Potash as Necessary as Rain
The quality and quantity of the crops depend on a sufficiency of Potash
In the soil. Fertilizers which are low in Potash will never produce satisfactory results.

See Farmers should be familiar with the proper proportions of ingredients that go into the best fertilizer for every kind of crop. We have published a paper for this purpose, containing the latest statistics on this important subject, which will sell you for one cent. Write now while you think of it to the

HOT AFTER VAGRANTS.
New Vagrancy Law Being Strictly Enforced at Raleigh.
Raleigh, April 1.—On Monday a young white man, James Eagles, is to be tried here under the new vagrancy law, the allegation being that he is now and has always been a gambler, a hanger on of pool rooms etc., and has never done any work. A warrant was served on him and he is at large on his recognizance. Another warrant was served Wednesday on Roger A. Nott, who has been for many years a gambler here and at other points, but it is understood from the police that Nott left here that night only a few hours after the warrant was served and that he has left the state and gone to Richmond, his old home. It appears to be the belief that he will not return. A third warrant is in the hands of the officers, this one being for John Hayes on the same charge. The police say Hayes cannot be found and that he has probably departed also and may have left the state.

THAT INSCRIPTION IRRITATES.
Confederate Veterans Want Appointment Changed. Raleigh Gets After Sports Through Vagrancy Law.
Special to Journal.
Raleigh, N. C., April 3.—State Auditor Dixon, as was first stated in this correspondence took ground against the inscription on the memorial to be dedicated next Monday, at Appomattox. Letters are coming in to him from confederate veterans endorsing his views a letter today from General William R. Cox, whose brigade fired the last volley there, says: "I fully endorse your views as to inscription on the monument at Appomattox. I have written to chairman Henry A. London of the monument committee, that I do not propose to be present at the unveiling." Another letter is from James T. Morehead of Greensboro, and says: "Is it too late to change the legend of Appomattox monument, to one simply saying, that it marks the spot where the last gun was fired, and that it was fired by a North Carolina brigade?"

THE SPORTING WORLD
Willie Hoppe, Cue Wonder.
Willie Hoppe, the sensational boy billiard champion, is now touring America, giving exhibitions of his striking ability with the cue. Hoppe is undoubtedly the greatest billiard player of the world at his age, sixteen years.

WILLIE HOPPE.
In Brooklyn recently at the Kalkreuth academy he won in a tournament in which he gave odds to the leading experts in the east. He also executed some new trick shots that created a decided sensation.

Mrs. Henrietta Gautier, died at the residence of her son Lewis K. Gautier, 22 East Front street, at the age of 75 years, at 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The funeral services were held at the son's home yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and interment took place at Cedar Grove cemetery, Rev. G. T. Adams officiated.

Notice of Removal.
Mr. D. L. Ward, attorney at law has moved his law office to the Hughes Building opposite City Hall on Craven Street, on second floor.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY
A Social Leader.
Mrs. Potter Palmer, who recently caused a commotion in Chicago social circles by omitting from the list of the patronesses of the charity ball many of the wealthiest and most prominent of that city's smart set, has long been a recognized leader in society affairs. Mrs. Palmer has but recently returned from abroad, having lived for the past year or so in Paris. Her home near the Bois is one of the finest in the French capital.

MRS. POTTER PALMER.
Palmer, the Chicago millionaire, who died in 1902. She soon acquired social prominence and in 1881 was elected president of the board of lady managers of the World's Columbian exposition. In this capacity she visited Europe and interested foreign governments in the fair. In 1900 the president appointed her a member of the national commission for the Paris exposition. She was the only woman member of that body and was awarded the Legion of Honor. Mrs. Palmer is well known in New York and Newport.

Waterson Described.
Daniel E. O'Sullivan, a friend of Marsie Henry Waterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, soldier, poet, lecturer and statesman, describes him thus: "Height about five feet six inches, with every inch hiding a coil surcharged with nervous energy. He always walks as if there was a goal ahead worth getting to in the shortest possible time. His head is neatly poised on broad shoulders. There is no waste material about him. Nature made every line tell. The student of character would find Waterson's face a delight. His eyes are restless with alert reception. The nose is well modeled, the chin a challenge, a very sentinel guarding the sensual weakness of the mouth. Crown thin shapely head with a plenitude of hair that touches his forehead with the cross of a single elegant lock, and you have a contour that sculptors like to model."

Jim Eagles a young sporting man who has been much in evidence here for some time, was before the mayor here today under the new law, charged with being a professional gambler and living in idleness. He entered a plea of not guilty and also one of nolo contendere. Upon this mayor Powell fined him $25 and costs, which he immediately paid. Two other men, Nott and Hayes, who were wanted by the police have left Raleigh.

Lumber Moving Fast.
There has been a more than usually lively movement of lumber and it is almost a daily sight to see tugs with two three or more barges and schooners in tow. In all the amount shipped within the past ten days from local mills and mills in this vicinity is estimated to be between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 feet.

The barges now being loaded here are Comet, Atlas, Orion at Mungers and Bennetts; Joseph; P. Tucker at the Blades mill at James City; Agnes McNally at Elm City Company's dock. The barge Frank is at Union Point.

FOR THE CHILDREN
Every Boy Needs a Trade.
Few boys take to tasks that require thought and persistent efforts. Yet skilled work is the only employment in demand.
Hodcarriers and common laborers glut the markets everywhere. The tradesmen and artisans are the ones that get the easiest jobs and the most money. The others are always hunting work.

Mental Arithmetic.
A very pleasing way to arrive at an arithmetical sum without the use of either a slate or pencil is to ask a person to think of a figure, then to double it, then to add a certain figure to it to have the whole sum and finally to subtract from that the figure first thought of. You are then to tell the thinker the remainder.
The key to the lock of these figures is that half of whatever sum you request to be added during the working of the sum is the remainder.
But you must tell the thinker to think of an even number or you will have fractions to add. Here is an example:
Think of 2
Double it 4
Add 10 to it 14
Halve it 7
Subtract the first number thought of 5
Remainder (half of sum added) 2

Drop the Handkerchief.
A ring is formed by the players joining hands, while one child, who is to "drop the handkerchief," is left outside. He walks round the ring, touching each one with the handkerchief, saying the following words:
I wrote a letter to my love,
But on my way I dropped it.
A little child picked it up
And put it in his pocket.
If you want me, if you want me,
If you want me, if you want me,
If you want me, if you want me,
If you want me, if you want me.

How About It, Barney?
Barney Desyris says that President Hermann of Cincinnati is making a mistake in offering $20,000 for Third Baseless Bredley, as he says he could get him for much less. Don't tell yourself Barney. Wonder if Barney would be Tommy Lamb get away for $20,000 with no other third baseman to play?

BABY TUCKER'S WONDERFUL CURE
Covered from Head to Foot with Humours—Forty Boils on Head at One Time—Doctors and Drug Bills $100—Baby Grew Worse.
CURED BY CUTICURA FOR FIVE DOLLARS

Mrs. George H. Tucker, Jr., 335 Greenfield Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., is a grateful mother. "When six months old," she says, "my little girl weighed a pound and a half less than at birth. When one month old a scab formed on her face, spreading until it completely covered her from head to foot, followed by boils, having forty on her head at one time, and more on her body. Then her skin started to dry up, and it became so bad she could not shut her eyes to sleep. One month's treatment with Cuticura Soap and Ointment made a complete cure, and now my child is as large, strong, and healthy as any child of her age. The doctor's and drug bills were over one hundred dollars, and my baby grew worse all the time. Then we spent less than five dollars for Cuticura and cured her."

CUTICURA A BLESSING
To Skin-Tortured Babies and Tired Mothers.
The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Ointment have alleviated among the young, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents, have led to their adoption in countless homes as priceless curatives for birth humours, milk crust, scalled head, eczemas, rashes, and every form of itching, scaly, pimply skin, and scalp humours, with loss of hair, of infancy and childhood. Guaranteed absolutely pure.

Slavery in America.
"One of the common, everyday errors which are taught in the schools in America is that which relates to the introduction into the western hemisphere of African slavery," writes a critic. "The school histories which the schoolgirl and schoolboy study say that it dates from 1619 or 1620, when a Dutch sea captain sold the English settlers the first African. The year 1501, however, is the date of the earliest reference in American history to negroes coming from Spain to America, 122 years before Albany, N. Y., was settled by the Dutch and 106 years before Jamestown, Va., was settled by the English. In 1505 King Ferdinand of Spain wrote to Orlando, then governor of Hispanola, 'I will send more negro slaves, as you request.' In 1510 fifty negro slaves were sent to work in the mines of Hispanola. There is a record of King Ferdinand's response to a request of Las Casas, bishop of La Concepcion, in Hispanola, that more negroes should be imported. He said, 'There are already many negroes on the island.' This was in the year 1514."

The Jap Baby.
How do you suppose the babies in Japan take an airing? In baby carriages, you say? Of course not. The Japanese never do anything the way we do it. When the baby's about three days old it goes out for its first glimpse of the world strapped on somebody's back, and that's the way it goes every day till it can go on its own feet. Sometimes its mother or its nurse takes it, but very often it sits on the back of a brother or sister, who is perhaps not more than four or five years old. These little nurses don't seem to be troubled at all by their charges, as you would suppose. They play ball and tag and run races and fly kites in spite of the heavy loads on their backs. What is more remarkable, the babies are perfectly happy and hardly ever cry, though when their young nurses run with them the poor babies' faces hang back and forth against their caretakers' shoulders till an American baby would howl with pain and rage.—Bertha Itaukie in St. Nicholas.

Why the Turned Vegetarian.
An English countess who has many American friends recently became a vegetarian. The other day in a letter to New York she accounted for her abandonment of flesh food.
"Not long ago," she wrote, "I visited a slaughter house.
"I can't tell you how everything was stained deep with blood; how there arose from the drenched, dark floors the peculiar odor of blood.
"As I was hurrying away three beautiful lambs were led in by a man with a long shining knife. Filled with pity and indignation, I said:
"How can you be so cruel as to put those innocent little lambs to death?
"Why, madam," said the man, "you wouldn't eat them alive, would you?"

Wearing Fall Figs.
Figs sown in September are sown not later than the middle of December and the sown bred again for April sowing, says an Indiana farmer in American Agriculturist. The pigs are wintered on corn, wheat middlings, clover hay, and whenever the weather will permit allowed the range of the growing rye field. This letter is quite important, as a pig will not make a satisfactory growth unless some green or succulent food is had during cold, dry weather.
