REAL ESTATE

Its Valuation in North Carolina in 1903.

State Charters Granted. Notice To County Superintendents of Public Instruction. Convicts Wanted at State Farms. To Jail Safety.

Raleigh, Nov. 2.—The State Auditor today completed the statement showing the valuation of real estate in North Carolina for 1903, as it will appear in the report for the year ending Nov. 30th 1904. The total number of acres is 29,304,882, and the valuation $144,399,619. This is the valuation of real estate in the country. There is 20,000 acres owned by manufacturing establishments out side of town, the value of this being $850,000. The value of mineral, quarry, and timber interests is $1,387,681. The number of town lots is 108,998, the valuation of these being $74,456,870. The total valuation of all real estate in North Carolina is $290,306,338. The previous year it was only $178,662,519. The increase during the year is over $32,000,000, which is by far the greatest ever recorded in any one year. This shows the great prosperity of the State and the marked advance in the value of farm lands. It is a very practical proof of the prosperity of North Carolina.

The State charters the High Point Hosiery Mills with $30,000 paid up capital, authority being given to increase to $100,000, J. H. Mills and others being the stockholders. A charter is also granted the Columbus County Trucker Reporter, of which H. O. Moffitt and others are the stockholders. A weekly paper is to be established.

State Superintendent Joyner gives notice to the County Superintendents of Public Instruction that the annual meeting of their State Association will be held here November 30th and December 1st. Attendance upon this is compulsory and every Superintendent is expected to be present. Last year 92 attended. In a circular letter to the County Superintendents, Superintendent Joyner says the outlook for education in the State is hopeful and that this ought to be the most successful year's work for education in the history of the State. The success, however, depends very greatly upon the wisdom, enthusiasm and devotion of the County Superintendents. A graded course of study for the public schools has been prepared and this is to be strictly enforced, as it will greatly promote public school work. The Superintendents will discuss it, as also the business details of the public school work. Many things of importance will be submitted to them at the meeting.

Gen Robert F. Hoke, who is so largely interested in the iron mines at Cranberry is here for a day or two and says work is very active there, over 800 men being employed.

The directors of the penitentiary were in session today. They are asked to send more convicts to the State farms, in order to get out the cotton and other crops there, but say they have about all the available convicts now on the farm. To it have been sent half of those on the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Rail way and all the Guilford county road gang. Thus far about 500 bales have been ginned and there will be at least 600 more, yet the crop will not be a full one. There is considerable increase in acreage. Last year's crop was 700 bales. There are only about 700 State convicts all told. The term of the present bond will and with Governor Aycock's administration.

Sidney Norris and Wiley Lucas, young men charged with murdering a man named Norris in Harnett county last month have been brought to jail here for safe keeping.

Catarrah Cannot Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrah is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrah Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrah Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrah. Send for testimonials free.

RESPECT GAME LAWS

The Audubon Society Will See That The State's Game is Well Protected.

Until within a few years the laws in this State protecting the game birds and animals have not been properly enforced, and consequently, the effect has been as bad as the non existence of any law. Since the organization of the Audubon Society, with efficient branches in every county and the enactment and enforcement of wise laws the protection of all game has been materially advanced.

Mr J. R. Upchurch State Game Warden was in the city yesterday to prosecute one, John Sanders Jr, for killing two quail on October 18th, which was out of season for that game in this county, it not being lawful to kill quail in Craven county until November 1st. Sanders was tried before Justice B. R. Street, found guilty and required to pay fine and costs amounting to $11.00; the fine was five dollars.

Pertinent to this subject the Journal wishes to publish for the better enlightenment of those who love to hunt the privileges and restrictions accorded to them in the pursuit of their sport.

The laws of North Carolina protect at all times: Mocking birds, thrushes, wood peckers, yellow hammers, wrens, native sparrows, red birds, orioles, chimney swifts, nighthawks or bull bats, whip-poor-wills, swallows, martins, warblers, nest hatches chickadees, gulls of all species, terns or strikers, skimmers, shearwaters, heron, cranes, cormorants, pelicans, sea pigeons, vultures and buzzards and all other now game birds. The law also protects the nests and eggs of same.

The following are declared game birds by the statute and as such may be killed during the open season in such manner as prescribed by law in the various counties: Loons, geese, swans, geese, brant, ducks, mallards, bob-white, quail, grouse, partridge, pheasant, bob-white, dove, robin and meadowlark.

The birds not protected by law are: English sparrows, owls, hawks, crows, blackbirds, jacksnaws and rice birds.

Non resident hunters must secure license from the county clerk before they can hunt.

It is illegal to ship out of the State quail, grouse or pheasant, and wild turkey.

Other information on this subject may be obtained from the State Bird and Game Warden, or from the Audubon Society of Greensboro.

JAPANESE CAPTURE BOATS

At Port Arthur. Win in Manchuria. Mobilization of English Fleet is Over.

Rome, Nov. 2.—Word received here from Manchuria states that the Russians lost two thousand men and four guns in the fighting Monday last. The Japanese right and centre continue their tactics trying to surround the enemy. Dispatches also state the Japanese have captured forts fifteen and sixteen at Port Arthur.

Gibraltar, Nov. 2.—All the excitement caused by the mobilization of yesterday has abated. The crisis is believed to be over. The British cruiser Boomerang and torpedo flotilla have returned to the harbor. The battleship Illustrious and cruiser Leander have also arrived from Vigo and Malta respectively. The battleships Majestic, Magnificent and Hannibal have left, sailing east.

INEZ.

Letter to T. J. Turner.

New Bern, N. C.

Dear Sir: How easy it is to get things mixed! This comes from our agents, Messrs B. K. & G. W. Stickle, Rockaway, N. J.

A Rockaway man was going to paint two houses, a year ago, lead-and-oll. They induced him to paint one Devco, by agreeing to bear any loss it might bring him.

One of his houses chalked-off, and he called for a settlement. The boat was on the wrong foot. Lead and oil is the chalk; not Devco. It was a mistake, not a bunco.

If Devco chalked-off as lead-and-oll does, it wouldn't stand a ghost of a chance in the market.

Yours truly, F. W. Dwyer & Co.

P. S.—E. W. Smallwood is in our paint.

REMISS IN DUTY.

Officers Blamed For Death of Soldiers on A & N C

Near Goldsboro at Stony Creek Bridge. Possible Base Ball League. Professor Massey Lectures Illinois Farmers Busy Crop Gatherers.

Raleigh, Nov. 3.—Today the finding of the court of inquiry as regards the death of privates J. B. Warren and George H. Johnson of Company A, Third Infantry, North Carolina National Guard, and the wounding of quartermaster sergeant S. F. Gates and corporal W. P. McEade of the same company, while on their way home from the encampment at Morehead City, August 19th, were made public in a general order number 25. The men were killed on a train of the Atlantic & North Carolina railway while riding on top of one of the cars by striking an overhead bridge at Stony Creek near Goldsboro. The court of inquiry received the evidence of every available officer, enlisted man and civilian who could possibly give any evidence in this case. The opinion of the court is that the Colonel of the Third Regiment, all regimental officers who were on the train, and all officers of Company A, on the train were remiss in the discharge of their duties in not taking ordinary precautions to enforce proper discipline. The Governor approved the proceedings, finding an opinion of the court of inquiry, of which Col. John C. Michie was president. It is not yet known what further steps will be taken regarding the regimental officers and the officers in Company A.

There are intimations that possibly a baseball league may be formed early next year of Virginia and North Carolina clubs. North Carolina sent no delegates to the recent meeting of baseball men at Richmond, but it is said the matter can be yet arranged.

Prof. W. F. Massey has returned from a visit to the St. Louis Exposition.

While absent he delivered a lecture before a large gathering of farmers in Southern Illinois, upon the important matter of restoring the fertility of their lands, which are very badly run down. He says he found the lands there, in that section which used to be known as Egypt, as badly run down as any North Carolina lands; full of gullies, grown up in brush, etc. He recommended the planting of cornfield peas and the people there will take up that matter. The land used to be a rich prairie, but has been planted every year in corn for at least 60 years, and without any attempt at enrichment of the soil. One man there had 85 acres in peas this season. Seed peas have been sent there from North Carolina.

Sheriff Page says that he has never seen the corn crop in this county so good as the present one. He says he never saw people work so hard, attempting to gather the big cotton crop. Driving by the fields, he says it is no uncommon sight to see very little children tied by the leg to a bush or tree at the end of the cotton row, while their parents and all the larger children are at work picking cotton. There never was such weather for picking, yet many fields are white. He says the farmers are very prosperous, and in far better plight than at any time since the civil war. He says the Democrats will carry the county by about the usual majority.

When once liberated within your system, it produces a most wonderful effect. It's worth one's last dollar to feel the pleasure of life that comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. F. S. Duff.

LIKE THE JOHNSTOWN FLOOD.

An Old Reservoir at Winston-Salem Breaks and Carries Death and Destruction With It.

At 5 o'clock Wednesday morning, the old city reservoir at Winston-Salem collapsed and formed an awful flood. Nothing could stop the rush of water as it went through the street carrying death in its powerful tide. Several small houses were swept away by the strong current.

Nine persons were killed and eight seriously wounded. Many others had almost miraculous escapes from drown ing. There is considerable loss of property; the houses destroyed however, were mostly small.

One of the Raleigh papers report says that the reservoir had been condemned by the city council had failed to have it removed or repaired.

REV. ROBERT STRANGE, D. D., CONSECRATED BISHOP.

A Most Impressive Service Held at St. James Church, Wilmington, N. C.

In the presence of six bishops, more than a score of priests and a vast congregation that taxed beautiful St James Church to its full seating capacity, Rev Robert Strange, D. D., was Tuesday consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of East Carolina. It was one of the most interesting and impressive church services ever conducted in Wilmington and the immense audience which was present represented all denominations. To all alike, it was a grandly sublime service and every moment of the time was absorbed by those in attendance.

There was perhaps never assembled in Wilmington a more distinguished body of clergymen. Aside from the Bishops there were present some of the leading clergymen and prominent citizens of this and other States. Everything combined to make each feature of the occasion perfect and all who presented themselves at the church consider themselves fortunate in the opportunity thus offered.

The following Bishops were present: Rt. Rev. Ellison Capers, Bishop of South Carolina, who presided; Rt. Rev. Robert Atkinson Gibson, Bishop of Virginia; Rt. Rev. Alfred Magill Randolph, Bishop of Southern Virginia; Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Chesnut, Bishop of North Carolina; Rt. Rev. Theodore D. Braxton, Bishop of Mississippi; Rt. Rev. Julius Moore Horner, Bishop of Asheville. A large number of the clergymen of the East Carolina Diocese were in attendance.

It was genuinely regretted that the beloved Bishop Watson of East Carolina could not be present at the services. His feeble health was not thought to be sufficient to warrant his taking the exertion which would have been necessary had he taken part in the consecration.

The sermon was preached by Bishop Randolph. He chose for his text, I Corinthians 12th chapter and 3rd verse: "Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed; and that no man can say Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost." It was a masterful effort by a most mild. Bishop Randolph presented his thoughts in beautiful and forcible language and deeply impressed his hearers.

In conclusion Bishop Randolph paid a beautiful tribute to the venerable Bishop Watson and made reference to his life in words that touched every person in the congregation. He also spoke of and to the bishop-elect, Dr. Strange. He pointed out the duty which awaited him. He expressed thanks to the diocese for calling one upon whom the aged Bishop might lean for support in his feebleness and he also spoke his gratitude at the acceptance of the important office by Dr. Strange.

Dr. Strange's consecration in St. James' was most impressive. This is the church of his childhood, the place of years of earnest labor, a tank of all that the church of generations of ancestors.

A beautiful reception was given a night at the Wilmington Light Infantry armory in honor of Bishop Strange. Hundreds of friends gathered, the friendship and extended that honored congregation and best wishes.
