GRAND RAPIDS, MICH For Sale in New Bern by E

To The Farmers of North Carolina;

Our farmers have read the resolu-ions adopted by the Cotton Association of New Orleans and also by our State to reduce their acreage of cotton this season. I believe the farmers will do it. The most important thing for our on and tobacco growers to do is to grow their supplies at home.

It is quite evident that this is being done by our farmers to a greater extent in North Carolina each year.

Our tobacco farmers reduced their reage last year and tobacco sold much gher in the fall of 1904 than in 1904. Diversified farming will pay our farmers and every other interest.

If the June report of the government shows that there has been no reduction in acreage, every effort will be used to put down the price of cotton by the
