Individual Checking Accounts.

Just in the same manner that every business house must have a bank account, so every private individual should have one, as his standing in the community is thereby improved while he has the convenience of paying his bills by check, to say nothing of the safety of depositing his money in this bank instead of keeping it at home. We invite checking accounts in any amount.

AUTOMOBILE TURNS OVER

One Newspaper Man of New York Killed and His Companion Injured.

Canoonsburg, Pa., July 7th.—George Brown, aged 35, a newspaper man of New York, was killed, and Carl Palmer sporting editor of the Washington (Pa) Record, and C. Guthrie, chauffeur, were seriously injured when their automobile turned turtle near here. Brown's neck was broken.

No Room For Him.

Several relics of exceptional value and of unusual interest to archaeologists were discovered in a small town near Nuremberg, and as soon as the news reached him the director of the Nuremberg Historical museum went to the village and introduced himself to the mayor, saying:

"I am in charge of the museum at Nuremberg, and I'd like to—"

"You're too late, my good sir," interrupted the mayor. "We've already got here several merry-go-rounds, a bearded woman, a theatrical company composed of apes, a troupe of trained dogs and a band of Hungarian musicians, so you can readily see that we've got no room for your museum."

And with these words he nodded to the director and went away.

Greenland's Exclusiveness.

Greenland, with its mountains, is very exclusive, and so far from inviting visitors, it even makes it inconvenient for tourists to land on the little bit of occasionally green land that surrounds its great heart of perpetual ice. Permission must be had from Denmark. Denmark is, indeed, very careful and conservative in the management of Greenland affairs. The trade there is monopolized by the state, and only government vessels are welcomed to Greenland waters. This is to protect the Greenlanders from unscrupulous merchants. The state also fixes both the price they shall pay for food and the price they shall sell at.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Hazel Cline, 7 years old, drank four ounces of whiskey and died at Keedysville.

F. S. Rexford, 615 New York Life Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., says, "I had a severe attack of a cold which settled in my back and kidneys and I was in great pain from my trouble. A friend recommended Foley Kidney Pills and I used two bottles of them and they have done me a world of good."—F. S. Duffy.

Chickweed.

Like the plantain, which the Indians called "the white man's foot" because it sprang up wherever the whites penetrated, the chickweed seems to follow the track of the white colonist, and in New Zealand the Maoris call it "the mark of the paleface." The little flower is a sort of barometer. It opens when the weather is coming, remains closed if rain is in the air.

HAPPIEST GIRL IN LINCOLN.

A Lincoln, Neb., girl writes, "I had been ailing for some time with chronic constipation and stomach trouble. I began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and in three days I was able to be up and get better right along. I am the proudest girl in Lincoln to find such a good medicine." For sale by all dealers.

Home Only in Name.

A young teacher who has substituted in the lower districts of the city tells this little story of one of her pupils:

There had been an entertainment at the school at which the child had received a picture from the principal. The next day the little girl appeared with the picture under her arm. Quite regretfully she laid it upon the teacher's desk.

"Mom says thank you for the picture," she imparted, drawing up her ragged little form. "but we ain't got no wall to hang it on."

"No wall?" cried the horrified young substitute. "Why, Molly, what do you mean?"

"There's five families of us in our room," Molly explained carelessly, "and we live in the middle."—Philadelphia Times.

Anachronisms of the Future.

An article in Popular Mechanics suggests some historical absurdities which future authors may attempt to perpetrate on the gullible public. The illustrations show Joan of Arc at her sewing machine, an X ray examination of a civil war soldier, the sinking of the Maine by bombs dropped from an aeroplane, George Washington posing for his photograph, etc. With the lapse of centuries historical boundaries are apt to become hazy, and these anachronisms which appear impossible now may pass unchallenged later.

OLD SOLDIER TORTURED.

"For years I suffered unparelleled torture from indigestion, constipation and liver trouble," wrote A. K. Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. King's New Life Pills fixed me all right. They're simply great. Try them for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c at all dealers."
