Winks—Maybe that would make you mad too. Mrs. Winks—Oh, John, I wouldn't lose my temper over a little thing like that. Mr. Winks—I'm glad to hear you say it, my dear. I just recall that I've still got that letter you gave me last Wednesday.—Philadelphia Press.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

The Bradford Register Co., Atlanta, Ga.

CLARKS.
Feb. 28th.
Notwithstanding the late bad weather the Brick and Tile Works at this place seem to have kept busy.
Mrs. Rebecca Adams died Thursday 26th after a short illness.
Our Sunday school seems to be progressing nicely.
Mr. A. T. Wetherington has completed his railroad to the Bear Head section, and is moving lots of timber to this station.
Our place seems to be booming along all right. We have two brick and tile factories, two stores, a saw mill and dairy farm.
Mr. Garrison and Mr. Schwingsank, two northern gentlemen are stopping at Mr. J. E. Register's for their health. Our pine woods are very healthy.
Mr. Mark Register spent Saturday in New Bern.

Mr. George Stewart of Sloop Point is visiting his father Mr. J. C. Stewart.
Capt. H. C. McKel was sporting a fine team of horses Sunday, which is a rare sight for this neighborhood.
It sounds superfluous to speak of the bad roads, but the one from this place to Jasper is in a little the worse condition than that was ever seen.
Mr. J. H. Stanley of Charlotte has moved here to engage in brick making.
Farmers who were foresighted enough to grow a fall crop of Irish potatoes last season are now receiving a reward for their long headedness. Potatoes are in good demand at $4 per barrel and consumers are glad to get them at 50 cents the peck.
The Pamlico, Oriental and Western railroad people report good progress on the Neuse river bridge. They say that while the work does not show up much yet on account of its being done in and below the water, but that it is going ahead all the same. The bad weather of the winter has prevented any grading but all preparations are complete for work to begin in the spring.
So much has been said about the bad roads lately that the subject has become a joke, but it was no joke to two ladies who had their rig mired up while out riding on Trent road yesterday. The horse was unable to extricate the vehicle, and help had to be called to relieve him, the horse being unhitched and the buggy pulled out by hand. This happened less than two miles from the city. This bad condition is not altogether attributable to the bad winter for indeed, the same road was in a dangerous condition a year ago, and but very little work has been done on it since.

Colds Cause Pneumonia.
One of the most remarkable cases of a deep-seated cold in the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fen Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by F. S. Duffy.

A Distrust of Literature.
"You are always more or less skeptical about what you see in print."
"Yes," answered the man who has his own ideas about things. "Truth may be at the bottom of a well, but it isn't an ink well."—Washington Star.

Be good to your neighbors. They know all about your family skeleton and can tell some entertaining stories about it.—New Haven Union.

We earn our life by labor, and then, if we spend as the gods design, we spend our life in love.—Henry Harland.

Do You Want Strength?
If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues, before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Animals Enjoy Races.
Little pigs are great at combined play, which generally takes the form of races. Emulation seems to form part of their amusement, for their races seem always to have the winning of first place for their object and are quite different from those combined rushes for food or causeless stampedes in which little pigs are wont to indulge. Racing is an amusement natural to some animals and, being soon taught by others, becomes one of their most exciting pastimes.—London Tit-Bits.

Happy, Healthy Children.
Any child can take Little Early Risers with perfect safety. They are harmless, never gripes or sicken, and yet they are so certain in results that robust constitutions requiring drastic means are never disappointed. They cannot fail to perform their mission and every one who uses DeWitt's Little Early Risers prefers them to all other pills. They cure biliousness. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Punta Gorda Florida.
Ed. Journal:
Would you like to get an item from Punta Gorda Florida? Maybe so, anyway we will write a few items just by way of introduction to this sunny and flowery land.
Punta Gorda was a town of about 900 in population in 1900, now I suppose it is nearly double that number. We have been here only a few days, but have become favorably impressed with the place and surrounding country. The people are very social, the climate mild at this writing. No very cold weather has appeared.
We heard a citizen say that no snow or ice, and but one or two little frosts had been seen here this winter. Night now, February 28th, it is very pleasant, clear and warm enough to go in shirt sleeves.
We have only had time to see a few of the many new things seen in this southern clime. What we have seen, is so new to us, that we will have to note these things later on. One thing though we can note, which is the women folks are all good looking, the men—we will have seen few good looking men, the women think the men are good looking too.
Right now the farmers are very busy, what the people call farmers here, are very different from our farmers in North Carolina, 5 or 6 acres to one man is a large farm, but he makes more on this than our 40 acres and a mile farm in North Carolina generally. Ye terday we noticed some of the farmers here hauling their produce to market; this consisted of peas, beans, onions, radish, lettuce, turnips, cabbage, tomatoes, etc., in the vegetable line, then oranges, bananas, lemons, grape fruit, pine apple, "conquor" or dwarf orange, considered the most valuable of all fruits here. Then there is the Mango, Mangol, Mangrove and other new names we can't call now, all good fruit. The date and coco-nut are also plentiful, in the fruit line.

Punta Gorda is a pretty place laid off in pretty streets and squares and level as the ocean seems.
As we came in the town, vast groves of orange trees filled with ripe fruit, besides other tropical fruit, met our gaze. Grape fruit, lemons, cocoanut, pine apple, banana, etc., are in abundance.
Many people from N. C. live here most of these are in the fish business but some have bought property located. Mr. D. H. Ward, of Swansboro Onslow county N. C. is one of the new comers, he has bought a small place lot 280 by 100 feet with dwelling out houses for $600.00 he has on his lot some 8,000 pine apple trees about 50 orange trees, his wife has a nice garden of vegetables now, yesterday we had nice beefs for dinner one measured 12 1/2 inches in circumference raised in the green.

Tragedy Averted.
"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung Diseases. Guaranteed by O. D. Bradham, Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

No Place For Lemons.
"I had letters to a prominent official in Porto Rico," said a New York manufacturer of artificial ice plants, "and I went down to that island, thinking I had a sure grip on a big thing. I made an appointment by letter and on a certain day and hour was ushered into his office, and we had no sooner shaken hands than he turned to the attendant and said:
"Jose, bring the gentleman a fresh glass of lemonade and see that it is glass and hot."
"It was hot enough to melt a dog, and I felt rivers of perspiration running down my back, and when that boiling hot lemonade was brought in I knew that I was sold. So it turned out. I might have dished red peppers or horseradish, but as for ice—they didn't want any in theirs."

Working Overtime.
Eight hour laws are ignored by these tireless, little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work night and day, curing indigestion, Biliousness, Constipation, Sick Headache and all Stomach, Liver and Bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure. Only 25c at Bradham's drug store.

Do It Now.
The following sentiment has been variously attributed to Stephen Grelet, Sir Rowland Hill, Edward Courtenay and the Earl of Devon, and is said to have been inscribed upon the tombstone of the latter: "I expect to pass through this world but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can do to any fellow being, let me do it now. Let me not defer it or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

Premature Fatigue.
Wealthy American Father-in-law—Look here, count! I'm getting tired of paying your debts. Count Boyton de Bakovianek—So sorry! Sure, you had not paid so half of so debts yet!—Chicago Tribune.

Next Go Ahead.
"What makes you think they are rich Americans?"
"Because they know so much more about other countries than their own."
—Town Topics.

Not In His Line.
Employer—You don't seem to be able to do anything. New Clerk—Well, I always had a political job until I struck this one.—Judge.

FRENCH POLITENESS.
It is widespread, oppressive and time devouring.
During one summer which I spent among exclusively French people in a hotel at Saint-Germain I estimated that I lost quite twenty-four hours out of each week saying good morning and good evening to the men, women, little children and dogs about me. If you encounter the same person twenty-five times in the same day, you must smile rapturously, pause, at least shake hands if you do not kiss, ceremoniously inquire how he or she is "going" and ceremoniously bid him or her "au revoir" at parting. Not only every man and woman expects this, but all the little children toddle up to you, shake hands and exact the same amount of ceremony. Then every well regulated French family has a dog that more than likely occupies a chair and eats off a plate beside you at the table, so that it is considered churlish if you do not also stop and tell the dog "bon jour" and "au revoir" a dozen times in a day, pausing to take the paw which he is politely taught to extend to you.

When the washerwoman brings home your linen, there are at least five minutes spent in ceremoniously greeting and parting from her. In the operation of receiving and paying for linen you exchange "merci" and "pardon" not fewer than ten times. Any other serving person or tradesman who comes to do business with you throughout the day you similarly receive with "bon jour, monsieur," and "au revoir, monsieur," and you thank him and beg his pardon as often as you can possibly get the words into the length of time he has to stay.—Harper's Bazar.

More Riots.
Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective medicine for run down system. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c and satisfaction guaranteed by C. D. Bradham, Druggist.

Our Double Selves.
In a form of experience which is almost as common as ordinary dreaming we see that the semiconscious self possesses a faculty not always given to the waking self. Compared with my own waking self, for instance, my half asleep self is almost a personality of genius. He can create visions that the waking self can remember but cannot originate and cannot trace to any memory of waking impressions. These apparently trivial things thus point to the existence of almost wholly submerged potentialities in a mind so everyday, commonplace and, so to speak, superficial as mine.

It Saved His Leg.
P. A. Danforth of LaGrange, Ga. suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg, but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by O. D. Bradham, druggist.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press; are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

A SAFE DIET RULE.
Eat the Smallest Amount of Food That Will Preserve Health.
How shall one determine how much food to eat? Too much mystery has been thrown about this subject. Let your sensations decide. It must be kept in mind that the entire function of digestion and assimilation is carried on without conscious supervision or concurrence. It should be entirely unself and unknown, excepting by the feeling of bien etre which accompanies it, and follows its normal accomplishment. Satiety is bad. It implies a sensation of fullness in the region of the stomach, and that means that too much food has been taken. The exact correspondence in a healthy animal between the appetite and the amount of food required is extraordinary. As a rule, the meal, unless eaten very slowly, should cease before the appetite is entirely satisfied, because a little time is required for the outlying organs and tissues to feel the effects of the food that has been ingested. If too little has been taken, it is easy enough to make it up at the next meal, and the appetite will be only the better and the food more grateful.

No one was ever sorry for having voluntarily eaten too little, while millions every day repent having eaten too much. It has been said that the great lesson homeopathy taught the world was this—that whereas physicians had been in the habit of giving the patient the largest dose he could stand, they have been led to see that their purpose was better subserved by giving him the smallest dose that would produce the desired effect. And so K is with food. Instead of eating, as most people unfortunately do, as much as they can, they should eat the smallest amount that will keep them in good health.—Roger S. Tracy in Century.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.
William Shaffer, a brakeman of Denison, Ohio was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many" remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a cat." For sale by all druggists.

Old Time Carving Terms.
In an old number of a magazine issued more than a century ago we lighted upon a list of different terms used at "tables of elegance" in the days when Queen Charlotte came as the bride of the young and handsome king. From this list it would appear that nothing in the way of game was to be carved. The correct phrase was to "cut up" a turkey, to "rear" a goose, to "unlace" a hare or rabbit, to "wing" a partridge or a quail, to "hallo" a pheasant, to "dismember" a heron, to "thigh" a woodcock, to "display" a crane and to "lift" a swan. Beef and mutton were "carved," of course, and the sporting men prided themselves by using appropriate sporting terms when the spool of their morning's work made its final appearance on the table.—Modern Society.
