

INLAND WATERWAY

Important Hearing in New Bern November 21st. Board of Inspection Coming.

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 7, '05.

Editor Journal:

The letter which I hand you from Congressman John H. Small explains itself, and I print it to call attention to the important hearing to be held in New Bern on the 21st of November in regard to the Inland Waterway from Norfolk to Beaufort.

Heartily co-operating with Mr. Small and giving him my hearty endorsement to this project, which is of interest to Craven and Carteret counties in my District, I trust that a good number of our citizens interested in this important project will meet the Engineers on the evening of November 21st.

I have also enlisted the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce and City and County authorities.

Very truly yours,
C. R. THOMAS.

Washington, N. C., Nov. 4, '05.

Hon. Charles R. Thomas,
New Bern, N. C.

My Dear Thomas:

You will of course recall that the last River and Harbor Act contained a provision authorizing the appointment of a Board of Engineers to make an examination and survey and report upon the Inland Waterway project at ten and 12 feet in depth respectively from Norfolk to Beaufort. Col. Smith S. Leach, of Washington, D. C., Capt. Flagler, of Wilmington, Del., and Capt. George P. Howell, of Charleston, S. C., have been detailed as the Board of Engineers.

The board have arranged for an inspection trip over the route and Capt. Howell has forwarded to me their itinerary and asked me to communicate with you as to that part of the itinerary in your District. I beg to say that according to their plan, the Board will arrive at Beaufort on Sunday evening, November 19. On Monday, they propose to take a trip towards Adam's Creek, either by water or by baggage, or by both methods, as may best serve the purposes of the examination. They will also wish to hold a hearing either at Beaufort or Morehead City, as may be deemed advisable, on Monday afternoon, 20th inst. Their present purpose is to leave Beaufort via Core Sound Monday afternoon before nightfall by boat, proceeding through Core Sound, thence by Pamlico Sound and Neuse River to New Bern.

They will also wish to give a hearing in New Bern on Tuesday, 21st inst., the hour of which has not been stated; but probably can be arranged to be held in the evening after supper.

At these hearings the Board wish an expression of views from citizens regarding the importance of the proposed waterway and the benefits to commerce and otherwise, including suggestions as to the best route to be taken. It has been suggested that at each point where hearings are to be held a committee should be appointed, a advance who shall be directed to formulate a report in writing, setting forth the views of their respective communities along the lines indicated, which report in writing should be addressed to Col. Smith S. Leach, President of the Board.

Of course this written report can be supplemented by brief oral talks at the hearing.

I think you will hear from Capt. Howell within a few days. If I can be of any further service to you, please command me.

Kindly acknowledge. With my best wishes, I am,
Yours very truly,
JOHN H. SMALL.

There's no beauty in all the land
That can with her face compare,
Her lips are red, her eyes are bright,
She takes Rocky Mountain Tea at night.

TWO SOCIAL EVENTS

In Marriages of Prominent Raleigh Young Ladies.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 8.—The principal social event of the week here occurred this evening at the home of Mrs. M. A. Heck, on North Blount Street, this being the wedding of her daughter, Miss Susie Heck and Dr. C. Alphonso Smith of the University of North Carolina. The home was most artistically decorated with smilax, and the flowers of the season, and a brilliant company gathered there to do honor to the occasion. Dr. Thomas Bunn of Charlotte was best man, Mrs. Jones Fuller of Durham, dame of honor; and Miss Margaret Chadwick Heck, a young sister of the bride was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Marie Brooke of Philadelphia; Mabel Mooreman of East Orange, N. J.; Susan Clark, and Mary Grimes Cowper of Raleigh. The groomsmen were Professors Graham and Polker of the University of North Carolina; Professors William Allen Perkins and Harry Heck of University of Virginia and Dr. Rawlings of Lynchburg. The officiating minister was Rev. Dr. Eghert Smith, a brother of the groom. Among members of the family attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George H. Heck of New York City. There was a very brilliant reception to the invited guests.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church of the Good Shepherd there occurred the marriage of Mr. Elliott Anderson Woodruff, of Charlotte to Miss Lucy Blake Merrill of this city. Mr. F. L. Woodruff, of Alabama, Superintendent of the Bell Telephone Co. for that State, acted as best man, they being brothers. It was a very quiet wedding. The couple were the recipients of many handsome presents.

Dewey Begins His Sentence.

Raleigh, Nov. 8.—T. W. Dewey, defaulting cashier of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of New Bern, entered last evening on the service of his six year sentence in the penitentiary. His coming to the penitentiary was quite unique. He arrived this morning at 8:40, greeted none of his friends but went directly to the penitentiary, spending the day there as a guest looking over the institution. This afternoon Sheriff Biddle of Craven county arrived and drove to the penitentiary, finding Dewey there, and went through the formal ceremony of delivering Dewey to the authorities and receiving a receipt for him. Dewey had been out on $40,000 bond since his conviction pending the appeal to the Supreme Court by whom the sentence was affirmed Oct. 3. It has required the time since then to certify the finding of the Supreme Court down to the Craven court. Dewey is in excellent health and seemed cheerful, he said he has made up his mind not to worry any more over his fate and will serve his sentence as patiently as he can.

Complimentary Party.

A very elegant party was given last night at the home of Mrs. R. A. Steikney, the occasion being one complimentary to Miss Isabel Cameron Bryan, whose marriage is to take place next week.

Chrysanthemums were the decoration for the rooms, and these with bamboo vines gave a delightful effect. Choice refreshments were partaken of after the guests had enjoyed progressive euchre, there being six tables. Handsome prizes were awarded the successful ones.

Police Court News.

John Moulton was called before the Mayor yesterday to answer for a crime that is rather unusual for a colored man to commit. There are plenty who will steal but few who will resort to trick and duplicity to make dishonest gains, but the evidence showed that Moulton was quite a smooth and working a little confidence game but the arms of the law gathered around him and his scheme was dashed to the ground.

Moulton was arrested by officers Lupton and Bryan and the charge placed against him was obtaining money to the amount of $9.50 by trick and fraud the affidavit being made by William Allen. They were bound over to Superior Court in the sum of $100.

HEARST CONTEST BEGINS.

Order issued and Ballots Turned Over to Election Board, Mine to Assist in Contest.

New York, Nov. 9.—The contest of William R. Hearst for the Mayoralty has begun. At midnight the order was issued by Judge Gaynor and the police early this morning turned over the ballots to the election board.

Late today when the fullest returns had been received from all of the five boroughs, it became apparent that thousands of votes cast for William R. Hearst, for Mayor, had been thrown out, counted defective or invalidated in the scores of ways practiced by Tammany leaders in the carrying out of their crimes against the electorate.

Mr. Ivins, the defeated republican candidate, said today: "I am highly pleased to think that Mr. Hearst is going to require a canvass of the vote. Tammany had at its command not less than a million dollars, and I believe that every purchasable vote was purchased. District Attorney Jerome declared his purpose to deal with all acts of violence at the election brought to his attention, but made it plain that most offenses committed at the polls would properly come under the jurisdiction of Attorney General Mayer.

Among the eminent counsel secured by the law committee of the municipal ownership league in contesting the election is William M. Ivins, republican candidate for mayor, who volunteered his services and refused to accept compensation.

GET RIGHT WITH GOD.

A Stirring Sermon by Rev. Stuart in Which He Arraigned Dereflect Christians.

"I am the vine, ye are the branches," was the theme of Evangelist Stuart's sermon yesterday morning. It was a plain but severe arraignment of Christians who are unfaithful to their vows as church members. He illustrated his discourse by a stalk on which were flowers. As long as the flowers remained on the stalk they were whole and good but when they fell off their beauty and usefulness soon died. So it is in religious life; as long as the Christian lives close to God by prayer, reading the Bible and a consistent life just so long will he be a power but when one little sin is committed he has fallen away and his influence is hurt.

He arraigned the church members who dance and play cards or allow those pastimes in their families. He said the preacher who permitted his daughter to attend dances whether she participated in them or not, is not worthy of being a minister of Christ and should quit as long as such condition exists.

Another forceful illustration he used was of the nursery man who sprays his trees to prevent insects from harming the foliage and trees, and the point which he made was the Christian who guards against the allurements of sin by keeping in close touch with the Master.

At the close of the service Mr. Stuart held an informal reception asking the church members who desired to live better to come forward to the altar and take him by the hand. The request was complied with by a great many in the congregation. It was a most impressive sight. This was followed by those who were not church members to come forward and by so doing show their desire to live as Christians.

The sermon last evening was a marvelous discourse on the subject of The First Sin. The speaker held the great audience spell bound by his mastery handling of it.

He showed by apt word pictures how sin grew, how hideous it was and how sure and dread were its consequences. Many felt the force of the argument and professed conversion.

The special services will be a meeting for children Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and for men only Sunday afternoon.
