

As Easy as a Moccasin

Foot muscles that rebel at being bound up in stiff shoe leather should never be forced. Feet that fret make work, fun, or even rest, impossible. If your feet are sensitive, go to our dealer in your town and ask to be shown made flexible—made with all the stiffness taken out. It has solved the shoe problem for thousands of women to whom new shoes are simon-pure torture. The sole is solid and tough, but it bends like a moccasin. The vamp is of kid, soft but tough as a board. You'll vote this shoe the most comfortable you ever slipped on. Style—all you care for. Wear—it's a Southern Girl and the Southern Girl shoe has a reputation in that line.

Made in all styles—slippers—pumps—lace and button boots.

SHORT PASSING EVENTS

SATURDAY.

"Joy riding" is now a very popular recreation in this city and every afternoon a large number of autos can be seen scotching around the main thoroughfares of the city. With a few more additions New Bern will have as many auto owners as any city in the State.

Again yesterday there were a large number of bales of cotton brought to this city and placed on sale on the local market. The high price that is being paid for the staple just at this time is quite an inducement to the farmers in this vicinity to bring the cotton they have stored away and sell it to the local dealers.

A contract has been let to Harris Hardware Company, of Washington, N. C., by the authorities of Morehead City to construct a water-work system for that town. The standpipe will be 120 feet high with a holding capacity of 12,000 gallons. The cost of the system, which is to be completed August 1st, will be $20,000.

His host of friends will be glad to learn that Sheriff Biddle who suffered a painful injury while at Red Springs a few days ago, has sufficiently recovered as to be able to return home. The sheriff informed the writer that he had a very narrow escape from having one of his lower limbs broken, which would have doubtless made him a cripple for the remainder of his life.

While in the city yesterday a citizen of Oriental informed the writer that an unusually large number of large sturgeon have been caught near that place during the past few weeks. Evidently the waters of Neuse river are full of these fish for several have recently been caught in this vicinity. The price obtained for these fish runs from $25 to $100, according to their size.

Doubtless the eclipse of the sun, which was scheduled for late yesterday afternoon, occurred on schedule time, but it was invisible in this city owing to the fact that heavy clouds overhung the sky all during the day. There will be only two eclipses during the year 1911, the next will be an annular eclipse of

COLDS BREED CATARRH

Her Terrible Experience Shows How Peruna Should Be in Every Home to Prevent Colds.

Mrs. C. E. Sage, 1211 Woodland Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes: "I feel it a duty to you and to others that may be afflicted like myself, to speak for Peruna." "My trouble first came after I was 17 years old. I suffered for eight or nine years ago a gathering in my head and a neuralgia. I suffered most all the time with my nose, ears and eyes badly affected. I was treated for the last two years. I think from your description of internal catarrh that I must have had that also. I suffered very severely. Nothing ever relieved me like Peruna. It keeps me from taking cold. With the exception of some colds, I am feeling perfectly cured. I am forty-six years old. I feel that words are inadequate to express my praise for Peruna."

Mrs. C. E. Sage.

The Earl and the Angler.
One of the earls of Minto had a kindly nature. One day a Hawick angler was throwing his line on the river near Minto when a tall gentleman came up to him and inquired what kind of sport he was having. The fisher replied that it was not very good and that he could do better if he were at the other side of the water, adding, "It g'e ye sixpence if ye'll carry me across." The bargain was struck, and the gentleman, getting the angler on his back, carried him through the water to the other side. True to his promise, the angler produced the sixpence, which he proffered to the stranger, who, however, smiled and remarked, "Give it to the first beggar you meet and tell him it is a present from the Earl of Minto."

Announcement.
I hereby do once announce myself a candidate, and may I now thank my many friends for past patronage. I now shall cut prices on all kinds of sawed shingles, a large stock on hand, must be sold by April 14th; will close out cheap as I expect to make some change in my business. You win and I lose.

TERRIBLE STRAIN RESULTED NOT AMISS

A Lenoir Lady, After Two Weeks Grinding Labor, Feels Better Than Ever.

Lenoir, N. C.—"I am not tired at all, and am stouter than I have ever been," writes Mrs. Kate Waters, of Lenoir, N. C., "although I have just finished a two weeks' wash. I lay my strength to Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken a lot of it and I can never praise it enough for what it has done for me. I can never thank you enough for the advice you gave me, to take Cardui, for since taking it I look so well and am stout as a mule."
You are urged to take Cardui, that gentle, vegetable tonic, for weak women. Its use will strengthen and build up your system, relieve or prevent headache, backache and the ailments of weak women. It will surely help you, as it has helped thousands of others, in the past 50 years.

The Nile or the Sky?
The large sped like an arrow over the water, leaving behind it a silver wake that soon was effaced. A few frothy bubbles breaking on the surface alone testified to the passage of the craft, already out of sight. The river banks, yellow and salmon colored, unrolled rapidly like papyrus bands between the double azure of the heavens and the water, these also in tone that the thin tongue of earth which separated them seemed a causeway built across an immense lake and made it difficult to decide whether the Nile reflected the sky or the sky reflected the Nile.—"One of Cleopatra's Nights," by Theophile Gautier.

MILLIONS IN NICKELS

1910 Coins Good As Any In Existence Not Counterfeits.

Washington, May 1.—Some lively joker in the Middle West caused the banks, the Treasury, the Secret Service and a lot of their folk a heap of trouble by spreading a story that the Government coined no nickel in 1910, and that every five cent piece in circulation bearing that date must therefore be a counterfeit.
The facts are that the mints clicked off 30,169,353 nickels, real and genuine, during 1910, and about $1,000,000 worth of those coins are in circulation. For the last two days the Mint Bureau and the Secret Service have been beset with calls for help from banks of the Middle West. Many of the genuine coins have been turned into Washington as counterfeits.

CANINE HUMOR.

More Marked in Mergals Than in Dogs With Pedigrees.
I generally find, writes a well known English scientist, that mongrel dogs when they happen to be sociable have a keen sense of humor. An aristocratic dog with a pedigree may have some inherited smartness, but has no originality. A common yellow dog with no ancestry to speak of, who has to gain his living by his wits, could give him cards and spades at his own tricks in two lessons.
Once I took into the house out of pity a mongrel yellow dog who insisted on installing himself at my doorstep and always came back, no matter how often he was chased away. I had at that time a pedigreed water spaniel, and I tried to teach him some tricks when I took him out along a quiet road at times. The yellow dog, who made friends with him, always came along and beat the water spaniel at his own tricks without training. Then he began to play tricks of his own on the spaniel. When he had a bone he looked out for his comrade, and when he saw him loping along he would lay the bone in his path and disappear. The spaniel always made for the bone, but the yellow dog, just as he was about to grab it, would dart from his hiding place and, seizing it, run off with it. This happened over and over again, but the high bred spaniel never tumbled to the joke.—New York World

The Way We Dance.
"When we were young we danced, and our parents did the same in their day, and our children are learning so that they may keep up the universal custom. Yes, it is universal, this dance recreation, although the dances differ as widely as human features and modes of dress," says a writer in the Hamburger Nachrichten, who has learned "from observation" that "the American men and women prefer the wild and bolsherois to the graceful. They have the quadrille from the French, the mazurka from Poland, the polka from the Alpine hills and the waltz and its music from Vienna, but they prefer their two steps and their cakewalk (sic)."

Off the Line.
"What became of Bots' educated goat?"
"He had to dispose of it."
"What was the trouble?"
"The neighbors thought the goat was learning too many human accomplishments, and there was a crisis when the animal began to take in washing."—Augusta Herald.

Japan's New Year Celebrations.
The New Year is ushered in amid great rejoicing in Japan. On the last day of the old year no one goes to bed, the bells ring all night long, and on New Year's morning the usual sweeping and dusting of rooms are pretermitted lest any good luck should be swept away. All the gateways are decorated with straw ropes, oranges and lobsters—the last, because of its crooked back, being regarded as the symbol of old age—and from Jan. 1 to 3, the "three chief days of the new year," the people regale themselves with "soul," a stew of rice cakes and greens boiled in fish gravy. The New Year holidays last until Jan. 10, winding up with a feast of return to labor.

Experience Teaches.
"I wonder what has happened to Mr. Green?" said Mrs. Brown to a lady friend. "He seems so dismal now, and he used to be a practical joker."
"Ah," was the response, "he proposed as a joke to his present wife. She accepted him, and he says he will never indulge in a joke again."

LET THE GOOD WORK GO ON.
We are advertising just as much to educate the public to the use of good pine lumber as to sell it ourselves. Therefore, at times, we need not dwell on the merits of our own timber but can safely leave that to the judgment of intelligent lumber buyers. Our experience with pine lumber enables us to speak with authority, and to offer a grade of goods absolutely without parallel in this section of the country.
