McSORLEY'S Letter From Santa Claus

To All The Children

Dear Mr. McSorley:

I write to let you know 1 will be at your store on Xmas Eve. sure. I have just finished making the toys and pretty things for this year, and will send them all to you at once by a special Reindeer Express Please tell the Loys and girls that I will be with you so they can tell their Papas and Mamas where to find me. I wish &4 you would also tell the children they must every one be in bed and . sound asleep by 8 o'clock Xmas Eve, for it makes me feel very small to have a bad boy or girl to see me come down the chimney, or even worse, a crooked stove pipe. I send my love to all the good boys and girls-and bad ones too, for I love them all alike. SANTA CLAUS. Your old friend,

WANTS A NEW BERN EXHIBIT.

Agent of The N. & S. in The City To Urge That New Bern Have A GoodShow

At the Exposition.

Mr. Babcock, representing the interests of the Norfolk & Southern road at the Jamestown Exposition is in the city interesting citizens in the enterprise. He met a committee of the Board of Aldermen at the Little Gem hotel last night and told of what the company proposed to do in the way of making exhibits and he desired a reasonable co-operation from the people of this section. He presented at length the proposition of the railroad. The corporation has engaged to take a certain number of square feet and will devote it to advertising and developing the country through which the railroad runs .- No expense will be spared that will make this feature a success. He is endeavoring to arrange for an exhibit from New Bern or at least to have some representation of her industries and capabilities. He counselled first having a booklet published which will advertise this section by means of souvenir books and photographic pictures of different parts of the city.

The book he suggested should have s goo! historical, commercial and industrial account of Craven, Carteret and Pamlico counties, well illustrated with good cuts and printed to the number of ten thousand. The picture is one that s quite expensive, yet it will serve a good purpose in being put in a conspicuous place and will certainly attract attention. It measures about six feet in length and comprehends a space from one-half mile to one mile in width. It is taken with a large camera and is an exceedingly clear and distinct one.

Mr. Babcock explains in full his mission and urged with all his power the supreme advantage of having something of an exhibit. The officials of the Norfolk & Southern Railroad will visit New Bern in a few days and will have more to say on the subject. Mr. Babcock has gained the co-operation of several men, and it is quite likely that omething will be done in this line,

Large Sale of Christmas Greens

(Special Correspondence.)

Raleigh, Dec 20-The sale of Christmas decorations here, in the way of evergreens, is very large this season, ncluding holly, mistletoe, and the beau tiful running or ground cedar which is found a few miles south of here in profusion and which makes one of the most effective decorations imaginable. The holiday trade is reported by the merchants to be excellent and there are reat many buyers from out of town. The cold weather has been a stimulous to the trade and the merchants are very glad to see it.

The colleges all close tomorrow for a holidays and so do the city's public shools. There will be a rush of stuients out of the city, there being 1,100 from other points, who will go home for Christmas. Some of the students at the A. & M. College will remain and a portion of these will work on the farm, at the dairy and in the city.

Death of Mrs. Nancy Morton,

After four years of suffering Mrs. Nancy Morton departed this life Dec 12, 1906, in her ninety-second year. She leaves four daughters and several grand children who mourn their loss. During her illness she was blessed with good attention from friends and loved ones who did for her all that human hands could do. She will be greatly missed, but God doeth all His will we bow in humble submission God bless the bereaved ones with faithful life and give them a happy reunion in heaven. North East, Dec. 17, 1906.

The Elks Christmas Tree.

A royal treat is in store for the children in the city whose parents are unable to give them a suitable Christmas. The event has been the source of great delight to the children for severa years and this year it will be no less en joyment. The Elks propose to have it the biggest, brightest and best Christmas tree that they have yet had.

A Cood Beginning. (Special Correspondence)

Raleigh, Dec. 20.-The fiscal year of the State has opened very well in the matter of new corporations chartered six of these having been issued today all for mercantile companies in the mi-nor towns. The indications are that there will be a great deal of develop ment during the next six months. Ge tlemen in a position to know, say tha Raleigh within a year will feel a growt which it has never known, and tha there are to be some very important steps taken along this line which wi put it abreast of the foremost place in all this section of the country.

HE WASTHERE ONCE

A Bad Nigger in Kinston Was In Trouble in This City

Two Years Ago. Kinston Free Press, 19:

After hearing evidence Justice J. G Cox. Tuesday, fixed the bond of George Harper, the bad negro who shot up Hines Bros', railroad camp Monday night, at $1,000, in default of which Harper was placed in jail.

Harper is undoubtedly a nervy negro, if the stories told on him are true. One is that two years ago he shot a negro in New Bern and was arrested and locked up by a policeman. While the officer was telling the mayor about the arrest Harper escaped from the jail. He then went to the mayor's office and told the mayor that the negro who had just been locked up for shooting another had escaped and was running up Craven street. The mayor didn't know Harper and believing bim sent officers up Craven street and Harper went down Craven street and out of town and escaped He spent two years in the mining section of West Virginia, where it is said, he has been in trouble frequently.

Emineut Dectors Preise Its Ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyle one of the Editorial Staff of The Editorial Manical Raview says of Unicorn root (Helonias Diolog) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

ritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kid-neys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weak-ened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhees (suppressed of absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and ansemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen.*

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Scal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, Says: "It is as important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions " and general enfeetblement, it is useful." Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Scal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all dobilitated states."

Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson

Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoga (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

The Journal office has received a copy of the Asheville Magazine, a literary periodical of that city in which is a very interesting account of the Haywood county fair by our former townsman, James E. There was a small attendance at the Law and Order Lesgue meeting last night, the weather being wet and stormy. There was no official business transacted, Notice of special matters of public interest, at the January meeting, was given and the same will be given in the Journal.

The case of Andrews vs A & N C Co. was heard in Kinston this week and a verdict was rendered vesterday in favor of the plaintiff awarding $5,000, The case arose out of damages in the killing of Mr. Andrews whose estate brought the suit some two years ago.

Sloppy weather yesterday interferred to some extent with holiday shopping, and those who have not done their purchasing will probably have to go out in disagreeable weather. It's always well to "make hay while the sun shines."

William Hyman, one of the ollest and best known draymen of the city, a prominent member of St. Peters church and a life long resident of New Bern is critically ill at his home up on Jones street.

The citizens of Wilmington are making great preparations for the recep-tion of Hon. Thomas E. Burton, chairman of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House of Representatives. The citizens expect that by having Mr. Burton personally investirate the needs of a deep water way there he can intelligently act on the appropriation hoped for.

the earth it is simply shocking indeed. All children who are Lot permitted out after dark can witness the ascersion by 'rubbering' on the back porch. The start will be made from in front of Mc-Sorley's Pollock street store and the descension will be-somewhere.

Wood seems to be unusually scarce and sells high. The country carts are bringing in but very little, or the boats either. A boat came up from Oriental Thursday with a load of green, pine slabs which sold readily at sixty five cents the load at the dock. A severe freeze would be rather awkward for people who have to depend upon wood fires.

The bad weather the past two days has had a very depressing effect on the merchants, while a good many people have come to town through the rain to make their Christmas purchases. A great many more would have come had the weather been good. Should it clear up today no doubt there will be a big trade here Saturday and Monday.

The docks were clear of boats Thursday night. The ugly weather coming on caused what few that were in to hasten their return home. It is remarked that the boat trade has fallen off very materially this fall. Several gasolene boats are plying between different points on a semi regular schedule, which handle most of the freight brought and carried away from here.

A pet coon created a little diversion which helf ed to relieve the monotory of a dreary day, Thursday, ot the foot of Middle street. The coon runs at large on the street and has betimes, formed the acquaintance of a plump. playful little puppy, whose retreat is in the neighborhood of the dock. Everyday the coon hies himself away to meet his friend for a frolic which sometimes lasts for an hour or more. Their antica yesterday attracted the attention of some visitors in town and in a little while quite a crowd had gathered and notwithstanding the falling rain, the fun was enjoyed the same as a show. The animals it seems, are very friendly and never disagree.
