POLICE MAKE ANOTHER RAID

Capture Five Persons Who Were Selling the Arden, and a Number of Gallons of Whiskey.

With the aid of two young men whom they used in purchasing the whiskey, the police force Wednesday night captured four negro men and a colored woman who were engaged in the selling of whiskey, and also secured several gallons of the product they were dispensing.

Several days ago the members of the police force decided that they would secure a detective to secure evidence against several "blind tigers" which they were almost certain were in operation. With this end in view Mr. J. E. Eason and Mr. H. D. Irving, two young men who were employed in the No. 10 Southern shops in this city were engaged to discover where whiskey was being sold in this city. These young men worked diligently and to so much advantage that the police decided to raid the places at which they had purchased whiskey.

The strictest secrecy was observed in this matter and but few knew of the intended proceeding and it was quite a surprise when the officers marched their prisoners down to the city hall late Wednesday night. Annie Taylor, Ed. Moore, Matthew Williams, John Farlow and Nathan Williams, all colored, were the names of the alleged dealers.

Yesterday afternoon they were given a hearing before Mayor McCarthy and although each of them pleaded not guilty, probable cause was found and they were bound over to the next term of Superior Court under bonds of $150 each.

On the names of each of the warrants that were issued the name of "John Doe," whose identity in this city in connection with several other "blind tiger" cases a few months ago caused so much speculation, appeared and before the two gentlemen who had assisted the officers in their work had made their appearance at the trial there was again considerable speculation as to who "John Doe" was. Several other places where the two gentlemen had purchased whiskey during the past few weeks were visited but the "bird had flown." None of the prisoners had United States licenses to sell whiskey and when the State court is through with them the government will doubtless try them for the same offense.

Deeper Waterways.

The address of Mr. S. A. Thompson, field secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, last night at the court house was only fairly attended. Mr. Thompson was impressive, forceful and interesting, and those who heard the address were greatly pleased. This deeper waterways subject is becoming better understood and its importance as affecting New Bern, is being seen more clearly by the people here, but the action is needed, to secure the result, that is, a water depth down the Neuse equal to that to be found through the sounds and inland waterway to the ocean.

Negro Shot Attempting Burglary.

Last night George Green, colored, was shot through the thigh by officer Parker. Green was discovered in J. A. Boon's market trying to rob the money drawer, and being ordered to stop and refusing the officer fired in his direction, the result being hit. After an examination by the city physician, Green was taken to the sanitarium.

In an English Hotel.

Proprietor (addressing porter)—Was the American pleased with his room, William?
William—Now, I wouldn't be exact, sir. He looked as if there might be something that wasn't just to his liking, but I gathered from his remarks that he found it unusually comfortable.
Proprietor—Well, what did he say about it?
William—He said it was colder than hell, sir—Judge.

FEDERAL COURT NEARING CLOSE

Criminal Docket Completed at Yesterday's Session. Only a Few Cases on Civil Docket

Yesterday was a busy day in the Federal court and a large number of cases were disposed of during the day's session, in fact the entire criminal docket was cleared and only a few cases on the civil docket now remain to be disposed of. No time has been lost in disposing of the docket and Judge Connor is being complimented upon the dispatch with which he has disposed of the cases.

The following cases were disposed of at yesterday's session.

U. S. vs Geo. Raynor, charged with illicit distilling, found guilty and sentenced to a term of one year and one day at the Federal prison at Atlanta and also to pay a fine of $100 and the cost of the case.

U. S. vs N. T. Garris, charged with illicit distilling, defendant tried by a jury and found not guilty.

U. S. vs E. S. Arnold, charged with retailing, defendant tried by a jury and found not guilty.

U. S. vs Jesse Livingston, charged with retailing, defendant found guilty and sentenced to a term of six months in the Craven county jail.

U. S. vs H. T. Topp, charged with retailing, defendant tried by a jury and found guilty, but sentence has not yet been passed.

U. S. vs Alonzo Kornegay, charged with operating an illicit distillery, defendant found guilty and sentenced to a term of two years in the Federal prison at Atlanta and also to pay a fine of $100 and the cost in the case.

The ex parte proceedings against B. F. Sanders, C. D. Jones and L. C. Carroll was dismissed upon the payment of the costs of the proceedings.

In the case of U. S. vs J. M. Davis, charged with illicit distilling, the defendant was found guilty, but owing to the fact that he is a victim of tuberculosis and physically unable to do any manual labor, judgment was suspended.

Mr. Fly and his family will soon call. Greet them with well screened windows and doors and save a doctor's bill. We have the Screens. J. S. Basnight Hdw. Co., phone 99, 67 S. Front St.

Charged With Retailing.

Yesterday morning Albert Karan, an Ayrrian, was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner C. B. Hill on a warrant charging him with retailing spirituous liquors without a U. S. license. Probable cause was found and the defendant bound over to the next term of Federal court under a bond of $150, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Roads of the Olden Times.

A curious illustration of the lack of any systematic authority over the roads in England, even as late as the fifteenth century, is preserved in the records of the manor of Aylesbury. A local miller, named Richard Boose, needed some running clay for the repair of his mill. Accordingly we learn from "Old Country Inns"—his servants dug a great pit in the middle of the road, ten feet wide and eight feet deep, and so left it to become filled with water from the winter rains. A glazier from Leighton Buzzard, on his way home from market, fell in and was drowned. Charged with manslaughter, the miller pleaded that he had no place wherein to get the kind of clay he required except on the highroad. He was acquitted.

Proceedings in Federal Court.

At the opening of yesterday's session of Federal court the case of D. E. Edwards vs the Hartford Real Estate Company, in which the plaintiff is suing the defendant for breach of contract, was taken up. This case is from Lenoir county and judging from the large number of visitors in the city yesterday from that section who were attending court, it is attracting much interest. A large number of witnesses were placed on the stand by both the plaintiff and the defendant and considerable time was taken up in this manner. At the close of the day's session the case had not been concluded and it was continued until today. Messrs Y. T. Ormond and J. T. Cooper represent the plaintiff and Messrs W. D. Pollock, Loftin, Vassar and Dawson are appearing for the defense.

LARGE PARTY WILL GO TO WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.

Already many applications have been received from all over North Carolina by Prof. Frank M. Harper, to join his personally conducted tour via Norfolk Southern Railroad. $50.00 pays all expenses.

REPORTED FIRING AT KAISER

William on His Yacht Cruising in Greek Waters. Italians and Spanish Branches Active.

London, April 28th.—A dispatch received from Corfu by the Daily News Agency says that while the Kaiser's yacht, Hohenzollern, with the Emperor on board, was cruising off that port 8 rifle shots were fired at it.

The bullets whistled over the Imperial cabin, according to this report, and caused excitement among the members of his Majesty's suit. Although the dispatch says the outrage is attributed to disaffected Greeks, diplomats are at a loss to understand why Greeks should be displeased with the Kaiser.

At the German embassy it was said that every effort is being made to secure particulars of the outrage. There is a feeling there that the firing may have been part of an anarchistic plot. It is known that the anarchists, especially the Italian and Spanish branches have been very active lately. Because of the belief that they are plotting an attempt at wholesale assassination to mar the coronation of King George, the police of England and all of the Continental countries have recently been very active.

All known anarchistic chiefs are being subjected to the closest espionage. Because of this fact, and because of the intense activity of the Berlin police in searching the haunts of the anarchists, it was said the outrage might be due to German anarchists.

The Kaiser planned to remain in the Mediterranean for ten days longer, but whether this reported incident will result in his changing his plans cannot be learned at present.

Attempts To Take His Life.

While under the influence of alcohol and temporarily mentally unbalanced, Mr. Ferdinand Ulrich, who resides at No. 5 Bern street attempted to take his life yesterday afternoon by swallowing a number of grains of bichloride of mercury and but for the fact that a physician began work on him a few minutes after he committed this rash act he would doubtless now be a corpse, and as it is he may succumb to the effects of the poison.

Matchless, Yet Fortior.

The following announcement appeared in the Berliner Tageblatt: "A young lady of a highly esteemed and noble family, as beautiful as Helen, as thrifty as Penelope, as economical as the Electress Maria of Brandenburg, as sprightly as Mme. de Stael, a singer like Mlle. Brevai, a dancer like La Cerito, a pianist like Rosa Kastner, a violinist like Teresita Malinollo, a harpist like La Berrand, a sculptor like Princess Marie d'Orleans, as austere as Lucrece, as charitable as St. Elizabeth of Hungary, as devout as Nightingale, having at command a large fortune, lacking masculine acquaintance, seeks a husband by the newspaper agency."

This highway will cost the counties through which it runs $50 per mile to construct.

The Future Didn't Count.

Freddie is a bad boy, aged six, and his brother Charlie is four. Freddie was at his usual game of teasing and pinching his brother when his mother interferred.

"Don't you know," she said reprovingly, "that you are laying up trouble for yourself by and by doing this?"

"Maybe I am," he replied defiantly, "but Charlie is getting his now."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

SCHOOL NEWS OF THE WEEK

New Set Lantern Slides Received. Piano and Violin Club Meets.

On Friday morning, the 3A grade sang in the auditorium for the first time. The song was very well rendered and every one seemed to enjoy it.

The class games of ball are still going on at recess. The series between the 8A and 9th grades ended Thursday, the score was 14 to 12 in favor of the 9th grade.

A new set of lantern slides came this week and several of the classes have seen them. A class in Physical Geography, which has just finished a study of clouds, saw a set of slides especially prepared for the purpose. A great many of the scenes were taken from Alps so in addition to the help in studying clouds the class had the privilege of seeing some of the noted scenery of the Alps. Among the slides are also sets on glaciers, snow and ice. Scenes from South America and South Africa reveal a state of civilization hard to realize merely from books. A complete set of scenes from England and Italy and Panama Canal Zone give definite ideas, where hazy, indistinct ones are the rule with school children. The beautiful scenery in western North Carolina is shown in a set on the Appalachian Mountains.

The piano and violin club of the Graded School met Friday afternoon in the Griffin Auditorium, and gave the following musical program, all without notes:

Piano Solo—March From "Norma"—Bellini—Sophia Hollister.
Piano Solo—Brook in the Forest—Wenzel—Norma Styron.
Piano Solo—Waltz—Grace Munger.
Piano Solo—Swaying Trees—Spaulding—Agnes Foy.
Violin Solo—Valse—Atherton—Albertina Jones.
Piano Solo—Waltz—Reinhold—Adolph Hahn.
Piano Solo—From Flower to Flower—Kuhik—Bea Hyman.
Piano Solo—Song of the Birds—Carl Harris, Sara Hollister.
Piano Solo—At Twilight—Mabel Cohn.
Piano Solo—Sextett from "Lucia d' Lammermoor"—Bessie Hollowell.
Piano Solo—Waltz in D.—Chapin—Mary Turner.

The Editor Rejoices.

The annual visitation took place Saturday, at the Journal office it being strawberry day, that is, Mr. Graham Richardson, that model farmer of Craven county, presented the Editor with a box of beautiful strawberries. This early strawberry presentation, from those joyous days, not for the gift, which is most acceptable, but for the thoughtfulness and kindness that each year accompanies these first and early strawberries.

DARING RAID IN CHICAGO

Four Robbers in Stolen Auto Bind Nine and Make $20,000 Haul.

Chicago, April 28.—Four armed men planned with great skill and executed with success a $20,000 jewelry robbery of the shop at No. 1246 Milwaukee avenue and Norman Strauss & Strauss, dealers in jewelry. In carrying out their plan the thieves captured and bound nine persons, and escaped with their plunder in a stolen limousine.

Before daylight, the Crexel garage, seven miles from the scene, was called by telephone and ordered to send an automobile to a flat in the Ridgewood Building. While the chauffeur was in the building looking up his supposed patron, the machine was stolen.

It was 10:30 a. m. when it drove up to the Milwaukee avenue shop. Strauss was displaying his samples. Edward Albert, son of the proprietor, Samuel Schmidt, Mr. Strauss and a boy assistant were there in the place.

Three men entered with revolvers. Those in the store were compelled to go into a back room, where two of the robbers tied them with ropes which they had brought with them. Edward Albert, the proprietor, and his wife, who lived over the store, hearing a commotion, descended. The robbers drove Albert and his wife at a run into the rear room, forced them to lie face downward on the floor and bound them.

Next some miscellaneous errand boys were roped. While one of the robbers worked on the safe two plundered the Newark salesman and the store. The safe yielded $500. Strauss lost $10,000, mostly in diamonds, and Albert's loss was of equal amount.

After the robbery the men entered the machine and were driven away by the man at the wheel. He had remained at his post during the activities inside. Later the machine was found abandoned on the North Shore road.

Passed the Bottle Too Quickly.

Will Low, the painter, told this story of the Latin quarter days of Robert Louis Stevenson. Low and Stevenson were great friends in their youth. Their friendship indeed continued up to the time of the writer's death.

"Louis," said the artist, "was no less diplomatic than brave. He could be fiery, and he could also be gracious and pacific. One night, I remember, we sat in a garden in Montmartre. The red wine had been flowing pretty freely, and one member of our party got heated and aggressive. Finally some one said a thing that this fighting chap disliked. As soon as the words were spoken he grabbed up a bottle and hurled it at the other's head. It was a strong, true shot and would have hit the mark had not Stevenson sprung to his feet and caught the missile.

"'Tut, tut, George,' he said to the thrower—'tut, tut! If the bottle is passed so quickly none of us will be able to stand out the evening.'"

The Stern Parent.

It is well known that Frederick the Great was very little interested in the other sex, a point to which Mr. C. J. Whitby gives some attention in "Makers of Men." In seeking an explanation he recalls that "when Frederick was eighteen his father learned of an intrigue conducted by him with a schoolmaster's daughter—she happened to be a nun, a distinct aggravation of her offense—and the old scoundrel had her whipped through Berlin, making his son witness the scene. Perhaps it is not surprising that Frederick repudiated the bride forced upon him by his father, although Elizabeth Christina is described as a beautiful and accomplished princess."

"You must not rock the baby at all," says the grave physician.

"But I think an old fashioned cradle is so cunning, and, besides, the gentle motion gets the baby to go to sleep without crying for an hour," says the young mother.

"Yes, but that rocking motion is very injurious upon the child's brain. The constant swaying really damages its mind."

"Doctor!"

"Yes, madam?"

"When you were a little baby they still used cradles, didn't they?"

"Certainly. That was before science had determined so many of the—"

BILL HOUSE MEMBERSHIP 433

Reapportionment Measure Similar to Crumpacker Bill Adopted Last Session.

Washington, April 28.—The bill for the reapportionment of Representatives in Congress among the several States under the thirteenth census passed the House without a dissenting vote. Several efforts were made to amend it, but it went through as introduced.

The bill provides for 433 members instead of 391, as at present, and two additional members should Arizona and New Mexico become States. Under this bill these States make gains in the number of Representatives:

Alabama, 1; California, 3. Colorado, 1; Florida, 1; Georgia, 1; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 2; Louisiana, 1; Massachusetts, 2; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Montana, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Dakota, 1; Ohio, 1; Oklahoma, 3; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 4; Rhode Island, 1; South Dakota, 1; Utah, 1; West Virginia, 1; Texas, 2; Washington, 2.

The proposed size of the House is identical with that provided for in the Crumpacker bill passed by the House at the last session of Congress, but not acted upon by the Senate. The Houston bill, passed leave to the legislatures of the different States the power to reapportion the Congressional districts on the new population basis of one member for each 211,877 of inhabitants.

The two important amendments proposed and defeated after lengthy debate were to put the redistricting power in the hands of the Governors of States, when legislatures had failed to act; and to limit the House in the future to a membership of 540, leaving future reapportionments to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor. Both were denounced as Republican schemes.

Caleb Powers of Kentucky moved to amend the bill so as to prevent any State from having one district more than 20,000 greater in population than another. He said that in his State one district was 115,000 larger than another. This was defeated, 107 to 85. Then Mr. Powers followed with amendments for 50,000 and 75,000, they failed.

The Danger of Going Barefooted.

As the season is now approaching when all the children desire to go barefooted, it is well that they should be warned that this pleasure does not come without danger. Until recent years we attached little importance to ground itch, or toe-itch, so commonly seen among barefooted children who go about in the dew or other damp places. We now know ground itch is the initial symptom of hookworm disease and that it would not develop unless the soil had been polluted by sufferers from the disease. The myriads of eggs passing daily along with the excreta from their bodies develop into tiny microscopic worms too small to be seen. These, when allowed to come in contact with the skin, burrow through producing an attack of ground-itch. The truth of this assertion can be easily proved by making a poultice of polluted soil and applying it for a few hours to some part of the body. Always at the site of such a poultice there develops the ground-itch rash if there be a sufficient number of worms entering the skin.

Moreover, it is known that about fifty days after the attack of ground-itch the little worms that entered the skin will have found their way to the small intestine and there developed to a size sufficient for them to be easily seen with the naked eye. They are nearly one-half inch in length. The medicine given to get rid of them, by acting as a poison, causes them to be expelled from the body. By washing the stools through cheese cloth they may be collected.

The harm they produce is now well recognized to require discussion at this time. Suffices it to say that the blood is sapped, the body stunted, the vitality lowered. Thus, the life and happiness of those dearest to us may be blasted. It is now time every one should know what is meant by ground-itch, hookworm disease, polluted soil, and poor sanitary arrangements. Your State Board of Health will be glad to supply this information free to any one who will ask for it.

ENGLAND'S UNQUALIFIED APPROVAL

For This County's Proposed Arbitration Treaty Will Lead to Universal Peace.

London, April 28.—London's answer to President Taft's proposal for an arbitration agreement between England and America is made. At a huge gathering in Guildhall, the foremost men in England gave their unqualified approval of the proposal.

The meeting was presided over by Lord Mayor Sir Thomas Vesey Strong and Premier Asquith, Arthur J. Balfour and other leading statesmen taking part.

"I doubt whether Guildhall was ever used for a worthier purpose," Premier Asquith declared. "This peace meeting cannot be said to be due to prearrangement or the operation of the usual diplomatic apparatus. President Taft scattered the seed and it fell on ground prepared to receive it. Only a few months ago such an object as brought about this meeting, which is destined to become historic, might have been considered a dream. Now we all admit that it is within the domain of practical statesmanship."

The Premier expressed the hope that still greater things than the Anglo-American compact might follow the action of these two countries.

"While not wishing to preach or dictate to other nations," he said, "I am sure the Anglo-American agreement against war will be a long step toward the progress of humanity the world over. It is not too much to hope that this is the entering wedge to universal peace."

"This meeting records the most important victory in the relations between England and America. It is unnecessary for me to say that the proposed compact is without menace to the rest of mankind. It is not even an offensive and defensive alliance, but an agreement that simply rules out war over a vast area."

Other speakers, including Conservative Leader Balfour, followed the Premier, at the conclusion of which the Premier moved the following resolution which was adopted amid scenes of the greatest enthusiasm:

"That this meeting of citizens of London cordially welcomes the proposal of the President of the United States in favor of a general treaty of arbitration between that country and the British Empire and pledges its support to the principles of such a treaty as serving the highest interest of the two nations and as tending to promote the peace of the world."

In seconding the resolution Premier Balfour said he was convinced that public opinion in both England and America was ripe for such an agreement. To make and then break such an agreement, he said, would be a damaging blow to civilization for generations to come.
