GRAND JURIES FAVORED RECORDER'S COURT.

The opponents of the establishment of the Recorder's Court say that none of the country people favor this bill, however, the grand juries for the February term, 1911, and October 1910 made the following recommendation:

"We would recommend, within our province, a Recorder's Court, believing that it would save the county many thousands of dollars to tax payers."

WILLIAM BLADES,
Foreman.

The October term 1910, made the following recommendation:

"We also would recommend that a Recorder's Court be inaugurated for Craven county, believing that it would save the tax payers many thousands of dollars, court costs, etc."

Respectfully submitted,
O. H. PERRY,
Foreman.

On these two grand juries there were only eight men from the 8th township. Twenty-eight of these men were from the county.

REASONS FOR THIS COURT.

A few reasons why we should have a Recorder's Court:

Bony men from all parts of the country will not have to hang around the court house one solid week as witnesses in petty misdemeanors; bony men will not have to serve on the grand jury more than two days; there will be practically no prisoners in jail. The Recorder's Court gives a speedy trial. The fellow who is out on bond, and whose case is continued from court to court because jail cases must be tried first will be tried. This court gives civil jurisdiction up to $500.00. There are over two hundred civil cases on the superior court docket now, and a party bringing suit will have to wait over two years to get to a trial. Recorder's Court will give an immediate trial and cut down the superior court docket 50 per cent. Recorder's Court will be not only self-sustaining, but will pay money into the town and county treasury.

SPEDDY TRIAL CLEARS DOCKET.

Chairman Jeffries, of Nash county, says of the Recorder's Court in Nash county:

"It gives speedy trial of all small cases, both criminal and civil, thereby relieving the dockets at the regular courts—great saving to the county, as all cases are tried at once, saving jail costs—our jail has had its doors thrown open many times as we had no prisoners. The court is very popular here with both the bar and the citizens of the county."

SAVED THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS.

James W. Smith, Mayor of Belhaven, N. C., says in reference to what the people of Belhaven think of the Recorder's Court there.

"They think very highly of it, in fact, if the court had to be ratified by submitting it to the vote of the people again, I am sure there would not be an opposing vote. It has done considerable towards relieving the congestion of the superior court dockets of this county. In a financial way the court has saved the county several thousands of dollars, it has also saved the people of our district considerable expense and time, on account of the fact that heretofore they had to attend superior court as witnesses in some little frivolous case and possibly had to stay there for three or four days and often times a week where now the Recorder's Court has very nearly put an end to our people having to attend superior court, that is in criminal cases."

ALL PLEADED.

T. A. Sills, clerk of the superior court of Nash county, writes:

"In regard to Recorder's Court I will say the people of my county seem highly pleased with it. It has relieved the congestion of the dockets very much. For instance, the criminal docket, prior to its establishment, generally had from 80 to 100 cases, and now it has about 10 to 15. Our civil docket is being reduced also. I do not know how much it saves the county annually, but it is supposed to be a neat little sum."

PEOPLE APPROVE.

Geo. W. Flint, sheriff of Forsyth county says:

"In reference to the Recorder's Court of Winston-Salem, in my opinion the court is approved by the majority of the people and feel sure it is a blessing to the higher court and is also a saving to the county in general."

DECIDED SUCCESS.

S. B. Laney, chief of police of Monroe, N. C., says in reference to the Recorder's Court there:

"Same has relieved the congestion of the docket about 75 per cent, and has been a saving to the county, equal to that amount in the way of jail fees, court costs, etc. In my opinion the Recorder's Court has been a decided success."

WILL A RECORDER'S COURT SAVE MONEY?

Mr. Voter, of Craven county, did you know that not only the last two Grand Juries of Craven county recommended the establishment of a Recorder's Court for Craven county, but that the last Board of Commissioners of Craven county, in their report to the Board of Magistrates said:

"We believe Craven county ought to adopt a Recorder's Court. It would be a great saving to the tax-payers and would much facilitate the trial of criminal cases."

ENTIRE SATISFACTION.

J. D. McRae, Mayor of Monroe, N. C., says:

"I beg to say that the Recorder's Court has been in operation here for some three or four years and gives entire satisfaction to the community in general."

SOLICITOR ONLY OPPOSER.

Geo. M. Scott, Chairman of the Commissioners of Pasquotank county says: "It has done much for our county in a financial way. It has relieved the superior court docket to such an extent the Solicitor hardly makes his 'grub' at our courts."

SOME FIGURES FOR CRAVEN COUNTY VOTERS.

The opponents of the Recorder's Court have been handing out some figures that have been dooped up to suit their side of the case. Here, however, are some figures that can be verified by Mr. Groves, the county Auditor.

Last year the total amount of fees paid the juries in criminal courts were $2,017.50

Feeding prisoners in the jail, 1,737.65

Making a total of $3,755.15

In counties where the Recorder's Courts have been established, the county jail has been practically free from prisoners, and the same state would exist in Craven county with a Recorder's Court. Thus it can be readily seen that over a thousand dollars would be saved on the item of feeding the prisoners alone. This cannot be disputed.

The total amount paid to juries in criminal courts for 1910 was $2,017.50. In every one of these courts it took one solid week to clean up the docket, in fact, the docket was never cleaned up, for the Governor had to call a special criminal term last year. In counties where it took one week to clean out the jail, before the establishment of the Recorder's Court, now finish in two days, with rare exceptions. If this is true, had Craven county had a Recorder's Court last year, the juries, instead of being paid $2,017.50, would have been paid $672.50 and Craven County would have saved $1,355.00. This added to, at least a thousand dollars saved on feeding the prisoners in jail, would make a saving to Craven county of $2,300.00 alone on these two items.

Another item that is a heavy drain to the county is the witnesses' tickets that have to be paid by the county to witnesses for the State who sit around court all the week to give testimony in cases that would be disposed of by the Recorder's Court.

The above figures would be an absolute saving to Craven county, and no intelligent man can dispute this fact. On the other hand, the Recorder's Court in other towns and counties where it is now established, is self-sustaining; it is not only self-sustaining, but pays into the town and county treasury a large sum of money each year. The Recorder's Court for New Bern and Craven county would not only pay for all the officers of the court, save the county a few thousand dollars as stated above, but would pay into both treasuries a sum of money that would gladden the heart of every tax payer.

FEES MORE THAN AMPLE.

A letter from the firm of Manly, Hendon & Womble, of Winston-Salem, N. C., says:

"Since its establishment in 1907 this court has proven entirely satisfactory in every way. It has relieved our superior court of so much criminal work that we have reduced the length of our criminal terms. I suppose it disposes of three-fourths of the crimes committed in the county. As a result of this the county has been relieved of a tremendous amount of cost.

From a financial standpoint the court has proven an entire success. Some time ago I took the trouble to investigate this part of it with some care, and I found that the fees paid in the court amounted to more than enough to pay all the salaries of the officers of the court and the salaries of the entire police force of the city.

Another advantage, and probably the most to be desired, is the fact that criminals are given a speedy trial. Almost without exception they are tried on the morning after the commission of the crime, and are either committed or sentenced at once. This relieves the congestion of our jails on account of defendants being held for the superior court who are unable to give bond."
