

NEARLY BLEED TO DEATH.
Robert Pittman, Steps on a Piece of Broken Glass and Severs Artery of Foot.
Robert Pittman, the young son of Mr. A. E. Pittman met with an accident which nearly cost him his life and which he will suffer for some weeks on account of the serious nature of the injury.
He was playing with some friends in the rear of Mr. William Bryan's yard on Pollock street, and stepped on a piece of broken glass which severed the main artery of the left foot and before it could hardly be known what had happened the boy was bleeding furiously.
The other boys picked him up and carried him home and Dr. J. W. Duguid was summoned. He said that had he delayed his attendance hardly three minutes longer the boy would have been past help, the blood flowed so copiously the boy was taken to the doctors office, where he was put under the influence of morphine and the gash sewed up.
The loss of blood was so great that when the anesthetic was administered that the pulse had all but ceased. It is thought that the loss of blood amounted to three quarts.
Lawn Party.
There will be a Lawn Party in Mrs. Holland Smith's yard at Vanceboro, N. C., Friday night, Aug. 18.
Refreshments of all kinds will be served, and the proceeds will be used for the benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal church at Vanceboro.
Everybody is cordially invited and a large attendance will be highly appreciated.

Word of Thanks.
The management of the North Carolina Supplements desire to return their most earnest thanks to each and all who have aided in any manner in making possible this tribute to the grand heroism of North Carolina's devoted daughters. To name all such, and to thank them individually and by name would be impossible, but in every department of the work we have had the most cordial and valuable assistance of the good people of North Carolina.
But one we can name, the able editor who has gathered, arranged, and edited the mass of valued incidents. To Miss Mamie Bays, of Charlotte, N. C., is due the literary success of the publication, and its great intrinsic value will ever stand as a mark of her skill, judgment and devotion to the sacred memories of a hallowed past.

Barger Not Great
New York, August 16.—The Tribune publishes letters from New Orleans business men making light of the yellow fever situation. One says: "We have as yet not reached the epidemic stage of yellow fever, as an epidemic cannot be declared until the deaths of one disease exceeds the deaths of all other diseases combined. The disease is in only one section of the city, the lower part known as the French market. The United States marine hospital service has surrounded this section and is fumigating it." Another letter says: "Conditions here do not warrant one looking for sympathy. The situation is not at all serious and disastrous as reported by the press outside the city. The only inconvenience we experience is making shipments to points in sister States."
Charles S. Clark, a paper manufacturer of the city who returned from New Orleans last night says the fever has little effect on business. He is impressed with the evidences of the prosperity of New Orleans. During periods of epidemics he had been to that city in former visits when it was almost deserted.

TRUCKERS' ASSOCIATION.
Has Its Regular Annual Meeting at Wrightsville Beach.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the East Carolina Fruit and Truck Growers' Association was held Wednesday afternoon in the assembly room of the Tarrymore Hotel, on Wrightsville Beach, the change of the place of the meeting having been in order that the visitors, without loss of time, might avail themselves of the pleasure of a complimentary trip to the seashore and an elegant luncheon, given by the business men of Wilmington in recognition of the value of the trucking industry to the commercial interests of the city. The attendance was larger than usual, an even one hundred covers having been laid for the luncheon, and the interest in the proceeding of the body having been intense.
Next to the hearing of the annual reports, which were quite voluminous, the important business laws the election of the board of directors and the subsequent election by the directors of the executive committee and officers of the association, all of which resulted a follows—
President, Wm. E. Springer, of Wilmington; Vice-President, J. S. Westbrook, of Wallace; Secretary and Business Agent, H. T. Bauman, of Wilmington; Treasurer, S. H. Strange, of Fayetteville; Attorney, J. O. Carr, of Wilmington.
Executive Committee: W. E. Springer, of Wilmington; J. A. Westbrook, of Mt. Olive; W. L. Hill, of Warsaw; J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, and J. S. Westbrook, of Wallace.
The truckers were delighted with the entertainment given them by the business men of the city and appropriate resolutions were adopted concerning the same. A resolution upon motion of Dr. E. Horton, was adopted, pledging the moral support of the association to the truckers of Grista, in their suit against the Atlantic Coast Line and offering such financial assistance as the executive committee and attorney may deem proper.
Dr. J. M. Faison delivered a strong speech against the transportation companies for their failure to provide adequate shipping facilities. It was decided to appoint a new committee to be known as the Congressional and Legislative committee.

Baseball Today.
Reelsboro will play New Bern at Blades Park this afternoon at 3 p. m. A good game can be expected as the visitors are very strong.
The proceeds from this game are to be divided between the local team, and they deserve it. Necessarily the players lose time, wear out clothes and in many ways are losers by playing ball, and while we have had few games this season, it is no fault of theirs.
Turn out a good crowd this afternoon for the players.

A partial eclipse of the sun is scheduled for August 31.
Ed Green was taxed the costs in the police court yesterday for hite horse to a tree.

A vicious looking worm, known as the persimmon worm, was shown at the Journal office yesterday which is said to be as poisonous as a rattlesnake. It is large, green in color, its body contains sharp spines which are a part of its defense provided by nature. The body is composed of small joints which do not add to its loveliness. The principal weapons of defense are six horns placed on top of the head with which it executes. It does not bite.
A decided change took place in the weather Friday night after a severe storm. The temperature of Friday it will be remembered was 98 degrees; yesterday it was 75 degrees. It was an agreeable change to many people.
Mr. Charles Pearson, who has been assistant chief engineer for the A. & N. C. Co., has been placed in charge of the construction of the railroad bridge between Morehead City & Beaufort. Two cars have been unloaded in the building and the supplies of all kinds of meats, canned goods and every thing that the Armour's make will be found in stock there. The people in Five Points say that they are greatly disturbed at night by noisy, boisterous crowds. It has been discovered that these disturbers are mostly white people, young men, who tank up with booze and then proceed to "take in the town." When young men get drunk and stroll about all night disturbing honest, quiet people's rest, they have but little right to pose as gentlemen.
