28th YEAR

HUME HONORED

Given Headship of Great Canadian College.

Leaves Important Vacancy in A. & M. College. Personal. Raleigh City At: Forney and News and Observer Representatives Have Street Encourager

Special to Journal. Raleigh, March 21.—Prof. H. H. Hume of the A. & M. College, and the Department of Agriculture has announced his resignation to accept the position of head in the new MacDonald College of St. Anne De Bellevue, near Montreal, in Canada, not far from the place of his birth. This means the headship of a college that has millions back of it, a complete equipment and an endowment that runs up to the millions, which are secured by Sir William MacDonald, one of the wealthiest tobaccoists in the British Possessions. He will assume the duties of the new place after September first, of this year, though the new school will not be opened to the public before the fall of 1907.

Joseph G. Brown a member of the the American Bankers Association executive council will attend the meeting of that body May 2nd in New York, this being his third term as such an officer.

City Attorney William B. Snow, and Robert L. Gray, a staff member of the Raleigh News and Observer, under stress of feeling, had a short encounter on Fayetteville street today because of aspersions by the latter, which were resented by Mr. Snow. The affair took place in front of the newspaper office, and as the combatants came together, Joseph Daniels of the paper, interfered. The matter was occasioned by comments made concerning the trial of the ill repute district yesterday.

HOLTON'S VICTORY

Its Importance and Personal Vindication.

Three Years of Efforts to Destroy a Man Fearless in Discharge of Public Duty. Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Association. Trolley Company Wants Franchise.

(Special Correspondence.)

Greensboro, March 21.—At a largely attended meeting here last night of parties interested in forming a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, it being discovered that there was no State organization, the formation of a local society was deferred and a committee composed of Messrs. E. D. Broadhurst, J. S. Betts, C. L. Vanoppen, A. W. Cooke and W. B. Streeter to prepare and secure a State charter to be the North Carolina Society Prevention Cruelty to Animals and constitution and by-laws governing same in accordance with authority for such organization under the code.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night E. J. Justice, attorney, made application for franchise for trolley car company between High Point and Greensboro, franchise having been obtained from county. Action was deferred for lack of quorum. Justice gave names of promoters as being James H. Deans, Vice-President American Pipe Company, Philadelphia, H. Boyd Houch secretary same corporation and J. W. Perry, Vice-President City National Bank, Norfolk. They offer if franchise is granted to obligate under thousand dollar forfeit to begin building road within six months, an complete same in three months thereafter to High Point, a distance of sixteen miles.

United States District Attorney Holton spent yesterday afternoon here returning home to Winston from Washington, where he had been to answer the charges filed against him by Congressman Blackburn before a special Senate committee appointed to investigate them. The unanimous recommendation of this committee that Holton's nomination by the President be confirmed and the fall down of those fighting his confirmation is now a matter of history.

Holton is a curious man. While appearing iron nerved, it has been well known that he was greatly troubled over the fight made on him, touching as it did his real most sensitive point pride in the conduct of his office and hope for an endorsement of his record as a capable and fearless official. The light on him began three years ago when he first boarded in their den the strongly entrenched forces of revenue officials and distillers by indictment, and prosecuting to conviction and sentence, Young Sprinkle and Angle of Rockingham and Caswell counties, revealing a system of "graft" which raffled the revenue circles of seven States, and came so uncomfortably near department officers, that the term "reaching higher up" was first used by this correspondent. In his speech in defense of the defendants in that case, Judge Bynum did not hesitate to charge that it was imp a able for defendants to be guilty of offenses charged "without the active connivance or criminal negligence of officers higher up in the revenue service." Holton did not stop with that case but went on higher up, until instead of stonepepers and gaugers and distillers alone being indicted, he went "higher up" and took in the deputy collectors. And like a snow ball gathering weight by every turn, the fight on Holton has gathered in tenacity by every new indictment, until there are at least twenty-five prominent attorneys alone, now interested in seeing that he be not confirmed, in duty to clients whose fees they had taken to defend them against indictments, which only Holton could with experience prosecute. Having left the distillers, after the Young and Angle case, and taken a step higher up by going for the store-keepers and gaugers, and from them taking a higher step and going for the deputy collectors, the interesting question now is, "Is the man crazy enough to attempt to 'go up' still and bag bigger than even a Congressman?"

Today this man of iron nerve and heart showed deep feeling as well as the delight of a school boy over the relief from the heavy strain. What seemed to upset him worse, was the evidence he had had from all over the State from men in every calling of the belief that in the contest it was right, which he was championing. "I can't take it as a personal victory for myself," he continually repeated. "It means that North Carolina believes a great source of corruption exists and should be broken up, and that I have honestly as an official of my government attempted to do my duty and their hands will uphold an honest officer in efforts to have the law obeyed and violators punished regardless of politics."

Governor and Party of Pennsylvanians Pass Through.

Charges Against Frazier Fully Investigated. Convocation Meeting. Injunction Suit in Paving Contract. Senator Daniel to Make Men of Address to Elks.

(Special Correspondence.)

Greensboro, March 22.—A special train of seven cars passed through here at 8:45 last night conveying Governor Pennypacker and party of Pennsylvanians to Vicksburg, Miss., to attend an unveiling ceremony. In the party were many members of the G. A. R. and richly capulet "peace soldiers", members of Governor Pennypacker's staff. The party took supper here and seemed to be out on pleasure bent.

Postoffice Inspector C. B. Keene returned to Washington last night having completed his investigation of the charges which were filed in Washington against Dr. C. P. Frazier whose confirmation for postmaster here has been held up for some time.

St. Barnabas Episcopal Church was well filled at the first service of the Convocation meeting, which begins its regular session today. Rev. E. A. Osborn, Archdeacon of the Convocation conducted the service assisted by Rev. Guignard. The sermon was preached by Rev. A. R. Berkely, of Ayodan, who has been recently called to the rectorship of St. Barnabas parish but who is still considering the call.

The city has retained Messrs. Steadman and Cooke to assist City Attorney Stradwick in contesting the injunction secured by E. J. Justice, attorney for property holders who have had payment on the street paving held up on the ground of imperfect work and extravagant prices. It is said that in the event the charges made in the complaint of negligence of duty, if not of corruption against Chairman of Street Committee Hunter and City Engineer Potter are not sustained by the Judge, these officials will bring a libel suit against the complainants in the petition, Messrs. C. D. Benbow and B. H. Morrison. Mr. T. H. Lasley, of Chattanooga, president of the Southern Paving and Construction Company, which is doing the vitrified brick paving here, left last night returning to Chattanooga. It is understood that the company will deny every allegation made by the parties who brought the injunction and will allege that it is doing work in a dozen cities similar to that being done here and no trouble has arisen.

A letter was received yesterday by Mr. David Dreyfus, exalted ruler, Greensboro Lodge No. 602 B. P. O. E. from Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, containing his acceptance to an invitation to deliver the annual memorial address to the Elks in this city next December. During his stay in Greensboro he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dreyfus on St. Washington street.

Judge Boyd yesterday received a letter from Circuit Judge Nathan Goff, stating that he had been assigned to preside at the trial of Congressman Blackburn which would be tried April 17th.

March 21. We are having it quite rainy again and its bad for those who have colds. Elder Job Smith, who has been sick for quite awhile is improving very slowly. Mr. Needham White of Polkville, glad to see his heart very much Monday with his presence and Christian conversation.

Our school closed the 16th with much regret to some of the pupils, especially Miss Sidney Higgins, who wishing to lose no time has gone over in Jones to attend that school.

Miss Nannie Higgins who had been a welcome visitor at Ollivers for two weeks, returned home Saturday, accompanied by her brother Manly and wife. Their presence was a source of happiness to the family of E. J. Higgins, as it was their first trip since their move.

Mr. Byron Riggs of Silverdale spent Saturday night at the home of G. W. Smith. His grand daughter, Miss Etta, returned home with him.

Mrs. Maud Collins, of Jones county, visited her grand father, Elder Job Smith, Sunday. He rejoiced to see her and talked of days gone by when she used to help nurse him while sick.

Mrs. Norris Collins, of Jones county, visited her son Rolly at this place Sunday.

We are sorry to learn of Mrs. R. N. Gibbons' sickness. Hope she will be out again soon.

MRS. LONGWORTH'S THANKS

The White House Bride Sends a Nice Note of Acknowledgment to Mrs. Robert Hancock.

Mrs. Robert Hancock sent as a wedding present to Hon. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth a richly and beautifully embroidered sofa pillow. The pattern was purchased in Boston and the embroidery work was exquisitely performed by Mrs. Clyde Benton. The following letter of acknowledgement was received this week:

Washington, D. C., March 16, 1906. My Dear Mrs. Hancock: Mrs. Longworth appreciates very much the beautiful embroidered cushion you sent her and thanks you very much for your kind thought of her.

Yours truly,
NICHOLAS LONGWORTH.

STRENGTH-CREATOR.

Vinol Guaranteed by Physicians and Over Two Thousand Leading Druggists as the Best Strength-Creator Known to Man.

This is because Vinol is the latest scientific production of the greatest tonic re-builder the world has ever known, namely, cod liver oil.

In Vinol the system-clogging, nauseating oil is eliminated, and the medicinal, curative elements known to exist in the cod's liver are administered in a highly concentrated form, therefore, a preparation containing all these medicinal, curative and body-building elements, free from oil or grease, must be the best strength creator possible to produce.

In Vinol you know what you are taking, for everything it contains is named on the back label of every bottle.

This is why Vinol is so unqualifiedly recommended by physicians and guaranteed by over two thousand of the leading druggists of the United States as a body-builder and strength-creator for old people, weak women, puny children, after sickness and for all pulmonary diseases. The doctor knows what he is giving and the patient knows what he is taking.

Our leading druggist, Mr. F. S. DUFFY, says, "We sell Vinol on a positive guarantee that it is and will do all we claim for it or refund money with our question."

This in itself proves the truth of all statements published about Vinol in this paper."

SECOND ESCAPE RETURNED

Suspicious Case at Kinston Proves Another Man. Pursuit Continues.

About 2 a. m., yesterday, the deputies Williams and Holton in pursuit of the escaped Craven county jail prisoners, located two of the men at the house of Fleming Johnson, about 14 miles from here, in Pamlico county. Johnson is the father-in-law of Ed Banks. As the deputies entered the house, Banks and Douglas ran out the rear way and into the barn, and there Douglas tried to hide in a stack of corn husks, but was pulled out with the help of a rake and pitch fork. Banks dashed away into the woods, was fired upon but entering the swamp could not be pursued in the darkness.

Deputy White went to Kinston, yesterday upon word sent here that Cornelius Staton, another escapee was there. The man taken into custody at Kinston proved upon examination to be Charlie White, a former employe of the Bladde Lumber Co. He had been at Dover and went up to Kinston the day before. Of course he was not detained.

Punta Gorda Items.

March 20. We extend greetings to our friends Bogue and hope this letter finds them all well.

There has been but little news of interest here. The sad death of the young wife of Capt. Parker of which we wrote last week. She was well liked in our town and we all will miss her.

Fishing is again dull. Some boats get quite good hauls but there are not many of them. R. H. Weeks came in one day last week with 5800 pounds of fish on board. This was the haul we have had at one time.

The East coast crowd has returned and although they have all been "roasting" Punta Gorda, we notice that they are all glad to get back to the old town in the spring.

Capt. E. Weeks went down today on the Sharpie Parrott. Capt. Rigdon Weeks took a crowd down on the lumber schooner Vigilant last Sunday a week ago.

The boating season is at hand and one can see lots of them coming or going all the time.

On the Wing.

Wards Mill

March 22. Rev. Geddie preached a good sermon at Queens Creek church Sunday.

Mr. Clyde Morton, publisher of the Jacksonville Enterprise had a bad accident a few days ago being burnt by an explosion. He was laid up and the paper did not appear last week.

Misses Sarah Troit and Laura Eubanks of Deppie, are visiting relatives here.

Mr. W. H. Willis carried B. F. Willis to Jacksonville last week to consult with a physician.

Our friend George Ennett, of New Bern, was a visitor in this section one day last week.

Mr. W. F. Gilbert, the hustling representative of the Journal, was in our town last week.

We wish to call Congressman Thomas' attention to that appropriation for the improvement of New River which he promised four years ago. There is need of that improvement and it will pay Everybody desires to see it done.

GENERAL.

Yesterday the millinery department of Simmons & Hollowell's store was frequented by the ladies seeking the styles of the pretty shirt waist hats. There were the morning hats in their neat and attractive arrangements and plain sailors, all representing the latest effects in French millinery for the coming season.

In the beautiful display of childrens hats were leghorns trimmed in small flowers, chiffon and ribbons making a picturesque creation for the wearer.

Married in Reelsboro

Reelsboro, March 22.—Mr. Allen Dixon of this place and Miss Bessie Dixon of Baldr Creek, were married at the home of the brides parents Wednesday evening. The groom is one of the leading young men of his town and Miss Bessie is very popular among all, both young and old. They have the best wishes of many friends.

"OPENING" IS SPRING SIGN.

They Come and Go.

It was a picturesque scene at Barfoot Bros store yesterday. Blossoming on long stems, like rare American beauties or chrysanthemums, the hats nodded and swayed like flowers in an enchanted garden. The entire store was decorated in evergreens and in the millinery department the various flowers vied with each other in beauty and color as they hung gracefully on the walls in numerous shaped designs. There were hats done in fine braids trimmed in maline, forget-me-nots and roses. There were others as lacy in texture as cobweb; and some with pale pink and lavender plumes, as fragile as sea shells.

The neopolitan and Fifth Ave. shapes were much in evidence and milan straws. The sailor is the great hat of the season, there are shown in any number of shapes and in all braids, both plain and fancy.

Next to the sailor in popularity is the leghorn shaped in every conceivable design with high bandeau of velvet and silk and velvet flowers.

Quills and wings are particularly stylish and ostrich is used liberally. As to shades the most desired are old rose and gray. There were many exquisite dress goods patterns on exhibition and all the latest style shoes.

The popular DePew Burdette Stock Company will open an engagement of one solid week, commencing next Monday night, when they will present for the first time here, "The Silver Dagger."

The company is said to be one of the strongest organizations playing at popular prices, and no old pieces are reheated and produced under new titles, as is often the case with repertoire companies.

Among the more prominent polite vaudeville "turns" presented between the acts are: The inimitable Thos. E. DePew, everybody's favorite comedian; Miss Minnie DuPree, America's foremost buck and wing dancer, holding the Richard K. Fox gold medal for having won the terpsichorean championship at Madison Square Garden, New York city last summer for the third time. Although Miss DuPree is gifted with an attractive stage presence and a magnetic personality, her enviable position as a farlistie is due principally to her hard work and efforts to make the best of every opportunity. Next come the Pepper twins, funny mimics and sketch artists, and some others. Seats now on sale at Waters' store.

Shad are scarce and high this season, our R. F. D. man brings in a few and sells them like hot cakes at a Dutchman's profit.

Mr. K. M. Harris left last Saturday for Macon, Ga., where he will make his home and he will be followed by the genuine good wishes of his many friends in Cove and especially by the ladies whose admiration he has for the marked attention he has always paid them as well as for his attractive personality. The young men of Cove gave a cord party in his honor the night before he left which was a congenial and enjoyable affair.
