

Film Flashed Sam
One of the most peculiar cases of counterfeit that ever came to the notice of the officers was reported by Sam Walker, one of the colored characters of the town. He told the police that Tom White, whose name he believes his general reputation approached him and wanted change for a dollar which Walker let him have. In the place of the dollar bill White had ingeniously fixed up a fake dollar—it could not even bear its dignity of a poor counterfeit and passed it on Walker. There may have been parts of a dollar bill in the piece for some of it had the peculiar markings which only the genuine is supposed to have. But there was not enough of the bill to make a legal tender. There was nothing to signify the denomination; there was no government stamp or anything to show government authority to pay. In short it was the boldest, blindest fraud in the line of film flum that has been worked for many a day. White is still at large.

Unique Observance of February 22nd
Prompted by the item in the Journal of yesterday about an automobile parade, a citizen suggested that a pretty and unique way to observe Washington's birthday would be to have what might be called a naval parade. The idea is to have all the gasoline launches pass down the Neuse in line. They should be appropriately decorated with United States flags and the occasion should be made especially in honor of the natal event. It would add to the pleasure of the occasion to have the Boutwell lead the parade with the Knights of Pythias band.
Such an opportunity is not offered to every town and therefore the citizens should be more anxious to spread them selves. We believe it will be a fine show.

The case of Thomas vs the Western Union Telegraph Co., was on trial during the afternoon. This case was on account of the failure of the company to deliver a telegram to the plaintiff wherein he was to be notified of his father's dying condition and as a result he was not able to see his parent before he died. The jury gave the plaintiff verdict of $200.

Letter to J. J. Baxter.
New Bern, N. C.
Dear Sir: Clothing is just like paint. It fits or it don't; it wears or it don't; turns weather and water or not; and goes out of fashion.
What do we wear clothes for? Did you ever think of it? Different persons have different reasons, no doubt, but one paints Devoe for beauty, to be in the fashion, and keep out water.
Fashion says paint; we all paint. There is beauty in paint; we paint a good deal for that. And buildings are costly and fashionable; put on a water proof two or three coats of paint, and your buildings last as long as you keep them dry. It costs nothing to paint; it costs your buildings not to.
Devoe is the paint that lasts; disappearing paints are the paints that cost.
Yours truly,
F. W. Devos & Co.

IN MEMORIAM
MacGruder Dowdy.
We desire to pay a small respect to the memory of MacGruder Dowdy whose untimely death occurred Monday morning. He was a young man who was universally liked for his sterling qualities of manhood and integrity. His word he held inviolate. The principal of the golden rule was observed by him and his rugged, manly nature was such that it appealed to all who knew him. To his aged parents he was kind and helpful; always ready to assist in any way he could. As a brother he was true and stalwart and it was a pleasure to his brothers and sister to testify to his worth; to those with whom he dealt in a business way he was upright and honorable.
The sorrowing parents, brothers, sister and wife have the profound sympathy of all their friends.

THE LYMAN TWIN COMEDIANS
The Lyman Brothers who will appear here Saturday Feb. 17th, with their big company in the musical farce comedy "The Rustlers" have the remarkable distinction of being the only twin comedians today before the public.
These clever young players have made over one half of the people in the United States forget the toils of life and enjoy a good laugh although they are still in their twenties and even now at that age they are rated with the best comedians of the day, their work being full of originality and funny eccentricities of the higher order.
Their new vehicle "The Rustlers" is an elaborate musical farce handsomely staged and filled with bright, clean and refreshing comedy, intermingled with pretty music, made sprightly by a dainty chorus elegantly costumed together with a complicated and funny story portrayed by a cast of clever fun makers "The Summer Girls, Military Maids, and The Trolley Girls are some of the features which are to be seen.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.
Roads and Taxation.
Mr. Editor:
Please give us a little space in your valuable paper to express our opinion in regard to the working of public roads of Craven county by taxation.

It appears at present that the plan for working the roads by taxation is to assess the taxable property of each township for a sufficient amount of money to work the roads in each township. If the above be the plan formulated, to get money for the work of public roads, we say that it is unfair and unjust, and the writer would like to know where to get some law and common sense to back it up. In the first place we are opposed to taxation for the purpose of working public roads from the fact that have served their time on the public roads of the county, and according to the laws already on statute books, of North Carolina, that would include such men as have served on the public roads from the time they became eighteen years old until they were forty-five.

It seems to me that we would have the same right to take a man fifty years old and make him pay a poll-tax the remainder of his life as we would have to take a man forty-five years old who has served on the public roads for twenty-seven years and say to him you must pay a tax the remainder of your life for the purpose of working the public roads. So far we have failed to see any fairness in this move, and so far as taxing the county by townships we would say that it is still more unjust.

If we are to be taxed for purpose of working the roads we would say tax all men alike the county over, but when we divide and assess by townships, that would be a much heavier burden on some tax payers than it would others. When we look at the matter properly, we see that something like two-thirds or more of the county's wealth is in the Eighth township. Now if we are to work roads by taxation, it is just for two-thirds of the wealth of the county be taxed only, for to work what roads there are in the bounds of Neuse and Trent rivers and Bachelor's Creek known as Eighth township and leave the remainder one-third of the county's wealth to shoulder work and repair all the roads of the balance of the entire county, just think of it will you, think of the amount roads other townships would have to work, for instance, township No. 1 has one road leading from Streets Ferry to the Pitt County line that will measure almost as many miles as the entire Eighth township, say nothing of other roads in township No. 1. Now we would like for each man to shoulder his part of the burden if it is to be carried by taxation.

Yesterday was one of those days that we are obliged to have once in a while in order to appreciate good weather. It was the culmination of three days of damp and cloudy weather. However, we may be thankful it didn't snow.

Kinston Free Press.—The Free Press is in a position to state that a movement to have a federal court established in Kinston would receive the endorsement of federal court officials of the district, including Judge Purnell, and an effort to secure this is worth while. The division of which New Bern federal court has the trial of all the cases is so large as to make not only the docket cumbersome at times, but very inconvenient for those who have business to attend. It will also facilitate the efforts to secure our public building and help us to get a larger appropriation for a handsome building. And, by the way, why not some concerted action on the part of our citizens to assist in bringing about the passage of the bill for the appropriation for that public building?

The case on trial in the Superior court yesterday was that of Hawk vs. Howland Improvement Co., an action to recover damages for injury to trees shipped for Christmas.

The Barlow & Wilson's minstrel show was very much like the weather last night. It was rotten, there was only one stunt which had merit and that was the bag pumper's act which was fairly creditable. "The singing was the worst ever and the dancing—excuse us! It was not the B. & W. of two years ago by any means.

Early Glassmaking.
The first attempt at glassmaking in this country was some years before the Revolution and was made at Quincy, Mass., by a company of Germans. Some specimens of their articles still exist. The place in Quincy where their manufactory was established acquired from them the name of Germantown, which name it retains to the present time. The site of their manufactory is now occupied by the institution called the Sailors' Snug Harbor. About 1785 Robert Hewes, a well known citizen of Boston, made probably the first effort to establish a window glass manufactory in this continent. Mr. Hewes carried his works to the forest and erected his factory in the forest of New Hampshire.

Safety in Elevators.
Many persons have an objection to riding in elevators, or, more properly speaking, this objection should be classed as a feeling of dread or fear. But according to the superintendent of a big office building in Philadelphia the safest place for a person to be in an elevator—that is, statistically speaking. In the set of elevators for which statistics have been kept by the superintendent there has been an average transportation of 2,400,000 persons each year for seven years, an aggregate of 16,800,000, and of this number but one person has been injured, and that injury did not result fatally.—Rochester Post-Express.

Colonial U. des Protest
The North Carolina Society of Colonial Dames of America has submitted to the congressmen and Senators from this State a strong and urgent protest against further grants being given by the government to corporations to obtain power from the Niagara Falls. They maintain that the partial and maybe total destruction of the falls as an artistic object of beauty.
The society along with their sister societies of other States are doing a good work in arousing the congress to this matter for we believe that the Creator meant the Niagara Falls for all men to admire and not for a few corporations to use for their own selfish gain and ultimately to spoil them for all scenic purposes.
It is to be hoped that our representatives and senators in congress will give heed to this most urgent appeal and that they will give their influence against this great abuse of God's most wonderful work of art which He made for His people to take delight with.
