

DUM TACIT CLAMAT.

Elmswood Camp, W. O. W. was delightfully entertained at its meeting, Thursday night by Sov. W. H. Fairman of Norfolk Va.

His eloquent portrayal of the great mission of Woodcraft was indeed sublime. The motto of the order "Dum Tacit, Clamat," meaning "Love, Honor, Rememberance" was so beautifully illustrated, as to make every member present feel thankful that he was a Woodman, and all resolved that in the future they would make more strenuous efforts, to extend the blessings of Woodcraft, the object of which is to enable its membership, to minister to the afflicted; to relieve distress; to seek employment for those without it; to cast a sheltering arm about the defenseless living; to give an honorable burial to its sacred dead; and to place a permanent token of esteem upon his grave; to so impress the grand doctrine of brotherhood of man upon the membership as to make it an important factor in their daily lives; to encourage broad, charitable views; to make them more intelligent citizens; truer friends; gentler sons; more thoughtful brothers; more considerate husbands, and more reasonable fathers. It is for mutual benefit, where misfortune assails, and for substantial aid for loved ones when they are gone.

It is for fraternal benefits upon fraternal principles. It is for business benefits upon sound, conservative business principles. It is for social benefits upon the highest social principles known to moral law. It is a happy, intermingling of fraternal, social, and business relations, each standing upon its own merits, each having its own individuality, each being responsible for its own department. While one, yet three—a finite trinity; the trinity of a human life, fraternal, social and financial.

The next regular meeting will be held Wednesday evening, April 5th, when it is earnestly hoped that every member who can possibly do so, will attend and pledge anew his earnest efforts for the advancement of a cause so worthy, so ennobling.

Death of J. B. Taylor.

Mr. John B. Taylor, whose severe illness was noted in the Journal of yesterday, died at his home in Goldsboro Friday night. He was well known here having been a resident of New Bern for several years. He was a prominent citizen of Goldsboro and a member of several orders. He conducted a cafe and was a successful business man. His funeral and interment occurred in Goldsboro yesterday.

Letter to Hollister & Cox.

New Bern, N. C. Dear Sirs: You give full weight of good coal. So do we—231 inches to a gallon of paint that takes fewer gallons than mixed paint and wears twice as long as lead-and-oil; and allow our agent to sell it on this guarantee: "If you have any fault to find with this paint either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it. We authorize him to do what is right at our expense." We know a dealer in coal, who delivered his coal with a public weigher's ticket (full weight) invited complaints and actually exchanged the coal when complaint was made. He had half the business; a dozen firms had the other half. We are 150 years old, but not too old to sell paint as that dealer sold coal. We like to pay damages—when there are any.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO.

Wards Mill.

March 30. Our farmers have been able to build many miles of wire fence and yet keep their cotton at home, among them are F. Anka, Farnell, Binder, Hurst, Gillett, and others. Our best turkey breeders are Miss Sallie Farnell, Mrs. Lula Farnell, Mrs. Sallie Gillett, Mrs. Hazel Hurst and Mrs. Lizzie Willis. Our best hog raisers are Miss Bossie Willis and Miss Sallie Littleton. The R. F. Carrier Mr. Giles, horse ran away with him and dumped carrier and all in a pond to the tender mercy of the alligators. The horse went off into the pocomin while his owner got off as best he could. Our local mail carrier Mr. Hamilton, tells a story of the almost capture of a gall berry juice mill. The would be detective met a man on the road about midnight and commanded him to stop under arrest. The stranger had a gun and blowing horn. He submitted but requested permission to blow for his dogs and gave three long blasts. When fifteen men suddenly appeared. The detective howled for mercy and after terrifying him as long as they wanted to the men allowed him to depart.

Silverdale.

April 1. Our school closed Friday March 31st, with an entertainment, candy and games for the children, which they enjoyed very much. The teacher, Miss Lizzie Ennett from Carteret county, is an excellent teacher, she used every effort to induce the children to attend and they have made rapid progress in their studies. Farmers in this section are about through planting corn and are preparing to plant 25 per cent less cotton and use 50 per cent less commercial fertilizer. Prohibition seems to be making our grocery stores bar rooms, they sell medicated bitters, cider and peruna, and bitters that are not medicated that the Swansboro correspondent says make the boys "How comes you so?" all guaranteed non alcoholic, we think some power should appoint a rectifier.

Ritchie, the Magician.

The next Lyceum Lecture Course entertainment will be next Wednesday night, April 5, when Ritchie, the renowned magician and his excellent company of artists will appear. Ritchie is a demonstrator of the occult and magic sciences who has no superior and few equals. He is a wonder and is alone worth the price of admission. Backed by a strong company of musicians and an impersonator, those who contemplate attending may be assured of a first class entertainment.

Japanese Continue Advancing.

St. Petersburg April 1.—Unofficial reports from Harbin and Gontsuling say the Japanese scouts are daily approaching nearer the Russian advance posts which are occasionally bombarded. A Japanese attack on General Mia's trenches near Gungui has been repulsed. The Chinese say the Japanese are receiving large reinforcements without interruption.

N. B. M. A. Notes.

As the first day of April is over and times for "fools" are past, we will make known to the readers of the Journal a few jokes that were passed.

The young lady students were the only ones that were engaged in such business, for if any of the cadets had even thought of fun in any manner and put it into execution, perhaps he would have been on the square for six or more hours as we have said before, "Campus duty in the spirit of life", we still stick to the true statement and believe very firmly that the faculty think "it is some use."

Saturday morning when we marched in the Mess Hall we saw a very large sheet of paper suspended from the electric light, on this were very neatly made letters and by careful study we were able to spell our daily, weekly and monthly bill of fare, guess what is in please? Next all the chairs were wired together, and of course when one was pulled all at that table fell with no little noise, in fact enough to make the grits shake, hash gravy spill and the bones rattle while the Irish potatoes and cold biscuit went rolling over the floor, but we held to the desert.

Two students went home this week to help on the farm. One seems to have left a little unexpectedly as two boys were sent in hot pursuit but as luck played in the game for him the beat he went on was a few miles down the river and the two pursuants were compelled to return minus their game although it is a wonder they did not try to catch the steamer, as they love to obey orders so well, and these at the particular time were "bring that boy back to me."

Wednesday afternoon, we will have a practice game with the graded school. Friday afternoon, at 3 p. m. we will cross hats with Cove, the name is short but the team carries a long reputation as a fast country nine and all the players are home hitters, no doubt we will have all we can easily manage and the game promises to be one of the best of the season. All lovers of baseball will surely be there and root against the country "big nine". Admission 25 cents a very little sum to witness such a hotly contested game as there will be. Come all people and give us a whoop to victory.

Cedar Point.

April 3. We are having beautiful weather now, and all the farmers show their appreciation by the earnest work they are doing. It seems to us most of the farmers have turned their attention to melon raising, this year. We think the "town loafer" and "July Pigs" will fare better than ever this year, if they retain their usual appetite. Miss Lizzie Ennett closed her school at Silverdale last Friday. Mr. Graham Koonce and Miss Mamie Franks of Stella were down this week. Messrs L. B. Ennett and Furney Taylor went to Beaufort this week on business. Mr. Leo Mattocks and sister were down to see Mrs. L. B. Ennett this week. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Moore were visitors at Mrs. L. B. Ennett's Sunday. Mrs. K. N. Bell has been quite sick recently. Glad to hear she is improving some. Stores are no object on the sound, about every other house you pass, you can stop and get your "hacey" and baking powder now. They say "competition is the life of trade," and if so, trade should live a long time here, but we don't think "competition" agrees with it very well in this section, seems to have a tendency to give it paralysis or some other similar disease. Well, all of the sick ones got tired of the bed, and took to the field for a change. "REUBEN."

SHORT PASSING EVENTS.

The votes and how they stand will be inserted in this paper every morning, votes to be counted every night at 8 o'clock by the committee and contest closes Wednesday, April 12th, at 9:30 p. m. Votes can be cast at drug stores. A beautiful hat on exhibition at J. J. Baxter's millinery store. Queen crowned Friday 14th, at 9:30 p. m. Miss Mattie Green 60; Miss Sarah Meadows 49; Miss Maye Moore 39; Miss Emma Sultan 20; Miss Mabel Bar rus 16; Miss Myrtle Disoway 12; Miss Henrietta Hancock 18.

An epidemic of the measles has been going the rounds of the city and consequently the attendance at school has been light for a few days. It is reported that there have been 100 cases in New Bern. Six candidates of the Rock Creek colored Baptist church were baptized in Neuse river Sunday in the presence of about 1,000 negroes. The Wilmington Board of Aldermen has appropriated $1,500 to the purchase of a site for the State test farm. The "shoochy" train was delayed over two hours Sunday by the breaking of an axle on the tender when the train was about three miles north of New Bern. The damages were nominal and no one was hurt. The shipment of lettuce yesterday was 600 baskets. In the basket ball game yesterday Miss Henrietta Hancock's team beat Miss Mabel Barbus' team by a score of 81 to 7.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Failed to Honor Soldier.

We see our wise solons or animal and game law makers have ended their deliberations and gone home amidst the great applause of the politicians, for nobody else could find any cause to applaud them. The legislature not only failed to do anything to benefit the people but left undone things that as patriotic North Carolinians, they could scarcely keep from doing.

The noble women have been working for years to mark the last resting place of the Confederate dead, God bless them, but our wise legislators, shame upon them, refused to appropriate the small sum necessary to erect a monument to the memory of their heroic leader, the brave Matt Ransom. Brave in fighting the battles of his country, in war time, wise in the councils of the nation in peace and true to the constituency he served, he was ever active in serving the best interests of the State which he loved, yet the legislature of North Carolina refuses to honor his memory, maybe the members had too many political projects, or personal affairs of their own to look after. Surely their many laws protecting birds and animals destructive to crops, are not beneficial to farmers and to no one else unless it be a few idle sportsmen. Why did they not make laws protecting the boll weevil and curlew bug, there would have been just as much sense in it. Well, they are gone perhaps to never return again, and the next week after their departure the Raleigh dispensary reported a falling off in its sales for the week, two hundred dollars. What significance can be conjectured from this. B

Longest Tunnel in the World.

Rome, April 2.—The Sempion tunnel, the longest in the world, was inaugurated this morning, when, from the Swiss and Italian sides, the first trains passed through, meeting at the center, where there was an iron door which originally prevented the overflow of a torrent of hot water, and which today was opened for the first time. The weather at the entrance to the tunnel was spring-like, though the surrounding mountains were covered with snow; but, once inside, the temperature became very high.

A BIG FETE COMING.

A Week of Exceptionally Fine Attractions in the Free Street Fair and Carnival.

The Jones-Adams Carnival which will show here April 10th to 15th will have an unusual number of splendid attractions. The shows have won the highest commendations and have proved their worthiness for such praise. They come here under the auspices of the K. of P. Band who have the assurance that the carnival is just what it claims to be—chaste, refined and having no fakes. Ten big shows comprise the syndicate which includes some of the most extraordinary amusements on the road. The engagement of a trained animal show a few days ago will be one of the leading features of the carnival and a very interesting and instructive exhibition. The big lion "Wallace" is one of the animals of this show and it will be a great treat to see this mighty monarch of beasts. A band of twelve pieces travel with the company and furnishes delightful music. It has musical attractions of other description which will make their stay here varied and pleasant. It will take up too much space to tell all that this carnival will have to amuse to instruct. Watch the Journal and watch for the advent of the great Jones-Adams Carnival.

WOMAN MANGLED BY TRAIN.

Sickening Accident on A. & N. C. Railroad Monday Morning.

A most horrible and sickening accident occurred on the A. & N. C. Railroad yesterday morning on the trestle over Scotts Creek a short distance south of James City. The train by which the accident happened was freight train No. 2 of which Mr. J. B. Davis was conductor, and Mr. N. H. Russell was engineer. The train was west bound from Morehead City. The accident occurred at 11 o'clock.

The woman was crossing the trestle with a little colored girl named Lilly Simmons. They were going to attend the funeral of a colored woman who was found dead in a tenant house on the farm of Becton Davis. When about half way across the bridge the Stiles woman saw the train coming and hurried onto the side to which she was going. Being a large woman and also in poor health she could not move fast. The girl coming behind her stumbled and the woman apparently fearing for the girl took hold of her hand to help her across the track. The woman seeing the train coming upon them appeared to be paralyzed with fear and instead of attempting to save herself as could have easily been done assumed a squatting posture on the ties outside the rail. When the train came along the cow catcher and the first car escaped her, but the journal of the front truck of the second car caught her dress and carried her back over the bridge and when released from the journal, the body was taken up by another and thus the body was rolled along the ties for about 50 feet. When it was finally dropped the body had scarcely a semblance of human form so horribly was mangled. The girl escaped injury entirely merely stepping off the bridge when the train was upon them. Had the woman jumped from the track even into the water below the bridge the accident would have been averted. Mr. Russell, the engineer, was running the train at a rate not exceeding 35 miles an hour and possibly not so fast. When he noticed the peril the woman was in he did all in his power to stop the train but found it impossible. The fireman blew the warning whistle and used all precaution to prevent the accident. He did not see the woman being on the opposite side of the engine. Coroner Jones impaneled the following persons to compose a jury to investigate the cause of the accident: N. C. Hughes, Ed. Bangert, Dempsey Wood, Guilford Lewis, Albert Bangert, E. H. Howe. They viewed the remains, had a session last night and the examination will continue today.
