

WHAT IS THE LENTEN SACRIFICE?

The Lenten season in two church denominations at least calls for so called personal sacrifices, the giving up of individual pleasures, and such of the world's gayeties that might cause the thoughts to turn from religious things, to those of every day frivolities. The force of Lent, is not to come from the purely technical church observance, which gives public display, with out the inward spiritual living that refuses to be subject to the world during this period set apart by the church. But when there is the real retirement from worldly things, that have become the daily selfish gratifications, then with the due church observances, the outside world feels the force of such Christianity, which is displayed, but not with the purpose of securing the applause for personal right doing. Such a change cannot help being noted, and its effect must have a potential good that goes beyond the individual, to make its impression upon others.

What is the Lenten sacrifice?
Only the individual can truly tell, and well it is so, for like prayer, any publicity would destroy the personal heart impulses, that first thought and then carried to action. No two persons can make identical sacrifices, except it may be to give their lives. For this reason who may question or set the limitation as to the extent of the Lenten sacrifice, as it applies to others? The forty and odd days of Lent, with the Easter offering to complete, who may declare for the amount of the offering, for like the entire Lenten season, there is presumed to be the sacrifice at Easter, in the way of money offering, as one has been blessed.

And beyond this Lenten period, are there not days, weeks, months in which the individual life should shine before the world, not ostentationally, but with the inward spiritual effect? That while unconscious of making the daily sacrifice, yet does so, because the heart has become trained to the thought and life to live, unselfishly.

AN EDUCATIONAL TEST.

What constitutes an educated person, might be answered by the view point. There is education by book, and by worldly experience.
There is a display of knowledge in trade, and the same person would be lost if questioned in the simple branches of history or mathematics. And the person who could pass an examination in the higher branches of art and literature, would fail utterly in solving the affairs of the every day world, that meant the knowledge of men and trade.

At the Chicago University, a professor, with certainly original ideas on this personal education subject, set before his class a list of questions, each one to be answered in the affirmative. These questions at first might appear simple, yet the answers call for study, not so much of mind, as from the heart. They are as follows and worth any one's careful attention and study, if not reply.

Has education given you sympathy with all good causes and made you a peace maker?

Has it made you a public spirit?

Has it made you a brother to the weak?

Have you learned to make friends and keep them?

Do you know what it is to be a friend to the poor?

Only one meaning would have been by that famous doctor who used to decumber is to cut it into very thin slices, sprinkle it with the finest oil, pepper it plentifully, cover it with vi-ay tells how he "had delicate cucumbers stuffed with forcemeat," while Dickens refers to "salmon, lamb, peas, innocent young potatoes, a cool salad, sliced cucumber, a tender duckling—all there!" Both novelists were evi-

Deafness is caused by an inflamed con-flamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and un-and the tube restored to its normal con-nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflam-

GRAND DISPLAY OF MILLINERY

At Miss Lette's Millinery Parlors

Last Night. Exhibit in Progress Today.

Beautiful hats, lovely women faultlessly attired and the whole making a scene of splendor greeted the visitors to Miss Lette's millinery parlors last evening when she inaugurated her Spring opening. It had been announced that the doors of this popular little establishment would be opened at six o'clock, but long before that time numbers of visitors had arrived.

The interior of the store was indeed a revelation in the art of decorating. The beautiful potted plants, artificial flowers and bamboo were used to a good advantage. Crepe paper attractively placed around the electric lights made their rays have the appearance of being filtered through filmy lace. Hundreds of beautiful hats were on display and many of them were praised very highly by the feminine admirers.

Small hats are very much in vogue this season and a number of designs were on display. Among these is the Helmet, a very popular little hat shaped like those worn by ancient gladiators.
Large hats too are destined to be very popular. In these the hemp or woven matting finish predominate.

FORCED TO LEAVE HOME.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers, whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs, are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way.
Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trou-Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. It surely the king of all cough and lung cures." Thou-throat and lung troubles, 50c and $1.00

Flowers and Scents.

Some flowers appear to change their scents at different times. The common jasmine flowers when first opened have a delicate, fresh perfume which, after a time, becomes stronger and attracts bluebottle flies. Flowers of the orchid Odontoglossum beccabunga have a cinnamon fragrance and a hawthorn scent at different periods of their bloom.

"What does the sign say?"
