

ADDRESS TO CZAR

Ten Demands Made by People Likely to Cause Trouble

Special to Journal.
St. Petersburg, May 15.—The draft of the address to be made on the Czar is prepared. Ten demands are made, general amnesty; abolition of death penalty; suspension of martial law; civil liberty; abolition of the great council of the empire; revision of the fundamental law.
It declares the chief thing to be amnesty, and this question presents the calm consideration of legislative work. The country is thirsty for amnesty, which is the demand of the popular conscience, and impossible to be refused, and is to be demanded as the first pledge a mutual understanding.

A GREAT PROGRAM.

Provided For North Carolina Teachers' Assembly.

Twenty-Third Annual Gathering Will Surpass All Previous Ones, June 12th to 15th Inclusive. Some of the Special Features For Those to Enjoy Who Attend.

Raleigh, N. C., May 16, 1906.
Professor R. D. W. Connor has prepared the program of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly of which he is Secretary. The annual meeting, the 23rd, will be held at Raleigh June 12th to 15th, both dates inclusive. W. T. Whitsett is the president and J. A. Matherson the vice-president. The opening exercises on the evening of June 12th will be held in the Academy of Music, when president Joseph G. Brown, of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, delivers the address, to which superintendent W. H. Ragsdale, of Pitt, will reply. State Superintendent Joyner will deliver an address on the educational progress of a year in North Carolina and will be followed by N. C. Schaffer, president of the National Educational Association, and State Superintendent of schools in Pennsylvania, who will be introduced by president Charles D. McIvor, of the State Normal and Industrial College. The exercises on the morning of the 13th will be held in the auditorium of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, with addresses by governor Glenn, Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, of the University of North Carolina and Miss Celestia S. Parrish, of the Georgia State Normal school. That afternoon there will be a meeting of sections and in the evening President Whitsett will deliver his annual address at the Academy of Music. This will be followed by a reception to the teachers, given by Governor and Mrs. Glenn at the executive mansion and also by a special concert given by the orchestra of the Sunday School of the First Baptist church. At the meeting of the morning of June 14th at the A. & M. College auditorium there will be addresses by Dr. John M. Coulter, of the University of Chicago, and President Poterat, of Wake Forest College. That afternoon there will be meetings of sections and in the evening, at the Academy of Music addresses by Dr. Coulter of the University of Chicago, and by Dr. F. C. Woodward, of Richmond Va. College. Friday morning, June 15th at the College auditorium there will be another address by Dr. Woodward followed by one by Superintendent B. C. Gregory, of the Chelsea Massachusetts city schools.

In the afternoon there will be a visit to the North Carolina Hall of History in the State Museum at which there will be a talk by the director, Col. Fred A. Olds. In the evening Governor Andrew J. Montague of Virginia, who has well earned the title of the educational governor will deliver an address, as will also Dr. Henry N. Snider, president of Wafford College.

The programme of section work is a very striking and valuable one. In fact it is very safe to say that no session of the Teachers Assembly has ever been held in which such admirable opportunities were offered for getting the very best material. It is no wonder that the teachers all over the State are manifesting the deepest interest in the matter. One session is that of the State Association of the Academies, of which Col. Robert Bingham of Asheville is the president, and among the speakers on the afternoons of the 13th and 14th of June will be W. J. Ferrall of Pee Dee Institute, J. Henry Joyner of Whitsett, J. A. Bivens of Trinity Park, M H Holt of Oak Ridge, N. C. Hughes of Chocowinity, J. C. Horner of Oxford, P. L. Gray of Bingham School and Dr. Woodward of Richmond College. The section of city school Supt. has as its president J. P. Alderman, superintendent of the Henderson city schools and on the afternoons of June 14th and 15th it will hear addresses by Superintendent B. C. Gregory of Chelsea, Mass., Superintendent W. B. Boyle of Rocky Mount, Bruce Craven of Morganton, J. A. Mathason of Durham, H. B Craven of New Bern, W. S. Snipes of Winston, and there will be a number of short talks and round table discussions.

The section of primary teachers, the president of which is Miss Leah D. Jones of the State Normal and Industrial College of Greensboro will have its session on the afternoon of June 15th with a round-table discussion led by Miss Celestia S. Parrish of Georgia and will also hold a joint session on the afternoon of June 14th with the nature study section, for which a charming programme has been prepared. This meeting to be conducted by Dr. Coulter of the University of Chicago and Prof. F. L. Stevens, the talented professor of agriculture at the A. & M. College here. The nature-study section, of which the president is Dr. Stevens, will hear talks by superintendent J. C. Griffin of Salisbury, Miss Leah D. Jones and others, and also an illustrated lecture by Dr. Stevens on school gardens, agriculture, and nature study. The annual session of the Woman's Association for the betterment of public school houses in the State of which Mrs. W. R. Hollowell of Goldsboro is the treasurer, will be held on the afternoon of June 16. On the morning of June 16, the fifth annual session of the State Association of county superintendents will begin, State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner being the president of the association. The opening session will be a joint one with Woman's Association for the betterment of public school houses. Some of the problems the county superintendents will discuss will be uniform examination, graduation and certification of teachers. The problem of getting children to school and keeping them there, embracing the whole matter of locating illiterate children of schoolage and of compulsory attendance legislation. There will be an address to the association by O B Martin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction of South Carolina and also one by President Snider of Wafford College, S. C. There will be talks on what some efficient county superintendents employed during the entire year have accomplished, increasing the school fund, in training and improving teachers, in supervising schools, in building and equipping school houses and in cultivating public sentiment for education.

Demands Some Public Action

The electric lights on the Pollock street section were again out last night. This no light is not merely an annoyance, but it is a serious loss to every store on the circuit, whose business is injured, and every house holder is put to an extra expense. If the consumers on the Pollock street circuit would get together, they might get some redress, as it is now, this no light, for so many nights, demands some public action for its correction.

The morning session in Christ church opened with the discussion relative to the question of building the Bishop's residence at Wilmington, and the alienation of part of the Episcopal property.

The result was that the council decided not to sell any of the property upon which the bishop's house is to be built. This discussion occupied most of the morning session. Before the close of the afternoon session, Bishop Cheshire, of Raleigh, made an interesting address in which he stated that Trinity in 1907 would be the bi-centennial of the first celebration of Holy Communion recorded in the state of North Carolina.

Other committees were re-elected, among them being the student's aid, church building, trustees of diocese and general clergy relief.

At the Parish House, last night from 9 to 11 o'clock, a general reception was held, given specially in compliment to the visiting clergy and delegates at the Council.
