

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. N. O. Seymour.

Our Heavenly Father in His unerring wisdom and great love, having taken unto Himself our beloved friend and efficient Secretary, Mrs. N. O. Seymour, we feel it a sad privilege and duty to pay a brief tribute of love and respect to her memory.

For almost sixteen years she held this office, and the Benevolent Society, with its every interest, was always near and dear to her heart, and her ear was ever open to the cry of distress and want. She was the personal friend of the poor, and there was no home in the town so bare and wretched, where her bright smile and cheering word did not leave a ray of sunshine, for it was one of her greatest joys to minister unto those unfortunate ones who found little love and brightness in the world.

Verily the reward she has received has been great since Christ Himself hath said: "As ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me." And so we feel that not only our Society, but the community at large, has suffered an irreparable loss, for she indeed belonged to the highest type of Christian womanhood, and we shall always miss her helpful advice, her loving ministrations, and the influence of a beautiful, unselfish life, which encouraged and elevated all with whom she came in contact.

FOR OLD PEOPLE.

F. S. Duffy has a Guaranteed Strength Cream.

Mr. F. S. Duffy, our well-known druggist, says "hundreds of old people right here in New Bern need just such a strength-maker and body-builder as our delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, and we simply cannot understand why they will continue to drag out a half-dead and half-alive existence, when we guarantee Vinol will strengthen and invigorate every organ in the body, stop the natural decline and make them well, strong and active."

This is because Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the strength-creating and body-building elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of the system-clogging oil to upset the stomach and retard its work. Vinol creates renewed vitality in the most natural manner, making rich, red blood, and building up and strengthening every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended. Many old people have written that they would not take $1,000 for the good Vinol has done them.

In the strongest manner we endorse and guarantee Vinol to increase the appetite, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, build up the run-down, tired and debilitated, make the weak strong, or return to the purchaser every dollar paid for it." F. S. Duffy, Druggist.

Combs and belt buckles in the new spring styles are now on display at J. O. Baxter's the Leading Jeweler.

At Opera House--Convict's Daughter

Although in the fourth season, the play has been witnessed by larger audiences than any other melodrama written in previous years. It appeals to every class of theatre-goers, from the boy in the gallery to the mother of the family; to sweethearts and sisters, and the father who loves his home. Yet, even with all its powers of entertaining, the manager has not been satisfied to stop at that. He has furnished every detail in regard to scenes and situations, properties and mechanical devices to make a perfect performance. The first act opens at Col. Gault's home, with its pretty home-like cottage, beautiful flowers and shade trees, and the air of perfect happy contentment. One commences to feel its sunshine and warmth from the very beginning, and the interest never flags from the first to the fifth and final act. You are carried from one scene to another with keen excitement, and a great hope and desire that right shall and wrong shall bend its just reward. A wonderful bond of sympathy spreads itself through the audience for the sweet innocent child of the convict and her down-trodden father. There is but one way to appreciate this truly great play--come and see it and be convinced that "The Convict's Daughter" will always be remembered with pleasure.

Mesdames C. T. Eubanks and W. G. Dudley were the guests of Mrs. D. Sandler at Blades Mill last week.

Rev. W. A. Pland will fill his regular appointment at Tattles Grove Church Saturday evening March 10th. Come hear an interesting sermon.

Messrs. Louis and George Lewis, John Dickinson and James Whitley, who have been in Florida some time have returned home. Our boys received a hearty welcome, especially by some of our fair maidens.

Mrs. Ellen Dickinson, and daughter, Miss Mabel, met with the misfortune of a run-a-way Monday while in Beaufort shopping. While driving down Ann street the horse was frightened and ran considerable distance down the street when they were thrown from the buggy and both ladies were badly hurt. They are yet unable to be moved and remain with Mrs. Dickinson's daughter, Mrs. Noe in Beaufort.

Our Justice of the Peace in our village is very popular as to marrying couples.

Mr. Louis French passed quietly away last week after a long illness. His body was buried in Tuttle Grove cemetery.

Quite an episode was experienced by a young man and two ladies last Sunday, while driving through the laurel. The buggy or rather the horse failed to carry them any further, than a certain point thereby causing the gentleman to take a cool bath. ZOE.

This is the season of listlessness, headaches and spring disorders. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is a sure preventative. Makes you strong and vigorous. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

The North Carolina Teachers' Assembly.

Raleigh, N. C., March 7, 1906. The next session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly will be held in Raleigh July 12 to 15, 1906. The executive committee of the Assembly came to this decision a few days ago after receiving an invitation to meet here, extended to them by the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce.

In the State Museum can be found a fine display of the great and varied resources of the State, where lessons can be learned in North Carolina geography and in North Carolina history better than in all the books ever written. In the State Library and in the Library of the Supreme Court will be found interesting and instructive lessons in the history of the State. There are more schools in Raleigh, with more teachers and more pupils, than in any other city in North Carolina. Among these are the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College, the North Carolina Schools for the Deaf and Dumb and for the Blind, St. Mary's School, the Baptist University for Women, and Peace Institute. Other places of interest are the North Carolina Hospital for the Insane, the State Penitentiary, the Soldiers' Home, the Methodist Orphanage, etc.

The executive committee was promised that ample accommodations at a rate of $1 a day in first-class boarding-houses would be provided for as many as 2,000 teachers, and the railroads will offer the usual reduced rates. Six large and beautiful auditoriums will be placed at the disposal of the Assembly. Program will be one of the most interesting ever presented in North Carolina and will be attractive to every class of teachers. The officers of the Assembly expect no less than 1,500 teachers to be present.

The officers are: President, Dr. W. T. Whitsett, president of Whitsett Institute, Whitsett, N. C.; Vice President Superintendent J. A. Matheson of the city schools of Durham, and Secretary, Mr. R. D. W. Conner, of the State Department of Education, Raleigh.

Modern Pirates.

The oldtime sea rover who was wont to swoop down on a merchantman, and loot his cargo was regarded by all civilized nations as a criminal of the most dangerous type. If caught, he was usually hanged along with his crew. In these peaceful days there are pirates who prey on commerce, but they are far less engaging to the imagination. Among them as told elsewhere in the Tribune this morning, may be classed the "trademark grafter," as he is sometimes called who, despite the laws, still prospers. Instead of holding up a ship laden with merchandise he attacks the business of some other manufacturer, and by imitating his rival's brand, the style and cover of the packages in which the wares are sold, and also by throwing out to the public the bait of a cheaper price, he diverts the revenues of his victim into his own pocket. So great has become the depredations of these land buccaners that American manufacturers are now asking for a national law which shall make the imitation of trademarks a penal offense. A bill has been introduced at Washington which provides that the maker of goods which are articles of interstate commerce and which bear labels in imitation of other brands shall be liable to $1,000 fine or imprisonment for two years, or both. The manufacturer who fleeces the public by means of a counterfeit label is much a swindler as the green goods man of the gold brick financier. If, as the advocates of the bill assert, it will be supported by the courts as constitutional, it should be passed. Caution in respect to its scope, however, is absolutely necessary. The law of 1876, which made trademark counterfeiting a penal offense, was overturned by the courts on the ground that it infringed state rights. Most of the states have statutes making trademark piracy a criminal offense, but these laws vary to such a degree and are so laxly enforced that manufacturers say they afford them little protection. They also point out that nearly all European countries have national laws like the one they want enacted by Congress, and that even in China there is a law providing that one guilty of this offence may be imprisoned for one year.

There was an interesting contest at the Elks Club rooms last night by local pool players. The players made into four classes of two each and, there was a great many unusual and difficult shots made in each class. The contest was watched closely by many spectators.

SHORT PASSING EVENTS.

Yesterday was a rainy and disagreeable day and pedestrians acted as though they were afflicted with St. Vitus dance in their attempts to dodge the puddles that infest the walks. Rainy weather is a disagreeable condition but it is rendered much worse here on account of the muddy walks. Let the Woman's Club take the matter in hand and form a good sidewalk department.

A colored man named Morgan, employed by the New Bern Lumber Co., fell from a log truck at the mill yesterday and received painful injuries. Dr. Frank Duffy administered the necessary medical attention. No bones were broken but he suffered considerably from the shock.

The lecture by Rev. Mr. Knowles, to be given next Wednesday night, will be one of great interest and the subject one that is new to the people and will be instructive to a high degree. The proceeds will be for the library extension of the Woman's Club.

A false alarm of fire was turned in from box 32 at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Some one will do that foolishness once too often and get caught in the act, the criminal judge will do the rest.

Three bales of cotton sold on the local market yesterday at 10 00.

Services at Christ Church daily, p. m. Thursday--short services and address to men 7:30 p. m.

An accident to the big new engine at the Orion Knitting Mills put the big engine out of commission, but a smaller one used to run the electric dynamo was pressed into service and the mill did not have to shut down. The accident was caused when the firman, who is not fully experienced in running the engine, started it up without first getting the water out of the cylinder. Some of the parts were bent and others broken, the damage amounting to $100 or more--Kinston Free Press.

You have only a few more days to secure cheap plants through the V. I. Department of the Womens Club. The order will be sent off next week. Call at Davis or Bradhams Pharmacy and make your selections.

The steamer Sarah Louise, which was put on the ways at the Meadows ship yard Monday is again in commission having been thoroughly repaired. She is loading for another trip.

The Wilson Excursion.

Promptly at three o'clock yesterday afternoon the special train bearing the Athena lodge No. 8, Knights of Pythias and others to Wilson left the A. & N. C. depot. There were three cars in the train including the parlor car Vance. The train was in charge of conductor Charles Case and engineer John Whitford was at the throttle.

There were 60 passengers from New Bern of whom about 15 were ladies. The crowd was largely increased at Kinston and at other stations along the road. The band gave some fine music before starting and played many pieces while on the road. They gave a brief concert in the hotel at Wilson and led the procession of Pythians to the lodge room where the district meeting was held.

THE POOL TOURNAMENT

Scores Showing the Results of Wednesday Night's Games. The pool tournament in the Elks Club was a clever exhibition of skill and was one of the best contests that has taken place at the temple. In the consolation class there were four "tizers" to be played before the game was won. There were tiers also in the other classes. Following are the winners and scores in the different classes: First class, Guion Dunn, 20. Second class, Will Dunn, Jr., 20. Third class, L. G. Daniels, 27. Fourth class, E. M. Green, 38. Consolation, E. H. Howe, 17.

City Wins Out

The Supreme Court has affirmed the decision of the lower court in regard to an action brought by the city against the A. & N. C. Co. relative to the shifting done by the railroad. The jury in the lower court rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. The contention was that shifting was conducted in violation to the agreement in the lease and that it was a nuisance and a menace to life and health. The amount is fifty dollars a day for each offence and two offences are cited in the papers.

Cured Hemorrhages of The Lungs. "Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse imitations. Sold by Davis Pharmacy.
