LITTLE BELL NOTES.

Feb. 20.—We are having cool weather now, but the Spring is near.

Several of our young people attended the pound party at Isaac Meadows' Saturday night. They reported a pleasant time.

Mrs. Susan Higgins who has been spending a while with her son returned to her home near Mayaville.

Mr. Luther Barrow and Miss Lena Henderson spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Rev. B. F. Eubanks.

Mr. Thomas Eubanks and wife visited friends and relatives near Lee's Chapel Sunday.

Mr. L. L. Eubanks and Mr. Ernest Conway made a business trip to White Oak Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Willie Higgins of this place spent Sunday with his parents at Loco.

Our Sunday school is progressing finally.

Miss Lilian Henderson and Miss Lulu Henderson, both of New Bern, are spending a few days with their relatives at this place.

Mrs. Esie Marshburn of Richlands is spending a while with her sister, Mrs. Mary Jones.

Sorry to know that our school will soon be open, we hate to lose our fine teacher, Miss Daisy Pe'teway.

We have several cases of lagrippe around here.

There will be preaching at Maple Grove Sunday.

Mr. W. A. Higgins visited the home of Rev. B. F. Eubanks Saturday night.

Let us hear from Lee's Chapel again. TWO BLUE BELLS.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

FOR BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM AND BLADDER

John Hutchinson, accused in London of poisoning many persons, committed suicide when about to be arrested.

REMEMBER THE NAME

Foley's Honey and Tar for all coughs and colds, for croup, bronchitis, hoarseness and for cracking lagrippe coughs. No opiates. Refuse substitutes.—F. S. Duffy.

Napoleon Obeyed the Mob. In "The Corsican—A Diary of Napoleon's Life in His Own Words," Bonaparte tells how, as an obscure soldier, he witnessed some of the opening scenes of the revolution: "I lodged Rue du Mail, Place des Victoires. At the sound of the tocsin and at the news that the Tuilleries were attacked I started for the Carrousel. Before I had got there in the Rue des Petits Champs I was passed by a mob of horrible looking fellows parading a head stuck on a pike. Thinking I looked too much of a gentleman, they wanted me to shout 'Vive la nation' which I did promptly, as may easily be imagined."

When a Great Man Dies.

There can be but austere and serious thoughts in all hearts when a sublime spirit makes its majestic entrance into another life, when one of those beings who have long soared above the crowd on the visible wings of genius, spreading all at once other wings which we did not see, plunges swiftly into the unknown.—From Hugo's Funeral Oration on Balzac.

The Change.

"He used to complain because he never got what he wanted to eat."
"Yes, but he's rich now."
"Yes, and now he complains because he never wants what he gets to eat."—Catholic Standard and Times.

He Got Valuable Information.

The story is told of the times of Aetna Blood and the old Manchester locomotive works that a student came to Mr. Blood once and wanted to study the business of locomotive building in his vacation days. The student came well recommended, and Mr. Blood, who never had much use for these "tech" people, sent him down to the boiler shop and placed him in charge of the old foreman. The old man took the "tech" man around, and in the course of the inspection of the shop they came across one boiler on the inside of which was a man at work.

"How does that man get out?" inquired the "tech" man.

"Oh," said the venerable pilot, "he doesn't get out. We always count upon losing at least one man in building a boiler."—Manchester Union.

How to cure a cold is a question in which many are interested just now. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and immense sale by its remarkable cure of colds. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.

Every Precaution Taken.

During a smallpox epidemic in Alabama special precautions against the disease were taken in the mining camps. In one of these camps the president of the mining company paid a visit of inspection and came upon an old negro leaning against the side of a building.

"Jake," asked the president, "are you afraid of the smallpox here?"

"Some may be, sah," Jake replied. "As fo' me, I ain't scared. I's jest gwine to get me some lime an' lime mah house, an' den de doctor he's comin' an' an' anseinate mah family, so dat den, sah, if we do git de smallpox 'twon't be nothin' but de cell-foid."—Woman's Home Companion.

Although money is the root of all evil, the most successful men seem to be those who plant it.

MOURNING CUSTOMS.

They Are Very Ancient, and Experts Differ as to Their Origin.

The origin of going into mourning was discussed recently by a body of anthropologists. Some students hold that the wearing of black was originally a disguise assumed as a protection from the dead person's spirit. The idea was that the deceased was naturally disgusted to find himself dead and that he wreaked his resentment upon his relations. Therefore the relations thought that to alter their appearance would be a means of escape, and all over the world veils were used to hide the faces of mourners—a practice still surviving in the impenetrable veil of the widow.

The disguises mourners used—such as the veil, the turning of the clothes inside out and the shaving of the head, as practiced by the Ainos—were simple enough, but supernatural beings were always, it appeared, easy to trick.

Another theory of mourning was that it was put on to warn people that its wearers had been contaminated by death. There was an idea of pollution attached to the great mystery. All early people shared the horror of death and the fear of the return of the spirits. Thus in the Sudan widows sprinkle their food with ashes to prevent their husbands' ghosts from eating it.—Exchange.

Sorry He Asked.

"Have you any special terms for automobilists?" asked the man in bear-skin and goggles.

"Waal, yes," responded the old toll-gate keeper, whose gate had been broken down by speeding machines. "Sometimes I call them deadbeats, an' sometimes I call them blamed rascals. Anything else you want to know, mister?"—Chicago News.

Parsimony and Economy. "Papa," said a child, "what is the difference between parsimony and economy?"

"I will explain the difference by an example," the father replied. "If I cut down my own expenses that is economy, but if I cut down your mother's then it is parsimony."

His Suggestion.

The great road builder had his mind on his work that morning, as the following dialogue between him and his wife will show:

"How do I look, dear?"

"Fairly well, but I should say that your face needed resurfacing."—New York Press.

The Warrior.

"You must quit worry and take a vacation," said the practitioner.

"My dear doctor," replied the patient, "if I could get my affairs into shape that would permit me to take a vacation I'd be so relieved I wouldn't need one."—Washington Star.

FOR THAT TERRIBLE ITCHING. Eczema, tetter and salt rheum keep their victims in perpetual torment. The application of Chamberlain's Salve will instantly allay this itching, and many cases have been cured by its use. For sale by all dealers.

How to Cool Things. A newlywed named Jones was talking to his friend Casey the other day about the heat in his flat and was asking the other for a little advice.

"Do you know my dining room is the hottest place in the world?" began the newlywed. "Do you know of any way I might cool it off?"

"From experience I should say that a very good way to bring about a change in atmospheric conditions," remarked the older married man, "and one that is sure to bring results one way or the other, is to take a friend home to dinner when your wife isn't expecting company."—Philadelphia Times.

Remedies are Needed

Where we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early age, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Bilioessness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine or known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

Saturday Night At Auditorium. In presenting the Metropolitan Grand Concert Company, the management of the local Lyceum Course are not offering an organization composed, not of unknown amateurs, but of artists who in the great music festivals of the United States and Canada, and in innumerable concert and oratorio engagements, have won the highest praise of eminent musical critics.

An immense audience will greet these noted singers at the High School Auditorium Saturday night. The concert would be cheap at $1.00 but the management has decided not to charge more than was charged for the other numbers of the Lyceum Course for it was announced last fall that the attractions were not brought to New Bern for the purpose of making money. Admission will be only fifty cents.

Here's what a few papers say about the great basso, Frederick Martin. Mr. Martin is a singer of the solid, robust sort, who does remarkable things with a voice of a clumsy and unwieldy type. His tone is firm and decisive, and of clean-cut pitch. His solo and recitative were sung in a lofty and dignified style.—Daily Republican, Springfield, Mass.

Mr. Martin, the basso, again demonstrated his fitness to rank among the first of American bassos. His surety, fine voice control and absorption in the music, made his work completely satisfying and gratifying.—The Press, Pittsburgh, Pa.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Dead Game. Bricklayer to mate who had just had a handful of bricks fall on his feet—Dropt 'em on yer toe? That's nothin'. Why, I seen a bloke get killed stone dead an' 'e never made such a bloomin' fuss as you're doin'—London Tit-Bits.

BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM, SLEEPLESSNESS. Result from disordered kidneys. Foley Kidney Pills have helped others, they will help you. Mrs. J. B. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y. says: "For a long time I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had severe backaches and felt all played out. After taking two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills my back ache is gone and where I used to lie awake with rheumatic pains I now sleep in comfort. Foley Kidney Pills did wonderful things for me." Try them now.—F. S. Duffy.

A Seat in Parliament. Lord Chesterfield in 1767 lamented the increased price of seats in the British parliament. There was a boom in trade, and prices went up. Chesterfield was ambitious for his son, and when Chatham's promise of a seat came to nothing he went marketing. And he failed to find a single bargain.

"I spoke to a borough jobber," he wrote to his son, "and offered five and twenty hundred pounds for a secure seat in parliament, but he laughed at my offer and said there was no such thing as a borough to be had now, for the rich East and West Indians had secured them all at the rate of £3,000 at least, but many at £4,000 and two or three that he knew at £5,000. This, I confess, has vexed me a good deal."

The Opal. The superstition against the opal began through the stonecutters, each of whom would anxiously ask every other if he had had any luck in his cutting, for the opal contains 15 per cent water and is exceedingly brittle and therefore difficult to cut successfully.

Foley Kidney Pills are a reliable remedy for backache, rheumatism and urinary irregularities. They are tonic in action, quick in results and afford prompt relief from all kidney disorder at—F. S. Duffy.

An Accomplished Linguist. "Did you learn any French while you were in Paris?" asked Blund, meeting Slithers shortly after his return from Europe.

"Oh, a little," said Slithers. "Not so very much, though. I got so I could say cigarette in French."

"Good!" said Blund. "What is cigarette in French?"

"Cigarette," said Slithers.—Harper's Weekly.

SESSION IS NEARING CLOSE

Only Two Weeks Remain of the Legislative Proceedings.

Raleigh, Feb. 21.—The state administration building bill was taken up in the Senate again yesterday for the third time, and after voting down all amendments except the two by Senator Boyden, one cutting the amount of the bond issue to $500,000, and the other authorizing the building commission to erect a fireproof building or buildings on a suitable site, and an amendment of Senator Barnes providing that the bonds shall not be sold for less than par, the Senate by a vote of 23 to 12 passed the bill on second reading and it took its place on the calendar. The minority made an effort to have the amount of the bond issue reduced to $300,000, but after an extended debate their effort failed by a decisive vote.

SPEEDY RELIEF FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE.

"I had an acute attack of Bright's disease with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, and dizziness," says Mrs. Cora Thorp, Jackson, Mich. "A bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy overcame the attack, reduced the inflammation, took away the pain and made the bladder action normal. I wish every one could know of this wonderful remedy."—F. S. Duffy.

HAVE YOU TRIED PAXTINE

The Great Toilet Germicide? You don't have to pay 50c or $1.00 a pint for bactericidal antiseptics or peroxide. You can make 15 pints of a more cleansing, germicidal, healing and deodorizing antiseptic solution with one 50c box of Paxtine—a soluble antiseptic powder, obtainable at any drug store.

Paxtine destroys germs that cause disease, decay and odor—that is why it is the best mouth wash and gargle, and why it cures the throat, cleanses and preserves the teeth better than ordinary dentifrices, and in sponge bathing it completely eradicates perspiration and other disagreeable body odors. Every family needs Paxtine.

Paxtine is splendid for sore throat, inflamed eyes and to purify mouth and breath after smoking. You can get Paxtine Toilet Antiseptic at any drug store, price 25c and 50c, or by mail, postpaid from The Paxtine Toilet Co., Boston, Mass., who will send you a free sample if you would like to try it before buying.
