TWO ENCAMPMENT VIEWS.

How Life at Camp Lee Appeared From Raleigh and Wilmington Standpoints.

News & Observer 21st.

The camp was located right on Bogue Sound, and bathing was a great feature, the men being able to put on bath suits in their tents, a few steps taking them to the water. Many boats were available and there were fishing parties, sailing parties, surf parties and at night the brilliant dances at the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City, where the private soldier was received with as much consideration as the officer. A soldier's life at Camp Lee was not all work, but much pleasure was enjoyed as well.

The camp was laid off in splendid shape, and there was an excellent drill ground. The men wore the khaki and presented a picture of real military life. There was a very little misbehavior and no sickness that amounted to much. The companies all made fine showings as to numbers, and the officers ranks were at the maximum.

Wilmington Messenger 20th.

The entire company says that the camp site of the Second regiment was in about as bad a place as could be found. Not only do the members of the Wilmington company express themselves in this manner, but the members of other companies made the same statement. Just think of camping in a bog lot, and that was where the Second regiment's tents were pitched at Morehead City. The field had been planted in peas and these were ploughed under about two weeks ago and the farmer who owned the land then turned his hogs in the field which was enclosed by a fence. The ground having recently been ploughed was bad enough, but the hogs, in endeavoring to get the pea vines had rooted all over the field and the ground was just as soft and nice, not at all calculated to make the feet of the men sore, but the dust did cause a little trouble to the officers who occasionally lost their commands during the drills and had to wait until the dust settled to find out what had become of them.

The men say the water was something fearful—a bad thing at an encampment for more reasons than one—and as a result every day the hospital was filled with sick men. On one day there were 21 men in the hospital. The boys say that Morehead is a awfully lonesome place and those who did not dance had no form of amusement whatever. As one soldier expressed it there were only three things to do, dance, get drunk or stay in your tent and long to be at home. They say there are very few people at the hotel and those who are familiar with the place know there is nothing there but the hotel.

There was one feature connected with holding the encampment at Morehead City that was not reckoned with when the place was selected, or if it was, little attention was paid to it, and that was getting supplies. At first glance this would not seem to have been so hard to do but considerable trouble was experienced in this matter and the supplies received cost far more than they should.

MAKES GOOD IMPRESSION.

Syndicate of Those Living Along Line A & N.C.

What They Said To Governor Aycock Seem To Be Only Two Bidders For Road, Howland Other Bidder.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, Aug. 22.—This morning a syndicate headed by George L. Kennedy and composed of persons living along the line of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railway came here to see the governor and talk over the matter of a bid for the lease.

Among those present were W. S. Chadwick of Beaufort and Edward B. Borden of Goldsboro. They said that their idea was to thoroughly protect the section through which the road passes and all the business interests along the line and that they felt that this course was to the advantage, not only to the people of this section in general but also to the interest of all the private stockholders and the State and to all the North Carolina public.

There are two other bids on file, but it seems to be the impression that in the wading up, September 1, when the stockholders are to meet, there may be only two bids to consider, one that of R. E. Howland of Asheville and the other that now made by Kennedy and his associates. Some persons appear to be rather confident that Howland will get the road. His bid has certainly made a very fine impression.

Governor Aycock said this afternoon that the gentleman referred to, Kennedy, Borden, Chadwick, had discussed the matter of a lease with him, but that he did not know yet whether they would file a bid or not. He added that they did not yet know themselves, but that if they did file, it would be done this week. They went home this afternoon.

MILLS CROWD STILL IN.

Reorganized Company, Mills Resigns But New Company Keeps Its Bid for A & N. C.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, August 22.—The Atlantic Railway Company which last February filed a bid with Governor Aycock, for the lease of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railway, met at Goldsboro today and reorganized. Walter W. Mills resigned as President, John E. Bleekman of New York succeeding him. Herbert L. Finlayson of Goldsboro was elected Vice President.

President Bleekman represents the New York interest, which is backing the Company and which has made a guaranty deposit of fifty thousand dollars in a New York Company, George A. Norwood, Jr., Nathan O'Berry, Lovit Hines, T. A. Green, Bleekman, and Finlayson are the directors. Finlayson came here this afternoon to see Gov. Aycock. The bid stands.

Russia Must Observe Neutrality.

Shanghai, Aug. 22.—A meeting of the consuls of the various nations, called by Goodnow, the American consul, was held today for the purpose of discussing what means will be taken to compel Russia to observe neutrality, the Russian consul general here having flatly refused to disarm the cruiser Askold and the torpedo destroyer Gresovik, ordered them to leave the harbor. It is announced today that the Italian squadron in the far east has been ordered to cooperate with the Americans to maintain the neutrality of China.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

Forty million bottles of August Flower are sold in the United States alone since its introduction! And the demand for it is still growing. Isn't that a fine showing of success? Don't it prove that August Flower has had unflinching success in the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the two greatest enemies of health and happiness? Does it not afford the evidence that August Flower is a sure specific for all stomach and intestinal disorders?—that it has proved itself the best of all liver regulators? August Flower has a matchless record of over thirty-five years in curing the ailing millions of these distressing complaints—a success that is becoming wider in its scope every day, at home and abroad, as the fame of August Flower spreads. Trial bottles 25c; regular size 75c. For sale by all druggists. F. B. Duffy.

A free bottle of Dr. Thacker's Liver and Blood Syrup will be sent to any reader of this paper who will write to the Thacker Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

JAPS SLAUGHTERED.

Russian Artillery Fire Sweeps Attacking Party.

But Japanese Continue to Advance. Russians Lose Important Positions.

Chee Foo, Aug. 22.—The Japs now have swept the Russians from Pigeon Bay and captured the northern most forts on the eastern line of the inner defenses of Port Arthur. The Japs were prevented from occupying Pigeon Bay or the fort on account of the terrific fire of the Russian artillery. The latest reports say the fort will soon fall.

Rome, Aug. 22.—A telegram received today states the Japs lost in the last assault on Port Arthur 2,500 men, including 68 officers.

Shanghai, Aug. 22.—The Japanese torpedo boat whose arrival here yesterday caused great excitement, left the harbor today with despatches for the fleet, which is now lying off the mouth of the bay.

Chee Foo, Aug. 22.—The tremendous conflict which began a few days ago on Port Arthur, is still raging. A Chinese man, who has just arrived here declares the Japs have captured the important point, Itshan Hills.

Police Court News.

There was riotous and jcteam in the police court yesterday with a strong coloring. The hot weather which has a tendency to make the colored people lethargic seems to have had the effect of making them quarrelsome. The attendance at court yesterday was somewhat larger than usual and was quite interesting.

Simon Joe, a Syrian, had a wheel on the sidewalk on South Front street, contrary to the provisions of the ordinance. He was let off with costs.

Jack Stamps, disorderly conduct. He struck a lady, judgment was suspended on payment of cost.

Nelle and Harriet McKay, mother and daughter were complaining witnesses against Stamps and he had them arrested for disorderly conduct. They were taxed the cost.

Bennie Jenkins was arrested for making an assault with his fists on Kate A. Miller's head. The woman appeared in court and declined to prosecute the case and it was dropped.

G. W. Richardson took on too much booze, and was found drunk and down. He was made to pay the cost.

J. A. Foy another unfortunate bicycle rider. He paid the cost.

Jane Whitfield, a quarrelsome and inebriated dame was assessed fine and costs and was disposed to criticize acting Mayor Bangert for his lack of judgment in the fine on her.

Bettie Carter and Sam Walker, the latter who lives in jail and makes occasional visits to the freedom of the streets had a row and each had the other arrested for disorderly conduct. They were fined two dollars and costs.

Coming to New Bern.

Dainty "Dolly Varden" Stange and Edwards' most successful comic opera began rehearsals at the Casino Theatre New York this week preparatory to the fourth annual tour under the direction of Mr. F. C. Whitney. The season will open in Trenton N. J., October 6th and the itinerary embraces all of the principal cities of the South and Southwest as far as San Francisco. Unlike the majority of operatic managers, Mr. Whitney has decided not to cheapen the cost or production; but has retained practically all of last season's principals, enlarged the chorus, and ordered entirely new costumes and scenery. There probably never was an opera produced on so lavish and expensive a scale as "Dolly Varden" and the present season's production it is promised will rival the original.

The steamer Albemarle, of the Old Dominion Line, plying between Belhaven and Washington came to New Bern Sunday with the Ocracoke to carry surplus freight.

News from the Northern Wood is to 12-13-14, the outside case for complete.

"Plastico"

A SANITARY WALL COATING.

Plastico is NOT a hot water, stibing Kalsomin. It is a finely powdered rock, in white and beautiful tints to be mixed with cold water. Any one can brush it on. Plastico has the peculiar property of cementing to the wall, destroying dirt, germs and vermin, and never peeling or scaling. Kalsomin has no cementing property—depends entirely on the quality of the stick. The glue secret of Kalsomin is Vermil and gets so soft, it allows the water to run down the wall, and spoiling walls, distorting furniture. Wall tiles that cannot be mixed with hot water are Kalsomin, no matter what fanciful names they bear. Kalsomin is not a disinfectant, and any Plastico is 5 lb. packages only, sent by express. Sample card of Plastico lists free.
