AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

ational River and Harbors Congress to Be Held in Washington, D. C. January 15;

A meeting which will be of vast im nce to all cities that have maritime interests will be held in Washington, D. C., January 15. It is the River and Harbor Congress and from the name one may easily know the motive. Of course it will have the attention of the National Congress for there are members of the minor body who are also members of the great body of law makers and there cannot but be an absorbing interest taken on this imporant theme.

There has been much slackness about our water ways here and it is up to the people to show that they want improvements made in the rivers and sounds of this section that will make them adequate for every demand of commerce and safe for seamen. While there has been an appropriation made for some improvement of our rivers and the business men should show some appreciation and interest by sending a delega. ti n to Washington on this occasion. Norfolk will send a large committee as will a'so, Washington, Elizabeth City, Wilmington and other places deriving an income from marine commerce.

Should there not be any immediate good obtained-and that is not at all probable the discussions that will be heard there will warrant the trouble and expense of attending. The Chamber of Commerce should designate some good men who shall represent our interests in a proper manner.

Glorious Pulpit Reception at Morehead

City, N. C.

A grand and glorious day for St. ens A. M. E. Z. Church, occasion of the demonstration of friendship between the New Bern District and Washington District, although divided, still united. A brand new pulpit having been promised by Bro. J. A. Nor-wood, we had previously arranged for the reception of the same, together with the many friends of Beaufort, which was a grand affair. I feel happy to state that Divine Providence smiled upon us with unusual remarkably favor able weather for a November Sunday. The sun rose warm and bright and shined like a summer day. Our Sunday School was unusually largely attended, and a fair congregation to our eleven o'clock service. As per program the afternoon service came on, which was a little delayed by a large and even unexpected multitude of highly esteemed Christian friends from Beaufort, there being two boat loads instead of one, numbering over two hundred people by actual count, and others left desiring to come, the vast number when they arrived in our town, was very surprising, from a biblical standpoint or view, it looked like "Samson's foxes turned loose in the Philistines corn."

First in order devotional exercises were opened by the pastor of Purvis Chapel, his excellent choir and congregation, Miss Victoria Boyd organist; next came the welcome address by our very popular mayor, Hon. Chas. S. Wallace which was able and dignified, and was in like manner responded to by Rev. Prof. D. Wilder, pastor of Congregational Church, and principal of High School at Beaufort. The presentation of the new pulpit was then made, and the removal of the old one by the donor, Bro. J. A. Norwood, together with his 'Sanday School class, the contracting parties. The ceremony headed by several young ladies, who was performed by Rev. Robert Daugh- presented a pretty and well formed wreath and bouquets of flowers to decorate the same. The presentation address was then made briefly, pointedly but spiritually by Rev Jas. H. Moseley, after which the pulpit was impressively dedicated to the use of the church by the imposition of the hands of all the preachers present. The acceptation remarks in behalf of our church by that noted, scholarly and well known repesentative Christian gentleman, Hon. W. L. Arendell, State Senator, his remarks were thoughtful, spiritual and appreciated by all. Collection was taken and resulted in nearly $25, Beaufort people donating $9, St. Stephens $8.22, and our sister Baptist St. Luke Church $4.88; heartfelt thanks. Owing to the overflowing congregation hundreds of people could not participate in the collection, but still have an opportunity to help at their convenience. The services were interspersed with melodious, well selected music. The crowd is estimated to be six or seven hundred people, a mixed multitude of white and colored. Our services closed with church extension exercises at night with the Wild wood choir participating; 25 sweet little children dressed in white surrounded he altar, arranged by a special com-
