

PROPERTY LISTING JOB COMPLETED COL. OLDS GOES TO BEAUFORT TO REPORT STATE MEETING OF BAR ASSOCIATION AND MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR SUNSHINERS

STATE OFFICERS RETURN HOME Peculiar Co-incident of the Recent Nominations—Marriage of Mr. J. E. Levin and Miss Clark—Death of Mrs. P. W. Young—Two More Raleigh Men To Take Trips to Europe.

Col. F. A. Olds, the veteran newspaper correspondent of Raleigh, has gone to Beaufort to attend the presentation of the silver service to the Cruiser North Carolina, July 3rd, the sessions of the North Carolina Bar Association, there the next four days and also to make the arrangements for the annual outing of the Raleigh Sunshiners of which he is the director.

Mr. Francis Cox left today for New York to be joined there by Mr. Geo. Forryth and Mr. Hyman Smith, of Virginia, to sail July 4th on the Columbia for a two months tour of Europe—landing first at Glasgow, Scotland.

The State officers and their clerks and others who have been in Charlotte, the past week, "minding their fingers," in the contents for nomination, returned today, well satisfied with all who stood for re-nomination having won out. All speak enthusiastically of the ticket nominated and the outlook for the State campaign.

ROBERT K. HURST DEAD Another Confederate Veteran Answers To The Last Roll Call Special to Journal. Mayville, N. C., June 30.—Mr. Robert K. Hurst, a leading resident of this section, and a veteran of the Confederate army, died here tonight at 8:45 o'clock.

The day was an ideal one and all nature seemed to smile in harmony with the occasion. Every feature of the wedding was beautiful and attractive. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, and cut flowers, while the time honored altar was a profusion of evergreens and snowy cape jessamines.

At the appointed hour—eight-thirty Miss Clara Morris, who presided at the organ with the skill of an artist's touch rendered the old, yet ever new and beautiful wedding march from "Lohengrin." The ushers were Messrs Jack Street, Gulon Dunn, Albert Patterson and Richard Lane.

Notes The "Academy Green" Sunday School will celebrate its annual picnic on Friday, July 10th, 1908, at Black Swamp Creek Bridge. All are invited to come and bring well filled baskets.

Corea's Door Is Open to the World. Tokyo, June 28.—That there is no closed door in Corea is positively asserted not only by officials but by Americans who are doing a large business in Corea.

BLACK MOUNTAIN INN Early Season This Year—Bright Prospects For The Section Special Correspondence. Black Mountain, N. C., June 28.—The season opened early at The Inn this year, guests arriving by June 1st, and between forty and fifty now enjoying the unequalled situation afforded by the location of the house. The weather was wet during May, but hardly any rain has fallen this month.

Derailed by Wreckers. Cleveland, June 28.—Erie Railroad officials, who returned today from the scene of last night's wreck near Garrettsville, reported that the derailment of the train was caused by train wreckers. All the spikes had been pulled and the splice bars removed from one entire rail, and the rail was lying loose on the ties.

"Canned Sermons." Chicago, June 30.—"Canned" sermons will be preached in many Chicago churches this summer when the pastors go away on their annual vacations. "Canned" sermons are the kind that are reproduced on a phonograph machine, and some who have heard them say they are equal to those of the best pulpit.

Japan Wants Her Credit Restored. Tokyo, June 30.—The work of the estimating Government budget for next year has begun, and a great effort is being made to wholly change army and navy finances and the method of handling Government securities.

Chicago, June 28.—If the Democratic National Convention at Denver names Bryan and Johnson as its ticket, the Republican party will be given a hard run, otherwise Taft and Sherman will be elected with ease.

ENGINEER SHOT TO DEATH TRAGIC END OF R. M. STULTZ OF THE SEABOARD AIR LINE—AT RALEIGH—SHOT FOUR TIMES ATTEMPTED TO ENTER HOUSE

Stultz Had Been Shot At Early In The Evening and Had Gone Away And Returned To The Place—He Refused To Make Explanation—The Asheville and Carolina Railroad Closed—Military Commission. Special Correspondence. Raleigh, N. C., July 1.—About 2:30 o'clock this morning Engineer R. M. Stultz, of the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company, stumbled into the wash room of the Seaboard round house here and fell dead, bleeding from four pistol shot wounds.

Later in the morning Turner Smith, a young carpenter, who was for some time foreman on the yard engine of the Seaboard here, reported to the police that he had fired several times at a man who was picking at the window blinds of his father's room near the Seaboard round house, and that he believed it was Engineer Stultz that he shot.

Minister Says Dancing Is Hugging. South Norwalk, Conn., July 1.—"It is improper to go anything in a ballroom that you would not countenance in your parlor. Dancing is nothing but hugging to music." This was among the utterances of Rev. Frank D. Torrey in the pulpit of Norwalk Methodist church. He had his congregation much interested, and when he added that a good hugger they wondered how he knew so much about it.

Chicago, June 28.—If the Democratic National Convention at Denver names Bryan and Johnson as its ticket, the Republican party will be given a hard run, otherwise Taft and Sherman will be elected with ease.

INJUNCTION CASE HEARD Arguments on Citizens Action on Removal of Trees Heard By Judges Allen and Gulon Special Correspondence. Morehead City, N. C., July 1.—The action of the Board of Aldermen of the City of New Bern in authorizing Mayor Bryan to remove all trees which interfered in anyway with properly laying the new granite pavement in that city has caused some of the residents there to institute suits for the purpose of saving several of the historic trees of New Bern.

Carrie Nation and Sheeth Gowns Des Moines, July 1.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, who has waged vigorous if not successful war on saloons and tobacco smokers, said today she would wear one of the first sheath gowns she sees a woman wearing.

GRADED SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT Trustees Ask For Bids For Heating Plant—Old Building Being Repaired. The Trustees of New Bern Academy are advertising in the Manufacturer's Record, Baltimore, for bids for a heating plant, steam or hot water, which will heat the three school buildings of the white Graded School.

Died In the twilight of June 30th, last, at his home in Mayville, Mr. Robert K. Hurst passed the inevitable and his soul now rests with Him who gave it. None but those who have sat in the shadow of a great bereavement can justly weigh such sorrow as this.

Preparing for Census. Washington, June 29.—Already Director North is preparing plans for taking the thirtieth census in 1910. It will require 20,000 persons. The returns will be greatly condensed. The twelfth census required two volumes. The thirtieth census will be published in six. The mortality statistics will be dropped. Those of the late census were found unsatisfactory.

ANNUAL MEETING OF BARRISTERS OF MOREHEAD'S ALLURING HOTEL

All Of The Members of The State Supreme Court Present, Except Judge Hoke—Justice In U. S. Supreme Court Decision on Railway Rate Rate Case—Judge Conner Makes An Eloquent Plea for Greater Patriotism—Names of New Members Admitted to The Bar. Special to Journal. Morehead City, N. C., July 1.—Session North Carolina Bar Association held in ball room of Atlantic Hotel today, was attended by about seventy-five members.

Death of Henry Wilson After three weeks of severe suffering, Mr. W. H. Wilson, breathed his last, at the sanitarium, in this city, yesterday morning.

Preparing for Census. Washington, June 29.—Already Director North is preparing plans for taking the thirtieth census in 1910. It will require 20,000 persons. The returns will be greatly condensed. The twelfth census required two volumes. The thirtieth census will be published in six.

Death of Henry Wilson. Mr. Wilson was a farmer, residing in Jones county, on the road about midway between Pollockville and Brenton. About three weeks ago, his land became inflamed from the effect of a mosquito bite, blood poison, which disease progressed slowly and he and came, notwithstanding the most skillful medical attention.

LARGE MONTHLY DISBURSEMENTS THE RURAL MAIL OF NORTH CAROLINA RECEIVES $100,000 IN THE AGGREGATE

Proceedings in Involuntary Bankruptcy—Corporations Chartered by Secretary of State—Miscellaneous News From the Capital City. Special Correspondence. Raleigh, N. C., July 2.—The monthly disbursements to the North Carolina rural free delivery carriers in salaries aggregate nearly $100,000.

Two weeks ago some sixty old letters were sent to rural carriers in various parts of the State, whose checks did not appear to have been cashed at that time, asking them what disposition had been made of them. One very laughable answer came, the carrier replying with a detailed statement of the payments for living expenses he had made with the money—so much for groceries, so much for feed for his horse; a payment on his buggy, the names of the farms paid and the amounts being given.

Thaw's Insanity Inevitable. Albany, July 2.—"Harry K. Thaw, is a permanent victim of periodical insanity and his condition is such that it cannot terminate in recovery," said Dr. Albert Warren Ferris, President of the State Commission on Lunacy, today, which practically has sole jurisdiction over Thaw.

Deputy Marshal Death Wagon. United States Deputy Marshal John E. Brock has returned to his residence in Raleigh, N. C., after a trip to the State of North Carolina, where he was appointed in the summer of 1907, and has since that time been engaged in the same.