Industrial, Commercial, Social, Religious, Criminal and Political Happenings Condensed in Few Lines.

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 30.—Senator Davis tells President Roosevelt that Mormonism is the sole political issue in Idaho.

Sheridan, Wyo., Oct. 30th.—The troops are rapidly closing in on the Ute Indians. The latter continues looting and shooting, and declare they will fight and demand that the President give them Powder River Valley for a hunting ground. They swear they will die before they will return to Utah. They are trying to get the hostile Cheyenne Indians to join them.

Raleigh, Oct. 30.—There was a very fast sensational occurrence in connection with the body of the man declared by some to be W. H. Bryson, of Chat-ham county, but who has never been identified, he having been murdered, as the coroner's jury finds, by Seaboard Air Line detective H. J. Bivins. Many people who say he was not Bryson, but that the latter is at Hamlet or Sanford this morning Mrs. Joseph Jones went to the undertakers to see the body but found it had been removed to a cemetery for burial. A gentleman standing by ordered a carriage in which she hurried to the cemetery and found that the body had been lowered into the grave. It was lifted up the casket opened. She says she believes the body to be that of James Southall, who lived two miles from Lynchburg. He is by trade a machinist who travelled about much and who stayed at her home here two months.

Brockhaven, Miss., Oct. 30.—As a result of the presentation of The Clansman here, the threats of whites to form Ku Klux Kians to drive out negroes, the latter have organized white cab orders and have begun depredation. The whites meant the story a joke but negroes took the news in earnest. The whites have now formed white leagues for protection.

Tokio, Oct. 30.—The Mikado is pleased at the visit of Secretary Metcalf to San Francisco, to relieve the trouble in the refusal to admit Japanese children to the white public schools. It is the opinion that Constitution absolutely supersedes the State law in this matter, but the State will make a fight.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—This city and all others in Russia are like armed camps.

San Francisco, Oct. 30.—Since the earthquake and fire in April, 6,000 buildings have been started. The building industry now employs the most men of any line of business.

Sheridan, Wyo., Oct. 31—There is imminent danger of 700 Cheyenne Indians joining the renegade Utes. More troops are being rushed to the scene of trouble. The Cheyennes are the best armed tribe in the west and have been buying guns and ammunition for a year. They are anxious to fight. The soldiers will not fight until the whole force is concentrated. The Indians are still committing murders.

duction. This is big undertaking for Dixon.

Cincinnati, Nov. 1.—The Columbia Co., a combination of electric railway magnates was formed here today and subscribed a capital of $75,000,000, with which they will buy electric railways and light plants in the west.

Philadelphia Nov. 1.—At the regular annual meeting of the Pennsylvania railroad a semi annual dividend of 3½ per cent was declared.

Asheville, Nov. 1.—Judge Pritchard is at the head of a movement to demand that laws be made requiring that children of school age must spend a certain number of months in school each year. A big fight is anticipated on the question.

Raleigh, Nov. 1.—Clinton Crow, aged 63, was found dead in a room here. He was an insurance agent and was quite widely known. He married Miss Kirkland of Hillsboro who was a sister of the Confederate General William Kirkland.

The Junior Epworth League of the E. H. Harriman of the Southern Pacific railway says the company will expend $23,000,000 on the road within the next two years. 5000 men are to be put to work on various parts of the road. Raleigh Oct. 31.—The Corporation Commission orders the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line railroads to build a Union passenger station at Pembroke and to arrange for a freight depot there within six days for data.

State Chairman Simmons left today for Carteret county to speak. He said just before leaving that the vote in the state would be fuller than he expected at first it would be.

He is very much pleased with the general outlook. From various quarters the news comes that the party is holding its own in the east and will make gains in the west. Revenue Collector Duncan takes issue with these statements and insists that the Republicans will make gains everywhere, declaring most positively that Blackburn will be elected to congress in the 8th district and Britt in the 10th.

The very attractive and extensive exhibits made at the State Fair by Wake Edgecombe, and New Hanover counties have been purchased and carefully put away in order to be used in the North Carolina exhibits at the Jamestown Exposition.

Chief Game Warden John W. Upchurch secured the arrest of a man and a boy here for killing partridges out of season. For a month he has been Forney county and says that despite rumors that birds are killed out of season he found extremely little foundation for these, and says very few have been killed. Birds are well protected there are very numerous and as many as 20 coverts have been seen in the suburbs of Winston-Salem, some birds even coming into the yards and eating with the domestic fowls.

A letter to your correspondent from his son at Waco, Texas dated 26 says:

"The weather is perfect, cotton crop enormous and farmers are selling freely."

A previous letter had stated that if the crop there could be gathered it would amount to five million bales. The prices for picking in west Texas are so high, from $1 to $1.25 per hundred, as to practically amount to giving half a bale to pick the other half.

The capitol square is being set in grass and regraded and will be next spring more attractive than ever before.

Efforts continue to ascertain the name of the dead man buried here, who was killed by detective Bivins. Unfortunately, no photograph of him was taken.

At least three persons are sure that the man was named Bryson, one that he was named Southall, of Lynchburg, and too that he was George McLaughlin, of Portsmouth, but this is very queer that none of Bryson's people have shown up or made any inquiry about him, or if other persons are missing that more inquiries had not been made, as a matter of fact no inquiries at all have been made.

At the exercises last night at St. Augustine, a negro normal school there were talks by Bishop Cheshire, State Superintendent Joyner, Dr. George T. Winston, Bishop Gray, of New York, Captain Mahan, Rev. Dr. Bryan, of Petersburg, Rev. Silas McBee and Mr. Bishop. George F. Peabody did not come here with the party, having returned north from Petersburg. The members of the party have all gone South, continuing their inspection of various negro schools.

Shows 4319 Children of School Age

[Special Correspondence.]

Greensboro Nov. 1.—Tuesday for the first time, Judge Bynum and Mr. Sam Bradshaw went out in the country on a spell binding exposition breaking their long spell of silence. The Republican county candidates spoke at Mt. Hope, and there is no doubt, that Judge Bynum had an idea of the eternal fitness of things, when he plumed his flight from the cross roads in Guilford county named so suspiciously, "Mt. Hope". Neither the Judge or Col. Bradshaw made the least reference to local or state politics, both describing a graceful perihelion around the sun of shining National affairs. There were 65 present to hear those distinguished anti-'Federal office holding trust' republicans, and Wednesday's Industrial News, had not a line of their presence or effort, but told in nearly a column special of how postmaster Willis Briggs, down at Apex "tore his opponent, Charlie Harris to shreds." Mr. Briggs' loving newspaper brethren here were astonished that Mr. Harris, in the Industrial News escaped being eaten alive.

Dr. George F. Hughes, who moved here several years ago with his family from Jones county, will return to Jones January, First. He has sold his handsome residence on Summit Avenue to Mr. Oscar Sapp, a prominent lawyer at Asheboro, Randolph county. Mr. Sapp has formed a co-partnership for the practice of law with ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams and will move his family to Greensboro the first of next year.

Under the direction of the City Board of Education, Mr. M. C. Workman, employed to take the census of school children, has completed the work and made his report. This report shows that there are 4319 children of school age (6 to 21 years) in the city. Of this number 2679 are white and 1640 are colored. More than half of all the children are in school. Mr. Workman found one white and one colored blind child. According to his report there are 43 married women, 2 married men and 23 pairs of twins in the city of school age.
