Norfolk, Va., Oct. 4.—That the semi-annual meeting of the North Carolina Pine Association to be held at Charlestown, S. C., Thursday and Friday, Oct. 11, and 12, will be the largest in the history of the association is the opinion of the Secretary John B. Walker, who is sending out 1,500 invitations to the meeting today. There are more than 1,500 manufacturers of pine lumber in the States of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. The bulk of these are small mills cutting 5,000 to 10,000 feet of lumber a day, but many mills are of great capacity, some cutting as much as 250,000 feet every working day. It is from the ranks of this great industry that the big attendance at the Charleston meeting, is expected. Besides the manufacturers who will attend there will be numbers of retailers and wholesalers from the Eastern States who are unusually interested right at this time in view of the recent unsettled condition of the lumber market. All the railroads in the South Eastern Passenger Association have authorized a rate of one and one-third for the round trip fare, to lumbermen and their families attending the association meeting.

THE PRINCIPLES OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP.

The Burden of Judge Boyd's Charge to The Federal Grand Jury.

REPUBLICANS IN GRAND JURY.

A Rather Remarkable Coincident Regarding The Drawing of The Grand Jury. Runaway Boys Captured and Returned to Orphanage.

[Special Correspondence.]
Greensboro, North Carolina Oct. 2.—At the conclusion of his charge to the Grand Jury in the Federal court yesterday, Judge Boyd gave notice that the civil docket would be called on Thursday at ten o'clock.

In his charge to the Grand Jury Judge Boyd left the beaten track of enumerating the several specific offenses against the laws. He devoted most of his time to a discussion of the fundamental principles of good citizenship, showing that if these were respected and preserved the reign of lawlessness would cease. He declared that after all, it rested with the people to prevent or to punish crime, saying that prosecuting officers and courts were in a sense helpless, if jurors and witnesses reflected only the sentiment of their environment or a depraved moral standard, instead of the great bed rock principle of primitive but eternal justice as between man and man, and man's responsibility as a member of organized society known as government. In this connection he referred to the recent railroad freight law, and to the evils of Trusts charging the jury that it was its duty to investigate and see if there were any infractions of the law in this jurisdiction. He said that the rights of the railroads should be fairly and honestly respected, but these corporations should also respect the rights of the people or be restrained and punished if those rights were trampled upon. Speaking of trusts, he said that not only a constitutional but a natural right was the pursuit of happiness by every individual.

It is no doubt only an accident, or one of those strange coincidences, that contrary to the custom for a long time in the Federal court here several leading republican politicians are on the jury panel of this court. The foreman of the grand jury, Mr. Jesse Walsh, is not only the republican postmaster at Elkin, and chairman of the Township Executive Committee, but stranger still, at the meeting of the convention of that township last summer to elect delegates to the State convention, he was the chairman, and the only Blackburn man in the fight against Adams for State Chairman. Another member of the jury is John A. Hodgin, republican candidate for sheriff of Guilford county. Another is Mr. Shiplett of High Point, republican candidate for clerk of the Superior Court of Guilford county. This candidate for a highly responsible office, excused himself from the grand jury, and was regulated to the petit jury, because he said he did not think he had paid his taxes for the previous year. Still another politician on the jury is Mr. Bradley, ex-republican clerk of the Superior court of Orange county.

Yesterday two young boys aged 9 and 10, were taken up by policemen here as strays. They gave their names as Hobart Adams and George Calcant. They said they had walked from Pisgah, 14 miles below Asheboro to High Point on Saturday. Returning he had taken the wrong road, and found themselves in Greensboro. The officer did not believe this story and upon further investigation, they admitted they had run away from the Orphanage at Thomasville, but their names were properly given and they went to the Orphanage from Pisgah. They were returned to Thomasville today.

Cases For Violation of Internal Revenue Laws on Trial in Federal Court.

BOHANNON THE CONDEMNED MURDERER FULLY RECOVERED. MELVER, TRAIN WRECKER IN JAIL WITHOUT BOND. REV. S. F. RANKIN LEAVES FOR NEW PASTORATE.

[Special Correspondence.]
Greensboro Oct. 3.—Cases being tried in the Federal court so far, have been only small ones of the retailing nature. One store-keeper and gangster, Wesley Speace of Forsyth County was tried yesterday afternoon charged with aiding in distillers to remove whiskey. The jury was out until late last night before bringing in a verdict of not guilty.

Two more of the defendants in the revenue frauds cases, pleaded guilty at the afternoon session. G. H. Walker former deputy collector and W. R. Combs a distiller. Sentence was reserved for the "round up" at the special November term.

The Industrial News makes a specialty of printing speeches or interviews from its two most active directors, Judge Adams and Marion Butler. These two gentlemen, including "brother George Butler" seem to have the right of way to such a notorious degree, that it is said President Rollins is getting decidedly disgruntled, and other prominent Republican speakers, including Hon. Thomas Settle, Hon. Spencer Blackburn and J. J. Britt are expressing themselves in no uncertain tones at the failure of the "origin" to "feature" their speeches or even print them. A carping, but missed Republican speaker said yesterday, that the "News could fill up on proclamations from "Daddy" Douglas' interviews and speeches from Adams and Butler day in and day out that nobody read, while giving no attention whatever to live Republican speakings and events in the eighth and tenth districts where the battle ground was."

Had this complainant waited until this morning when the paper had a variety in the shape of six or seven columns from George Butler instead of Marion and an "interview" instead of a speech with Judge Adams, he would probably have marred or embellished his criticism with profanity.

The board of aldermen at a recent meeting prohibited the sale of anything on Sunday except necessities, instructing the mayor to define "necessities." This morning the mayor issued ukase to the chief of police, which defined "necessities" but goes further, and permits them to be sold only at certain hours on Sunday. He cuts out ice cream, soft drinks, and the street sale of Sunday papers entirely, but admits the sale of cigars, tobacco, lunches, newspapers at stands as "necessities," while confining them to certain hours of the day.

Frank Bohannon, the condemned murderer, who suffered a severe nervous collapse when the death sentence was pronounced upon him in the superior court last Friday afternoon, has recovered from the shock. Half a dozen times it has been reported that he was dead. His sister in Winston heard this and came this morning to see if he was dead but found him all right.

The county commissioners yesterday gave orders for the erection of a gallows in the jail enclosure.

Another candidate for the gallows, in the person of William Melver, colored, was brought here from High Point last night charged with having caused the wreck of the High Point-Asheboro train, whereby one woman was killed several persons badly injured, and damage to the extent of $40,000 caused the railroad. He was sent to jail without bond by a committing magistrate at High Point last night.

Rev. C. F. Rankin, who has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church at Portsmouth, Va., left with his family for Portsmouth today. Mr. Rankin was the evangelist of Grange Presbytery and his resignation is much regretted. He was formerly connected with East Springs Seminary. It is said that Rev. S. M. Rankin pastor of Alamance and Bethel churches in this city, will be called to the position of evangelist.

GOVERNOR GOES TO NEWPORT NEWS.

Self Defense Will Probably be Plea of Layton, Who Killed Man With Shovel.

HEARING IN MAGISTRATE'S COURT YESTERDAY.

One Thousand Seats to the Nordica Concert Sold. Telephone Merger About Arranged. Improvements on Seaboard Air Line.

[Special Correspondence.]
Raleigh, Oct. 4.—Governor Glenn and party left tonight for Newport News in a private car to be present at the banquet to be given by the business men of Newport News tomorrow and at the launching of the cruiser North Carolina Saturday. In the party were Mrs. Glenn, Miss Glenn, Adjutant General and Mrs. Robertson, Col. Chas. E. Johnson, Col. A. H. Arrington, Col. Westcott Robinson, Miss Lillian Thompson and Mr. C. A. Hunt. None of the State officers were in the party. The Governor said he was very much astonished at none of the Council of the State going to the launching after he had secured special invitations for them and that he had of course expected all to be present.

Charles Layton, the man who at a dairy near here yesterday afternoon killed a man named Mooneyhan and who was committed to jail without bail on the charge of murder was given a hearing before a magistrate this afternoon. There were two witnesses, one of these being a Frenchman, both employees at the dairy. The one who could speak English said that the man were fighting and that Mooneyhan first took a stick and then Layton seized a shovel and struck him on the skull.

The State Board of Public Charities has placed its office plans of the best class for jails and counties which contemplate building jails will find these plans to be of very great value and convenience.

Musical director Wade R. Brown informs your correspondent that 1000 seats for the Nordica concert in the Auditorium at the Blind Institution have been sold, this being the full seating capacity. The acoustics of this auditorium are said to be perfect. It is in the new building at the institution. Persons come as far away as Richmond to hear this great singer. Mr. Brown expresses his great pleasure that the sale of seats has been so large throughout this section and says it shows that the people are willing to pay good prices for first class attractions.

Mr. Carr of Durham, the head of the Interstate Telephone Company was here today and when asked when his company and the Bell would merge at Raleigh said that the managers of the two companies were to be here on the 12th inst. It has been expected for some time that the merger would be made, the statement having been given out that it was soon to occur, the Bell taking over the local interests of the Interstate. The latter has expended a large sum of money at Raleigh.

The Seaboard Air Line is very greatly adding to its track capacity here and is branching out in many ways. Its yards now extend almost a mile north of the city and it has cut down large embankments and filled in a very considerable area, in what used to be Pine woods west of the city is also increasing its tracks space for freight trains.

HANDS RAW WITH TERRIBLE ECZEMA.

Suffered for Ten Years—Spreading to Body and Limbs Despite Efforts of Three Doctors—Another Remarkable and Speedy CURE BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CURED OF ITCHING HUMOR.

"I had eczema on my hands for ten years. At first it would break out only in winter. Then it finally came to stay. I had three good doctors to do all they could, but none of them did any good. I then used one box of Cuticura Ointment and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and was completely cured. My hands were raw all over, inside and out, and the eczema was spreading all over my body and limbs. Before I had used one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, together with the Ointment, my sores were nearly healed over, and by the time I had used the third bottle, I was entirely well. I had a good appetite and was fleshier than I ever was. To any one who has any skin or blood disease I would honestly advise them to get the Cuticura Remedies and get well quicker than all the doctors in the State can cure you." Mrs. M. E. Fells, May 19, 1905. Speers Ferry, Va.

A CAROLINA DELEGATION ROYALLY ENTERTAINED.

The Pure Food Fair at Boston an Immense Success. Gov. Winston's Speech Admired.

(Special Correspondence.)

Raleigh, Oct. 4.—A letter from Secretary T. K. Bruner, of the Agricultural Department, who is at Boston in charge of the North Carolina exhibit at the great food fair there writes your correspondent under date of Oct. 1st, the day the fair was opened:

"We had a glorious opening, great many thousands of people being present and I have never seen such enthusiasm as marked the affair. Lieutenant Governor Winston, who made the opening speech was at his best and captivated the thousands who heard him, afterwards a large number of prominent people came to see North Carolina's exhibit and took the trouble to look up Mr. Herbert Brimley or myself, in order to express their gratification that our State had come to the fair, and that it had done the thing so handsomely. The visitors saying that we would find responsive and generous appreciation in all New England. I have ever felt gratified at the reception given to me personally and to the State through me. There was much regret at the absence of Governor Glenn and many invitations came to him. As Lieutenant Governor Winston had to leave at once it was unfortunate that no social attentions could be officially extended this State. I am sure all this will be welcomed news to those at home who love to see our State pushed to the front and advertised at its true worth, especially in a land of wealth and industry like this. I am sure the good results will come to the State from this effort of the State Board of Agriculture. I omitted to say in my account of the opening ceremonies that at the close of Lieutenant Governor Winston's address the Capital Marine Band played "Dixie" and the crowd rose, stood uncovered and at the end of the music they cheered most heartily."

Arthur Dunn's New Opera
Arthur Dunn, the popular musical comedy star in his newest success, "The Little Joker" will be the special attraction at the new Masonic opera house on October 11th for one performance only. Mr. Dunn made more than good in "The Runaways" during his last engagement here and is welcomed back in his latest comedy, which will undoubtedly be one of the laughing treats of the season. Mr. Dunn's new vehicle is said to be entirely original in theme and full of bright, witty dialogue, of the rapid fire kind, interrupted only by the many up-to-date musical numbers, which include new topical songs, parodies, characteristic numbers, ensembles and new dances and groupings, making in all a most delightful evening's entertainment, by a company of metropolitan artists engaged especially for their adaptability to the roles which they enact. A feature of Mr. Dunn's production is the beauty chorus and the pretty little dancing girls—al gownned in the most exquisite creations of the costumers' art.

New Bern, N. C.

Dear Sir—
Here's a tale with three or four tails to it.

Professor Irvine has an Academy, Mercersburg, Penn. He paints the floors in summer vacation. It used to take 90 gallons of paint. There were two paint stores there, and he used to buy (one year of one, next year of the other) 90 gallons year after year.

Now he paints Devoe; 60 gallons; and the difference is a saving of $150 a year.

H. C. Falken was one of those dealers, good man; but he wouldn't take up Devoe; so we turned to the other, J. A. Boyd. But Falken has found it necessary to get a good paint to compete with Devoe. He got one of the eight honest paints. He has a big hardware store and is doing an excellent hardware business; but Boyd, of course, has the run on paint—he's a little hardware man.

We don't care how little or big a man is, if he wants good paint and is active and sound.

Yours truly,
