For the White. They will Secure Dr. Cook's Polar Papers Will be Data From Their Own Race

Washington, Jan. 5.-The appoint ment of negro census enumerators in the South was discussed with the Preident by Representatives Bartlett and

Bardwick of Georgia

The President assured his callers that so far as he controlled the situation no negro cansus enumerator would attempt to take the census of white people in the South. He explained it to the belief of census officials that negroes would be more effective in securing data regarding negroes in the South than white people restimined. than white people, particularly in districts largely populated by negroes. The president's assurances were satis factory to Southern callers.
