COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SCHOOLS.

A large and profitable crop of any kind, has in it a waste that the average farmer fails to note, because he has made money on what be produced. Easy crop growths, profitable crops have made the American farmer a spend thrift. The years of fatness are not employed to stretch over possible years of leanness, when either crops are poor or prices are low. Eight or nine billions, annually, from American harvests are indicative of natural soil wealth rather than good agricultural attainments.

North Carolina is an agricultural state. The census of 1910 proves it, as have previous census es. And yet 75 per cent of the yearly food supply of the people of this state is grown in other states. It seems improbable but unfortunately it is true that over $80,000,000 annually are sent out of the state to pay for food supin this city on Saturday, the matter of county agricultural schools obsolete method employed by the was spoken of and it seems the intention of the farmers to seek to secure through the present legisla. as terrible at the end, without ex ture $50,000 to inaugurate this cuse, shamcless. Why not comsystem. This is a very reasonable amount to ask for and should be granted without hesitation as soon as the matter is made known to the legislators. But this small sum will be the means of promoting "wages of sin is death!" The Dix agricultural education that will re on finish may please the audience, pay many times the appropriation and will grow in amount each year as these county agricultural schools increase in number and capacity to educate boys and girls in practical farming. It need not be left to legislative appropriations to start this county work, to establish strictly agricultural schools. Every county with few exceptions, can enter upon the work by local taxa tion, and this in addition to the schools that may be already in operation. It is not education that is costly, but ignorance, and North Carolina's agricultural ignorance is well shown in the $80,000,000

THE STAGE AND ITS CRITICS.

Editorial comment, street criticism, pulpit denunciation, are the helps to assist, the drama, that if left alone would sink of its own heaviness and abnormity. And still while adverse criticism means money to the author of modern plays depicting "real life," the stage in its character of presenting honest, human, true dramas, that suffer from the modern drams which pretending to be true to life, shows the life that is lowering to morals and panders to unhealthy

The Tom Dixon play has thriven upon adverse criticism. It is hu man nature to seek what is de nounced as unclean and unreal, if it will thrill. The public pays dol-lars for the sensational that in-jures mind and soul, while it will hardly pay cents for that which helps and uplifts the mental and instructs. The Dizon play openly immoral, pretends to help society through its wapton display of the full uncovering of nin was a help to the pure and innocent. "The gine of the Father" pretents to

CATARRH DESTROYED MY APPETITE.

PERUNA rarely fails to restore the appetite. Immediately upon beginning the use of Peruna patients begin to eat and digest. This is the universal testimony, coming from all parts of the civilized world.

Catarrh is a very frequent cause of loss of appetite and disturbed digestion. The beneficial influence of Peruna on catarrh completely restores the appetite in such cases.

To prod the digestive organs with medicines that are merely stimulants is a poor way to remedy such cases.

"I am now cured and cheerful in spirits, all through the agency of Peruna, which has cured me effectually and restored ms appetite.

"My only regret is that I did ant use Peruna sooner and 1 would have avoided all my previous suffering and misery." -Mr. Joseph H. Conlan.

Removed Catarrh, Restored Appetite.

Mr. Joseph H. Conlan, 4877th Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I suffered from catarrh which completely destroyed my appetite and eakened my entire system.
