HELPS POLITICS

The Constitutional Amendment Says Governor Glenn.

Governor Asked to Speak in Maryland Suffrage Campaign. Bethel Flag. W. C. T. U. Convention Ends.

Raleigh, Oct. 4.—Governor Glenn is urged to go Maryland and make speeches in the Suffrage campaign there. He is asked to speak October 12, and again later. The Governor has informed the committee that after President Roosevelt's visit here he will consider the matter of going there to speak. In the letter to the Governor, the question was asked what was the condition of North Carolina since the Constitutional Amendment limiting the Suffrage had gone into effect. The Governor in reply said that it was better than ever before in history of the State and that he did not believe any self-respecting democrat or republican desired to see a return to an old condition of affairs. He said good had been done both to political parties. That the republicans were getting in better shape and that matters were coming to such a condition that later on it would be simply a question of which two parties would be chosen, both of them having merit, and the negro question being entirely eliminated. The Governor had talked to prominent republicans who expressed these views as well satisfied with the same and its results, among them Judges Pritchard and Boyd.

The following rural free delivery routes are established: Cedar Grove, John E. Toler, carrier, Cherryville, John W. Quinn; Mooresboro, L. W. Green; Shelby, O. L. McFarland.

Among today's arrivals were C. B. Watson, of Winston-Salem and E. B. McKethan of Fayetteville. The latter brought to your correspondent the flag of the Bethel Regiment; not the flag which the Regiment carried in the first battle of the war, but the one which was made for and presented to it when it was re-organized in the autumn of 1891, after its six months term of service had ended. The flag is in very bad condition but is on the original staff. The flag which the Regiment carried at Bethel has been in the possession of the State a number of years and is in the Hall of History where the flag brought by Mr. McKethan was placed today.

The case of Gattis-Kilgo in the Supreme court is postponed until tomorrow.

The State convention of the W. C. T. U. ended today. There was a scripture lesson and prayer by Mrs. Elizabeth Turner of Asheville, followed by reports of division superintendents.

Death of Miss Nellie Hill.

The friends of Miss Nellie M. Hill, daughter of Mr. R. R. Hill, were greatly surprised and shocked last evening to learn of her death which occurred about 4 o'clock. Miss Hill's illness was only of a very few days and was not considered dangerous until a few hours before her death. Monday she became ill and suffered a congestive chill but had rallied and seemed to be getting better, but hopes were shattered by a relapse from which she could not recover.

Miss Nellie was in the 25th year of her age and had been a resident of New Bern many years. She was a young woman of many lovely attributes of character and was highly esteemed by her friends.

The time and place of the funeral services will be announced later.

The A. & N. C. Co. will make special rates to New Bern on account of The Clansman at the Opera house Monday night. Tickets will be good either on the special train returning to Goldsboro Monday night or on the regular train at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Centenary church will meet this afternoon in the church parlors at 3:30 o'clock.

Letter to D. R. Davis

New Bern, N. C.

Dear Sir: Lead-and-oil is not good paint; don't wear it, the rate is, as every one knows, repaint in three years.

Devoe lasts six, in the same way—allow wide margin in all such statements. What does it mean, to last? It means the same with both.

As to covering: that's another. Here's an instance.

Mr. J. J. Hall, Sheffield, Pa., painted two houses, lead-and-oil; took 40 gallons.

Last summer bought 40 gallons Devoe for the same two houses; returned 10 gallons.

The paint, that covers; lasts; it's all paint, true paint, and full-measure. Lead-and-oil is all paint but not good paint; the lead wants zinc. Better paint Devoe.

Yours truly
F. W. Devoe & Co.

THE CLANSMAN

Raleigh Joins in Excitement of this Play

Governor Glenn Approves. Others Differ in Opinion. As to Pardons. Governor Says Have Legislation For State Prohibition. Low Water For Cotton Mills

Raleigh, Oct. 5.—All sorts of opinions were expressed regarding the production of The Clansman here last night. The applause was tremendous and the interest keen throughout. A number of persons disapprove of the play, some saying that it ought never be presented to the South certainly, while others think it magnificent and an object lesson. One very prominent man said he wanted the play to be given all over England. Governor Glenn was interviewed this morning regarding the play and said that when it began he had conflicting opinions as to whether it was best or not to produce such a play, but that as it continued to develop and finally reached its climax he was thoroughly satisfied that it ought to be presented in every city in the United States, in order that the rising generation should know the truth as to southern life in reconstruction days, to the end that justice might be done the South. He expressed the hope that all the people in the South would give it as warm a reception as it received in Raleigh. It is said that an audience of at least 2,000 is expected in Wilmington and even more at Charlotte.

Tomorrow there will be a hearing before the Supreme Court of the case involving the power of the police justice Badger of Raleigh to sentence prisoners to work on the roads or pay fine. The Superior Court judge said the just case had this power and so did a justice of the Supreme Court from whose opinion there is an appeal and so the case comes before the full bench.

Alfred W. Haywood, a well known cotton mill owner of H. W. River is here and says the low water in the stream adds very considerably to the expenses of the mills, which are using steam power.

Some of the papers have been unduly criticising Governor Glenn about giving so much consideration to petition pardon, commutation, etc. The fact is that it is the policy of the governor to give all applicants fair hearing, that is to hear anything that it is right to present to him, and then act as best he can in all cases. Another rule of his is that he will be governed by the testimony. If he is to be criticised for this course, why of course he will have to bear it. The governor knows very well that the constitution gives the right of petition. Any one who will take the trouble to look over his list of pardons will see that he is upholding the court and not undoing what they have done. Of course he cannot interfere with the constitutional right of petitions.

The Governor was reading an editorial in a newspaper which stated that it expected the prohibition issue to be put before the people in the next campaign inquiry was made of the governor about this matter and he said the only thing was that the people must rule and that the people are behind the prohibition movement it will succeed, but if they are not then it will not succeed either in locality or in the State. In his opinion the legislature ought at its next session to submit the question to the people and let the latter fight it out.

The platform of the governor, as he himself has declared it, is for temperance and sobriety and a higher order of morality in the State, with renewed industrial improvement and development, education of the masses and the adoption of such a platform as will promote all these great needs and interests. To this work he proposes to devote his time and labor.

Leading tobacco dealers here say that the crop was a little larger in this section than it was last year, but that they believe it will weigh out less in the State than last year's crop. Prices of leaf are now said to be good.
