Within the past week, the following valuable additions to the business life of Greensboro and the State, have had their headquarters here:

The Atlanta Compound Company, manufacturers of oils and sizings, have leased a large brick building on Davie street, and will open a branch house here, with Mr. R. G. Sloan as local manager. The company will ship three car loads a week, as its first heginning at this distributing point.

The Retail Credit Association of Atlanta, have reated offices in the Benbow Arcade building and opened the only branch office between Baltimore and Atlanta. This company besides furnishing reports on individuals, makes a specialty of furnishing re-ports to Life Insurance Companies of applicants for policies.

Two more cotton brokers, Mr. H. S. Herndou of Boston, and James L. Her-rou of Little Rock, Ark., have located here to deal in cotton, both having opened offices in the Benbow Arcade building with a full force of clerks.
