PERPETUATE A HEALTHY

No truer expression than that from the editorial heading of the Raleigh News and Observer-"Continued Dem ocratic Success Essential to North Car oliva's Development," could be presented to the people of the State, the voters, whatever their political ideas for it is the Democratic party of the "Old North State" which has given character to this Commonwealth, sta hility to its government, industrial success to its people, educational and commercial benefits to every person, re gardless of class or color.

It is not enough that the recipients of the State's prosperity, coming through Democratic management, to quietly accept the conditions. Being beneficia ries they are in honor due to do their part, and endorse at the polls by their votes, the party which has given them good government. Because the Democratic nominees for county and State offices have apparently a sure election does not mean that any Democrat should stay away from the polls, making the total vote one less.

It is accepted that North Carolina Democracy gives to the people of this Commonwealth, good and safe government. Therefore, this same Democracy through its nominees, is worthy of the endorsement by a heavy vote next November. No citizen should selfishly accept municipal or State government and refuse a just acknowledgement to the powers that give them such a gov-

This is a marvelous record, and th figures for all branches of trade are simply bewildering, and except to the expert, are too great to be thoroughly oppreciated. In the value of foreign exports, Galveston ranks next to New York. In bank clearings, the record for 1905-06 is $638,740,000, and the year's increase in 15 per cent, and the ncrease for ten years is 57.6 percent Galveston with the great State of Texas behind it, and the States beyond, naturally is given an impetus towards greatness in every way. But the development which has followed the disaster of 1900, could not have come, except through the tremendous force and energy of the men who made and remade this great city. It is a re-creation, this new Galveston, and a magnificent one, the glory of Texas and a city to

> There is a different look about the city. It may be that there are more people on the streets, which is the reaop. But there is a different feeling on September eighth and August eighth. due to the season's changes, and the change which people effect themselves. August is a month when financial and ocial obligations are not met, and > > those who owe in either, do not care that the obligation is not lifted. August is the month when the spiritual They anticipate a slight increase and moral in man's nature have a severe struggle that they be not sidetracked, as are the financial and social. There is no real good reason or excuse for it, this individual disregard of personal obligation to God and man. But if any one will take note it will be found that the person who takes serious consideration regarding his obligations during the other eleven months, has a perfect indifference for these same obligations during the month of August. But vacation is over, and no one feels more glad than he who has had none. It is not selfishness that prompts this feeling. Rather, it is the relief from the loneliness which is felt by those who must see the same streets and stores, the three hundred and sixty five days and nights, each year. It is the relief that comes to see churches open on Sundays, and the people thronging the streets to attend these

There is political partisanism. There is ultra partyism. But beyond these there is the just discrimination to note what a political party does for its community interests, as the News and Ob-Server Bava:

"Again this year the people of North Carolina will sit in judgment upon the records made. On the one hand they will see the remnants of the disc edited bliesn party making a fine show omlaes with its Sunday store s on, while in the background is sgraceful record it has made, and the diagraceful record it has made, and on the other the Democratic party, clean, able, honest, advancing the in-terests of the people, careful for their good, promoting education, temperance and good morals, honoring and caring for Confederate Veterans, voting large sums and providing for the care of the unfortunates, adding to the prestige of the State at home and abroad."

The question as to the judgment to These should be met promptly and fulbe rendered next November, is not one ly paid. There is the individual effort calling for any guess. It is certain in needed in good citizenship, to take nofavor of the Democratic party. But tice of all local affairs, and seek betterthere should be more than the formal dorsement at the polls by only a mod- are the religious and charitable duties, erately safe vote. There should be a large Democratic vote. Every beneficiary of good government should give expression through his vote, and thereby show a great personal appreciation to the party and those who so wisely conducted the affairs of this State.

THE CREAT PORT OF GALVESTON.

The destruction of lives and property in a horrible measure, in 1900, se for the time to almost end that wonderful city of Texas, Galveston. From such terrible destruction and waste, it would appear that man would be overcome and discouraged, that the scene of dand bodies, and destroyed land and buildings would mean the turning away, to build elsewhere.

But in its review of the trade year iunt sloued September 1, 1906, the Galton Daily News in its edition prointe a sight of the New Galveston of other, which reveals a city and situ ation little short of the miraci
