Master Jim-mie Rosen, who is called "Master" because of his small size, but who is really twenty-nine, makes a really remark able "Buster Brown", satisfying all who have enjoyed Outcault's amusing pictures. He is Buster in size and appearace and was a delight. With him was Jack Bell as "Tige", who was as natural as the humorous dog, that he was Tige himself who frolicked behind the foot-lights. It was a generally clever piece of pantomime, in which even the dog's tail wagged perfectly. Mr. Charles H. Boyle as the tramp was real article and his song, "Money" was a hit. The "Mary Jane" of Miss Lelia Cautna was excellent. The chorus made melody, the girls were shapely and good lookers, while the costumes and scenery were effective. All in all "Buster Brown" is a delightful and amusing affair, a cartoon comedy that all should see.

"My Wife's Family."

Stephens and Linton's merry musical arce comedy, "My Wife's Family," on Jan. 15th, is what is known in theatrical parlance as a good 'repeater,' or in other words, one that plays to in creased attendance on return engagements, for there is not an instance on has not played to the capacity of the theatre. Although this is the third season, the receipts are far in excess of any previous year. One of the principal reasons for this is that the company has not deteriorated and almost identically the same cast has appeared in the play three seasons ago for extended engagements in all of the principal cities comprise the organization today. ### HURST-GREEN.

Happy Nuptial Event of Two of New Bern's Popular

Young People.

At half past five o'clock yesterday evening the wedding ceremony of two of New Bern's most popular young people, Mr. Benjamin B. Hurst and Miss Daisy Lee Green, was solemnized in the presence of a large assembly of friends at the Centenary Methodist Church. The church was most beautifully deco rated with palms and flowers under the skilled and artistic supervision of Mrs. J. A. Meadows and Mrs. George Henderson, Sr. The altar was especially attractive with its decorations.

Previous to the entrance of the wedding party Mrs. Meadows officiating at the organ and Miss Wyatt, violinist, rendered Schubert's Serenade in beautiful cadences. The approach of the bridal party was announced by the familiar and stirring strains of Lohengrin wedding march. The party was preceded by the ushers, Messrs. E. M. Green, G. N. Ennett, C. J. McCarthy and H. K. Land. The Dame of Honor, Mrs. W. E. Turnbull, sister of the bride, followed; the bride was escorted to the altar by her father, Mr. John C. Green, who gave her away, and was there met by the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr D M Roberts.

The ceremony was performed by Rev R C Beaman. During the ceremony the soft obligato of the inter mezzo from Cavaliera Rusticana was played on organ and violin giving impressiveness to the solemn vows being spoken. Mendleshon's wedding march was played as the party left the church.

The bride's gown was a handsome brown broadcloth traveling dress, and the dame of honor was attractively attired in a gown of yellow satin with a black picture hat. The bride carried a bouquet of bride roses and carnations and the maid of honor carried carnations.

The young couple are so well known grocery firm of Roberts & Hurst. The auspicious occasion is accentuated by the heartiest congratulations of a multitude of well wishers.

Mr. and Mrs. Hearst were the recipients of very many beautiful and costly presents, bearing evidence of the high esteem in which they were held. They left on the steamer Neuse for a bridal tour to northern cities.
