

SHORT PASSING EVENTS

SATURDAY.

The Neuse and Trent rivers bear evidence of heavy rains up country in the extremely muddy condition of the water.

The rain of yesterday was not very severe here but thunder, lightning, and hail are said to have been quite severe in Jasper.

There will be a picnic at Nobles Farm, located near the N. & S. railroad near Vanceboro, Saturday May 29th. Good music and dancing.

Two disorderlies were before Mayor McCarthy yesterday. They were Golden McGray who was fined one dollar and costs, and Will Wooten, taxed five dollars and costs.

The record of rainfall in Charlotte Thursday (Mecklenberg Independence day), was 3.88 inches. It was a wet day for dry Charlotte and more storm than the papers allowed.

The Social and Study Circle of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society which was to have met in the Methodist church parlors yesterday afternoon was postponed on account of the threatening weather and sickness.

We hear there is a dally boat now running from here carrying freight and passengers to Vandemere. Vandemere is on a boom, there is over one hundred hands employed on the railroad wharf and the new mill which is being built.—Bayboro Sentinel.

A film that would almost make one die laughing was seen at Amusea, entitled "Mrs. Jones Entertains". It is safe to conjecture if that worthy lady has guests to tea again she will not let her unregenerate husband act as waiter.

Among the many reprehensible things that the public have put up with for a long time at the Norfolk and Southern depot is the habit of people standing in the door and narrow passage obstructing the passage. There is plenty of room outside and even if the inside is crowded there is no need of standing in the way.

The public ought to be informed that President Taft is not as bad as represented to look by the cut printed in the News-Observer yesterday. We can not imagine the chief executive appearing as tough as that picture indicates and sincerely hopes if our country has any grudge against Mr. Taft that it has satisfaction in publishing that cut.

Mr. E. T. Elliott has opened a notion store in the Bryan block, No. 48 Middle street. His stock embraces household implements and conveniences and other useful articles the name of which would fill a good size catalogue. One feature of Mr. Elliott's store will be an auction every evening of the week except Friday. A large display advertisement of the new store appears in another column of this Journal.

The following item from Friday's Free Press is a kind of a sequel to the story published in yesterday's Journal, telling of the shooting of Mr. Farmer: "Mrs. Tom Farmer, whose husband was set upon by two men in his home in Greene county Tuesday night, was arrested yesterday for complicity in the assault. The two men alleged that Mrs. Farmer had offered to pay them $500 and give them a mule if they would kill her husband. At the preliminary trial, yesterday afternoon in Snow Hill, Mrs. Farmer was allowed bail in the sum of $200 and this was furnished.

TUESDAY.

Three young men came up from Morehead City Sunday morning with a surprising haul of fish. They fished off the railroad dock and the aggregate results of their labors was 185 pounds of trout. Some of the fish measured 2 1/2 feet. Cut bait was used.

The first local grown string bean of the season, in any amount were brought in yesterday. New Irish potatoes are coming in also. A considerable shipment was taken out by the Norfolk and Southern train yesterday. Mr. William Ellis was perhaps the largest shipper.

The regular monthly meeting of the Children of the Confederacy will be held Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Hughes Hollan. A full attendance is desired to plan for an entertainment. Children who have not paid their dues for 1919 will please bring them at this meeting.

The Journal is informed through a circular letter that the Greensboro News will start soon. That paper will be the successor to the Greensboro Industrial News but will not be conducted on quite such a scale as the former paper. The names of B. C. Duncanson and Spencer B. Adams appear in the lead as president and vice-president which is sufficient evidence what the politics will be.

An interesting mummification was found in a rubbish heap in the rear of T. J. Turner's furniture store yesterday. It was a mummy of the old hotel Albert, near the head of the river, and dated August 21, 1837. It was printed on blue silk and notwithstanding the years of contact with dirt and filth was taken out in excellent state of preservation. The typography was very plain and handsome. It was in honor of some special occasion.

Plan for Summer Comfort

Don't add the heat of a kitchen fire to the sufficient discomfort of hot weather.

Use a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove and cook in comfort.

With a "New Perfection" Oil Stove the preparation of daily meals, or the big weekly "baking," is done without raising the temperature perceptibly above that of any other room in the house. Another great advantage of the

EXCITING WEDDING EXPERIENCE

Young Man Employed by the Atlantic Coast Line in a Bad Runaway Accident With Prospective Bride.

The following special in the Baltimore Sun yesterday relates to a young man who was employed in the Atlantic Coast Line depot here and will be remembered as being one of the two who were in a sail boat that was capsized on the river a few weeks ago and Mr. Justice was drowned. The item will be read with interest by the few who knew him:

Middletown, Md., May 23.—Mr. Chas. M. Boyd, of New Bern, N. C., who holds a clerical position with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, and Miss Cornelia J. McLaughlin of Hagerstown, who came here this afternoon to be married, had an exciting experience.

When Rev. Dr. George A. Snyder of Christ Reformed Church, late president of Catawba College, Newton, N. C., was called on to perform the ceremony it was found that the groom had procured the license in Hagerstown, therefore it was necessary to go to Washington county to tie the knot.

A livery team was procured and the young couple, Dr. Snyder, his little daughter, Charlotte and the driver, behind two spry young horses in new harness started for the summit of South Mountain, six miles west of the town, the dividing line between Frederick and Washington county.

Going down Main street the horses became unmanageable and a serious runaway was narrowly averted. Four or five men ran into the street and seized hold of the horses, which plunged from one side of the street to the other, and at one time tilted the carriage until it almost upset. After holding on desperately and being dragged some distance the men succeeded in checking the horses, but not until one of them, Mr. Earl Nelkirk, was knocked down and painfully injured, the leg being badly bruised and cut.

Mr. Boyd and Miss McLaughlin quickly alighted from the carriage and took a seat on a porch until another and more genteel team could be procured. A large crowd of people assembled.

Later the party resumed the journey and the couple were married at Dahlen, the summer home of Mrs. Ulrica Dahlgren Pierce, on South Mountain. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd returned to Hagerstown this evening.

THE EVE OF BATTLE

I feel as Cromwell must have felt, On Dunbar's battle- eve; What thoughts within the Norman dwelt At Hastings, I conceive; Leonidas athwart the pass, Blucher at Waterloo— Stern stern their tasks,—but I, alas, I must propose to Sue.

My soaring spirit dwells tonight, With heroes 'mid the slain— Friedrich and Alexander bright, Caesar and Charlemagne! But look you, they could only die, And risk a world or two, They took some chances yes,—but I— I must propose to Sue!

I know how great Columbus quaked Upon the trackless sea, The doubts that Magellan waked, Are now quite clear to me, De Soto in the forest dark; Brave Hudson on the blue,— Their woes were but a Polly lark.— I must propose to Sue!

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS A BOMB

Colored Boy Sustains Painful Injuries as the Result of an Endeavor to Crack a Bomb.

A colored boy named Robert Harrison, was seriously injured on account of his ignorance of the power of explosives. He found a railroad bomb and having an innate curiosity to see what was inside the thing and out almost too well. He tried to open it with an axe and the concussion caused an explosion and the unfortunate boy's face was filled with flying shot and powder. His face was terribly mutilated and the sight of his right eye is destroyed, it is feared. He was removed to the Stewart Sanatorium. An operation may be necessary.

The "Beauty Spot" the Talk of New York.

Comstock & Gest's "Beauty Spot" still holds the boards at the popular Herald Square Theatre, Broadway, New York. Nightly the audience greets the song hit of the show: "He Loved a Maiden Tender, with," with uproars of applause.

The song is attracting so much attention that the New York Sunday World has arranged with Jos. W. Stern & Co., the publishers, to give it away with next Sunday's World, words and music complete. Don't fail to get it.

Trombone A Friend in Need.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., May 24.—John Bates, of Flabbeau who plays in a local band, was on his way home late and he found he was followed by a pack of wolves. As he had five miles to travel, he hastened his pace, and attempted to reach the nearest farm house. The wolves increased their speed to equal his and Bates climbed a tree.

Finally he happened to think of his instrument, a trombone, which he carried under his arm, and began to blow as well as his exhausted condition would permit. This had the effect of quieting the advance of the beasts, and he continued to play until some late travelers came to his rescue.
