FOUR BLIND TIGERS CAPTURED

And The Public Say, "Well, What Do You Think Of That?"

There were four important cases on trial before Judge Patterson yesterday and evidence of illegal sale of liquor selling was found.

Joe Callaway was what is known as a perambulating blind tiger, that is, he carried the goods with him and gave to those whom he could trust. He was held for trial in Superior court under $300 bonds.

William Randolph, Gus Rountree and Church Parker, all under arrest on the same charge, and were held in the same amount of bond. All are colored.

Thurston Fowe, a boy was before the mayor for fighting. He is one of the many boys of this city who have no use for school. However, he went to the school ground at recess and picked a fight with one of the boys and he was promptly arrested. The sentence of the court was that he be whipped. His mother was on hand to administer the punishment and she did it well.

N & S Bridge Will be Built

Despite the objection of Edenton people the long 5 mile bridge will be built uniting Edenton with Mackey's Ferry over Albemarle Sound. The Government has approved the plans and that signifies that the government having heard the case in which the people of Edenton strove to prevent the construction of the bridge at the point named, have decided in favor of the Norfolk & Southern Railroad Co.

The bridge will be five miles in length, and will be commenced in a short time. It will have two draws each 16 feet wide. The preliminaries are being rushed as fast as possible.

An Old Negro Dead

Allen Patrick, one of the oldest members of St. Marks A. M. E. Zion church died at his home from Bright's disease, Sunday at 5 p. m., December 8th, aged 79 years. His funeral was preached by Rev. Joseph Hardison, ex-pastor; and J. R. Oden, pastor in charge, assisted by deacon J. A. Mosely, age (74), Rev. J. H. Mosely, G. L. Clark, Wm. Mosely and Rev. Markook of New Bern. A very fitting paper of condolences was read by Patey A. Mosely. Brother Patrick was converted fifty years ago and has been a class leader 30 years.

He, John A. Mosely, Wm. Mosely and Bryant Slade, who is now 85 years of age and an active class leader were with the late Henry Jones in organizing Zion in this community in 1864. He was laid to rest in the Mosely cemetery by undertaker Merritt Whitley. St. Marks Burying Society and the Knights of Gideon of which he was a member, honoring his remains.

Rev. J. H. MOSELY.

Temperance Lecture at Court House

Mrs. Curtis delivered the last lecture of her present visit, at the court house last night. The audience in size was not what the lecture or the speaker was entitled to. For two hours those who were present sat spell bound, with varying emotions, as the speaker changed from one mood to another. Mrs. Curtis is so thoroughly womanly that no listener can help being in full sympathy with her, and her presence is one to please everyone, the combination giving great force to what she says, every word coming from a heart that seeks man's uplift from the foul clutches of the drink habit, be it to sell liquor to others, or to consume it individually. Mrs. Curtis makes no distinction between green saloon and dispensary. Both are to her, evils beyond any estimation. She is not a fanatic, but practical and honest and depicts the horrors which come through the liquor traffic that ought to win every man who listens to her, to the side of temperance in its highest and fullest meaning.

Those who have heard Mrs. Curtis could not help being benefited. If a thousand men had heard her, it would have helped this community.

Handed to The Journal Readers In Condensed But Accurate Form. Almost Every Part of The Globe Represented In News Items.

Raleigh, Dec. 12th.—At the trial of Thomas H. Barnhill, of Pitt county in the Federal Court, for concealing ten barrels of whiskey under ground, this being drawn out by a pump and sold, several witnesses were examined who swore to these facts. Two saw liquor thus pumped at night, the next day found the concealed supply. Barnhill is an ex-member of the legislature and a Primitive Baptist preacher.

Raleigh, Dec. 12th.—This afternoon proxy committee of the New York Life and Mutual Life Association met in the office of the Governor, Insurance Commissioner Young, James H. Pou, Rev. Dr. W. C. Tyree and F. H. Busbee being present to cast the vote for directors, in accordance with instructions given at the meeting of the policy holders held October 18th, the vote was cast for directors of both, the New York Life and Mutual, of the latter 22 being in sympathy with what is known as the International ticket.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Senator Raynor in speaking on the Japanese school question today, termed the President our modern Caesar, adding that if military and naval forces were to be used, it was extremely important to know his real power. The Senator said the states can regulate their own school systems.

Raleigh, Dec. 12.—The Corporation Commission finds after careful inspection, that the condition of the Murphy branch of the Southern Railway endangers passengers, and that worn-out and crippled engines are deliberately assigned to this line; schedules are not observed, and only half enough cars furnished. The road is ordered to show cause why penalties should not be imposed. The Commission announces that it will ask the Legislature to enlarge its powers, so as to enable it to correct all the evils found to exist.

Herkimer, Dec. 12.—Chester Gillette, the condemned murderer of his sweetheart Grace Brown, was taken to the penitentiary at Sing Sing today to await his execution. His mother took a farewell breakfast with him.

Raleigh, Dec. 12.—Governor Glenn appointed C. F. Herring of Wayne a director in hospital for colored insane, Goldsboro, Vice W. R. Hollowell resigned, the latter elected county commissioner.

Pittsburg, Dec. 12.—The sensational divorce suit of August Hartzel, the Pittsburg millionaire in order to marry the actress Mabel Gliman, was declared against him. His wife is given the custody of the children.

Berlin, Dec. 12th.—Emperor William says he will dissolve the German Parliament unless it grants the supplementary appropriations the government asks to maintain the army in South Africa.

High Point, Dec. 12.—This city has voted for bonds to provide for building a railroad to connect with the Norfolk & Western.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The President says Cortelyou will take the Treasury portfolio March 4th.

New York, Dec. 12.—Deputy U. S. Marshal W. H. Masterson, editor of the New York Telegraph and two other editors, Lewis and Carey were arrested today for criminal contempt of court in circulating grossly exaggerated reports of the Gillette trial. They are in jail.

Jacksonville, N. C., Dec. 12.—At 1:30 o'clock this morning fire broke out in W. B. Murrill's store, destroyed the building and all the stock valued at about $10,000, partially covered by insurance.

The next building, a large two story wood structure, used as a warehouse by G. T. Walton & Son, was also destroyed, valued at about $3,000, no insurance.

WILL NOT QUIT THE SOUTHERN

Colonel Andrews Will Hold His Old Position With That Corporation.

(Special Correspondence.) Greensboro, Dec. 12.—There was a rumor afloat in other sections of the State this morning purporting to have been based on information received from Greensboro that First Vice-President A. B. Andrews had resigned from the Southern Railway. There was not the slightest foundation for such a report, so far as any one here could say. Col. Andrews was here yesterday en route to Washington, and not the least intimation of any such step was given by him to the assistant division counsel, the railway law agent, or to Division Superintendent W. S. Andrews, residing here.

It is generally understood here that beginning January 1st, a number of Southern Railway men will be taken from Greensboro, among them being Superintendent W. S. Andrews, of the Danville Division, and one of the most popular superintendents ever located here. It is also said that the department of car records, which was moved from Greensboro to Danville last spring will be transferred in January from Danville to Washington.

Other changes, which are hoped and intended to greatly facilitate the handling of the present demoralized and congested Southern railway traffic and transportation conditions, and improve the capacity and efficiency of the service are reported to be contemplated on the coming of the new year. Every one of the present divisions of the great system will be divided into two, and in some territory three, divisions and the number of superintendents will be increased in proportion. It is conceded that the Danville division is the most congested piece of railroad property in the country, and it will be subdivided into three divisions.

Smallpox Fading Away.

(Special Correspondence.) Raleigh, Dec. 12.—The city health officer reports 20 cases in the small pox pest house which is maintained jointly by the city and county, of these five being from the county. There has been some suggestion of a new building at the pest house, exclusively for white women, and well fitted up, but the disease seems to have abated very greatly in the county and it may not be necessary to have such a building this season.

Mrs. Thomas Goes to Portsmouth, Va.

Mrs. Alice P. Thomas, who for several years successfully conducted the affairs of the Chattawak hotel has gone to Portsmouth, Va., where she has leased the hotel Monroe and will take possession of the same January 1st. Her ability in this capacity is well known and she will doubtless have the same measure of success that she had in this city.

Those having bills against Mrs. Thomas will please present them to Mrs. J. E. Smith for payment.

DR. M'IVERS'S MEM DRY HONORED.

Young Thief Who Stole Overcoats From Railroad Train Convicted.

CITY TO HAVE ELE-VATED CROSSINGS.

Hairston, Who Shot a Negro Last Summer Convicted of Assault With a Deadly Weapon. Christmas Concert Will be a Great Musical Event. Big Freight Business.

(Special Correspondence.) Greensboro, Dec. 13th.—The current number of the State Normal Magazine, is in the nature of a memorial volume to the late president of the college, Dr. Charles McIver.

It contains the address of Mr. Bryan, the sermon of Dr. Crawford, speeches by prominent men on the occasion of the memorial exercises here on November 20th and other contributions of value and interest relating to Dr. McIver's splendid life and his tragic death. Preserving in a permanent form, those tributes of Bryan, Alderman, Superintendent Joyner and others, is a most valuable conception and execution. Mrs. Annie G. Randall, the managing editor, and her assistants have done a good work in preserving in this permanent form, the valuable contributions. It is hoped that a great many copies of the magazine will be ordered for preservation, not only by individuals, but by public organizations, for it is a capital compilation of the best that has been said in press or on the platform of the devoted and splendid North Carolinian. The editor's announcement is brief; "The compiling of this memorial number of our magazine is the loving tribute paid to our best and strongest friend, by the editors."

In the superior court this morning a young man named N. C. Rouse was convicted of stealing two overcoats from passengers on a Southern railway train between Salisbury and High Point. In sentencing him to 8 months on the roads, Judge Moore said that passengers on trains having baggage were more or less at the mercy of thieves, and the stealing of such articles had to be punished. Rouse proved a good character for industry and good behavior. He was 22 years old was an intelligent, well dressed looking fellow. He worked in High Point, and was of a good Davis county family. He had been in Salisbury and loaded up on liquor, and with a companion, Cap Cope, took the overcoats. Cope deposited two hundred dollars as bond for his appearance for trial but forfeited the money rather than stand trial.

Charles Hairston who shot a negro at the double tracking camp near Jamestown last summer, pleaded guilty of assault with deadly weapon and was sentenced to 12 months on the roads. The man he shot lingered between life and death in a hospital at Charlotte for several months but has fully recovered.

At a called meeting of the board of aldermen last night, the proposition of the Southern Railway to construct viaducts at the Fulton and Market street crossings was read. According to the terms of the proposition the Southern Railway will build steel structures for the viaducts, and the city will do the excavating. The mayor and city clerk were authorized to sign the agreement. This matter has been hanging fire for some time, and the news that an agreement was finally reached between the city and railroad will be gladly received by the public.

The Christmas concert to be given by the Greensboro Musical Association at the opera house next Friday evening, promises to be the greatest musical event of the season. The chorus consists of about seventy-five of the best voices in Greensboro, the orchestra numbers about fifteen pieces. On account of the immense amount of business done by the local freight office of the Southern Railway it has been recommended by the officials here that a transfer station be built at or near the Pomona station. The business of the station will be reloading and repacking cars. Plans for the building have been submitted to the head office at Washington, but so far no reply has been received. The company recently purchased a ten acre tract of land on the south side of the tract at the point named and building will perhaps be located on it.

DISFIGURING SKIN HUMOR

Impossible to Get Employment, as Face and Body Were Covered With Itching Sores—Scratched Till Flesh Was Raw—Spent Hundreds of Dollars on Doctors and Hospitals and Grew Worse

CURED BY CUTICURA IN FIVE WEEKS

"Since the year 1894 I have been troubled with a very bad case of eczema which I have spent hundreds of dollars trying to cure, and I went to the hospital, but they failed to cure me and it was getting worse all the time. Five weeks ago my wife bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and one cake of Cuticura Soap, and I am pleased to say that I am now completely cured and well."

"It was impossible for me to get employment, as my face, head, and body were covered with it. The eczema first appeared on the top of my head, and it had worked all the way around down the back of my neck and around to my throat, down my body and around the hips. It itched so I would be obliged to scratch it, and the flesh was raw."

"I would first wash the affected parts with warm water and Cuticura Soap, and then apply Cuticura Ointment and let it remain on all night, and in the morning I would use Cuticura Soap. I am now all well, which all my friends can testify to, and I will be pleased to recommend the Cuticura Remedies to any and all persons who wish a speedy and permanent cure of skin diseases." Thomas M. Rossiter, 290 Prospect Street, Mar. 30, 1905. East Orange, N. J.

Royalty Has Its Troubles.

Berlin, Dec. 13.—The German Parliament has rejected the budget demanded by Emperor William, and he forthwith dissolved that body. An exciting time is expected in consequence of this action.

Stockholm, Sweden, Dec. 13.—King Oscar is desperately sick at his palace. The court is receiving bulletins hourly and grave fears are held.

Teheran, Persia, Dec. 13.—The Shah's illness has become worse, and he now lies unconscious. His death is expected.

The Danjels Sale Today.

As noted in the advertisement of L. G. Daniels, he will sell at public auction today his stock of buggies, wagons, carts, harness, robes, whips and all that go to make up a complete livery stable. He will sell regardless of price and guarantees that it will be no "fake sale." Every thing will be sold then that is not necessary in the sale and exchange business which he will conduct exclusively hereafter. Any one contemplating buying an article of the above description will find it to their interest to attend this sale, as they will doubtless find something that they are looking for and will be able to get it at their own price. Its worth waiting for.

Mr. Daniels received a carload of western hines and mules yesterday which were as fine specimens of horse flesh as have been brought to this city. Any one desiring anything in this line will do well to inspect his stock.
