world has so far held itself together. Michael Angelo's Vow. The story is told, but with no solid foundation, that Raphael had undertaken to decorate the walls of the mansion of Cardinal Farnesina, on the banks of the Tiber, on the condition that no one should see his work until it was completed. Michael Angele took an oath that he would stop this work. Finding his opportunity when the artist came late to work and disguised as a seller of cakes and wine, he distracted the attention of those round the scaffold that was prepared by offering to them his wares, and, as cending he drew upon the wall a cantic head of Juniter and hurriedly left the building, his yow thus accom plished. When Raphael presently cause he instantly exclaimed on seeing the sketch, "Michael Angelo!" and left the palace never to return.
