THE LABOR MARKET
Springfield Republican.
One part of the world raises an incessant cry for more labor. The western States need harvest hands, the South wants more cotton pickers and laborers generally, the Panama Canal Zone cannot get enough diggers, South Africa quarrels over a few Chinese, Cuba seeks plantation hands to handle its sugar crops, the Hawaiian Islands report a never-ending labor famine, our Pacific coast states are in a chronic condition of under-supply of workmen in all enterprises, New England is worried over its servant problem. Another part of the world has many laborers that they starve in heaps. An automatic equilibrium in human energy does not exist, and possibly one never will.

AN OBVIOUS DISADVANTAGE
Joliet Herald.
The manifold disadvantages attendant upon having no pockets in their garments never bear with more severity upon the members of the feminine contingent than at the present season of the year.
During the few weeks preceding Christmas, the average woman has more than usual to accomplish in the line of shopping, and must carry her purse in her hand. There are numerous temptations to set it down and these make opportunities for thieves. Even when the purse is not lost when it is merely mislaid, or covered up by the goods which a clerk has thrown down upon the counter where it was allowed to repose at a moment when the owner desired to use both hands—its vexatious disappearance may occasion "a bad quarter of an hour."
It is really wonderful, considering their continual succession of worries incident to going without pockets, that women are as serene as they are. The average man would sustain the ordeal with far less grace than they. He would mislay his purse a dozen times where a woman does so once, and his language on these occasions would be something shocking.
But a man wouldn't go without pockets.

WHAT MR. ROCKEFELLER'S INCOME REPRESENTS.
Baltimore Sun.
A New York contemporary quotes Messrs. H. H. Rogers and John D. Archbold as estimating the income of John D. Rockefeller at $60,000,000 a year. Capitalizing this income at 5 per cent. Mr. Rockefeller's estate amounts to $1,200,000,000. At the average wages paid in manufacturing establishments, it would require the labor of 2,250,000 persons for a whole year to earn this fortune. Mr. Rockefeller could almost buy two states like Maryland at the assessed value of the property. If his daily income came to him in gold dollars he could not count them one by one as they fell into his hands. Some time ago his son, who is an eminent Sunday-school teacher, arranged for a dinner for his class, each member to pay one dollar. It was found that prices have advanced so much since the last class dinner that the usual sum would not be sufficient to buy the usual dinner, and so the oysters, soup and several other tempting dishes had to be omitted. But if it took an hour to eat what was served, the young teacher's father gathered in $6,840 while the young man and his pupils were sitting at the table. After a peaceful sleep of eight hours Mr. Rockefeller arises in the morning with the comforting knowledge that he will have enough to pay for his breakfast, for while he was asleep his income was $4,750. If he spends a week at his yacht or playing golf where the sheriff can't find him in town or out in seven days will amount to about $1,150,000. Although Mr. Rockefeller is a pious churchman, his capital has no regard for Sunday, but keeps on earning $164,383 every Sunday, just as it does all the other days of the week. Mr. Rockefeller does not have to work if he does not want to. The rainy day is provided for, and as for the wolf, it is a hundred miles from the door.

A Guaranteed Cure For Piles
Itching, Blind, Bleeding, Protruding, Piles. Druggists are authorized to refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure in 6 to 14 days. 50c.

Attempt Held Up
Mr. J. H. Stanly, pressman in the Journal office had an exciting experience Monday night. He was coming to the office at 10:30 p. m. and when near the Pepsi-Cola factory he was grabbed by two negroes intent on robbery. Mr. Stanly's strong right arm was in good working order however and he placed his fist where it would do the most good and one of the men was sent sprawling in the ditch. The other man ran off and Mr. Stanly pursued his course unmolested.

Warehouse Burned
Arapahoe, Dec 15.—Sunday morning at 2 o'clock Capt. B. T. Bennett's warehouse was burned to the ground, destroying a vast amount of goods belonging to the Arapahoe merchants and J. E. Reel of Bairds Creek. The fire also burned Capt. Bennett's boat, the Arca, almost to a ruin, it is supposed to have been set on fire. The person took the oil can from aboard the boat that was tied to the wharf and emptied it in the house and set fire. He dropped the oil can at the front door of the warehouse and made his escape. The total loss by the fire is estimated at $3,000.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.
Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have saved years of suffering." Davis Pharmacy.

OPPOSE CORPORATION COMMISSIONS ORDER.

The Atlantic Coast Line Contend They Cannot Comply Without Great Loss of Money.
(Special Correspondence.)
Raleigh, Dec. 18.—The attorneys for the Atlantic Coast, Junius Davis, Jas. H. Fou and George B. Elliott, filed exceptions to the orders of the Corporation Commission in the matter of schedules and connections of trains on the Plymouth branch and the Scotland Neck or Kingston branch. The Atlantic Coast Line says the Commission has no power to make such regulations of the time and manner in which passengers shall be transported or to regulate schedules and connections with other lines; that the road cannot obey the order without putting on an extra train and that the Commission has not the power to require this; that the order is unreasonable as there are already sufficient accommodations; that there are not enough engines now to enable the road to carry out the order and that more than 10 months ago it placed an order for the engines, not one of which have been delivered and that by reason of this fact the Commission's order is unreasonable and impracticable; further the order is contrary to the 14th amendment to the United States Constitution in that it disposes of property without due process of law; lastly that the order would require the road to operate trains at a loss. All these objections to the orders of the Commission in such cases have been made before by various roads and the Selma connection case, now before the Supreme court of the United States will settle them all.

PRAYER BY WHOLESALE.

An Amusing Incident in a Negro Prayer Meeting in Raleigh.
Special Correspondence.
Raleigh, Dec. 18.—At a negro church here last night where there was a great crowd of worshippers, a long-winded negro offered a prayer of great length, and when he finished the regular preacher thought he could go on with other lines of work, but just as the prayer was ended another negro says, "Let's continue the prayer" and with that offered another interminable one, this being for the negro who is in jail here, to be hanged on the 21th. The very instant that this man was finishing another one shouted out "And now let's pray for a lot of other niggers who need hanging too."

Rev. Douglass Resigns.
Rev. J. J. Douglass, who has been pastor of the Tabernacle church for over a year and a half has resigned and will quit his work in that capacity March 1st, 1907. He has received a call from the Baptist church at Clis, S. C., and has the same under consideration. The church at Clis is one of the best of the denomination in South Carolina.

A Home Made Happy by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today.—Geg W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by Davis Pharmacy and F S Duffy.

Balloon Ascension Friday Night.
Mr. C. J. McSorley has made arrangements with Madame DuVat of Binghamton, N. Y., whereby she will make three balloon ascensions and parachute leaps during the holidays, the first to take place Friday night in front of his Pollock street store.
Madame DuVat comes highly recommended as an aerial artist and it will be worth your while to witness this daring exhibition Friday night at 9 o'clock sharp. The elephant balloon will be used in the first ascension.
