

SHORT PASSING EVENTS.

WEDNESDAY.
Tickets on sale at Edgett's Book Store for the Mock Court Trial next Friday night.

"How may I help my Pastor in 1909?" the subject tonight at the Tabernacle Baptist church. All members requested to be present.

Those who purchase tickets and secured reserved seats for the Mock Court Trial that was postponed can use these on Friday night.

Some little saucy boys created a disturbance yesterday afternoon on the Academy Green which may have an airing the police court this morning.

Harvey Bussey, who pitched the Wilmington team of the Eastern Carolina league to the championship, has been drafted to the Devil's team of the American League.

Remember the "silver tea" at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bryan, tomorrow Thursday night. Any silver donation ten cents to one dollar received at the door. For Christ Church Guild.

Superintendent McEbenett of the electric light system is installing a line on upper Griffith street to the Pocomoke Guano Co's plant on Ave. A., to be used in supplying the current to the dynamo in the mill.

Mr. A. S. Morton, of Jones county, was in town yesterday with a load of meat, eggs and other produce to sell. Mr. Morton is a well-to-do, substantial farmer, one of the kind who believes in raising farm supplies, and staying at home to enjoy them, and then to work for more.

The market dock was again crowded with small vessels last night, some were laden with oysters, others with fresh pork, chickens, beef cattle and other produce, and few had cargoes of wood. There were twelve of these freight boats counted, all tied up at the wharf's foot of Middle street.

Mr. Ralph Gray and family will leave this morning removing to Cincinnati, to make their future home. Mrs. Gray grew up in this city as did Mrs. Gray, also, and they have many friends here who regret to see them depart, but many good wishes will follow them to their new home.

Monday night, officer Montague found a blood trail along the pavement in front of the cemetery. There seemed to have been a good deal shed, a broken bottle was the only weapon seen and the trail stopped at the corner and no further trace could be seen. It is not known how or why the blood came on the pavement.

A petition is being circulated asking the State Corporation Commission to sit at New Bern some early day to see why the railroads shall not build a union station. Over two hundred representative citizens have signed it. If the commission should happen to arrive some rainy dark night they will wonder why they hadn't been down here long ago and demanded a union station.

The many friends of Arthur Devlin in this city, the famous third baseman of the New York Giants of the National League, will be pained to learn of the death of Mr. Devlin's father which occurred in Washington, D. C. a few days ago. Arthur will always be remembered by the base ball fans in this city, and his personality appealed to everyone. Mr. Devlin is a member of the local lodge of Elks in this city.

Forty feet is being added to the rear of the Stewart brick building, opposite First Baptist Church. The new part will be used for a bowling alley and amusement hall. While cleaning up the site for the new building yesterday an old well was uncovered which had almost been forgotten, reminding some of the older citizens of a tragedy that shocked the town. It was in the year of 1873, the body of Mrs. Whitford, a most estimable old lady, was drowned in this same old well.

The Goldsboro Argus tells of the mysterious disappearance of Mr. Thos. Canler, a leading citizen of Selma. Mr. Canler left home for Goldsboro and was seen in that city last Friday but since then he has completely disappeared. The missing man is secretary and treasurer of the Selma Cotton Mills, his books are found to be in good shape, and it is not known that he had any troubles and he had an account to his credit in the bank so there was no reason for him to abscond.

THURSDAY.

Don't fail to see Mrs. Porje's wonderful wax figures, to be shown at the Parish house next Monday evening, 8 o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

Nearly all the towns are patting each other on the shoulder, figuratively speaking over the successful operation of the prohibition law. Its a good way not laugh too soon. The old toper are stumped just now. As soon as they "come to" they will devise some way to get their "licker."

The local fishermen are getting their nets and stakes ready for the shad season, which is just beginning white shad, though hony, is looked up on nowadays as one of the choicest fish and they do have a peculiar and particularly fine flavor. Fifty years ago they were looked upon as being very inferior.

One of the streets through Obent, the new suburb, was along close to and parallel with the A. C. L. railroad has been established recently in the clear-cut to the old county road crossing. This street is being used now for travel more than the old road which in a few years will be abandoned, entirely. The new highway shortens the distance and is much easier to travel as there is less sand.

It's coming slow, but if the work is continued for a few more years, the city will have a pretty little miniature park out at the water works. There are a number of trees planted already which have attained considerable size and engineer Herbert Willis says that there will be others set out this season and that the force of the works are a unit in their determination to make the grounds attractive.

The "silver tea" party advertised to be given tonight at the residence of Mrs. James A. Bryan will be given this afternoon at four o'clock. It was through erroneous information that the Journal announced that it would be at night. Let all remember that it will be this afternoon, four o'clock. Any donation of silver will be thankfully received, and used for the benefit of Christ Church Guild.

The Selma Cotton Mill man whose mysterious disappearance was reported a few days ago, in the Goldsboro Argus, has been heard from, in Savannah, notwithstanding he had a snug balance in the bank, he had been fingering the company's till, and doctoring the books until there was a three thousand dollar hole, all unsuspected by his employers. "The guilty flee when no man pursueth."

One of the most ingenious, useful novelties seen lately, is a match box which is sold by Mr. C. E. Whitcomb. It's got all other match boxes skinned a mile" exclaimed the Journal's office boy as he tried to extract a dozen, while the box refused to give him but one match, that's the feature it only gives one match at a time but gives that one as often as you need it. Besides its ornamental, absolutely rat proof and very discouraging to match beats.

Among the nuisances in the city, not the least is the litter of paper from the bill boards. If the authorities are going to allow a bill posting company to set up its boards all over town they ought to require the company to observe the ordinary rules of tidiness. What's the use of bill boards anyway? When there are two good newspapers in the city, most excellent advertising mediums, which will give them space for a small compensation.

Justice of the Peace W. R. Barrington had two cases in his court yesterday. One, an old negro over seventy years of age was charged with spitefully cutting a neighbor woman's clothes line, letting a lot of garments fall on the ground to their injury. It seems that the old man was mad at the woman and took this means of annoying her, besides shooting a gun off to frighten her. He was let off with the costs. Rosetta Harris, a colored Virago was found guilty of cursing and abusing Nelson Reed, was fined $5.00 and costs, failing to pay which, she was sent up to jail for twenty days.

From time to time, the Journal receives enquiries from people living in the northern and western states, asking for description of the climate, resources and chances for industrious settlers to make good. These letters are mostly from people who have a small capital which they wish to invest profitably. Land where they live is enormously high, and one must have no little means to own a home. They have heard of the south, of the moderate winters, have dreamed of a little cottage nestling around its honey suckle bower, of the song of the Mocking bird, of a land of peace and plenty, and they are looking this way. New Bern needs a thousand families of these people to settle somewhere in its vicinity.

FRIDAY.

The Mock Court Trial tonight at the opera house, no one should miss seeing it.

The public or mass meeting called to meet at the court house tonight, has been postponed until Tuesday night 8 o'clock.

Those who are to take part in the Mock Court Trial, tonight are requested to meet for rehearsal at the opera house this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Study and Social Circle of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Centenary Church, will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the church parlors.

The world renowned Mrs. Jorley, will be at the Parish house with her famous wax figures Monday evening January 18th 8 o'clock, p. m. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents

All persons who have tickets to sell for the Mock Court Trial will please make settlements for the same with Mrs. M. M. Marks at her residence today between one and four o'clock.

Simon Jones, a young negro man, was haled before Justice of the Peace J. M. Hites yesterday charged with gambling, and was bound over to court under fifty dollar bond which he gave.

The first white shad of any consequence seen this season were offered for sale on the streets yesterday. They were large buck, were caught by an enterprising Bridgeton fisherman who asked one dollar each for them and no doubt got his price.

It is estimated that 5,000 sea gulls. A monthly postal service by camel has been established recently in the Sahara Desert.

Honored by Women

When a woman speaks of her silent secret suffering she trusts you. Millions have bestowed this mark of confidence on Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. Everywhere there are women who bear witness to the wonder-working, curing-power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—which saves the suffering sea from pain, and successfully grapples with woman's weaknesses and stabbings ill.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG IT MAKES SICK WOMEN WELL.

No woman's appeal was ever misdirected or her confidence misplaced when she wrote for advice, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets induce mild natural bowel movement once a day.

LEGISLATURE SETTLING DOWN TO BUSINESS

County Superintendents of Education to be Elected by Popular Vote.— Election will Probably Take Place of Hanging.

Special to Journal. Raleigh, Jan. 14.—In the Senate the bill to protect forests in the important mountain counties of Swain, Jackson, and Haywood, passed.

A bill was introduced to charter the Pee Dee Valley railway. A petition was presented from citizens asking that the people be allowed to vote an amendment repealing the personal property clause in the constitution. A warm fight is expected to grow out of this bill.

By leave Senator Starbuck (a former judge) introduced a bill to give the state and the defense an equal number of pre-emptory challenges in capital cases, the state being now greatly at a disadvantage.

The Senate accepted the invitation of President Venable of the State University to attend the celebration of Lee's birth day there next Tuesday.

Bills were introduced in the House to provide for the election in the penitentiary of all capitol openers to provide for the election by popular vote of all county superintendents of education, to allow prisoners in jail awaiting trial to work on public roads to establish a distinction in law between an assault and an attempted assault with intent to ravish.

Chairman Bolton of the committee of health who with Senator Gordon, (both physicians) were sent by the legislature as delegates to the State Tuberculosis Congress at Charlotte, reported and brought the thanks of the convention to the legislature and told of the great work now begun to check this disease.

The Senate and House Judiciary Committees today fully considered providing for election in the penitentiary at Raleigh of all capitol offenders.

The committee vote was seven to four and it is said sentiment in the legislature is well represented by this proposition and that the bill is sure to pass.

NOTICE OF SALE OF CORN, FODDER & C.
