29th YEAR

TORTURED BY ITCHING ECZEMA

Suffered Tremendous Itching Over Whole Body—Scratched Until Bled—Wore at Night, With Soreress an Excruciating Pains—A Western Lady's

WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Last year at this time I suffered with a tremendous itching eczema, which spread over the whole body, and only my face and hands were free. For four months or so I suffered the torments of the damned, and I had to scratch, scratch, scratch, until I bled. At night when I went to bed things got worse, and I had at times to get up and scratch my body all over, until I was as sore as could be, and until I suffered excruciating pains. I did not know what it was, and resorted to a number of blood purifiers, using at times also Cuticura Soap. They told me that I was suffering from eczema. Then I made up my mind that I would also use Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent. I used them according to instructions, and very soon indeed I was greatly relieved. I continued until well, and now I am ready to recommend the Cuticura Remedies to any one who suffers as did your obedient servant. Mrs. Mary Metzger, Sweetwater, Okla., June 28, 1905."

BLACKBURN VS. ADAMS.

Rivalry of Republican Factions Become More and More Fierce.

JUDGE BYNUM'S ALLEGED HOT CARD.

Tyre Glenn With Blackburn While Bynum Favors Adams. The Drummer Boy Laughs at Rumors and Will Remain Green-backed.

(Special Correspondence)

Greensboro, July 6.—As the date for the holding of the republican county convention to send delegates to the State convention approaches, the rivalry between the Blackburn-Adams factions becomes more intense and rumors of all kinds of "dirty work going on" on the other side are flying thick and fast. The convention comes off Saturday and the primaries are now being called for Friday. Having captured the Buncombe county convention, and turned down the organization crowd completely, the Blackburnites are vigorously laying plans to route Adams here Saturday. This being the home town of both Blackburn and Adams, it of course adds ginger to the contest to hear the claim that Adams should be endorsed in his own county, cooped on in private by some earnest Blackburnites retorting that it is Blackburn's home county too. Judge Adams has been aroused to indignation by reports from Buncombe county of telegrams sent there on the eve of the convention from Greensboro, saying that Guilford would go solid for Blackburn and that he, (Adams) would be defeated two to one in his home precinct. He has a copy of one of these telegrams, reporting to have been sent by Postmaster Wray of Reidsville, and dated as if sent from Greensboro. That postmaster's head will fall in the basket pretty soon unless Blackburn wins out. Blackburn with his family is here and for several days has been directing the campaign in Guilford. Adams claims that he has introduced Wilkes county methods in Guilford primaries, and is preparing the perpetrate all manner of frauds upon the voters, by having primaries called for a certain hour, and before the time arrives holding a meeting of gatheped Blackburn forces and selecting delegates ahead of time to the fraud of the uninitiated. There is no doubt but what there is some sort of a panic in the Adams forces here, so far as the result in Guilford goes. Adams says he already has a good majority in the State, but that the Blackburn crowd is trying to humiliate him by carrying Guilford county. One of the local sensations is the report that Judge Bynum has allied himself with the Adams wing of the contest, on account of the alleged "dirty methods" of the Blackburn campaign, while on the other hand it has become generally rumored that postmaster Tyre Glenn has come over to Blackburn and will vote the postoffice force for him. Frazier this morning, who had been held up as postmaster until his nomination died with the Senate, has been given to understand that he will not be again recommended by Blackburn which means the organization crowd understands that Douglas will be black-listed, and postmaster Glenn continue in office or name his successor. Chief Clerk Barton and B. C. Sharpe being mentioned as his possible recommendations should be finally desired to quit his job. One of Blackburn's men this morning in speaking of the acquisition of Bynum by the Adamaites and that of Glenn by the Blackburnites remarked with every evidence of actual glee at the "swap" that Blackburn as usual had got the best of the trade because Bynum was one of the best men but sorriest politicians in the Republican party, while Glenn was a good man with the addition of being just as smart in politics as Butler. Glenn had formerly been Blackburn's chief thorn in the flesh, and if the report of his somersault to Blackburn is true, it is said to come from the fact that he hates Blackburn personally less than Adams. The well founded report that Frazier has been knocked out by Blackburn, and that the support of Glenn has been secured, has had more than anything else to do with the evident panic in the Adams ranks here today. There is also a rumor that Judge Bynum is getting ready to hurl a political javelin at the Guilford county Blackburn faction this afternoon or tonight and if it really is sent hurling through the political atmosphere, there will be a much hotter time here at the primaries tomorrow and in the convention Saturday.

Congressman Blackburn, when seen in his headquarters in the Benbow Hotel, was up to his elbows in work, but stopped long enough to laugh at rumors of clique politics being played by him and his helpers, treating it all as a card by saying it was ridiculous and untrue to be dignified by his notice. He declared that his idea would win in the convention because the people so would it.

"When you have seen that the former State chairman is not even a delegate from his own county, and the District Attorney for the western district will not be a delegate from the county of his present habitation and had no influence in the convention of the county he resided in for twenty years before coming to his present county, and the present State chairman cannot go as a delegate to the convention from his own county. I leave it to the public to decide what is going on. I shall remain in Greensboro until this fight is over, literally. Practically, it is already finished, but the result will have to be officially declared. I am not giving out figures, but any one considering the failure of the above named gentlemen to become even delegates to that convention, can see at a glance that their case is lost. I pay no attention whatever to the 'Industrial News.' Its statements, I fear cannot be relied upon. The people will settle it next Tuesday, for this is one time the people will be heard from and I shall stay with them until their choice is proclaimed. Let them not be deceived by flattering and bogus claims but stand fast and all will be well with us."

The report that Judge Bynum was going to write a scorching card against the Blackburnites proved a rook-brook. The reported card not appearing Judge Bynum was sought last night and asked about it and said "there is not a word of truth in the report that I am taking any sides in this fight. The gentleman engaged in it are all personal friends of mine and I have carefully refrained from mixing up in it. I have simply written a letter to Judge Adams for what it is worth, stating that I would know him for a long time and know him to be a gentleman, an honest and honorable man and worthy of the position of chairman. 'So far as fixing up in the fight is concerned I, in sympathy with Solicitor Brooks am leaving tonight for a month's trip to New York, Canada and the Great Lakes, and wish everybody mighty well until I return."

BENBOW AGAINST KITCHEN?

Justice of Guilford Will Be Contestant For Speaker Next Legislature.

(Special Correspondence)

Greensboro, July 7.—The republicans have called their congressional convention in this district to meet Tuesday morning here, before the assembling of the State convention. As to who the candidate against Kitchen is to be the whole matter is in the air. A prominent republican here this morning declared that Benbow would be the candidate. It being known that John T. Benbow of Winston, chairman of the Congressional Committee, is a receptive candidate for everything going, he was of course understood to be the Benbow referred to, but the republican progressivist, prophet, or inspired manager, corrected that impression at once by saying that Charles D. Benbow the great Greensboro hotel and real estate broker, progressive citizen, Guilford county farmer, and business manager of the Industrial News, would be the one to run against Kitchen. Mr. Benbow being out of the city, it is impossible to verify the rumor, but it is known that he will soon resign as business manager of the newspaper.

As soon as it was ascertained that Mr. E. J. Justice had been nominated for the House from Guilford, a rumor became current that he would be presented as a candidate for the speakership. It is now definitely known that Mr. Justice will run. One of his active champions about it this morning had this to say concerning the matter: "The friends of Mr. E. J. Justice, who will represent Guilford in the Lower House of the next Legislature were greatly pleased over the fact that among the prominent democrats attending the Democratic Convention last Tuesday there was a prevailing sentiment in favor of Mr. Justice for speaker of the House. In fact, there seemed to be almost a demand that he come out as an avowed candidate for the speakership, knowing that Mr. Justice has had experience as a member of past Legislatures of this State, that he is eminently qualified for the filling of a place of no great responsibility, his friends here and his friends all over the State have taken up the idea and will see that his name goes before the Lower House as a candidate for the speakership. Mr. Justice's legislative record is well known. He was his recent nomination in Guilford because of his open stand for the fundamental principles of democracy. This mention of his name for speakership will cause a flutter in the same circle of politicians that fought his recent nomination with so much vigor."

BAILEY TO HANG

AUGUST 31

DEFENDANT'S LAWYERS MAKE STRONG PLEAS

Judge Shaw Gives a Very Thorough Charge Covering All Phases of the Murder. He is Affected While Passing Sentence Upon the Prisoner.

Logical Result of a Cold Blooded and Horrible Murder.

The summer term of the Superior Court closed yesterday afternoon. The docket is cleared and today the prisoners will be removed to the penitentiary or to the road gang which were sentenced by the judge. The principal case was the murder trial but there were others that had an interest and all of the sessions the seats were nearly all occupied and much of the time there was "standing room only."

The Bailey case was resumed yesterday morning. The argument was opened by Mr. W. D. McIver, whose line of argument was on the fact that the evidence developed no provocation for the deed. The negro was a tenant of the murdered man's; he had not been cultivating the farm in a way that would bring the best results and Mr. Lancaster had gone to talk with him quietly and peacefully. The negro had become insolvent and even threatening in his manner and Mr. Lancaster although firm displayed no temper nor malice. He made a convincing and powerful address. He was followed by Mr. R. A. Nunn for the defense. His argument was clear and logical and admirably placed before the jury for their consideration. Mr. Nunn made the very best possible use of a bad case and he surprised all in the court room with the ability with which he handled it. A clever argument advanced by him that there was no premeditation on the part of the murderer. He showed by mathematical computation that Bailey's movement to get the gun was only 20 seconds and that premeditation could not be said to occupy a man's mind sufficiently to make the killing one of first degree. Mr. L. I. Moore closed for the State in a powerful and convincing speech. He spoke at length on the details of the murder making it clear that the crime was one for which death should be the penalty.

Judge Shaw's charge to the jury was thorough and impartial. He was the mark of the able lawyer that he is. He consumed nearly an hour in explaining the different phases of murder so that the jury could make no mistake nor be influenced too much by the addresses made by the lawyers. He showed a disposition to favor the second degree phase of murder, or the commission of the crime without absolute premeditation.

The charge was finished at 12:45 and the jury returned a verdict at 5:25 p. m., which was guilty of murder in the first degree. There was considerable commotion in the court room on this announcement. The defendant, however, showed no external sign of his feelings. Judge Shaw then delivered the sentence in which he was visibly affected he felt the terrible responsibility of consigning a human being to die on the gallows. He named Friday August 31, as the day of execution.

The sentence of Sumrell, one of Vanceboro's men found guilty of larceny of a raft of logs was that he pay forty dollars and one ninth of the costs. The payment was made and he was released. John Jones and Nat Williams also defendants on the same charge, denounced to State's evidence found not guilty and were discharged.

BUILDING CONTRACTORS STAND FIRMLY TOGETHER.

Possible Disturbance of Building Interests. Talk of Negro Labor. Rev. Foster Thrown From Wagon Sustaining Broken Arm and Severe Bruises.

Special to Journal.

Raleigh, July 7.—Rev. J. L. Foster, pastor of the Christian Church, Raleigh, and register of the summer school just closed here, was thrown from a wagon near the Agricultural and Mechanical college this afternoon, by a frightened horse, sustaining a broken arm, and severe bruises about other parts of his body. He was immediately removed to a number of chairs, which had been in use at the sessions of the summer school, and was leaving the grounds with the last wagon load, when the horses were frightened by the blowing of a whistle.

Building contractors this afternoon held a meeting to take stand against the carpenters union in this city, in a matter which begins to be agitated in regard to union time and pay. The carpenters union has served notice on contractors, that after August 1st they will demand full pay for nine hours work, instead of ten hours as at present. All contractors in city will refuse to meet to such demand, as they are against unionism, and there is an indication of negro labor which is unorganized. Quite a number of large buildings are in progress here, and others already projected, some of rather marked pretensions. The principal building business in Raleigh is controlled by five or six contractors. There are something more than one hundred carpenters employed about the city and the union strength represents possibly seventy per cent.

Judge Webb in his charge to the grand jury of Wake county placed special emphasis on the fact that the laws as to the sales of cigarettes were being violated in this State, and bespoke observation and enforcement of same, because of the vitiating influence on the younger generations of such. He also called on the commissioners in regard to the county home, and other matters affecting the local growth of the section.

A meeting for the organization and transaction of other regular business will be held at Burlington, July 12th.

Harry Clark, alias Fred Morris, alias "The Jew," implicated in the shooting at the Union Station, Raleigh, last fall, at the close of the State Fair, when Charles Smith of Petersburg, Va. was mortally wounded, and at present serving sentence on the roads for eighteen months, made another break to escape from the camp at Neuse, which was unsuccessful. His escape was discovered by the guard and the swampy land adjacent to the stockade was surrounded and the capture of the wily Jew effected.

The man had been injured about the leg in attempting to escape some months ago, which in some measure accounted for his last failure. Owing this repetition the matter has been reported to the grand jury, as it is generally supposed that outside help has been offered by some of the powers that be in intimate relationship with fakirs and their local associates. His first escape created a real sensation, and the matter was brought up then by the county commissioners in special session. It is supposed that the bottom of the deal will this time be reached.

Wake county's board of commissioners will investigate and make special report as to condition of jail and other county matters, because of special findings of the county board. The chairman appointed a special committee of three to go into the matter of general inadequacy as to jail and as to necessary equipment of offices of register of deeds.

Merritt.

July 6.

The dead body of an old man, Mr. Fred Rice, whose home is near Reelsboro, was found in the woods, opposite the home of Mr. G. W. Brite. The remains were found by two colored boys, who were directed to it by a gathering of buzzards. They notified Mr. Brite who called the coroner. The opinion is that the old man, whose mind has been in poor shape some time was rambling about in the neck of woods along a cart road and being near a ditch stumbled and fell in, and was too feeble to help himself out and drowned. He was last seen Saturday June 30th. The coroners jury found that death was caused by drowning. We learn that the deceased has one son living. The remains were buried at Trent Church graveyard.

The rains continue to come town in torrents, at times. Cotton as it looks now is cut off at least 50% and corn 30% or 40% and unless it holds up shortly cotton will be a total loss on a good many farms. My advice to those who lose their cotton, is to sow cow peas, make hay and improve your land, by doing so. If you only make an ordinary crop of peas you will have a ton and a half of hay and the cost of housing is not near so much as cotton, so farmers don't give up, if your cotton is cut off and the grass has got it best, sow cow peas.
