AN EXAMPLE OF NEGRO INDUSTRIAL WORK.

As a sample of what intelligent and persistent effort will do in the industrial training of the colored youth, no better illustration is afforded than that which is developing at the Eastern North Carolina Industrial Academy in this city, which is educating colored youth of both sexes along manual training lines, rather than along educational lines, chiefly of books.

In the local columns of the Journal has been noted the progress made in this Academy, and this assistance has been pretty generously extended, and now that apparatus have been secured, equipment gotten together, those who have contributed can see that the results are more and more satisfactory, and this Academy promises to be all that its promoters have declared for it, and if it fully comes forth, as it is now slowly but surely doing, then this city and section are going to reap the reward in a negro citizenship, educated in a productive and useful handicraft, a race of citizenship that will be builders up and factors in the industrial and commercial development and progress of Eastern Carolina, and wielding an influence through their example, that will go out and assist their race in other sections.

The special kind of work which is now showing for itself at this Industrial Academy, is the manufacture of brooms, and the success of this can be seen, in a large order which is given upon the sample shown of the first brooms made and exhibited within the past few days.

With a continuation of this broom manufacture, and also manufacture of other articles, which are to be made with further equipment, the colored youth at this Academy will prove of actual value to themselves in securing a manual training which means that they will be self-supporters, and be above those who are satisfied with "jobs," which means work of an hour or two, with no certainty or desire for its continuation.

The world has too many people in it who are satisfied with the little job of an hour or two, and who would flee from employment which means concentrated effort eight to twelve hours, six days in the week, and fifty two weeks in every year, except holidays. If the Industrial Academy shall teach this concentration upon work, as well as giving the good manual training that it is now showing, it will prove an institution of vast benefit to the colored race and to this Eastern Carolina section.

BLOCKS PRESENT AND FUTURE BUSINESS.

Griffith street has been so often mentioned in the columns of the Journal, that it may seem a worn-out subject, but the importance of this street, as an artery of commerce is so vital to the business interests of New Bern, that the Journal cannot withhold its columns from discussing, proposing and assisting until this street is built into a roadway, passable in every kind of weather.

The matter of widening this street was a subject which was brought up before the board of aldermen for definite action some months ago. If any action has been decided in the matter, in the way of results, the Journal does not know of it. In the meantime every trade interest which has Griffith street for its highway, has suffered and is suffering. It would seem as if the proposal of such a valuable roadway to the merchant classmen to meet their commercial interests of this city and county were some attention or at least some consideration.

This most important question, that has been so long a subject, remains unsolved. Ask for DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

To draw the line out of a hair, line a cat without leaving a scar, or to cure bald, scurf, tetter, eczema and all skin and scalp diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Ointment. A specific for piles. Use the ointment. Be remedy causes such speedy relief. Ask for DeWitt's—The Genuine. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Naturally, the rains of the past two months have done their work, assisted by the various teams which have been forced to go along this street, and today, and for days past, this street has been a frightful illustration of how bad a street can become.

What is demanded, is, accepting as a fact that the widening project of Griffith street has died and will not be heard of again, is for the city to take this street and pave it, not with oyster shells or marl rock, but with brick or stone, from curb to curb, with no open gutters, but all drainage beneath the surface. The old cry of "big expense" of course will be raised, but it is time for the city authorities to do some practical work in way of permanent improvements, which shall remain, not continue street making for today, with tomorrow to take care of itself. Begin on Griffith street, a most important trade street and build a road that will remain a score of years at least, with no demand for monthly patching up, and the value of the improvement will make returns a hundred times the first cost.

EASTERN CAROLINA RAILROAD AND TIMBER MERGER.

The announcements in the local columns of the Journal, from time to time, all point to the culmination of a tremendous railroad and timber land merger of these interests in Eastern North Carolina. The Virginia-Carolina Coast, the Suffolk and Carolina, the Coast Road, and just made public the Pamlico Oriental and Western, and hardly to be doubted, the Norfolk and Southern, and the Atlantic and North Carolina, these railroad properties all seem to be under one giant control of men to whom the question of money, in any amount, is of small importance, if money is wanted for the acquisition of good properties.

Together with these railroad combinations, there is also a gathering together of the large timber interests of this Eastern Carolina section, which include mills and roads over which the mill people have carried logs to their mills. Among these timber interests are the Roper and Blades people, whose properties are estimated at about $4,000,000. If the timber interests are merged with the smaller railroad interests, the latter said to be capitalized at $7,500,000, these totals go beyond the eleven million dollar mark, and if the large roads be added, with the additional timber interests said to be held by option, it is easy to see that here is some $20,000,000 to $25,000,000 of practically new money coming into this section, and these investors are people who make invested money earn something, so that these many millions must produce a commercial and industrial activity never before known in this section.

And if those who have sold their interests shall employ their money in trade or investment in this section, the question of trade interests becoming extremely large, with business development of all kinds being on a huge scale compared with the past, is easily solved and the growth of Eastern Carolina will be on a scale that will soon remove every idea that this is a slow growing section.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tea spoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

"Steam ox" and "steam camel" are the names given to automobiles by the natives of German Southwest Africa.

No pill is as pleasant and positive as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These Famous Little Pills are so mild and effective that children, delicate ladies and weak people enjoy their cleansing effect, while strong people say they are the best liver pills sold. Never gripe. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Preliminary steps have been taken in Berlin for municipal control of street railways.

To draw the line out of a hair, line a cat without leaving a scar, or to cure bald, scurf, tetter, eczema and all skin and scalp diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Ointment. A specific for piles. Use the ointment. Be remedy causes such speedy relief. Ask for DeWitt's—The Genuine. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

Courts Filled With Interesting Trial Cases.

The Samples Case Likely to Go Two Weeks Longer. Captured Stills Must Be Brought to Government Warehouse.

Suit on Discounted Notes. Mental Anguish Suits.

Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 30.—The case now pending in the Federal court against G. W. Samuels, charged with frauds as a Deputy Collector in combination with distillers to swindle the government entered on its second week of trial this morning. If bids fair to last for two weeks longer. Saturday the defendant put on his first witness, who was none other than the Revenue Agent until January first of this district, Col. W. H. Chapman. He testified to Samuel's excellent character as a man and an officer and a few other minor matters in his favor when counsel for the defendant stood him aside. District Attorney Holton then began a cross examination, which for its thoroughness and disclosures has never been approached in any former trial here in any court. It was not until just before court adjourned last night that he let up in his questions and the defendant's counsel are giving the witness a re-direct examination today. The cross examination clearly showed that the District Attorney and the Representative of the Revenue Department had been at cross purposes through the period of corruption and that it took a stern order from the Secretary of the Treasury before the Revenue Agent would give the Representative of the Department of Justice a look at the books or records in his office.

One of the good effects of the developments in the trial of the Revenue officers here is the issuance of an order by Revenue Agent Sams, who succeeded Col. Chapman January first, requiring all Deputy Collectors in future to send the stills they have cut up to the nearest government warehouse to be sold as old copper. This will completely break up the custom of reporting a still destroyed that has not been destroyed and of collecting ten dollars informers fees, without the evidence of the destroyed still being in the possession of others than the officers so reporting.

The third week of Superior court is in progress here. Judge Hoke yesterday morning decided a question of law on one of a series of important suits instituted here by the Southern Life and Trust Company against a dozen of the most prominent financiers of the city on some notes the Trust Company had discounted. The case in point was a test case. A fellow representing what he called the American Mercantile Company of New York modeled after Bradstreet and Dunns came here a year ago and sold stock in the proposed Company, accepting notes from each of the victims in the sum of twelve hundred dollars, payable in twelve months. The stock was issued to the note givers, but in a few weeks the whole thing proved a fake of the first water. The Southern Life and Trust Company had discounted these notes, and sued the payers. They set up the claim that the whole thing was a fraud, and to the purchaser ought not to recover. The bank claimed it had bought the notes in due course of business before maturity for value received without notice of any equities. The judge decided that defendant had not by evidence showed that the bank had notice of any equities, or that there was any reason to suspect fraud and directed the jury to return a verdict for the plaintiff bank. An appeal was taken. From the fact that about ten thousand dollars are involved in these notes, and that the first suit was by a bank against the cashier of a rival bank, who had signed one of the discounted twelve hundred dollar notes, the case excited much local interest.

Another unusual case is now in progress where W. I. Young is suing the Southern Railway. Two years ago he had a telegram in Chattanooga saying his wife and children here were at the point of death. He was crazy to get here and paid $750 for a special train car to bring him, leaving six hours ahead of schedule time for the regular passenger train. After a harrowing experience on the way by having to be hauled with freight engines on his special he reached here twenty minutes after the regular passenger train and found his child dead. He used the railroad for the recovery of the $720 and also for one thousand dollars damages for the mental anguish consequent upon failure of the railroad company to keep the contract and get him here. The latter, it is said by lawyers to be a new wrinkle in the law in this State but has been established in some of the other States. The case is being closely contested with able lawyers on each side.

Filled. All efforts have failed to find a better remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles than Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. J. N. Patterson, Nashua, Iowa, writes, "Last winter I had a bad cold, my lungs and tried at least half a dozen of the best cough medicines and had treated me from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." For sale by Davis Pharmacy.

Men Busy Repairing Telephone and Telegraph Wires Damaged by Storm. James Corbett U. S. Prisoner Paroled.

Banks Organized. Raleigh, Jan. 30.—The Corporation Commission will leave tomorrow on their annual tour of inspection over the system of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, going first to Rockingham, thence to other points, Plymouth and Washington. The Commission will go over the entire lines in that section of the State.

The United Surety Company of Baltimore, Md., is admitted to the State for the conduct of its business. The directing office of the company, has not yet been named.

There is a possibility that the State Bar Association will meet this year at the seashore, Morehead City being favorably considered. This year the meeting will be held the last week in June, the 27th having been selected. At the meeting held here no definite information is given out but Morehead seems a favorite. The names chosen for special addresses will not be given out until acceptances are received.

Between Raleigh and City, only the very short distance of about 9 miles, over 150 men have been laboring along the line of the Seaboard Air Line railroad. The Bell Telephone Company, among the most marked of the local sufferers by such a cause have had thirty men busy day and night, and this number was today augmented by fifteen more. The loss of the Bell Co., is figured conservatively by the management and those who are in a position to be informed to reach the $7,000 mark, and all is not even yet accounted for in the unstated figures.

James Corbett, who was convicted and sentenced to five years, in 1902, for tampering with registered mail matter in the Selma Postoffice, is pardoned by the president, after having twice been refused. The last appeal made just before Christmas was effective, having been in the hands of Col. J. C. L. Harris at Raleigh, and Marion Butler, in Washington. There was some doubt as to Corbett's guilt, and he is now allowed to return to his wife and children who reside at Selma.

The Corporation Commission authorized the Bank of Aberdeen and the Bank of Winterville, respectively, to commence business. These concerns will conduct a regular or general business. Additional charters were granted by the Secretary of State to the Nash County, Lumber Company Co., at Plymouth, with a capital stock of $50,000, of which amount $10,000, has already been subscribed. The incorporators are Congressman J. H. Small, of Washington, N. C., W. M. Whaley and R. S. Cohn, both of Norfolk, Va. The company will deal in standing timbers as well as manufactured products.

With its principal offices at Greensboro, and the privilege to operate subsidiary places in other Southern States, the Home for Disabled and Aged Railroad men, incorporated, is chartered without capital stock, the incorporators being J. B. White, J. C. May and R. E. Davis, all of Greensboro.

The SPORTS WORLD

Iceboating Season. Ice boat races are now at the height of the season's activity. In New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois thousands of daring ice spectators are endeavoring to have a good time.

The ice boat is the fastest racing machine in existence, excelling at times

ICE BOAT SPEED GOING FIFTY MILES AN HOUR.

The speed of even the swiftest of automobiles. A few years ago an ice boat on the Shrewsbury river, New Jersey, covered part of a course at the rate of a mile in 33 seconds. That terrific rate of speed is still the world's record.

American League Topics.

Rube Waddell, the famous pitcher of the champion Philadelphia Athletics, may be sold or traded to the Boston American team before the beginning of the next championship campaign. Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, was in Buffalo in conference with Manager Collins of the Boston, and the deal whereby Waddell will become a member of the Puritans may be announced soon.

One of the reasons assigned for Mack's willingness to let Waddell go is the coldness of the Philadelphia fans toward Rube. When the big twister broke down last fall part of the Quaker fans thought his ailment was not genuine, although the management was thoroughly convinced that the famous "southpaw" was "all in" at the finish of the season. On account of Waddell's eccentricities and desire to stand high in the estimation of the rosters Manager Mack is afraid that Waddell would not be at his best if the fans were indifferent about his work.

"Rube has got to be the whole show wherever he is," said Mack, "and if the Philadelphia people failed next spring to warm up to his pitching and rave over his actions on the ball field he might soon lose heart in his work, and so I think he would do better work by some other team, but the deal is by no means consummated."

President Johnson of the American League was with Mack. He announced his staff of umpires for the coming season. The name of Jack Sheridan heads the list, although that veteran has not yet signed his contract. If he signs the staff will include Sheridan, Connolly, O'Loughlin, Hurst, Connor, Evans and Conahan. Jack McCarthy is not to be retained next season, probably on account of the numerous rows he had with players.

Wicker Signs 1906 Contract.

The great pitcher, Bob Wicker, has signed his contract to pitch for the Chicago Nationals in 1906 and during a talk with President Murphy said he considered the team much stronger with the addition of Moran, Sheekard and Steinfield than it was last season.

Former Manager Frank Selee was heard from, for his letter from Faywood, N. M., reaching the office of the Cubs' president the other morning. Mr. Selee congratulated the Cubs upon the acquisition of Sheekard and stated that the Chicago Nationals looked stronger than they ever had to him.
