119TH COMMUNICATION

Of North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons.

Representatives From 134 Lodges. Great Satisfaction Over Reports of Secretary and Treasurer. Needy Student Inherits Money. Pictures Wanted of Former Secretaries of State. Bank Elections.

Raleigh, Jan. 10.—Grand Master Walter S. Liddell, of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons presided at the first session of the 119th communication. There were present representatives from 134 lodges, out of 238 in the State and the attendance was considerably above 600. The grand master addressed the body entering into the beneficence of real brotherhood, and reviewing not only the growth and development of masonry but its possibilities with very special emphasis on the erection of a Masonic Temple in Raleigh, one that would be in reality and of permanence and pronounced support in the world. Mr. Liddell retires after two terms in this high office. All the committees made their reports which were indices to greater usefulness and a more marked benefit.

Deep satisfaction was evinced at the reports of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer. The latter of whom in his statement shows collections amounting to $1,272.50, the largest in the Grand Lodge's history and exceeding other records by $25,000. Memorial resolutions of William Simpson, late grand treasurer were presented. The report from the Oxford Orphan Asylum shows that by recent bequests an endowment fund of more than $8,000 has been established. Only two of the past grand masters were absent at this session.

Haywood Gaddy, a student in the Textile Department of the A. & M. College and a dependent on a scholarship in that college has recently inherited money which places him beyond the scholarship need, and the young man has now turned over that amount to the college scholarship fund for needy students. Mr. Gaddy is a native of Ansonville.

Hon. J. B. Grimes, Secretary of State, is desirous of obtaining portraits or pictures of William White and William Hill, former secretaries of State from 1778 to 1811 and from 1811 to 1819 respectively. The secretary desires to place reproductions of these pictures on the walls of his newly finished office.

Vann of Franklinton a director of the Citizens National while at a later meeting the Mechanics will fill the vacancy for the post of cashier occasioned by the death of J. O. Litchford. The Raleigh banks represent a capital of $445,000 with $255,000 profits and surplus, and assets of $4,500,000.

Plan for 11 Cent Cotton.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 10.—The Mississippi delegates to the New Orleans Cotton Convention, which will be held this week, will go with instructions to try to secure the option by the convention of what is known as the Wither spoon plan.

This plan, in brief is that a corporation to be known as the Southern Cotton Company shall be formed, with a capital of $110,000,000 to begin business as soon as the capital is paid in. The shares are placed at $100 each and are payable in cash, or cotton at $50 a bale. The corporation is to purchase $100,000,000 worth of cotton at ten cents per pound regardless of the market price, and is not to sell till the price shall have reached eleven cents, when it shall be sold for eleven cents, no more, no less.

It is an easy thing to say,
And say it good and strong,
And say it pretty frequent,

Claim Miller Hazed North Carolina Boy

Annapolis, January 9.—Several legal questions of importance arose today during the second trial of Midshipman Stephen Decatur on charges of hazing before the court-martial in session at the Naval Academy. On a motion to strike out certain specifications as not constituting hazing, the court was led to substantially define the term hazing as it is understood by the members of the court.

A plea in bar was then entered to the only specification against Decatur on the charge "encouraging and countenancing hazing."

The plea urged that Decatur had already been tried upon substantially the same facts in the former case and that his trial in the specifications would be putting him in jeopardy twice for the same offense. Judge Advocate Harrison admitted the force of this plea and the court adjourned to give him time to examine the questions involved.

In denying the motion to strike out the first two specifications, the court ruled that maltreatment of a fourth classman by the infliction or direct physical cruelty was not the only kind of hazing, but that any annoyance or molestations, such as the requirement of menial services, making ridiculous and such like, were also hazing. This ruling is expected to lead to many more convictions.

The next midshipman to be tried is John Paul Miller, of Lancaster, Ky., also a member of the first class. Among the midshipmen of the fourth class whom it is alleged that Miller hazed is Henry Cooper, of Oxford, N. C.

Carraway—Hill.

News & Observer, 11.

Interesting not to Raleigh alone, but to the State generally was the marriage yesterday afternoon of Miss Tempe Bodie Hill, of this city and Mr. James Edward Carraway, of Waynesville, N. C.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Theophilus Hunter Hill, corner of West and Morgan streets. The candle-lit rooms were effectively decorated with many palms and an abundance of cut flowers and an air of artistic and elegant simplicity added to the solemnity of the occasion. Rev. M. M. Marshall, rector of Christ Church, was the officiating clergyman.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Ernest Bain, of this city. She wore a beautiful tailored gown of silver gray broadcloth and carried Palma violets.

Among those present were the family connections of the bride and groom residing in this city, and from out of town: Mrs. Harris, of Henderson; Mrs. Sprague, of Waynesville; Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsey, of Seaboard; Miss Randolph of Asheville; Miss Magdalen Landis, of Henderson; and Mrs. Pinckney Seales, of Greensboro.

The bride is the daughter of the late Theophilus Hunter Hill, one of the State's best known literary men, and a great-grand daughter of William Hill, secretary of State for North Carolina from 1811 to 1859. Mr. Carraway, while a native of New Bern, has lived for many years in Waynesville where he holds the responsible position of Waynesville Fair and is engaged in the insurance business, being very highly esteemed and popular. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Carraway left for their home in Waynesville.

SUFFERED AGONIES FOR FOUR YEARS

Whole Foot Nothing But Proud Flesh—Tried Different Physicians and All Kinds of Ointments—Could Walk Only With Crutches—Ohio Man Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES THE BEST ON EARTH"

"In the year 1899 the side of my right foot was cut off from the little toe down to the heel, and the physician who had charge of me was trying to sew up the side of my foot, but with no success. When he found out that wouldn't work, he began trying to heal the wound with all kinds of ointment, until at last my whole foot and way up about my calf was nothing but proud flesh. I suffered untold agonies for four years, and tried different physicians and all kinds of ointments. I could walk only with crutches. It is sixteen months ago since I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for my limb and foot. The first two months the Cuticura Remedies did not seem to work, but I kept on using them both. In two weeks afterwards I saw a change in my limb. Then I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment every day and kept it up for seven months, when my limb was healed up just the same as if I never had trouble. It is eight months now since I stopped using Cuticura Remedies, the best on God's earth. I am working at the present day, after five years of suffering. The cost of Cuticura Ointment and Soap was only $6; but the doctors' bills were more like $600. You can publish my name and refer any one to write to me about Cuticura Remedies. I will answer all letters if postage is enclosed. John M. Lukins, 718 S. Arch Ave., Alliance, Ohio, June 27, 1905."

ROGERS CASE SETTLED

Policeman Who Shot Dockery to Pay Fine.

Plaintiff Dockery Through Attorney Asks Court to Inhibit No Punishment. Solicitor Satisfied With Any Judgment Court Might Give. All Ended in Celebrated Case. Other Wake County Court Matters.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, Jan. 11.—The legal aspect of the sensational shooting of John C. Dockery, by policeman Isaac N. Rogers in Raleigh last June, came to an end this afternoon in Wake County Superior Court, Judge G. W. Ward pronouncing judgment in sum fifty dollars and costs.

The original bill of indictment was amended to read secret assault last July before the magistrate. Rogers was released on five thousand dollars bail.

The case was called this morning and deferred to till afternoon. The counsel for Dockery addressed the court, pleading in name of plaintiff, stating Dockery was sure Rogers had been misinformed, had labored under a delusion; it was not a matter of money, but by advice of father, family and friends, he was satisfied Rogers had no malice outside of this to him. The plaintiff had suffered greatly, and was a better man in every sense, and he prayed the court to not inflict punishment, as Rogers had acted as any father under like circumstances. The plaintiff had decided this after a long, serious reflection.

Judge Ward asked the wish of the solicitor, who stated such a settlement was satisfactory, that any punishment the court imposed would satisfy the State. The Judge said he could not dispose of the matter without punishment, but not a humiliating one. Judge Ward also stated he was glad the two had reached an agreement in the matter.

The case of Anna Moore, colored, for arson, defendant plead guilty of attempt to burn the house. Judge Ward examined the facts by counsel, and concluded she acted under duress of husband, who held gun over her. Judgment suspended and prisoner discharged. William Moore, the husband of the woman, was sentenced to five years for larceny after burning of the house, the only witness against him for arson being his wife.

The cases of Lilliston and Clark, the fair fakirs, charged with killing George Smith, last October, will be tried tomorrow, jointly for murder in first degree. The State will call twenty-five witnesses.

A Howling Success

In the comedy "The New Secretary," the Peruchi-Gypzene Co. kept the audience at the opera house, in one continuous roar last night. It was productive of more laughs to the minute than any comedy that has been on the stage here. It is a revival of an old comedy which was very popular several years ago and from the way it was received last night its popularity has not died out yet by any means.

It is a comedy with a great deal of action but there is not much rough house work. There was a ludicrous situation due every minute and not one failed to be on time. A long time will pass before a more thoroughly enjoyed show will be seen on the local stage.

Tonight the exciting and interesting drama "The Midnight Marriage," which is essentially the same as the well known play the "Charity Ball" will be produced. It is claimed that this play is the company's masterpiece; Saturday the matinee will be "The Man From Mexico," another of their successful farces, and Saturday night the company closes its engagement with the performance of "Ten Nights in a Barroom."

The Secret

of nearly all eye troubles is eyestrain—and eyestrain, let it be explained, is not a disease to be overcome by drugs. It is a mechanical defect to be corrected by glasses. Men women and children suffer from this strain without the slightest idea what ails them—and in these days of free eye examination such ignorance is wholly uncalled for. To know how your eyes are worth while. Come in and we'll examine them and frankly tell whether or not glasses are needed.
