DISORDER AT ODESSA.

Trouble Spreading in Russia. Conflicts between Strikers and Troops.

St. Petersburg, June 28.—The wave of disorder rolling over Russia has appeared at Odessa, where a general strike accompanied by bloodshed and disorders has broken out. There were several collisions between the military and the strikers Monday night and yesterday, in two of which volleys were fired by the troops. No report of the extent of the casualties had been received, the official statement dealing only with the initial encounter Monday night, declaring that two persons were killed therein. There was another encounter yesterday afternoon and a number of attacks were made on individual policemen.

A press dispatch received last night said that 400 armed workmen barricaded a suburb and repulsed the attack of a company of Cossacks. Reinforcements of three companies of Cossacks were sent to the suburb, but the result of their attack on the strikers is not yet known.

MUTINEERS COMMAND HARBOR

At Odessa With Warships. City in Flames Fired by Revolutionists.

London, June 29.—The Standard's correspondent at Odessa, telegraphing at 9:30 last night says:

"A disquieting report has been brought here to the effect that four other battleships have mutinied at Sebastopol and that two of them are on the way to join the Kniaz Potemkin. This evening the Kniaz Potemkin moved closer to the breakwater with her heavy guns trained on the city." The same correspondent telegraphing at 10:10 o'clock says:

"The quarantine station, harbor, warehouses, stores and offices and some of the Russian shipping have been fired by revolutionary bands in the town, setting all the government buildings in flames which are now brilliantly illuminating the whole portion of the city towards the sea. All foreign ships are preparing to slip their moorings in case of need, but the Kniaz Potemkin is playing her searchlight on every portion of the harbor. I have just learned that the Kniaz Potemkin perceiving a picket of Cossacks stationed at the Richelieu monument fired a shell, killing four soldiers and wounding twenty."

RALEIGH

State Official Removes To Tennessee Successor Sought.

Good Progress Being Made on Raleigh and Southport Railway. Bernard Still "Out of Sight." Rains Are Hurting The Cotton.

Raleigh, June 28.—Mr. J. M. Bentley, who for a couple of years has been assistant to State entomologist Franklin Sherman, goes to the superintendent station of Tennessee as assistant entomologist. Prof. Sherman left for the north today to find a new man.

It is said that State Treasurer Lacy will not return from his camping trip in the North Carolina mountains until July 15th.

From the general manager of the Raleigh and Southport Railway it is learned that work is in progress on the third pier of the bridge across the Cape Fear River at Lillington. The steel structure will be 500 in length, and there will be 1,250 feet of trestle. The bridge will be thirty feet above the water at the normal stage and by the last of August will be completed. It is expected that trains will be running into Fayetteville from Raleigh by Christmas.

As yet there are no tidings of Claud M. Bernard. Everything here is waiting on the official reports from Dockery as to the condition of John Dockery on which is based the hearing of policeman Rogers who shot him. Today the conditions of Dockery was improved, and his father Marshal Dockery appeared to be much encouraged. It is not known when an operation can be performed. Marshal Dockery has received hundreds of telegrams and letters from all over the State expressive of sympathy and he is much impressed and affected by these evidences of regard and interest.

As yet there are no developments as to this sensational case beyond those troubles. It is said by lawyers that the fight will now be on the character of the two young women in this deplorable case.

One of the leading cotton dealers remarked that he had never known the crops so "spotted" as they are this season, this being due to the fact that the rains are so scattered. In a township ten miles north of here, for example, there has been no rain since the middle of May.

TO MAKE GOOD DEFICITS

Government Must Increase Internal Revenue Tax. Possible Double Tax on Beer.

Washington, D. C., June 28.—Treasury officials have been busy for weeks figuring out how the continuance of the existing deficit can be avoided. Expenditures cannot be easily reduced, and the alternative proposition is that more revenue must be secured. Secretary Shaw, who is ranked among the "stand-patters" on the tariff question, is backed by some of the most influential men in both branches of Congress. If the customs revenues are not to be changed the only other means for bringing in additional supplies is from increased internal revenues. There has been a suspicious activity in that branch of the Treasury for some time, and hints have been dropped by officials of that bureau that justify the conclusion that it is in the minds of Treasury officials that more internal revenue is the most satisfactory way of eliminating the present embarrassing condition of the Treasury.

While it is not within the exact truth to state that definite conclusions have been reached so far as the executive branch of the Government is concerned, it is not improbable that Congress will be asked to increase the internal revenue tax on beer and, possibly, manufactured tobacco. From the standpoint of the experts on trade, the brewers of beer can most easily stand the brunt of increased taxation, as 45,000,000 barrels of this product are put on the market each year, and every barrel pays $1 tax. To double that tax would provide an additional revenue sufficient to more than wipe out the deficit, and, with an economical administration of affairs, leave sufficient to carry on the Panama Canal operations without recourse to any bond issue whatever. It has been suggested that such a tax would render impossible a general opening up of the tariff question, which the stand-patters are also unwilling to permit the tariff to be aired in Congress just now.

Of course, any plan that looks to the increase of the tax on beer will be combated by one of the most powerful lobbies in the country. The mere suggestion of such action when Congress has been in session has been sufficient heretofore to bring to Washington pressure that has stifled beer tax agitation. A Presidential election, however, is some distance off, and if the President urges such action upon Congress at the next session it is quite probable that legislation with that end in view will be enacted.

Speaker Cannon, whose power in the House is mighty, is one of the most implacable opponents of revision of the tariff, even in its most inoffensive shape. His chief lieutenants, Mr. Dabell, Mr. Payne and Mr. Grosvenor, are of the same mind.

In the Senate, Mr. Allison and Mr. Aldrich, who dominate that body, are likewise opposed to revision, so that the pathway to the enactment of increased beer tax legislation would seem to be comparatively easy.

GOVERNOR'S OPINIONS

Declines to Pardon Gold Brick Swindlers or Commute Sentence of Dan Teachey.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, June 29.—Governor Glenn declines to pardon Howard, Alias Thompson, of New York, and Hawley, Alias Snarley, of Chicago, the two gold brick swindlers in the penitentiary here. He says they ask it because they are old, and have been punished enough, but evidence shows they had equipped themselves to perpetrate a great fraud and had forged signatures to letters to carry out their plans. They are educated, knew better, tried to defraud our citizens, and cannot expect an outraged law to deal gently with them. All the courts, State and Federal have said their punishment is just.

Governor Glenn declines to commute the death sentence of Dan Teachey, under sentence to be hanged in Duplin county for murder. The Governor says he has looked into all evidence, heard argument and even allowed the prisoner to see him at Goldsboro and make a statement, but that the conclusion is to his deliberate murder of Robert Rivenbark, and two impartial juries have so decided, the Supreme court saying the murder was with fixed design and heartless brutality.

WILL DEWEY BE TRIED?

The Case is Set For Next Wednesday July 5th

The Question is, Will It Get To That Point?

At the last term of criminal court, it will be remembered that the case to The State vs Thomas W. Dewey, came up for trial at which time there was a good deal of an oral battle which resulted in a victory for the defendant. The case was continued. It was stipulated, however, that the case should begin on Wednesday, July 5th and it was agreed by the defendants attorneys.

The common report and belief around town is that the defense will not be ready for trial, that one of the lawyers being ill and taking treatment at a northern sanitarium the case can not be satisfactorily conducted and therefore it will be detrimental to Dewey's interests to have a trial at this time.

Aside from Mr. Frank Daniels who is the invalid, the defense has able counsel who can conduct the case as well as he. It is a clever ruse to obtain another continuance and if that fails the shrewd lawyers will try some other scheme doubtless the same they tried and worked successfully at the last term of court. Maybe the heat will have something to do with a continuance.

If you are troubled with dizzy spells, headache, indigestion, constipation, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you all keep you well. If it fails, get your money back. That's fair. 35 cents. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Royall and Miss Emma Maxwell, of Salisbury; Miss Florence Willis, of New York; Mrs. H. E. Royall, Miss Ellinor Taylor and friend, Messrs. Dwight M. Styron and Carl Taylor.

WHO'S GOT THE BUTTON?

Or In Other Words Who Has Political Patronage?

The following clipping taken from the letter of Thomas J. Pence in the Raleigh Post of June 29th, will be read with interest as it suggests the existence of an "inner circle" or those who are "next to the throne" in North Carolina:

"It is comment here that southern Republicans are paying more attention to the aspirations of the various candidates for the nomination for the presidency than those in other parts of the country, and this condition is explained by reason of the fact that there is prospect of a genuine contest in the G. O. P. three years hence for the first time in twelve years. Such an opportunity as is indicated has whetted the appetites of Republicans in the south, who have had mighty poor "grazing," as the saying goes, since McKinley's nomination in 1896. One of the best informed politicians in North Carolina expressed the opinion today that the clash of the organization and the office holders as against Blackburn and his crowd is not so much a fight over patronage as surface indications point, as it is a contest for advantage, preliminary to the choosing of delegates to the next Republican national convention. "Blackburn and Rollins have agreed on a patronage program," this authority said, "for the president told them that they had to. Mr. Roosevelt would not consent to the humiliation of Judge Pritchard's friends and former allies, and at the same time he believes the only Republican congressman from the state should have recognition greater than the appointing of third and fourth class postmasters in his district. The fight, which reached its climax in the effort of the two factions to get their 'organs' going first, was the first move in the game to capture the North Carolina delegation to the next national convention. The fight is going to get warmer all the while, and in the meantime many yellowbacks of large denomination will be distributed among the boys along the firing line."

Prevo-Henderson.

On Wednesday evening June 28th, at Tabernacle church in the presence of many friends and relatives Mr. Ralph Prevo and Miss Leslie Henderson were happily married, Rev. D. C. Geddie officiating.

Mr. Prevo is a fine young man of Duck Creek, Onslow county. Miss Henderson is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. J. T. Henderson. Mr. John Hurst of Duck Creek was best man. Miss Lula Henderson, sister of the bride was bride's maid.

Miss Dora Sabiston assisted by Mr. Ben Hurst played the wedding march. Flowers added much to the scene. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for their future home, Duck Creek, where supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Prevo were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. We extend our esteemed congratulations to the newly married couple.

SHORT PASSING EVENTS.

A large excursion composed of the members of a colored Baptist Sunday School went to Morehead yesterday. Five coaches were necessary to take the people and they were all crowded.

Mr. George Hill has been appointed agent and operator of the A. & N. C. station at Havelock.

The North Carolina Dental Association is in progress at Waynesville this week. We notice that the program for last night was devoted to memorial exercises to the late Dr. J. H. Benton, Dr. Harper, of Kinston delivering an address on the life and character of Dr. Benton.

In another column the ad of the A. & N. C. Co. will be seen relative to the Fourth of July at Morehead. It is expected that this event will be one of the most brilliant celebrations ever held there and the company are offering special rates for the day. The boat races will be a big feature and undoubtedly one of the most interesting parts of the celebration. Large crowds will attend.

The editor acknowledges an invitation to be present at a fish fry on the Mc Cabe farm on Bogue Sound Tuesday, July 4.

The "Unco guid" aldermen of Morehead have ordained that citizens cannot buy meat on the Sabbath and it is believed they are in collusion with dealers who sell refrigerators and the ice trust in order to compel the people to buy refrigerators and ice. The aldermen ought to have their crowns and harps. They are too good for this world.

We are in receipt of your communication referring to the letter of J. Baum Safe and Lock Co. In reply to same we wish to state that all we can say is that the safe manufactured by the above firm is in our opinion a wonder. The destruction of the Pike Building in 1903 was the largest conflagration that this city has ever known. The fire was like a furnace for over a week; our offices were located on the fourth floor, and when the building collapsed, the second day of the fire, our safe fell to the sub-basement, where we found it three weeks later in every way. Naturally we immediately re-equipped our offices with the Baum safes, and we are at all times willing to recommend their safes to prospective buyers in the highest and most complimentary terms.

THROAT AFFECTIONS
ABSOLUTELY

I have five children, and all of them have had severe colds and croup, and I find that Honey-Tolu is a most excellent remedy, and would not be without it in the house. It has always been satisfactory, and gives prompt relief in croup and coughs with the first two or three doses, loosens their throats and improves them in every way.

Mrs. WM. McCOLLISTER, Greensboro, N. C.

I cannot praise too highly your Honey-Tolu; it is the King of all cough remedies. I had a bad cold, with a severe cough for weeks, and tried everything without avail, when a friend recommended Honey-Tolu to me. I procured a bottle, with the result that my cold is entirely cured. I always keep it for the use of my family. I advise everyone suffering with a cough or cold to use Honey-Tolu and be cured.

S. G. HUTCHINSON, Greensboro, Va.

This old reliable and efficient remedy has stood the test of years, and is recognized and prescribed by leading physicians as the one cough cure that is sure to cure, and safe to administer to adults or children. It is never-failing in results, is pleasant to take and always cures. We have thousands of testimonials to these facts.
