STATE DEMOCRATIC PIECE MAK-ERS.

The esteemed Charlotte Observer refusesto play in the political ring of North Carolina, either as a peace maker or piece maker. And yet there are those who will say the Observer takes the role of a political scold and breathes forth defiance on every occasion, even when a bare excuse exists, to retreat from editorial attack.

By its enemies, the Observer is always set down as favoring political backsliding. It is held as a recalcitrant to democrcy, Secause it refuses to be ultra on every thing and anything that may be advanced by certain goody-goody state democrats. who deem ultraism, as associated with themselves, as the true type and exponent of democracy. It is not that others may not have opinions, oh no, but those opinions must be taken and reflected as the aforesaid goody-goody democrats, may say. It is not so long ago, that the Observer was roundly abused for its steadfastness to ex-President Cleveland, Mr. Cleveland as President, came nearest to democracy, if the Journal may be permitfed to express itself. Mr. Cleveland, as a citizen, certainly maintained the honor, of American citizenship in its fairest type. Why should the good word for the ex-president provoke hostile comment? Just as well ask, why does an honest independent demperacy provoke bostility today. There is a Pecksniffian democracy in North Carolina that fools too many people. as being the real thing. It is exclusive; for it hopes to control by being so. And yet democracy does not mean exclusiveness or the unquestioning dictum of a few, to name, and shape party measures, in advance of primaries and conventions. The conservative democrat is uniformly declared, to be politically tainted. Why? Because the exclusive set know that conservatism means individuality, and the personal declaration of individual oninions, with the demand why and wherefore, for doing things, when actions are inquired into. Naturally conservatism means the abolition of the party lash, and this very fact, that many democrats in North Carolina refuse to recognize the crack of this party lash, causes gnashing of teeth and vituperation on the part of politicians, whose only choice to gain office has been during the excitement of campaigns when the lash was made the token and sign of party fealty. But that day has passed. The sooner it is recognized and thoroughly accepted the better and truer will be North Carolina democracy.

THE QUESTION OF MINE AND THINE.

Perhaps nothing is easier to satisfy the average conscience, than the question of the personal possession of any article, that at the time may appear to have no special ownership. The finder of a pocketbook, will some how at once attach a personal ownerable to it. Where are the countless lost articles of value, that can be read in the newspapers? Not all have p ground up under the foot of Neither have they fallen into and been lost by being covered by dust or rubbish. But if lost les could tell the tale, many sod good people would be shocked, the voice of the doftar picked up welry found, which declared out their present ownership, or the notion of it.

And in other ways, besides the findof articles of more or less value is mine and yours. There is some thing singularly strange about it Men and women, scrupulously honest in every other way, will find some article, and by a kind of fatuous reasoning, will at once establish an ownership, and if they should see in a newapaper, that the article they found was actually the property of another, they will pride themselves on their honesty by returning the article. After some disaster, by fire, flood or wind, people will eagerly search among the ruins, and finding anything that suits them, will appropriate it, forgetting that they are on the premises of others, that what they take is as much the property of those who suffered from the disaster, exposing their property to the crowd, as it was when a roof covered and protected it. raking over the ruins, picking up and carrying away articles of value. It may seem harsh to say, it is stealing. But it is nothing less, and it is the duty of the authorities to see to it that police protection be extended over the ruins after a fire, until property owners can go over the premises and save what may be of value. A burned building looks like the lost arsince any sensible person that there is an ownership which is not lost because some fatality has put the lost pocketbook, or the remains of a burned building, in the power of another to setze and claim possession.

THE CITY'S EDUCATIONAL RE-PORTS.

Reports of associations, treasurers of city and county, and reports full of figures, are passed over by the average flewspaper reader. And yet it is the unusual report that does not gossess interest and value to every citithe school report of the graded schools of New Bern. This report no their parents were shown how fine a record was made

But there is something beyond this forced reading of school reports. The thought or should be of every citizen is the graded school doing its highest work? Does the last report show gain in every way over the previou month's report? And greatest of all should be the thought, what have the citizen, done to assist in promot ing the welfare and improvement of the school.

No factor must or will contribute so largely to the future development and upbuilding of New Bern, as its schools. This being true, it is not merely the privilege, but the duty of every citizen to lend help to these schools that they may accommodate and be equipped to meet the advancing educational needs ofthis community. Every report should be studied The schools should be visited. Superintendent and teachers should be rec ognized as prominent factors in this community, for it is through their faithfulness and perseverance, coupled with intelligent and Christian effort. munity and section a living and vita force in the world's progress.

There is more Catarrh in this sec tion of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable, Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. #### SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

THE STOMACH.

ning to what cople who callpeople who call-ed on me had to agree with me. They heard people come in and tell me that for years they had been near the grave with Bright's disease, or lund trouble, or kidney complaint and all man er of diseases and that the New Discovery had cured them. Of course these people were mistaken, it was nothing but their stomachs. As a matter of fact when the tomach gives out most everything else is brown out of order too

When a person feels tired and dull and despondent, is loosing flesh and don't sleep well, has a poor memory, a had taste in the mouth, a coated tongue, and other troubles he's liable to believe a lot of things are the matter with him. Nine shances to one it's his stomach. I've seen Cooper's New Discovery bring back health to too many people in just this shape to believe anything else. Here's a letter about it:

"I suffered for a long time without knowing just what was the matter me. I seldom felt like, eating. I lost greatly in weight. My digestion was ex extremely poor and when I did eat I invariably suffered afterward. I was easy atleated and frequently suffered from nerve racking, violent headaches. When I heard of what the Cooper remedies were doing for others I resolved to try them."

"Relief came with the first bottle. My appetite and digestion improved rapidly, I am no longer oppstigated nor do I have those dreadful headaches. I sleep well and am gaining flesh." C. H. Powell, 13 Harrison Addition. Duluth, Minn.

HOW ABOUT EASTERN CARO-LINA INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Has the Question Been Put to Sleep for Good or Just Temporarily. Paul, Minn., that one half of all sickness is The activity shown by other cities for getting the location of the Eastern. Carolina Normal and Industrial school leads us to query, What is New Bern assured them doing to get this school? The citizens of Kinston are working hard to have eine did nathing but put the it located there; Washington is busy making efforts for it the Chamber of Commerce having become interested in the matter, Greenville, Rocky Mount, Tarboro, and Wilson are all eager for it and one of these places will get it if we don't watch out.

It is possible the citizens of New Bern do not know what they will lose by ignoring the matter and they will have no one to blame but themselves. Why are the other cities so eager for this school if they do not see in it big opportunity to enlarge and improve the town? What other town can offer the natural advantages for such an institution that New Bern offers? In every respect there are many reasons why New Bern should be the choice for the location of the school but her citizens must work for it and work hard.

Concerts by such organizations as Victor's Royal Venetian Band are sure to be enjoyable. This fact has been established by Gilmore's band of years ago, the Sousa and National Marine bands of the more recent rears. They have made a record that will attest their popularity. The members of Victor's band which appears here tomorrow night are not selected by any hit or miss method but the utmost care has been used by the personal supervision of the master himself. As a result there is a company of trained musicians of the high est degree of merit and the soloists have many of them own high praise from royalty of Europe.

NORTH CAROLINA'S COLORED SITIZENS.

Preparing an Elaborate Exhibit for the Jamestown Exposition.

Norfolk, Va., April 9.-Rev. C. F. Williamson, commissioner general in charge of the exhibit of the colored people of North Carolina, and Dr. C. M. Hunter, secretary of the state commission, were in the city yesterday, conferring with the executive committee designated by the governnent to arrange the negro exhibit of the Jamestown exposition, Assurances were given that the North Carolina exhibit will be one of the most elaborate of the state exhibits prepared by the colored citizens there. and that it will occupy all the space that the committee here can afford to allow them in the negro building. It will be remembered that the legislature of North Carolina very generously appropriated $5,000 to aid their progressive colored citizens in their aim to let the world know how rapidly they are moving forward. The display of work from the state institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind will be especially complete, and is said to be worth traveling many miles to see. The various departments have been carefully organized, and the exhibits from each will be the very best that the race is capable of producing along the several lines. The following departments will be represented by appropriate specimens: agricultural, horticultural, domestic science. needle work, education, mechanic art, literature, fine arts, floriculture. staple goods, inventions, scenic views of homes, farms, churches, business houses, etc., professional resources, political life, business life, statistics of material resources, antique curtos. forestry, minerals, fossils, and the work of women. The experience gleaned by the race from 28 years in the direction of annual fairs will be rystalized in the state exhibit at Jamestown. The Carolinians are defermined to set a worthy example for the enterprising colored people of their sister states.
