Submarines Cause Russian Destruction.

Tokio, May 31.—Captain Roshinoff, commander of the Russian armored cruiser Admiral Nakhimoff, and other survivors have been brought to Mojji. The Admiral Nakhimoff was sunk near Tau Island Saturday, seemingly by a mine or a submarine vessel. Captain Roshinoff says that his vessel was entering the straits with the fleet. Suddenly there was a tremendous explosion and the Admiral Nakhimoff speedily sank carrying a majority of her crew to death. Captain Roshinoff reached a damaged steam launch and was picked up on Sunday. The other survivors used life belts and were rescued by fishermen. It is impossible to determine the particular manner of the destruction of the individual Russian ships. It is reported that submarine vessels especially laid were used, but a satisfactory confirmation of this is not obtainable.

Wards Miff.

May 28.

We made another pleasant visit to Swansboro.

We have just had one of the heaviest rains ever remembered here.

Miss Sadie Littleton is visiting friends at Duppe.

Our turkey raisers have organized, or found a trust, as it were that is, they will hereafter dress their fowls and ship direct to the northern markets. Among the successful raisers, are Mrs. Ralph Bender, Mrs. Hogan Hurst, Mrs. Lizzie Willis and Mrs. Lula Farnell.

Mr. D. S. Morton of Hubert spent Sunday at Mr. S. N. Marshall's.

The price of turpentine is way up, four and half dollars per barrel, with a prospect of going higher.

A syndicate is here prospecting with a purpose of buying all the timber in this section.

A lively crowd from Swansboro, joined the party from Bear Creek last night and spent the day very pleasantly on Bearbanks. Among them were Misses Julia Bloodgood, Flora Mattocks, Mattie Moore, Dallis Mattocks, Bessie Henby, Susie Mattocks, Pearl Ward and Lulu Hataell.

Mr. Stein Mattocks and Lige Conway of Hubert spent Sunday in Swansboro.

About three hundred persons from this county went over to the life saving station to see the crew practice. The boat, Reliance took over about forty ladies, and several gentlemen. Among them were Capt. Ed. Littleton, Eugene Miller, Gus Pittman and Mr. W. H. Willis.

We hear that our Punta Gordia correspondent who was formerly of this county is on his way home. We have hoisted a signal of welcome.

What has become of the Swansboro correspondent? Hope that we have not scared him off.

RALEIGH.

Commencements Occupy Most Attention at Present.

Greensboro Fire Insurance Company Chartered. Code Commission to Pass on Work. Confederate Veteran Drum Corps. Colored Normal School in Bad Shape.

Raleigh, N. C., May 31.—A charter is granted the Greensboro Fire Insurance Company, capital stock $100,000, J. W. Fry and others being the stockholders; also a charter to the Lanier Club of Tryon, Polk county, which will build a library and establish a circulating library, there being no capital stock, the incorporators being a large number of ladies and gentlemen of that section and some other towns. Another charter is granted the Pipe Bending Machine Company of Charlotte, authorized capital $100,000, J. W. Conway being the principal stockholder. This company will make, sell and lease pipe-bending and stockjoint machinery.

Governor Glenn left this afternoon for Elon College, to attend the commencement. He tells me that he will not be able to attend the dedication of the monument at Bethel, Va., to Henry W. Wyatt, but that Secretary of State Grimes will represent him there. Mr. Grimes is a good speaker and has splendid material for the address he will deliver. It appears that a good many North Carolinians will go to this affair. Those from here will go over the Seaboard Air Line to Richmond and then take a train on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway to Morrison which is only four miles from the battlefield. At Morrison, vehicles will be in readiness to take them to the scene.

Tomorrow the legislative committee on code will meet here with the Code Commission, to pass upon the work done, and also to approve the contract which has been made with Uzzell and Company, the public printer. If the contract is approved work will at once begin on the printing. There will be 1,500 copies of the second volume and 8,500 of the first. The State owns all the type, so that in the future changes can be made very cheaply. It is the purpose to have the code printed by next August which is the time named. The first volume will sell for $3 and the second for $2. The index will cover 400 pages, and it is said will be the most complete ever made. George P. Pell of Winston-Salem is specially arranging it.

The Confederate veteran drum corps here, the only one in the country will not only give a concert in the Capital square at Richmond about six o'clock on the afternoon of June 12th, but will also serenade Governor Montague at the executive mansion there the same afternoon. No doubt this will prove quite an attraction.

The band of the Third Regiment of the National Guard is to be located here and will have a strength of 25 members, there being now 25. It is to be made a very fine band, and no pains are to be spared to effect this. In connection with this, there will be a Philharmonic Society.

It appears that some of the colored negro Normal schools are not in good shape and there are intimations that the number, now four, be reduced to two.

At the Agricultural & Mechanical College here today the graduating exercises were held with orations by the members of the Senior Class.

The following speakers represented the graduating class, being selected one by the class, one because of highest grade of scholarship, and three for general excellence.

O. I. Bagley, Bagley, N. C. The Aristocracy of the Dollar.

E. G. Porter, Jr., Goldsboro, N. C., Industrial Activity an Aid to Literature.

Governor Glenn Invited to Address Tammany.

Raleigh, May 31.—Governor Glenn has received an invitation to deliver one of the principal addresses before Tammany Hall, New York, July 4th. He says he greatly appreciates the invitation, and has the matter of acceptance under consideration.

TOGO CONGRATULATED.

On Victory And Capture of Admiral Rojestvensky.

Tokio, May 31.—Admiral Yamamoto minister of the navy, today sent the following telegram to Togo: "The enemy's second and third squadrons successfully overcoming difficulties attending their voyage eastward showed themselves no mean power, but your squadron intercepted them, in advance of their destination, put them to confusion and destroyed and captured nearly all their units. Your victory does not end here. You captured the enemy's commander-in-chief." The dispatch ends with congratulations and says in the name of the emperor that it is most gratifying to the national cause that Togo has achieved such a grand victory.

Resurrected Policeman.

Patrolman Pilchike of the Los Angeles police force is a man of resources, as he proved one evening not long ago. He belongs to the bicycle squad and was walking along a handsome residence street when he observed a suspicious stranger who was unable to give a good account of himself. The officer found on the man a porch climber's outfit, including a dark lantern and a coil of rope. Pilchike did not think he could handle his prisoner and at the same time take care of his wheel, which he feared to leave behind. So he made the man put his hands on either side of a lamp post and handcuffed him there. Then he went for help.

Grip Preventive.

An excellent preventive of influenza is said to be found in adding a few drops of eucalyptus oil to every pail of hot water used in cleaning the woodwork of a house and to the water in which the broom is frequently dipped when sweeping the carpets. Turpentine may be used if preferred in place of the eucalyptus. The whole house in this way becomes disinfected.—Boston Budget.

Well Timed.

"That was a great sermon you preached this morning," said the old churchwarden, "and it was well timed too."

"Yes," rejoined the parson, with a deep sigh, "I noticed that."

"Noticed what?" asked the puzzled warden.

"That several of the congregation looked at their watches frequently," answered the old man, "with another deep sigh.—London Telegraph

STATE CHARTER.

Railroads, Towns And Two Republican Papers.

Weather Unfavorable For Cotton. Methodist Orphanage Needs Heating Plant. Death Doctor N. D. Cobb. Number Visit At State Museum. Republican Paper at Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C. June 1st.—The State charters the South Atlantic Company to construct and operate a railway between some point in New Hanover county and Southport, a distance of thirty miles, of which three miles in New Hanover and twenty-seven in Brunswick. The capital stock is $150,000, and H. H. Dougherty of New York City holds all the shares except five. Another charter is granted the Buck Shoals Company of Arden, Henderson county, this being granted general privileges, such as building a town, operating factories and manufacturing, developing water power etc., the capital stock being $50,000, J. W. Sluder and others of Asheville being the stockholders. Charters are granted to two rival Republican papers, both of which it is said are to be printed at Greensboro which is Republican headquarters in North Carolina. One is to be the Industrial Publishing Company the name of which was at first the North State, of this the capital stock being $50,000, and among the stockholders being J. M. Milliken of Greensboro, the largest stockholder, next coming E. C. Duncan, Spencer Adams and Tyree Glenn, each with 110 shares; J. Elwood Cox, A. E. Holton, Harry Skinner, H. C. Dockery and Thomas S. Rollins, with forty shares each. It is said that Mr. Rollins is at the head of this movement though Judge Adams came here and secured the charter. The other charter is to the Tar Heel Publishing Company, also with $50,000 authorized capital, Spencer Blackburn having 238 shares, and R. A. Miller, H. L. Grant, R. B. San 40 each. Republicans here who have not stocks in either of these papers are rather inclined to ridicule the idea of having two Republican papers and said there ought to be what there was in 1894, that is Fusion. Some of the Republicans say there is a big prospect for a paper; that they have 80,000 Republican voters, but the scoffers want to know how many of these can read and write. Some say party patronage will be a powerful factor. There is to be a Republican weekly paper at Raleigh, and a charter has already been secured for this. The contest between the Rollins and Blackburn papers is really quite amusing to the people on the outside.

State Secretary T. B. Parker of the Farmers Alliance, in his report made, to New Orleans as to reduction of amount of fertilizers used on cotton in North Carolina this year gave the amount as 24 per cent, this being based upon returns by a number of correspondents in the various cotton growing counties. Speaking today about the weather Mr. Parker remarked that it was not favorable for cotton and that the season had been a very trying one.

Trustee Joseph G. Brown of the Methodist Orphanage here says the number of children has now reached fifty four. The big new buildings could have been filled by this time but it was thought best to wait until heating plant was put in which will cost $7000 or $8000. There are wealthy and public spirited Methodists in this state and it will be a very graceful for one or some of these to give such a heating plant for a memorial for as soon as it is put in the handsome building could be filled. A great many applications for the admission of children to the orphanage are on file.

Much regret is expressed here at the death of Rev. Dr. Needham D. Cobb, who lived here some time. He edited the first Democratic newspaper after the Civil War. The file of this is in the State Library, a gift from him, and is of much interest.

The number of visitors to the State Museum has very greatly increased since the installation of the exhibits from St. Louis. Curator Brimley is showing a very great amount of taste in the arrangement permanently, in the various departments, notably of the animals and birds. The case containing eagles is one of the finest ever seen here, and attracts general attention. The museum is now far better and more complete than ever before.

TAKE LEAVE OF SCHOOL.

A Promising Class of Young Men and Women

Receive in Public the Reward for Their Years of Labor and Study in the Graded Schools.

The class assembled on the stage with Prof. Craven, Prof. Spence, Rev. J. W. Tyndall, Rev. H. S. Bradshaw and Mr. T. A. Green. The members were adorned with badges composing the colors of the class, gold and purple.

The exercises began promptly at the appointed time, the school singing the song entitled "Ho for Carolina." Miss Rosa Dail was the conductor and Miss Nina Bannlight, pianist.

After the invocation by Rev. J. W. Tyndall, Miss Sadie Whitehurst read an essay on the First Railroad of North Carolina. It contained much of historical interest and showed the importance of New Bern in the days before the railroads. She gave a graphic description of the celebration here in April, 1858 when the A. & N. C. Railway was completed from Goldsboro to this city. This State was a pioneer in the construction of this mighty civilizer and has spared no pains nor money to invest herself with these iron courses of commerce.

The oration, the Power of the Individual was delivered by Bruce Edgerton. His argument was to achieve greatness by relying on one's own personality and illustrated his subject by allusions to great men who have made themselves famous by their strong personality.

The school sang the song, "Columbus the Gem of the Ocean." Miss Callie Williams read an essay on the Force of Character, which was a very creditable paper showing the desirability of good character, the elements which composed it, the necessity of maintaining it and how it makes men successful.

Miss Mabel Bartling's essay was on the history of New Bern Academy. The essayist gave an accurate account of the old school the vicissitudes, the trials, the honors and the many incidents in which the institution was concerned citing the part taken in it by noted sons of North Carolina. The paper showed much research and study and was valuable because many facts were mentioned which perhaps were not known by the public before.

Succeeding the singing of the song "America" Miss Kathryn King delivered the valedictory. Preceding it Prof. Craven announced the conditions by which Miss King had the honor conferred upon her. He stated that her per centage from the beginning of the spring term was 99 1-10 and for the year was 98 1-20.

Her speech was one of tender gratitude to the superintendent for his watchful care and wise advice; he was ever ready and willing to give; to the other teachers for their guidance and assistance in the arduous duties of school life. She spoke without embarrassment and a confidence that many a more experienced speaker might have coveted. Miss King was the recipient of many well earned honors which were announced from the stage. She had been an indefatigable student and in the face of many trials had through pluck and perseverance gained the highest position her school could offer.

At the close of the exercises the announcement of the awarding of medals and scholarships was made. The presentation of the medals was made by Mr. S. M. Brinson. Those who received were Myra Berry and Eva Armstrong 8th grade, medals donated by Messrs T. A. Green and C. W. Mungler. The 9th grade medal given by Mrs. J. A. Meadows was won by Fred Jones for excellence in literature, 10th grade medal was also given by Mrs. J. A. Meadows and won by Miss Kathryn King for superior standing in mathematics. In the presentation speech Mr. Brinson said that he had prepared a speech for different conditions, that it was usual for the boy to win the mathematics prize and it was difficult for him to believe it was different.

Prof. Craven presented the scholarships to the following students: U. of N. C., Will Sultan; to the A. & M. A. Bruce Edgerton and Donald Patterson; to Trinity College, George Thomas Willis; to Elizabeth College, Kathryn King.

Prof. Craven gave a statement of appreciation.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES.

At four o'clock yesterday afternoon the opera house was again filled by the citizens to listen to the program prepared for class day.

The class president, Bruce Edgerton welcomed the spectators by giving a short sketch of the class and its achievements. Miss Fannie Green delivered the class prophecy in which she foretold the future of each member of the class with the true spirit of a seer. After music Miss Mary Louise Carraway read the class poem. It was a very clever production and much credit is due the young lady for the conception of such well constructed verses.

The class history was the sketch of the life of the class from October 1900 to June 1905 in a clear and entertaining manner. The writer said that the history did not tell of great political or national strife but there had been battles fought in the class room more important to the students concerned than those of a national character. The historian was thorough in her review and not only did the audience enjoy it but the class also.

Miss King's essay on Eternal Monuments was one of the most beautiful and praiseworthy papers offered. It contained much to incite to higher, nobler efforts and bespeak for the writer a brilliant future.

The class then sang the song written and composed for them, after which they were dismissed by Rev. H. S. Bradshaw.

JAPANESE LOSSES.

Washington, May 31.—The Japanese legation today received the following report from Tokio:

"It is officially announced that in the last naval battle the damages sustained by our fleet were very slight and not one of our battleships, cruisers, destroyers and other ships was lost, except three torpedo boats.

"Under imperial command Admiral Togo was authorized to permit Nebogottoff to submit to the czar the reports on the last battle and a list of Russians killed, wounded and prisoners. The admiral was also authorized to release on parole the surrendered officers of Nicholas I., Orel, Apraxine and Senyavin.

"Rojestvensky was taken to Sasebo naval hospital. No other admiral was captured from Biedovy, last report in this respect being due to clerical error.

The state department has received the following cablegram from Tokio dated today:

"Rojestvensky's skull fractured, requiring operation; serious but not dangerous. Total Japanese losses to date, three torpedo boats, sunk; three officers killed; about two hundred men killed and disabled.
