London, Oct. 27.—The infelicities of the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough have resulted in a formal separation which both parties have agreed to and signed. Incompatibility of temper is the reason put upon record but the wife charges that the Duke was too fond of her girl friends. The Duchess, who was Consul, the daughter of W. K. Vanderbilt, has been granted her legitimate dowry and the Sunderland house but she can not go to Blenheim, the seat of the Marlborough estate. The Duchess is growing deaf and although young shows that her troubles have had an effect on her appearance. They were married in 1874.

Berlin, Oct. 27.—The Roosevelt professorship of American History was founded today in the University of Berlin. The first lecture was given today by Dr. Burgess Lake, of Columbia University, New York. The Emperor was present and cheered President Roosevelt's name.

Mexico City, Oct. 27.—Staw Hunt and three other American adventurers were arrested last night charged with fraud, with founder of International Banking and Trust Co., charges were preferred against the American Ambassador because he asked to have the proceedings dismissed.

Atlantic City, Oct. 29.—Fifty-three people are known to be dead as a result of a train on the West Jersey and Seaboard electric road plunging from a trestle into the water, which at that place was thirty feet deep. Of the 64 passengers in the three coaches only a very few have been known to be saved while the dead taken out exceeded fifty people. The passengers were caught like rats in a box, without any possible chance to escape. The accident was caused by the rail "turning in," the train first jumped the track running on the ties and then went overboard. The accident occurred Sunday on the thoroughfare, the body of water that separates Atlantic City from the main land. The story told by divers who went down into the water to note the condition of the cars is awful. The passengers in the first and second class cars made a desperate fight for life, but of no avail.

Raleigh, Oct. 29.—Joseph A. Holmes for many years the State Geologist, has resigned. The Governor has appointed Joseph Hyde Pratt his successor. Prof. Holmes has been in the United States service for two years most of the time, and Dr. Pratt has been acting as geologist. Walter T. Daniels has resigned as collector of the Second District. The Governor has appointed John H. Kerr of Warrenton, dismissed him, Kerr being the democratic nominee for the position.

Wilmington, Oct. 29.—Thomas Dixon, who expected to go today to Wilson where his company is playing "The One Woman" left hurriedly for New York, saying his principal reason for going was to consult his lawyers regarding the matter of $200,000 taken as the stopping of the "Clay" in the Chesapeake by the British is authority. He has been absent here two days and looks haggard. He says he has been a young and beautiful woman who will rejoin his company in a few days. Butte, Mont., Oct. 29.—Infantry and cavalry are closing in on the rebellious Ute Indians and they will have to yield or be annihilated. The Indians are traveling northwest, a regiment of cavalry and two of infantry are moving against them and will surround them. A battle is expected but the Indians may see the futility of putting up a fight and surrender.

New York, Oct. 29.—Hazel Cooper, a chorus girl in the "Burl and the Girl" committed suicide yesterday by taking carbolic acid. She had just finished reading a letter from her husband, Edward Walsh, a jockey, and whether the letter or some other thing was the motive is not known but before the letter was received she was apparently as bright and happy as ever. She had trouble with her husband some months ago but it had been adjusted and consequently her rash act is thought to be from some other cause.

When the tip of a dog's nose is cold and moist, that dog is not sick, a feverish dry nose means sickness with a dog. And so with the human lip. Dry, cracked and colorless lips mean feverishness, and are as well ill appearing. To have beautiful, pink, velvet-like lips, apply at bedtime a coating of Dr. Shoop's Green Salva. It will soften and heal any skin ailment. Get a free, trial box, at our store, and be convinced. Large nickel capped glass jars, 25 cents. F. S. Duffy.

American Dollar Worship.

The reckless pursuit of money is the great American curse, says O. S. Madden in Success Magazine. In no other country in the world is there the same temptation to coin all of one's ability, energy, education—everything—into dollars, as in America. The resources are so vast, the opportunities for wealth so great, that it takes a very level head not to be swept up in the current that sets toward the dollar. Nowhere else on the globe is Mammon worshipped so universally as in America. The very reasons and quality of our republican institutions double the danger.

The New York police department cuts the city $31,252 a day.

Saved From The Sea.

There was standing room only at the opening performance of the Edmest Winthrop Co. at the opera house last night. The company is composed of a dozen or fifteen actors of more or less talent, generally less. In the marine drama "Saved From The Sea," it was only another name for the old play Fisherman's Luck which was exploited by local players here two years ago, and with better success. The play was recognized as that by many in the audience and a unanimous vote was cast in favor of our own actors. They had some specialties which might do in a four-act town that has a ten cent show once a year but such a punk outfit will not get anything but gibes and jeers. Tonight the show will be "The Shadow of Midnight."

HARMFUL STOMACH DOSING.

No Need of It When Hyomei is Used to Cure Catarrh.

Physicians and scientists agree that the less medicine one swallows, the better. It is in keeping with this idea that Hyomei is recommended by leading physicians throughout this and other catarrhal sections.

When this treatment is used in catarrhal troubles, there is no stomach dosing, for the medicine is taken in with the air you breathe, and goes right to the spot where the catarrhal germs are present, healing the inflamed and irritated mucous membrane, killing the diseased germs and entering the blood with the oxygen, driving all catarrhal germs from the system.

Do not try to cure catarrh of the head by putting medicine into your stomach—this is neither a scientific nor common-sense treatment. Instead the healing balsams of Hyomei and in a few days you will notice relief, and its continued use will result in a complete and lasting cure.

F. S. Duffy has seen so many cases made by Hyomei amongst his customers, several of them cases where all hope of relief had been given up, that he gives an absolute guarantee of cure, or money will be refunded, with every outfit he sells.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1 while extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, are only 50 cents.

Departed.

Mrs. Emma Cox who has been in our city for several weeks in interest of "The Ideal Shoulder Brace" left Sunday morning on the 9:10 train for Norfolk, where she will remain with her son, Frank Cox for 4 or 5 weeks and then to Petersburg, Va., where she will remain until the winter, may she have success.

A Splendid Contribution.

The largest as well as one of the most remarkable contributions to the cause of foreign missions was made at Centenary church Sunday. The pastor had not made special effort but had preached and spoken often of the work and seed of the church in foreign fields. The congregation has often heard addresses from missionaries and their offerings have always been large. Sunday the amount raised was $2,550 and the church has a good right to be proud of its donation.

The Supreme Court to Decide Whether or Not Hogpen is a Nuisance.

UNJUST DISCRIMINATION IN RAILWAY FREIGHT RATES.

Woman's Agricultural Institutes. More Victims of Mad Dog Bite. Game Warden Appointed. Dr. Butler is Endeavoring to Head off Cattle Disease.

Raleigh, Oct. 29.—Before the Supreme Court there was argument in the case of considerable interest involving the question of whether a city or town is liable to damages to health. In the particular case in question there was a hog pen which was claimed to be a nuisance but was not abated. There was sickness nearby and suit was brought. The Supreme Court has decided that where damage to property was done by reason of a nuisance in this case the sewer not cared for properly there was liability, but on the health question it has decided both ways, as will appear from cases in the 115th and 130th reports.

Tom Dixon, the well-known playwright and lecturer, talked this morning to the Woman's Club. He is here for a couple of days. His play, "The One Woman" will be presented tomorrow evening at the Academy of Music. There is a very just complaint on the part of persons here and indeed at other points in the state as to the inequality of railway rates. A business man was speaking about the rate on furniture from Grand Rapids to Raleigh the distance being 1200 miles, and the rate $1, while if goods are shipped from Grand Rapids to Richmond, two hundred miles from here the distance being one thousand miles the rate is only 50 per hundred, while for the 200 miles from Richmond to Raleigh, the rate is 45 cents, making a total of 72 1/2 but it is claimed that Richmond is a gateway. North Carolina has no gateway, nor has South Carolina any. Business men in Richmond say that if this privilege was taken away from them they would lose an enormous amount of their business, as the North Carolina trade is almost as large as that of Virginia. The people of North Carolina will find this a very practical statement of the case.

Arrangements have been made by agricultural department for the holding of Woman's Institutes at the following places: Kingston, December 8th; Elizabethtown, Dec. 10th; Whiteville, Dec. 12th; Edenton, Dec. 14th; Hertford, Dec. 15th; Elizabeth City, Dec. 17th; Camden, Dec. 18th; Columbia, Dec. 19th; Currituck, Dec. 22nd.

Governor Glenn appoints the following game wardens: I. B. Woodhouse, W. B. Mercer, S. J. Owens, and S. D. Briggs, all for Carteret.

Dr. Rowland who gave the anti-serum treatment to the six persons who were up to today known to have been bitten by the mad dog last Monday has discovered that two more were bitten, both on the hand, both being professors at St. Augustine's Normal College here. They were bitten near the college. One left that night for Baltimore for treatment. The wound of the other was cauterized there in the college hospital but today he came down and was given the serum. That mad dog must have gone miles upon miles. At times he ran like a rabbit and then again he would attack anything he saw.

Dr. T. H. Butler, State Veterinarian is now in Union county co-operating with the United States experts who are endeavoring to clear North Carolina of cattle ticks and thus not only eliminate the dreaded Texas fever, but also to increase the price of cattle to the sellers by opening the market to them. Dr. Butler will be virtually in the service of the United States in this important work for a fortnight and his services will be very valuable not only to the government but to the people here. He will visit several counties and advise the people as well as inform them in other ways of the important things necessary to be done.

Novel Suit for Damages.

A Man Regards Enforcement of Prohibition Law Infringement on Personal Rights

[Special Correspondence]

Greensboro, Oct. 27.—What is probably the most novel suit on record is one brought in the Superior court here yesterday by Thomas West against the City of Greensboro, for $10,000 damages. The summons was served on the Mayor and members of the city council by the sheriff late yesterday afternoon, and is returnable to the next term of the Superior court of Guilford county. Col. J. A. Barringer of the Greensboro bar, and recognized as one of the most astute damage suit lawyers in the State is marked as the plaintiff's counsel.

The suit and claim for damages grows out of the following state of facts, as detailed by the plaintiff, West. A short time subsequent to going in effect in Greensboro January first 1905 of prohibition, and the closing of every place in the city where liquor could be procured, West rented a building and had it fitted up with counters, glasses, sugar, lemons, spoons, etc., and all the paraphernalia of a bar. In the same building he had made a large number of private locked boxes, similar to the postoffice, or private bank vault deposit arrangement. He rented those private depositaries to customers, who kept the key. Those patrons as a rule these lockers to keep bottles of beer, whiskey or wine. Those who desired have drinks mixed or made more palatable, would take out their bottle, get West to mix the sugar, lemon, etc., and into the glass he had prepared this mixture, the whiskey was poured by the box owner, out of the bottle he had taken from his private locker. West never handling the bottle or selling the whiskey, but receiving for his part of the transaction five cents for each service. He was naturally doing a fine business in a newly made "dry city", when he was held to the Mayor's court under a charge of violating the prohibition law. Twenty cases were piled up against him, and although he was able to defend in the city court, he was bound over to the Superior court and required to give bond in the sum of one thousand dollars to keep out of jail. His business of course was discontinued.

At the next term of the Superior court, the bills of indictments were drawn and sent to the Grand Jury, which deliberated a week before finding true bills. These indictments were never allowed to be tried, although West appeared at each term of court, asked for a hearing, was denied, and had to renew his bond. At the last term of court, his attorney demanded a trial starting to the presiding judge, a history of the frequent denials to the defendant on the part of the State and City prosecuting officers, of a trial on the indictments. The judge ordered a trial, whereupon the cases were dismissed or not prosecuted by the prosecuting officers, the defendant West being discharged from obligation of attendance.

His claim for damages is based on the alleged wanton invasion of his right as a citizen to pursue a lawful business, and the loss occasioned by destroying such business by oppressive prosecutions on the part of the city authorities. The humiliation of being held on a criminal charge in twenty separate and distinct prosecutions; the requiring of a thousand dollar bond to keep out of jail, and other injuries of a mental anguish nature.

Mr. West called his establishment and enterprises a "Coverage" should he win in this $10,000 suit against the city, he himself, will be a "coverer."

Indications Seem to Show That the Hobo Shot by Detective Bivens was not Killed in Self-Defense. Federal Court at Wilmington.

[Special Correspondence]

Raleigh, Oct. 29.—Yesterday the inquest began on the body of the unknown white hobo who was shot and killed Saturday evening a mile north of the city by Detective Bivens, of the Seaboard Air Line. An autopsy was considered necessary, and this was made today principally to determine whether the bullet entered from the rear of the thigh. Bivens is in jail charged with manslaughter. One of the lawyers for the State said several things pointed to murder in the first degree. Bivens pleads self defense, but will not say anything by advice of his counsel. There are no marks to show who the man is. In his hat is the address of a Norfolk hatter.

Judge Purnell and Marshal Dockery went to Wilmington today to a term of the Federal court. Four prisoners are in jail here on their way from Atlanta three being from New Bern and it is expected that two or three will be gathered in at Wilmington court.

At Democratic state headquarters it is announced that Insurance Commissioner Young will speak at Lincoln on the night of October 30th.

Yesterday afternoon at the City Hall some 300 persons met to hear addresses on the subject of a Y. M. C. A. Among the speakers were Governor Glenn, George T. Winston, Rev. Dr. Tyree, Joseph G. Brown, Dr. Herbert A. Boyer, Hon. Richard H. Battle, Mayor Johnson, Rev. C. W. Robinson, Dr. I. McK. Pittenger, Josephus Daniels, Rev. Dr. Alfred H. Moment, and F. A. Olds. The city is to be thoroughly canvassed for subscriptions this being the beginning of the movement.

Later the inquest was conducted at a great length. It was found that the dead man was W. H. Bryson of Colonel,atham county, and that he boarded here for a while at the house of Mrs. Coppage. He was identified by fellow boarders. He had worked six weeks in the railway yards here. When the hearing ended this afternoon the coroner said the evidence made it look very much like a case of murder in the first degree.

The evidence of the doctor who handled the body was that the wound which caused death was made by severing the great artery in the leg and was from the rear. The wound on the head was only superficial, the skull not having been cracked. There was a large crowd present at the hearing and interest was very keen. Feeling against Detective Bivens intensely bitter.

Italian Strike Breakers Arrive at Spencer. A Choos of 250 Local Singers Will Produce Musical Comedy the "Serenaders."

Greensboro, Oct. 29.—There was an immense congregation at the First Presbyterian church yesterday to hear Rev. Dr. Egbert Smith preach, and he delivered one of his old time delightful helpful and entertaining discourses. Dr. Smith is here from his present home in Louisville on a visit to his kindred and friends, and on next Tuesday will officiate at the marriage of Miss Julia Glenn to Mr. Sloan of Reidsville.

After the services yesterday morning, there was a congregational meeting to hear the report of the Church Session, and the Pastorate Committee as to extending a call to a new pastor. The joint committee unanimously recommended Rev. Melton Clark, of Florence S. C., and the congregation without division ratified the recommendation, and authorized a call to be extended to Mr. Clark is the son of W. A. Clark, a wealthy banker of Columbia, S. C., is 32 years of age, a graduate of S. C. College and Columbia Seminary. He has been in the ministry 8 years serving in Florence all the time. He has never preached in Greensboro, but the members of the pastoral committee have heard him preach several times, at Florence without his knowledge.

The First Presbyterian is the largest and wealthiest congregation in this city but has been without a pastor since January 1st, when Dr. Smith left to become pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Louisville, Ky.

Saturday afternoon, Judge Bynum and G. S. Ferguson, Jr., as counsel for the Southern Paving and Construction Company entered suit in the United States Circuit Court here, against the City of Greensboro in the sum of about thirteen thousand dollars, balance claimed to be due the company by the city, on the contract with the company for the paving of Elm street with vitrified brick. The whole of the work, as contracted for was about thirty-five thousand dollars. The company had completed about two-thirds of it, when tax payers, alleging that the work was very far from being what the specifications called applied to Judge Allen and obtained an order restraining the city from paying any further money on the contract until the work came up to the specifications. The city joined in with the contractors, and fought the suit, succeeding in having the order of injunction dismissed.

Attached to train No. 25 last night was a coach half filled with Italian musicians on route from New York to Spencer to take the place of the striking machinists. The coach was filled when it left New York, but part of the Italians were let off at Mount Airy. There it is learned from unofficial sources that some of the machinists sent to Spencer a few days ago have quit work and gone back north.

An enormous cast of 250 people composed of the best Greensboro talent, will produce on next Friday night at the Grand Opera House the Musical comedy, the "Serenaders." The production is a mixture of musical comedy and opera and will prove one of the most pleasing events ever given here. The ladies of the Y. M. C. A. are engaged the service of Mr. J. S. Atkinson to stage the reduction and he is progressing finely with rehearsal. The color effects and the costumes will be beautiful. Great enthusiasm and interest prevails in the cast. The benefit is for the Y. W. C. A.

Greenboro, Oct. 29.—There was an immense congregation at the First Presbyterian church yesterday to hear Rev. Dr. Egbert Smith preach, and he delivered one of his old time delightful helpful and entertaining discourses. Dr. Smith is here from his present home in Louisville on a visit to his kindred and friends, and on next Tuesday will officiate at the marriage of Miss Julia Glenn to Mr. Sloan of Reidsville.

After the services yesterday morning, there was a congregational meeting to hear the report of the Church Session, and the Pastorate Committee as to extending a call to a new pastor. The joint committee unanimously recommended Rev. Melton Clark, of Florence S. C., and the congregation without division ratified the recommendation, and authorized a call to be extended to Mr. Clark is the son of W. A. Clark, a wealthy banker of Columbia, S. C., is 32 years of age, a graduate of S. C. College and Columbia Seminary. He has been in the ministry 8 years serving in Florence all the time. He has never preached in Greensboro, but the members of the pastoral committee have heard him preach several times, at Florence without his knowledge.

The First Presbyterian is the largest and wealthiest congregation in this city but has been without a pastor since January 1st, when Dr. Smith left to become pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Louisville, Ky.

Saturday afternoon, Judge Bynum and G. S. Ferguson, Jr., as counsel for the Southern Paving and Construction Company entered suit in the United States Circuit Court here, against the City of Greensboro in the sum of about thirteen thousand dollars, balance claimed to be due the company by the city, on the contract with the company for the paving of Elm street with vitrified brick. The whole of the work, as contracted for was about thirty-five thousand dollars. The company had completed about two-thirds of it, when tax payers, alleging that the work was very far from being what the specifications called applied to Judge Allen and obtained an order restraining the city from paying any further money on the contract until the work came up to the specifications. The city joined in with the contractors, and fought the suit, succeeding in having the order of injunction dismissed.

Attached to train No. 25 last night was a coach half filled with Italian musicians on route from New York to Spencer to take the place of the striking machinists. The coach was filled when it left New York, but part of the Italians were let off at Mount Airy. There it is learned from unofficial sources that some of the machinists sent to Spencer a few days ago have quit work and gone back north.

An enormous cast of 250 people composed of the best Greensboro talent, will produce on next Friday night at the Grand Opera House the Musical comedy, the "Serenaders." The production is a mixture of musical comedy and opera and will prove one of the most pleasing events ever given here. The ladies of the Y. M. C. A. are engaged the service of Mr. J. S. Atkinson to stage the reduction and he is progressing finely with rehearsal. The color effects and the costumes will be beautiful. Great enthusiasm and interest prevails in the cast. The benefit is for the Y. W. C. A.
