QUITTING SHAD FISHING.

Gill Netters Leaving After Poor Season. Fish Scarce and High. Imported Fish.

Yesterday was another dull day on the fish market. Only a few shad were brought in, and no other fish. The price of shad was 50 cents and $1.00 for bucks and roe, respectively.

The gill netters at Cedar Island and Core Sound, three fourths of them, have taken up their nearly worn out nets, and given up further attempts at shad fishing. They have nothing to show for their winter's work, except it may be nets in bad shape, for the catch has been small, and not even the high prices have helped them. They are losers for the season.

As showing the fish scarcity, A. L. Willis, the well known fish dealer on the dock, recently had twenty barrels of trout shipped to him here from New York, taken from the cold storage in that city. These fish, Mr. Willis, had to have to supply his trade in this State, which was clamoring for fish, and the fish could only be obtained by sending to New York.

Near Redding, Cal., the trees in an orchard bore the second crop of June apples in October, a fact that is the more remarkable as grasshoppers visited them after the first crop and stripped them bare of leaves.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by Davis' Pharmacy and F. S. Duffy.

Petersburg has appropriated $1,000 to fight the smallpox in that city.

Women's Kidneys.

Women are more often afflicted with kidney disorders than men, but attribute the symptoms to diseases peculiar to their sex, while in reality the kidneys are deranged. Nervousness, headache, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, pain in the back, are signs of kidney trouble that must not be ignored, or a serious malady will result. Foley's Kidney Cure has restored the health of thousands of weak, nervous, broken down women. It stops irregularities and strengthens the urinary organs. It purifies the blood and benefits the whole system. Sold by Davis' Pharmacy.

The unexplained presence of a yacht at Norfolk gave rise to a rumor that John D. Rockefeller was on board.

Expected Improvements in Sheriff's Office.

Sheriff Biddle, Deputy Credle and County Treasurer F. S. Eural, are all feeling good over the possible rejuvenation of the room in the court house, which they occupy, and in which is transacted so much important business for Craven county.

The cause of the good feeling among these stalwart defenders, is due to the circumstance that Chairman C. E. Foy of the County Commissioners, looking into the office occupied by the county officials above mentioned, saw its present wretched condition, and said that a change for the better was needed, and he would look after it. The Journal does not care to suggest what improvements should be made to make the sheriff's room attractive, and an office commensurate to the dignity of its occupants, but a decided change is needed, and between the chairman, with his excellent taste of office fixtures, and those who know what fixtures they need, it is an easy matter to make the changes, and work a decided improvement, as well as comfort for all concerned, and to have an office worthy the sheriff, his deputies and clerks, and the county treasurer, who has desk room in the office.

Baxter's Spring Millinery Opening.

The spring millinery opening of J. J. Baxter was an event of unusual magnitude, as their business has expanded to such proportions that it has become necessary to increase the display room, and fifty feet has been added, with a comfortable work room in the rear. The entire building will be devoted to feminine interests dry goods, fancy articles and notions, and all millinery requirements.

The doors were promptly opened at 8 o'clock, and the expectant throng marched in, to the music of the K. of P. Band, which in the seclusion of the work room, made the air vibrant with festive strains.

The achievement of deft fingers was apparent at a glance at the decorations, the graceful bamboo, palms and ferns, while artificial flowers vied with the natural in loveliness, an immense flower on twined ribbon-suspended circle was most novel and striking.

This season's millinery is characterized by many decidedly new and beautiful innovations, taste and ingenuity have seemingly been exhausted in devising the various combinations. The soft and pliant neapolitan braid is much used, and garlands of mixed flowers are very modish. Whole crowns of roses, violets with maline brims, fittingly frame youthful faces, and demand a becomingly arranged coiffure. One hat which suggests the brunette type of beauty, was of intense crimson, the high back trimming showing a profusion of roses the same shade, one very swell hat of gold braid, and blue maline was most aggressively self assertive. Picture medallions in centre of fluffy rosettes of maline were a feature common to nearly every hat. The ever popular sailor with modifications is still at the front but has a high trimmed back. Old rose and gray are popular shades, the old rose varies from the faint blush of the opening bud, to the subdued tints of the withered wind-blown petals.

Black-hats are always sought by people with conservative tastes, and one of lace braid and box plaited tulle around crown, plumes and velvet ribbon, had many admirers.

The tailor made suit, and a "Gage" hat, a shirt waist girl and a sailor hat, they are inseparably linked by custom, and riveted by fitness and becomingness to the masculine mind the Stetson hat stands for quality, so "Gage" is easily its peer, pleasing the most exacting women.

To Miss Hardison, Mr. Baxter's milliner, and her young lady assistants much credit is due, they are most obliging and attentive.

Father Gapon, the former Russian revolutionary leader, has been arrested, his enemies alleging this was done to escape revelations.
