Died With Diphtheria

The body was taken to the family burial grounds for interment. The little girl was an exceptionally beautiful and sweet child, with a bright and sunny disposition which won the love of everyone who knew her. Her illness was but a few days, but suffered untold agony, although she put her trust in Jesus, and bore it without murmur. She leaves a sad hearted father and mother, three sisters, and two brothers to mourn their loss, but it is her eternal gain. May her soul shine as the beautiful stars in glory in the bright beyond, and may the bereaved family receive comfort from Him who says I will not leave them comfortless, I will come unto them. N. B. A Raucous Thief.

Kinston Free Press:
 A party of men in cleaning out a big ditch on a farm in Washington, ran upon a hole in which were found a lot of fish and they caught them and strung them and hung up the bunch of fish on a tree and went back to work. A raucous haphazard nigger the fish liked his chops and with his human cunning plan and the invention of the tempting used to himself. From tree to tree he crept until he got to the fish and "boy-ho-ho!" he shouted just as the workmen came back after their supper. He hid behind the tree and returned to his work. Some of the men saw him.

New York, Oct. 11.—The condition of Mrs. Jefferson Davis is very serious. There is but very little hope for her recovery.

MUCH RAILROAD LITIGATION.

In The United States Court Damage and Mental Anguish Constitute Nature of Action.

[Special Correspondence.]
Greensboro Oct. 10.—There are six big suits on the trial docket of the Federal Court this week against railroad companies, involving damages for injuries or death. These cases were transferred from the States Court on application of the railroad companies. The first one to be tried, the trial being now in progress, is that of Mrs. Lovella May, of Kinston, against the Norfolk and Western Railroad for the death of her husband, G. H. May, an engineer who was killed in a wreck near Old Town, Va., in the spring of 1904. The damages claimed are $55,000.

Every inch of ground is being contested in the trial, and it is a struggle between legal giants as well as expert railroad attorneys Mr. Clement Manly, one of the Division Counsel of the Southern Railway, appearing for the plaintiff, assisted by Judge Bryan, while Messrs Watson and Buxton of Winston represent the defendants. The first move was a demurrer or tenens, from defendants, on the ground that plaintiffs amended complaint did not make allegations required under the employers liability act of the state of Virginia. They moved to dismiss the case. Judge Boyd reserved his decision, and waived the testimony introduced.

Archie L. Shepard's Moving Pictures.

The popular Shepard Moving Picture continues to draw good crowds and grow in popularity. The reason is the general satisfaction rendered and the policy of constant change and high class novelties given. On Saturday night Oct. 13 an extraordinary bill will be offered wherein more novelties of a sensational type will be seen than ever before in a moving picture performance. Comedy, humor, pathos, sensation, drama, and travel will be the special inducements that will vie for favor. All new and interesting subjects will make an exceptionally fine program. The Deserver a thrilling melodramatic study is the subject of one of the most interesting picture dramas ever presented to the public. The story founded on fact, has many details of general interest, relative to sex proceedings. It is a story finely told and clearly pictured, a train of highly sensational climaxes carefully graded are rounded in a sensational finish of startling proportions. The picture is one that will please and only one of a great series of high class subjects that go to make an attractive bill.

The Little Joker.

When Arthur Dunn came out of the trunk at the opera house last night the sentiment of the entire house as well as the expressed opinion of the chorus was "Isn't he cute!" and they were right. Then when it came to playing his part the house again voiced its query, "Isn't he alright?" and the answer came in the repeated, persistent and vociferous encores. The Little Joker was as tall as any of his colleagues in comedy.

He was the diamond in the gold setting. The support was the very best. The chorus was fine and all the songs had an enjoyable and catchy rhythm to them which made it hard for the audience to let them go. The lady members of the chorus met the requirements of an exciting public—pretty faces, good stage presence, excellent voices and beautiful costumes, all of which combined to give a most enjoyable opera.

The songs that produced the most applause were "Fairest Flower in Dixie"; "Don't You Think I'll do it?" and "I Don't Want a Searchlight Light". It may be that Mr. Dunn will make another visit to New Bern and when he does he may be assured of a hearty reception.

September Bulletin Contains Good Suggestions. Interesting Football Game Expected. No Surprise at Supreme Court Decision of Dispersary Question.

[Special Correspondence.]

Raleigh, Oct. 11.—The sheriff of Henderson county brought to the penitentiary today a fourteen year old boy, John Freeman, who gets four years for attempting to wreck a train.

The weather today is remarkably cold for the season, the temperature going down to very near freezing point. There was a high wind all night and so there was frost in very few localities in this part of the State.

Clyde Faison, the young white man arrested at Columbia, S. C. and brought here on the charge of stealing $500 says he had money but that he won it gambling at Norfolk.

The State Board of Public Charities has inspected all the State institutions here and the secretary says these are found in very fine shape. He says there has been a wonderful improvement in county institutions. A number of these ten or fifteen years ago were very bad. Some complaints are being investigated as to county homes.

It is expected there will be a lively football game tomorrow afternoon at the new grounds, known as the Athletic field, immediately west of the dormitories of the Agricultural and Mechanical College. Richmond College and the A. & M. teams will contest. Many men have been at work on the grounds to get them ready for this game many students have aided in the final grading, fence building, etc.

No surprise is expressed here at the throwing out by the Supreme court of the application for an election here on the question of prohibition or dispensary. The city attorney has stated very positively to your correspondent that if such an election were held, it would, if it went against dispensary, simply bring back the bar-room and that this was really the purpose of the men behind the scenes who promoted it.

There is interest among National Guardsmen as to whom will succeed the late T. H. Bain as inspector general. The first Assistant in Major White G. Smith of Asheville, an extremely capable officer who has been serving a long time and who had a year's experience during the war with Spain.

This evening at Christ Church Miss Adella Purnell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Thomas R. Purnell was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Ridley, Jr. of Portsmouth, Va.

The Raleigh Associated Charities has put in 150 cords of wood for use when the cold weather comes and is generally preparing for the winter campaign. The Associated Charities has done wonderful work in stamping out street begging. Only a little while ago the city was infected with such beggars, but now they are scarce, only two or three women giving trouble.

The Corporation Commission today gave out the bank statement up to the close of business September 4th. Loans and discounts amount to $31,702,492.32. Invested trust assets $1,346,718; State North Carolina bonds, $142,489; National bank notes and other notes, silver coin, gold, cash items, demand loans, and due from other banks amount to $9,511,774. The amount of capital stock is $3,299,451; the surplus $1,254,963; the undivided profits $1,383,890; deposits subject to check $25,556,503; the deposits in trust $1,576,644. The total resources and liabilities each amount to $45,802,451. The resources a year ago were $35,900,024, so that there has been an increase during the year of $9,900,000, a very fine showing indeed.

The September bulletin of the State Board of Agriculture is being issued today. It is entirely upon the cotton plant and was prepared by C. B. Williams of the department. He tells the story of cotton briefly and gives a great deal of valuable information as to the best modes of culture and fertilization and tells what are the best varieties for the various sections of the state, different lands, etc. In every way the bulletin is a first class number.

THE POLITICAL MEETING.

Senator Overman and Congressman Thomas Address The Voters on Political Topics.

On account of other attractions the political meeting at the court house was but lightly attended last night, but the attendance enjoyed the speeches very much.

Senator Overman was the first speaker and was introduced by Col. James A. Bryan. The speaker spoke on the issues in the State including prohibition he then turned his attention to the trusts, tariff and the other questions of national interests now being discussed. He is an eloquent and logical speaker and he gave the opponent party a good drubbing and spoke in roseate terms of the chances of Democratic victory both in the State elections this year and at the National election in 1908.

Congressman Charles R. Thomas was the next speaker. He praised and thanked the people of the third district for the frequent demonstrations of their loyalty to him and spoke of the faithfulness of his constituents. He spoke of his desires in giving the people he represented the best service he possibly could. He spoke of the good promise of success for the Democrats and urged all members of the party to work to get out a full vote.

Death of Mrs. Guthrie.

Mrs. Cathrine Guthrie of North River had been a great sufferer since Dec. 1905 until Sep 17 1906 at 4:30 p. m., when the death angel came and carried her home to Jesus to meet her loved one that have gone on before.

Mrs. Guthrie had been a member of the M. E. Church South for over twenty years. She was a true and faithful member, a kind and loving mother and grandmother and was beloved by all who knew her. Her suffering was very severe yet she never murmured. She put her trust in Jesus, and said she was ready to meet her God. Just a few days before she died the Lord blessed her with strength and voice and she sang part of two hymns, one "I am Going Home to Heaven" the other "I am Safe in the Arms of Jesus". From the life she lived we have sweet hopes, and her absence is all we have to grieve for, but it is hard to say good by, God's will be done. It is sweet to know if we live right we can meet mama and grand ma, with Jesus, where parting is no more.

The old home looks sad and lonely without her, though she was old yet she was the charm of the home, always had a smile to greet us at the door and tried to make life pleasant for all around her. She leaves one son, one daughter and six grand children to mourn her loss. We let the bereaved ones put their trust in God, and prepare to meet her in Heaven where there will be no parting there.

Absent from the home but not from the heart, gone but not forgotten. A vacancy that can never be filled. A FRIEND.

Superior Court Transactions

The closing arguments on the case of S. G. Willis vs the A. & N. C. Co. were made yesterday morning and the case was given to the jury at about twelve o'clock. The amount of money asked for was $5,000. The suit was brought to recover damages on account of injuries received by Mrs. Willis who was knocked down by reason of an engine bumping into the train on which she was a passenger. The plaintiff charging undue carelessness in making the coupling, causing her to be seriously injured. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff awarding him $2,500 damages.

TERRIBLE ITCHING SCALP HUMOR

Badly Affected With Sores and Crusts—Extended Down Behind the Ears—Some Years Later Painful and Itching Pustules Broke Out on Lower Part of Body—Son Also Affected.

A TRIPLE CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"About ten years ago my scalp became badly affected with sore and itching humors, crusts, etc., and extending down behind the ears. My hair came out in places also. I was greatly troubled; understood it was scabies. Tried various remedies, so called, without effect. Saw your Cuticura advertisement, and got them at once. Applied them as to directions, etc., and after two weeks, I think, of use, was clear as a whistle.

"I have to state also that late last fall, October and November, 1904, I was suddenly afflicted with a bad eruption, painful and itching pustules over the lower part of the body. I suffered dreadfully. In two months, under the skillful treatment of my doctor, conjoined with Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, I found myself cured.

"Six years ago my son was laid up with a severe cold, a hard cough, and finally painful eruption all over the body. I procured the Cuticura Remedies as soon as possible, and after his faithful use of same was as well as ever in two weeks, as well as I can recall. He has never had a return of the illness, as far as I know.

"I have always been pleased to commend the Cuticura Remedies, and testify as to their efficacy. I am a veteran of the late Civil War, '61-'65, between seventy and eighty years of age. Yours truly, H. M. F. Wells, Kosciusko, Christian Co., Ill., Aug. 31, 1904."

No Fire Alarm.

A fire occurred at a house located at No. 112 West St., yesterday causing considerable damage. The cause of the fire is not known.

What needs investigation is the fire alarm system. It is rotten. The Journal has often mentioned the deficiency in this feature of the fire department service and shown how needless it is that it be kept in good order. What means have the firemen of knowing that fire has broken out? Is someone going to telephone to each individual fireman that there's a fire at Five Points or on Griffith street and that he'd better drop his work and go? The fire alarm system must be efficient and reliable or it is good for nothing and it should be cared for as any other service.

Easy to Win Eight Husbands.

Mrs. Mary Lappage, who is happily married after eight trials of husband, most of them unsuccessful, tells a remarkable story of how she won the eighth, how she lost seven of them and how she comes to be happy with the eighth in next Sunday's week. Order early, for the number is of quite unusual interest.

After the 31st Day of October No Credit Will be Given by the Drivers of the Ice Wagons.

If our customers will think for a moment they will appreciate our difficulty and embarrassment in this credit business by the drivers of wagons.

It is difficult to secure in one and the same person, a wagon driver and a bookkeeper.

In selling the ice on credit as our wagons are now doing, the driver must keep a debit and a credit account with each customer; where more than a hundred customers ask for credit for five to ten cents worth of ice from day to day from each driver, it is difficult to find the right man to drive the wagons and deliver ice.

With a cash system we can give far better service in the delivery. Those wanting credit can secure it from the office in the purchase of coupon books.

Coupon books will be sold at a 10 per cent discount at office or by the drivers, if purchased from the drivers, cash must be paid for them.

Defects of Vision.

Defects of vision, though they may be slight, may cause much annoyance, which naturally is in the form of a dull headache which the physician has tried in vain to relieve or there may be a feeling of ache in the eyes. Now if the trouble is due to strained vision, any scientific test may uncover a possible reason, and a pair of rightly fitted glasses being worn, when things have faded in do very good. Add if you are particular as to how you purchase them, our new "Right Eye" will help you.
