Norfolk, Jan. 25.—A schooner's anchor cable of the Confederate battleship Merrimack in Hampton roads and the anchor was brought on board of boat and will be preserved as a historic relic.

Raleigh, Jan. 25.—A bill was introduced allowing Jones county to issue bonds to build a bridge across the Trent.

Norfolk, Jan. 25.—A fatal wreck occurred on the Seaboard Air Line track at Boykins early this morning. The fast freight from Portsmouth to Hampton went through an open switch. Fireman Colley was killed and engineer Cappel seriously wounded. An entire car of horses placed immediately behind the engine went clear over the trestle and every horse in the car was killed.

Raleigh, Jan. 25.—It was learned tonight that Speaker Justice assents to such modifications of his free pass bill as to allow newspapers to receive transportation in exchange for advertising. Henry A. Landon had message from Justice to this effect and says newspapers may feel sure that this course will be taken. There would otherwise have been fight in House.

Raleigh, Jan. 25.—The North Carolina Association of city school superintendents elected W. S. Nipp, of Winston, President; I. C. Griffin, of Salisbury, Vice President; C. W. Wilson, of Scotland Neck, Secretary.

A resolution was unanimously adopted, urging the legislature to increase the salary of the State Superintendent of public instruction as to put that officer on a footing with other State officers.

Resolutions of regret at the death of Charles D. Melver were adopted.

The State tax bank commission decided to adopt D. H. Hall's primary History of North Carolina, and W. J. Pool's book on civics.

Dover, N. H., Jan. 28th.—Mill No. 1, of the Cocheco Cotton Mill Co. burned today. Many operatives jumped from the windows and were hurt. Six bodies have been taken from the ruins. The damage is $95,000.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Senator Sines of Tennessee spoke in the Senate today on the Brownsville dismissal incident. He said he wanted the Senate to endorse the President's action in the discharge of the negro troops as the legislature of his own State had done.

New York, Jan. 26.—Dr. Charles Townsend, one of the most noted physicians of the city was shot and killed while in bed last night. The murderer held a lighted match while locating the victim. Mrs. Townsend witnessed the affair. In order to prevent any chance to procure help this assassin cut the telephone wires.

Greensboro, Jan. 26.—The census figures show the ginning to be 12,166,000 bales. The "into light" to date is 1,600,000 ahead of last year and 650,000 ahead of the biggest on record. If the fall of this crop should be as broad as the big crop year the yield will exceed 14,000,000 bales, but most people are of the opinion that the country stocks are relatively small, and expect a sharp falling off after March 1st. It is hard to believe however that this crop will be under 13½ million and this is enough. Prices do not change much except the low grades are somewhat cheaper and the high grades somewhat dearer. The inquiry and demand for low grades is increasing as they sell at very attractive prices when compared with white cotton and mills that can use them are certainly wise to make the change. The demand from all sections seems to be smaller than heretofore indicating that spinners are not quite so hungry as they were. The next crop futures are up twenty-five points while the summer months are about unchanged. I think October futures will sell fifty points over July.

Death of Rev. W. P. Fife

Col. John D. Whitford received a telegram yesterday from his daughter, Mrs. George Slover of Denver, Col., announcing the death of Rev. W. P. Fife who is well known in this city. A special in the Charlotte Observer says:

St. Louis, Jan. 27.—W. P. Fife, capitalist, died suddenly at 11 o'clock today at the St. James Hotel.

Mr. Fife was in the hotel lobby chatting with friends when he became suddenly very ill, and soon lost consciousness. Dr. William Behrens was hastily summoned from the Southern Hotel, across the street, but could do nothing for Mr. Fife who died shortly after the doctor's arrival.

Mr. Fife was born in New Bern about 50 years ago and lived here until the war. He married a daughter of Col. Whitford. He is survived by the wife, son and daughter.

What are the greatest songs?

The New York Herald recently commented on the question, "What are the Greatest Songs?"—Songs that have stirred the human heart? Many views were advanced by the various readers but by almost unanimous consent the following were the songs that were entitled to that distinction and voted to an exalted position in the "Hall of Fame": "The Star Spangled Banner", "The Marseillaise", "Die Wacht Am Rhein", "Song of the Evening Star" from Tannhauser; "The Lost Chord", "Die Meistersinger", "Old Black Joe", "Misericorde" from "Il Trovatore", "God save the Queen", and "Dixie". These immortal melodies, together with all the patriotic national anthems, ballads and opan songs, and Varsity Class Songs, will be rendered in the magnificent program which the "Dandy Dixie Minstrels", announce for the New Masonic Opera House Friday February 1st.

HOUSE.

Raleigh, Jan. 25.—Bills introduced in the House to limit hours of labor in cotton mills to sixty per week.

To forbid the trespassing on railway tracks.

To give the State an equal chance with defendants in the selection of jurors.

There was a long debate on the dope bill, prohibiting the sale at soda fountains of drinks containing caffeine, strichnine, cocaine, coal tar products or narcotics, which came up with unfavorable report. Mr. Douglas spoke an hour, he denounced the presence of what he said was lobby of druggists and dope manufacturers in droves, calling them "dopists and proprietors of children's bar-rooms." He declared the fight against his bill was led by a millionaire manufacturer of soda fountains. The bill was tabled, the vote being 51 to 39.

SENATE.

A bill passed the Senate separating prisoners affected with tuberculosis from other prisoners in jails.

There was a long debate on the bill to fix the salaries of solicitors at $2,100, it was made a special order for Thursday next.

At noon the annual meeting of the Trustees of the State University was held, Gov. Glenn presiding. The legislature will be asked to increase the appropriation to the University $25,000 a year.

The North Carolina Association of city school Superintendents here are in every strong sympathy with the movement for compulsory education.

The Corporation Commission has arranged for a hearing of all of the freight agents of the big railways on the 29th inst on the rate question.

This afternoon the Senate and House committee on railroads heard more speeches by railroad officials and attorneys on bills before the legislature reducing passenger fares, giving far greater control of the railways to the Corporation Commission and in various other ways assuming more control of the railways. General Passenger Agent Ryan of the Seaboard Air Line completed his argument. General Counsel Thom of the Southern declared what was wanted were double tracks and the cry by the people was not for lower rates but for better chances to get their products to the great markets.

This evening the Capital Club gave its biennial reception to the State officers and the legislators, one of the two most elaborated social functions of the winter, over five hundred persons being present.

N. & S. SEEKS EN-TRANCE TO RALEIGH

By Way of Durham. The Road May Enter Negotiations to That Effect.

(Special Correspondence.)

Raleigh, Jan. 26.—The Norfolk and Southern Railway will in a few weeks have a very handsome city office here north of the post office, and a large sign makes this announcement. It is stated that the Norfolk & Western also desires to get into Raleigh by way of Durham.

THE VILLAGE BY THE SEA.

The Attractions Held Out to Prospective Investors by Swansboro.

Many years have come and gone, embracing much talk and prophecy, that sooner or later this place would become one of most desirable locations on the Eastern Coast of North Carolina. Its natural situation is second to none between Sandy Hook and Florida, but for lack of development it would be one of the most progressive towns in the State, being as it were cut off from the world for lack of transportation. But the world is moving and these heretofore existing environments are being cleared away by greater possibilities. Within five years twenty residences, good comfortable homes, have been built and still more building. Has now about five hundred inhabitants and still increasing the main features to accomplish this was the building of a railroad. This is now being done and extends directly from Swansboro to the Atlantic Coast Line, connecting with same near White Oak station. The right of way is about cut through the whole distance about fourteen miles and is nearly graded, ready for ties and rails. This rail road is of standard gauge which will accommodate all classes of trains known to the Rail Road business. About one hundred hands are now working daily on its construction and the projectors are pushing it to rapid completion and will be ready for operation this summer about June. We pause here and look to other developments to follow. This will now demand other contingencies viz: a hotel an ice house fish packing oyster industry a bank possibly a newspaper and last but not least the trucking industry, land now not cultivated and much not cleared is susceptible to all kinds of vegetation the finest in the whole county and two weeks earlier than in New Bern. The hotel matter is now interesting everybody and many want to subscribe to its construction, next we mention a graded school no better location can be found, healthy and good water to be obtained. The rail road is now materializing and is an established fact, could mention much more but to investors for business on any line and pleasure seekers this is the opportunity as a finer summer resort is not to be found. Accommodation cannot be found here now for the people come and go and for want of some where to stop. Winter or Summer a hotel would handsomely pay. Enough to say come to Swansboro and get in the swim or get left. Real Estate is now advanced here and now is the time to strike.

Healing Medication That is Breathed, Giving Quick Relief.

It seems just as ridiculous to put medicine in the stomach to cure a cold in the head or lungs as it does to go out in the rain if we want to keep dry. The fact that many people right here in New Bern cough and hawk and snuffle for days and weeks after they treat a cold with the usual stomach dosing, shows how valueless are the ordinary cough and cold cures.

The right way to cure a cold in the head or a cough and irritation in the throat and lungs, is by breathing Hyomei's medicated air. Put a few drops of Hyomei in the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit and breathe this healing air for a few times and immediate relief will be noted. The medication goes right to the spot where the disease germs are located and renders them harmless in the future.

At the same time the soothing and healing effects of Hyomei on the irritated mucous membrane give quick relief, and the cough or cold is broken up.

The best evidence of the great value of Hyomei in curing coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles is the fact that P. S. Duffy gives an absolute guarantee with every bottle he sells, that if it does not give satisfaction, the money will be refunded.

A complete Hyomei outfit consisting of a bottle of Hyomei, the inhaler and a medicine dropper, costs but $1, while extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, can be obtained for only 50 cents.

Its healthful, wholesome. Its good for one as the other. The more you take the better you sleep and eat. Makes people happy. That's what Hyomei's Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. F. S. Duffy.

Novel Cure for Colds.

When freedom from the Mountain high, unfurled her standard for all to see, these words appeared in black and white "Drink Rocky Mountain Tea."

Correction.

Editor Journal: An impression prevails among the voters of this city that another election can be held on the liquor question within two years or at any time within 90 days of the next city election. This is not correct. Under section 2069 of the Revised of 1905 no election on the liquor question in any form can be held within two years from the election on February 5th and then not within ninety days of the city election in 1909, so that no election can be held sooner than about August 1909. After the election on next Tuesday either prohibition or the dispensary will be in force in this city for two years at least.

SENATE.

Raleigh, Jan. 26.—In the Senate Senator Graham read the following letter from Mrs. Stonewall Jackson of Charlotte regarding the bill introduced providing $100 pension for her:

"I most heartily appreciate this loyal tribute to the name of my husband and tender my heartfelt thanks for the preferred honor and benefit, but do not feel that I would be justified in accepting it. I am informed that the law in North Carolina limits all pensions to those who have not $500 of personal property and as I do not come under this law I respectfully request that the bill be withdrawn. I would also suggest that the pension which has been so magnanimously proposed in my behalf be appropriated to the relief of the destitute widows of Confederate Veterans. It would also please me far more to see our honorable legislature take measures for a Reformatory for the good of the State." Remarks were most feelingly made by Senator Lovell, a Confederate Veteran and it was ordered that the letter be made part of the journal, as breathing so noble a spirit and being a valuable contribution to history.

Bills were introduced to validate marriages heretofore solemnized by unauthorized ministers.

To enlarge the capitol and provide quarters for the Supreme Court, State Library and State officers.

Bills passed appropriating $20,000 additional to the Jamestown exposition.

To give the Southern & Western Railway power to condemn land on the right of way of other railways when necessary for the use of the latter.

A resolution was adopted requiring solicitors to inform the Senate of the amount of the fees received last year.

Bill passed requiring water companies to supply the public with good water.

MOIST REMARKABLE WEATHER.

The Journal has, in years gone past, made a record of weather when there was any unusual temperature, either high or low to report. It generally happens about this time of year that the low temperature is the natural thing to record and if we should say that we have been getting weather at 20 or 17 degrees we would remark that it is right cold and let it go at that. But we have been having extraordinarily warm weather for the past few days and it is well to note the temperature at this time for future reference as such weather is very rare. It was more like March than January. Although it was pleasant and enjoyable it was unseasonable and nearly everybody appreciated the change which came yesterday morning.

Three Lays Later:

Yesterday morning the Trent river was covered with ice from shore to shore. It varied in thickness from one half inch to four inches, and a large number of fish were found frozen in the ice. In the vicinity of the Trent bridge several men were seen in boats breaking through the ice and taking the imprisoned fish.

A pond of small dimensions near Big Hill's store was frozen so that it would bear people and a few skated on it. Wherever the water flowed out of hydrants or of taps, ice had formed to several inches thickness.

The climax of the unpleasantness occurred Friday morning when the mercury got down to 12 degrees—the coldest weather for several years.

The yacht Lulu, Capt. L. B. Midyette, is ice bound in Broad Creek, three miles from the Neuse. She is well stocked with provisions and has a fine cargo of striped bass.

TWO & ONE-HALF CENT BILL UP.

A Mongrel Measured With Good Intention But Deficient

APPROPRIATION FOR THE JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

Bill Introduced Regulating Food For Convicts Color Line for Convicts. State Banks to pay Interest on Deposits. Pensions to Property Holding Individuals.

Special to Journal.

HOUSE.

Raleigh, Jan. 28.—Bills were introduced in the House requiring banks holding state money on deposit to pay interest thereon.

To require fire insurance companies to reduce premiums in all cases where they order improvements made of buildings to prevent fire waste.

To reduce passenger rates to two and one-half cents per mile on all railways which show net earnings of fourteen hundred dollars per mile, three cents on other roads, with no second class fare, 200 pounds of baggage being allowed each passenger and all railways being required to sell interchangeable mileage books.

To prescribe prison food for convicts in camps and jails and to separate whites and blacks in convict camps.

To allow persons owning $750 worth of property to receive pensions.

To provide a firemen's relief fund.

To prohibit the co-insurance clause in policies.

To allow the Corporation Commission to reduce railroad fares at any time when the necessity for such reduction is fully established before it.

The discussion of the day was on Mr. Laughinghouse' bill, prohibiting Dutch and pound nets in Pamlico and Tar rivers. The bill passed, 52 to 28, as did also bills appropriating twenty thousand dollars additional to the Jamestown exposition and extending until 1909, the time for settling and commuting the State debt.

To regulate pay of Washington county commissioners.

To provide for the election of magistrates.

To give suitable accommodations for jurors.

To amend the charter of Murfreesboro.

To divide the dispensary fund at Falkland.

To establish a graded school at Lake Landing.

To allow the the Governor to appoint special policemen for electric water power and construction companies.

During the debate on the bill against Dutch and Pound nets in Pamlico and Tar river it was stated that three men, composing the "Fish Trust" stopped all fish on the Pamlico river and destroyed the shad. It was asserted on the other side that the bill confiscated $75,000 of property in Beaufort county, and one of its most important industries.

A bill passed the House empowering town constables to execute process like other officers.

SENATE.

Bills were introduced in the Senate to prevent the sale of adulterated paints, foods, drugs and liquors.

Graham's bill prescribing the manner of entering and leaving trains and requiring low steps to cars was tabled.

A bill was introduced to increase the number of judicial districts to twenty making an increase of four judges and four solicitors.
